

HARRISBURG, PA. FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 2, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Market Days at the New Market House Tuesday morning, from 5 to 10. Friday morning, from 5 to 10. Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8. nov16-d1m

A wedding transpired in Pittsburg, Pa., on Sunday week, and the bride ran away with another man two days after.

CLOSED. - The recruiting offices of the regular army have been temporarily closed, and the officers ordered to their regiments. Others may probably be sent here to recruit.

A STATED MEETING of the Washington Hose Company will be held at the Hose House this (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock. All members are requested to be punctual in attendance, as business of very great importance will be presented to their consideration.

VETERANS .- Last night about one hundred soldiers who had been transferred to the In-valid Corps, arrived here, from some of the hospitals. They were met at the depot by the Veteran Drum Corps, and marched to the barracks on Second street.

SINCE the recent drafts, there has been an increased demand for substitutes. Those dealers in human flesh, the Substitute Brokers, are driving a flourishing business, and prices have advanced considerably. As soon as the present demand is supplied, substitutes will again become cheap.

AT HOME.-Capt. Levi Weaver, of Co. G. 55th Penn'a Vols., reached home, in this city, on Wednesday, having been discharged, after on wednessay, having been discharged, alter faithfully serving his country three years. Capt. W. has been a noble officer, never fal-tering, but always among the foremost on the battle-field. He has numerons friends here, who extend him a hearty welcome home.

Gone Home -Lieut. W. W. Gibson, cently acting Post Provost Marshal in this city, has been "mustered out," his term of service having expired. He left yesterday afternoon, for his home in New Castle, Law-rence county. Lieut. Gibson is a gentleman, in every sense of the term, and during his sojourn in this city he gained hosts of friends. He filled various positions, and discharged his duty faithfully.

RICHARD III. — To-night Mr. J. B. Roberts takes a benefit at the Theatre, on which occasion he will appear as RICHARD III, in Shak-speare's grand historical tragedy of that name. The whole Star Tronpe is cast in the bill-Mr. Meeker appearing in two characters, and the other members of the company in various parts-Miss Nellie Sprague as Queen Eliza-beth, and Miss Fanny Denham as Lady Anne, etc. In order to obtain reserved seats; it is necessary to purchase tickets at Bannvart's drug store, at an early hour.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER.—Mr. Louis E. To-mer, a soldier belonging to the Pittsburg Rifles (Capt. Hall,) died, this morning, at the house of Mrs. Freaner, on Mulberry street.— His disease was chronic diarthesa. Deceased Was an exemplear promote more added was an exemplary young man, and a brave soldier. Since June last, he was chief clerk under Capt. Hall, at Camp Curtin, during which time he won a large circle of friends in our midst. His remains left here this afternoon, en route for his late home, near Pittsburg

Assault UPON & Soldier. —This morning we saw an old soldier who had just been mus-tered out of service, after serving his country faithfully during a period of three years. Both eyes were black, and his face and nose cut and scarred. The old veteran was dis-charged and paid off yesterday, and was about to leave the city on one of the night trains for the West. When at or near the dopot, he was siezed by two young men who threw him upon the railroad track and then rifled his pockets. Fortunately the ruffians did not obtain much booty for their villainous assault, as the soldier had placed nearly all his money in the hands of a friend for safe keepmoney in the hands of a friend for sate keep-ing. This outrage cost the soldier great suf-fering, and did not benefit the rowdies who injured him. It is hoped they may be brought to justice and punished for their evil doing.

THOMAS SMELKEE, of Germany Valley, Huntingdon county, had both his legs frac-tured, recently, by the upsetting of a load of clover seed upon him.

The females of some of the Indian tribes, in order to keep silence, fill their mouth with water. Our women fill theirs with tea, but the practice is not favorable to silence.

Cuild BURNED. - A child named Tillie Gibson, of Duncansville, Blair county, was so badly burned on Friday last, by her clothes taking fire, that she died on Saturday morning. THE term "bushwacker," often applied to the mirderous operations of the Southern guerfillas, meant originally to pull a boat along by laying hold of the bushes on the shore

A WELSH farmer, named Evan Davis, while under the influence of liquor, lay down in an alley in Johnstown, on Tuesday night of last week, and was so badly frozen that he died the next morning.

