HARRISBURG, PA

THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 1. 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY Market Days at the New Market Hous-Tuesday morning, from 5 to 10.

Friday morning, from 5 to 10. Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8 nov16-d1m

THE Lebanon Valley Bank, at Lebanon, is to become a National Bank.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisements of Wm. M. Gray & Co., of the new grocery, at Houser & Lochman's old stand.

An important notice to the officers and stockholders of the Harrisburg Bank is published in our columns, by David Fleming,

THE millinery establishment of Mrs. Steinman, in Alexandria, Huntingdon county, was entered on Sunday, the 13th inst., during the absence of the lady at church, and some $800 in money, and a quantity of goods stolen

THE undivided half of the brick hotel corner of Walnut and Sixth streets, and the undivided half of a valuable piece of ground, with brick yard and apparatus, below the city, will be sold to-morrow, at the Court House, as the property of Michael Burke,

PERSONAL. - Lieut. John A. Winebrenner dropped into our sanctum, yesterday.— The Lieut, has been engaged in the ordnance department at Washington, but has been transferred to Pittsburg, to which place he is en route. He looks well, and is highly pleased with the service.

THEATRE! -Three pieces are on the bill for this evening, viz: Planche's comedy of Faint Heart Never Won Fair Lady; Shakspeare's comedy of Katharine and Petruchio, and the musical burletta of Jenny Lind. This is a splendid comedy bill. Mr. J. B. Roberts will appear in two characters. Go to the Theatre to-night, if you would "laugh and grow fat."

CAPT. GRANGER, Chief Commissary of Subsistence of the Department of the Susque-hanna, will receive proposals until 2 o'clock on Monday next, for furnishing the department one thousand barrels of extra family flour, and five hundred barrels superfine flour. No proposals will be considered where either of the parties is a member of Congress, officer, agent or employee of the Government, or is not known to be loyal to it. See adver-

RAYLEGAD ACCIDENT-One Man Killed and Three Boys Seriously Injured .- On Tuesday, as the accommodation train from this city reached Baltimore, the cars ran into the depot at a greater speed than usual, and a collision was the result. A man aged 60, named Michael Rough, of Bolton, was killed, and three news boys were seriously injured. One of them, Peter Sprenkle, of Goldsboro, had a thigh bone fractured, and his younger brother David had an ankle broken, besides sustaining other severe injuries; a third, named James Mills, was badly hurt, but had no bones broken. They were all sent to the Baltimore

A HOMICIDE IN LEBANON COUNTY .- On Friday last Wm. Wetzle entered the building at the Union Water Works, in North Annville township, where Jacob Peffley was at work, and after an interchange of a few words, deliberately drew a pistol and shot Peffley in the right breast, causing death in a few minutes. The reason given by Wetzle for committing the deed is that while he was in the army, Peffley seduced his wife. Wetzle was in the Pennsylvania Reserves, where he served three years, and since his return he has been employed in boating for Mr. David M. Kar-

DEATH OF AN EDITOR. - Enos Prizer, one of the editors of the Bucks County Intelligencer, ume makes good the claim which is set forth died on Friday last. On Wednesday he spent on the title-page. The revision which the old only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg. the day in the business office of the paper, though suffering much from weakness; and on Thursday, in the absence of his partner, he continued to attend to the necessary duties of his position. Thursday evening was spent in cheerful conversation with a friend, and he retired to bed with the expectation of going to the office in the morning. At two o'clock he was in his usual state, but at five he was tound to be almost insensible, and in a dying condition. He expired about eight o'clock on Friday morning.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE PENNSYLVANIA R. R. DEPOT.—Some very extensive improvements have been made in the internal arrangements of the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot, among the most needed of which are the new arrange ments in the restaurant and dining rooms attached to that building, Mr. D. H. Hutchf-son, proprietor of the U.S. Hotel, has taken charge of the depot restaurant, and has already affected a great change and improvement in the entire establishment. The two immense rooms devoted to this business, have been renovated and refitted in handsome style while the other reforms inaugurated by the new lessee, render the establishment not only the best of the kind between Philadelphia and Pittsburg, but are destined to make it a popular resort among our own citizens, for the entertainment of the inner man. Hutchison is one of those good men who impart goodness to all they touch. He has our best wishes for success in his new enterprise.

THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILBOAD .- The improvements made on this road within the past two years are probably greater than those of any other line of a similar length. During that time the company has entirely rebuilt the road from Baltimore to Sunbury, renewing the rails and cross-ties, and ballasting with broken stone, and the entire road is represented as being in a much better condition than at any former period of its existence. A double track has been laid between Baltimore and Cockeysville, which is now in daily use, and which is being rapidly extended to the borough of York, fifty-seven miles from Baltim, re, the grading and ballasting being nearly completed, and the laying of the rails already commenced. The double track from Dauphin to Sunbury, forty-five miles, rendered necessary by the recent opening of the Philadel-phia and Eric Railroad, is also under contract, and is being oushed towards completion as rapidly as a work of such magnitude can be

The rebel raids upon this railway in 1863 and 1864 destroyed thirty-four bridges, all of which have been rebuilt in the most substantial manner. The bridge over the Susquehanna, at Dauphin, three-fourths of a mile in length, is at present being entirely renewed with a superstructure of the most approved kind, and nearly all the timber bridges on the kind, and nearly all the timber bridges on the road have been replaced by permanent struc-tures of iron and stone. The improvements made by the company during the past year have been indeed very extensive, and yet all has been done so quietly as to attract but little attention.

