SOLDIERS READ!

SOLDIERS READ!

The following letter from a soldier, in reference to the efficacy and powerful restorative qualitities of DR. Mo-BRIDE'S KING OF PAIN, speaks for itself:

NEWVILLE, CUMBERLAND COUNTY, Sept. 14, 1884.

Messys. S. A. Kunkel & Bro., druggists, Harrisburg, Pa.: GENTS:—I would inform you that I received the bottles of McBride's Great Pain Killer, and enclosed please ind five dollars more, for which send me five bottles additional to-morrow. I leave for camp to-morrow. Let me know whether you can supply me with it in the army. I am in Company H, 202d kegiment P. V. I have been in very bad health for upwards of four years, and two of the one-dollar bottles have cured me completely, and have made me feel like a man. Besides, I have cured a number of my comrades of various diseases incident to campilife, and can recommend it to be the best medicine the soldier can provide for himself.

Yours respectfully, JOS. E. WHITE, AL OMNEL & BRO.

A HOME CERTIFICATE. The following certificate is from a well-known citizen

Harrisburg: HARRISBURG, Aug. 30, 1864.
To THE PUBLIC:—It gives me great pleasure to recommend to the public the medicine propared by DR. J. J. MOBRIDE, which he calls the "KING OF PAIN." I was McBRIDE, which he calls the "KING OF PAIN." I was induced to use it as an external remedy for a bruise, which it relieved immediately, and subsequently cured entirely. Its success induced me to use it internally for Diarrhes, with which I was afflicted in a chronic form for nearly eighteen months, and to such an extent that my kidneys were seriously deranged. The medicine has cured me, and certainly that is saying a great deal in its favor, when I reflect how many other remedies I tried without experiencing anything but temporary relief. For my part, I shall always keep a supply of it in my house, believing as I do that it is a most invaluable family medicine.

DANIER E. WILT.

The unexampled sale of this medicine proves it to be the most wonderful discovery of the age in the medica art.

The undersigned are the sole agents for the State, and will supply it wholesale and retail.

Weakness of the Back, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulyssee, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brillant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to ectasy the living lyre, may call with fed confidence.

MARRIAGE. Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

ORGANIO WEAKNESS

mmediately cured, and full vigor restored.
This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise, The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspopsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, convunption, decay and death. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, &c.

Manyally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the ovils produced.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from a vii companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage inpossible, and destroys both mind and body, skouldapply immediately.

Whatally that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and onlyments of life, by the consequence of doviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating YOUNG MEN

MARRIAGE.

Reflec that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and fixed with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of snother becomes blighted with our own. DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure fluds he has imbited the seeds of this painful disease, too often happens that an illitimed sense of shame or the dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignormat and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, flich his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and tu despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his gailing disappointment, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Morcury, fustion the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head. I hroat, Nose, Skin, etc., progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveler returns.

INDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS

The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the Stan, Clipper, and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and ruepousl bility, is a rufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

LIQUID RENNET.

IQUID RENNET yields with milk the most luscious of all deserts for the table; the lightest and most grateful diet for invalids and children. Milk contains every element of the bodily constitution; when coagulated with rennet it is always light and easy of digestion, and supports the system with the least possible excitement. When still greater nutritive power is desired cream and surar may be added. A teaspoonfti convert