The display in the windows of our confectioneries and notion stores reminds us that Christmas is coming, and that old Kriss Kringle will shortly pay his annual visit to our homes, to make glad the hearts of the little ones. Happy juveniles!

CHILD BUBNED TO DEATH .-- Last evening a child belonging to a family named Reese, of this city, was burned to death. It was seated at a table, and during the temporary absence of its mother, the little one upset a lamp, the contents of which took fire, and, communicating to the child's clothing, burned it so ter-ribly that when discovered one of its arms was burned to a crisp. The little sufferer lived but a short time after the accident occurred.

LETTERS TO PEISONERS.-Letters to prisoners in the South should not exceed two pages of letter paper. Direct to prisoner, giving name, rank, company, regiment, and (if pos-sible) place and date of capture. Put this on the envelope and also at the head of the letter.

Do not seal the envelope. Enclose lotter and envelope (with ten cents in silver to pay rebel postage) to Lieutenant Col. John E. Mulford, Assistant Agent for Exchange, Fortress Monroe. •

THE RECEPTION OF RETURNING VOLUNTEERS. -Our attention has again been directed to a fact to which we have frequently heretofore al-luded, namely, that the arrangements for the accommodation of returning volunteers, after having faithfully served their time in the field, are very deficient at this post. When a regiment reaches Camp Curtin, the first deficiency experienced, is a lack of barracks accommodation. Regiments leaving the field, on their way home to be mustered out, aban-don their camp acquinness acacimg stardon their camp equippage, cooking utensils, &c., expecting, when they reach the post where such muster out is to be made, that arrangements have been made to afford them at least ordinary quarters and facilities for cooking rations. But in all this, the returning soldier, when he reaches Camp Curtin, is most wofully disappointed. The Commissary at that camp is prepared to issue rations in kind, but the soldier having no facilities to cook them, must eat them raw or content himself on an empty stomach. Now, we submit in all candor, whether this is just or humane. Camp Curtin should be furnished with at least ordinary barracks accommodations, where the private soldier could find shelter and accommodation to cook his rations. Officers can afford to seek a hotel, but the men, in seven cases out of ten, cannot do this, and are therefore subject to great hardships and injustice. Added to this fact, returning soldiers are frequently if not generally mustered out of service days before they are paid off. This adds to the burdens and the injustice suffered by the heroes, because as soon as men are mustered out all pay and rations stop. Thereafter the men must support themselves at their own expense.

-Our attention has been called to this state -Our attention has been cannot to this state of affairs by the condition of the men belong-ing to the 76th Regiment P. V., who have been, or were, lingering at this post for sev-eral days, without accommodation being afforded them at Camp Cartin, mustered out of coving while at the same time ther of service, while, at the same time, they have not been paid off, and are thus turned penniless on the streets of Harrisburg. Many of these poor fellows were wandering hungry and shelterless through our streets very your excellent Troches. lately. They imagine that the State authori. I consider them years such is not the fact. Gov. Curtin, on the contrary, has been persistent in his efforts to secure a change in this business, and to inaugurate a system by which the accommodation of the returning heroes, at this post, would be at once complete and just. As it is, His Excellency is powerless. Won't the War De-partment, if only on the score of humanity, do something to relieve these evils? It would cost very little to treat the soldier with decent fairness, while it is only fair that he should first be paid off, and then mustered out. The

C.A. BANNVABT-Dear Sir; I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Přesbyterian Church.

"THE THEATRE was thronged last evening with the elite of the city to witness Miss Fanny B. Price's impersonation of the character of Fanchon, in which she has achieved a wide spread reputation. Curiosity was on tip toe to see how one who had, during the past week, grasped and mastered, with such power and dazzling brilliancy, the most tumultuous passions in the higher walks of tragedy, could adapt herself to the requirements of such a character as Fanchon. The transition, however, was complete, and perfect-we found her the intellectual, pure-hearten whild like and lovely cricket. From the moment she made her entrance till the of passion from cloud to sunshine, from storm to stillness. In her scene with the rabble at St. Andoche's Festival she rose to the sublime. The great charm in her acting, however, is the tender and holy simplicity with which she envelopes the character. Every man, woman and child in the city should see Miss Price as