An enrollment of our citizens is now being made, in compliance with the militia law recently passed by our Legislature.

THE copperheads of Mifflintown did.not close their places of business on Thanksgiving day. They say they have nothing to be thankiul for.

Notice.—A special meeting of Advance Lodge of I. O. of G. T., will be held at their hall this (Thursday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. Every member is requested to be present. By order.

PRESENTATION TO A PATRIOT.—The Rev. J. Walker Jackson was the recipient, last evening, of a magnificent pair of boots, the best of John Edwards' make. The presentation was made by Sheriff Jacob Shell, and was at once as well a surprise as a most acceptable dona-

ARREST OF ROWDIES.—Last evening several 'roughs' were arrested for a riotous assault and battery upon a railroad conductor of one of the eastern trains. They gave the names of James Coburn, John O'Brien, Edward Shea, Morris Murphy, Michael Downes, and Charles. King. After a hearing before His Honor, the Mayor, the whole party was committed to prison, in default of bail. P. S. We learn, before going to press, that Coburn has been released upon bail—Mr. J.

B. Boyd going his security. Police Affairs—Before the Mayor.—John Skell and Julia Holly, a pair of indecent vagrants, were sent to Fort Simmons for a period of ten days. Edward Farley, a suspicious character, was sent out of the city, with orders not to return. Ann Baker and Eliza Perry, (colored,) for disorderly conduct on the streets, were fined, and subsequently discharged.

Sarah Douglas, drunk and disorderly, was fined and discharged.

Robert Smith and A. S. Good, disorderly soldiers, were handed over to the Provost EMANCIPATION. -The lecture of Rev John Walker Jackson, delivered in the South Street Church, last night, for the benefit of the Wesleyan congregation of our colored population, is said to have been a grand effort, and added materially to the reputation of the Reverend gentleman, as a champion of freedom. A large audience was present, and the proceeds amounted to a handsome sum. At the conclusion of the lecture, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by those in attendance:

Resolved, That we have listened with much interest to the very able and eloquent address of the Rev. J. Walker Jackson, and we hereby tender him our most sincere and heartfelt thanks. Resolved, That in the Rev. J. Walker Jackson, we recognize a man whose principles should endear him to all who love liberty, and as one whom we, a portion of "the oppressed of this country, shall ever admire and esteem as a champion of freedom and right.

Business Hours. -- Inconversation lately with an old and retired business man, we were impressed with one observation he made. It was sage-like and philosophic, and deserves to be repeated. Said he: Many men esteem their own business hours as more important than their neighbors, and in the selfishness thus cultivated, actually do great harm to the convenience if not the prosperity of a whole community. There is truth in this, which can easily be illustrated. For instance: Our banking houses are supposed to do business between 9 A. M. and 3 P. M. Six hours out of the twenty-four are believed to be set apart for the banking business of each community. This is a mistake, as most heavy business men, with the selfishness to which we refer, do their banking between 2 and 3 o'clock, P M., instead of between 9 A. M. and 3 o'clock, r. M. There is not a banking house clerk in the Union, but will testify to these facts. Indeed, more business is often transacted during the last half, than all the six hours devoted to banking. If business men would reform their dilatory habits, it would show itself in more prosperity. AN AMERICAN DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.—By NOAH WEBSTER, LL. D.— Thoroughly revised, and greatly enlarged and improved, by Chauncey A. Goodrich, LL. D., etc., and Noah Porter, D. D., etc., Springfield, Mass.: G. & C. Merriam. Royal 4 to.

ways than one, in this connection, on their

pp. lxxii., 1768. Beyond cavil, this portly and handsome voledition has undergone is manifestly a most thorough one, extending to every department of the work, and to its minutest details. The enlargement it has received is very considerable, the size of the page having been increased, and more than eighty pages added to the num-ber contained in the previous or "Pictorial" edition. The improvements are not only really such, but they are so many and so great that they amount to a complete remodeling of the

We are amazed at the vastness of the vocabulary, which embraces upwards of one hun-dred and fourteen thousand words, being some ten thousand more, it is claimed, than any other word-book of the language. Such unexampled fullness would be apt to excite a suspicion that a deliberately adopted system of crimping had been carried on within the tempting domains of the natural sciences, to furnish recruits for this enormous army of vocables. But we do not find, upon a pretty carefull examination, that many terms of this sort have been admitted which are not fairly entitled to a place in a popular lexicon.

In the matter of definition, we can unqualifieldy commend the principles by which the editor and his coadjutors appear to have been guided, notwithstanding an occasional failure to carry out these principles with entire consistency. The crying fault of mistaking dif-ferent applications of a meaning of a word for essentially different significations—the head and front of Dr. Webster's offending as a definer, and not of Dr. Webster only, but of almost all other lexicographers—has generally been avoided in this edition. The philosophical analysis, the orderly arrangement of meanings, the simplicity, comprehensiveness and precision of statement, the freedom from prejudice, crotchets and dogmatism, the good taste and good sense, which characterize this portion of the work, are deserving of the ful-lest recognition and the highest praise. In all the essential points of a good dictionary—in the amplitude and selectness of its vocabulary, in the fullness and perspicacity of its definitions, in its orthoepy and (cum grano salis) its orthography, in its new and trustworthy etymologies, in the elaborate, but not too learned treatises of its Introduction, in its carefully prepared and valuable appendicesbriefly, in its general accuracy, completeness and practical utility—the work is one which none who read or write can henceforward afford to dispense with.—Atlantic Monthly.

of our eminent clergymen:
HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.
C.A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of colds. I have round need, most effectually.
