SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 3, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY

Market Days at the New Market House Tuesday morning, from 5 to 10. Friday morning, from 5 to 10.

Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8

is only three weeks off.

We learn that a movement is on foot to hold a sanitary fair in this city, at an early

An interesting exhibition was given at Mrs. Dixon's Seminary, last evening, by the pupils of the institution.

There was no apparent change in the prices of marketing this morning. One thing is certain—the figures were high enough in every instance.

The alarm of fire, last evening, was caused by the burning of a small building in Tanner's Alley. The flames were extinguished before the engines arrived.

THE Commissioners of Northumberland county have decided to erect a new court house. The borough of Sunbury is to pay $5,000 towards defraying the expenses.

THE Good Will Hose Company of Carlisle intends holding a holiday fair, commencing on the 24th inst., and continuing until the 2d of January—for the purpose of raising means to liquidate the debt of the company.

THERE was not a pleasant countenance to be seen at market, this morning. How could there be, when the mud was ankle deep, over-running shoe-tops, &c.? The Square does not present an inviting appearance just ECLIPSES .- Next year there will be four eclipses—two of the sun and two of the moon.

The eclipses of the sun occur on the 25th of April and the 15th of October; those of the moon on the 11th of April and the 3d of October.

A MEAN COUNTERFEIT. - A rascally counter feit has just made its appearance. It is a gen-uine one dollar note on the Farmers' Bank of Lancaster altered to a ten, through the mediam of paste and scissors. Somebody will be cheated by them.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist Church, corner of Second and Pine streets, to-morrow morning at 101 o'clock and at 7 in the evening. The pulpit will be filled by Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Lewisburg, Pa. The public are invited to attend.

The person who took, in mistake, an um brella labelled on tag inside with name of owner, "Mrs. Kerr's," from Mrs. Dixon's school exhibition, last evening, will please re-turn the same accordingly. An umbrella with owner's name inside, awaits call at same place

FIRE IN MIDDLETOWN.-A frame house be longing to Messrs. McCrery, of Middletown, and occupied by two families, named Copeland and Medler, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon. The occupants lost all there furniture, and are left in destitute circumstances

THE ROBBERS! - To-night Schiller's great romantic tragedy called THE ROBERS, or The Parricide's Doom, will be performed at Rouse's Theatre. This thrilling play will attract a large audience. Mr. J. B. Roberts, the tragedian, will appear. This is the last night of the present engagement of Mr. Roberts. The entire Star Combination Company will appear

The Gun and Rod.—The Sunbury papers state that Adjutant Clapp, late of the Provost Marshal's office in this city, was out on a sporting excursion, and gives the following as the result: Two days' shooting—fifty-eight partridges bagged; one days' fishing—eleven partridges bagged; one days' fishing—eleven partridges bagged; one days' fishing—eleven when the result: Two days' shooting—fifty-eight partridges bagged; one days' fishing—eleven when the correction. A HARRISBURG SOLDIEB SHOT WHILE ARREST-ING DESERTERS.—Just before going to press, we learn that James Irvin, of Co. E, 201st Pa. Vols., was mortally wounded, while attem pting to arrest deserters, at or near Scranton. His body will be sent home, to this city, where his family resides, We have been unable to obtain any further particulars of the sad affa ir, in time for to day's paper.

An ord mance has been passed in Philadel-AN ORD INANCE has been passed in Finadel-phia, prohibiting the merchants from placing goods of a y description, or boxes of the pavements, or extending signs across the same. The pavements are not to be occupied in any manner, by anything belonging to a place of buisness. The merchants grumble, but the people generally are rejoicing. The ordinance went into effect several days ago. Such an ordinance is needed in Harrisburg.

MERIT RECOGNIZED .-- Last week Sergeant Jacob Cart received from the Secretary of War a beautiful testimonial of the gallantry displayed by him in the capture of a rebel flag at the first Fredericksburg battle. The medal is made of bronze, nearly the shape of a star, and is suspended from an eagle's mouth. On the reverse side is an inscription giving the date of the exploit with the statement of its recognition by Congress. - Carlisle

A LAUDABLE UNDERTAKING.—We are pleased to find that a project is on foot to purchase and forward to each company of the 201st Regiment a barrel of sauer kraut. The money is to be raised by subscription and placed in the hands of Mr. Anthony King for disburse-ment. All persons wishing to donate money or cabbage, can do so by leaving it at Mr. King's hardware store, corner Third and Market streets, or present it to the subscription agents, who will call upon them. Mr. King will give any further information that may be desired. may be desired.

SHOOTING AFFBAX AT UNIONTOWN, PA .- A Rebel Knocked Down by a Sheriff—The Officer Shot by the Minion of Jeff. Davis.—On Friday of last week a man named Dr. Sheppard, hailing from Fairmount, Virginia, who has been stopping in Uniontown for a short time, went into McClelland's grocery store, where Sheriff Eli Cope and a number of other gentlemen were conversing, and being a blatant secessionist, began to give vent to his treasonable sentiments, at the same time shouting for Jeff. Davis. Sheriff Cope, who is Assistant Provost Marshal, endeavored to quiet Sheppard, chiding him at the same time for his re-bellious expressions, whereupon he became more boisterous than ever. Mr. Cope finding t impossible to calm the rebel, struck him a blow, felling him to the floor. Sheppard drew a revolver and fired twice, the first ball strik-ing Mr. Cope in the right breast, inflicting a alight flesh wound, and the second entering the thigh, producing an univ wound. the thigh, producing an ugly wound.

SPORTSMEN IN THE FIELD. -Our sportsmen, the crack shots of the city, are having a good time among the birds. The feathery tribes are pursued with as much ardor as are the rebels, and bag after bag of the choicest game are daily brought into the city. A few days since a party of four left the city, for a few bayer the city. High party Myrd Power for the city of the cit hours' shooting. His honor, Mayor Roumfort, was one of the party, and from what we heard of the result of the hunt, the Mayor beat the ntire crowd handsomely, shooting more birds than any two of his companions. We have always understood that the Mayor was a good shot, but in these days of "sharp shooters," we imagined that men of his age were a little short in their sight. It seems, however that the old hunters are as good, if not better than men less in years and better in sight.

CHRISTMAS comes on Sunday, this year, and Horse Three Shot.-The following, from the Chambersburg Repository, gives an account of the manner in which rebel thieves are to be treated in Franklin county. The time is past for permitting rebels to run at large and plunder loyal people. Let Union bullets teach those thieves a wholesome lesson. and put an end to their plundering operations.

The Repository says:
On Friday week a horse belonging to Mr Martin Heintzelman was stolen from the hitching-post at Wingert's store in Fayette-ville. Suspicion attached to John Myers, who was in town that evening, and the suspicions were confirmed when Myers and his brother William—both residing in the South Mountain—were in Hagerstown the next morning, and the stolen horse was sold by William. On Friday last the two brothers re-turned to Fayetteville, both riding and armed, and when confronted by Mr. Heintzelman they asked two days to prove their innocence, and proposed to leave their horses there until they did so; but soon after they were seen trying to get out their horses to get away, and when the citizens showed a determination to arrest them, they ran across the fields towards Mr. John Crawford's. Captain Funk got four armed men and pursued them. He soon overtook them nearly a mile from town, and caught William; but John refused to stop when called upon to do so, and he was shot, the ball entering his back under the left shoulder and passing through the lungs and out at the right breast. He was carried back to Fayetteville, where he now lies in a very critical condition, and his brother William is in prison awaiting his trial. The people of the county are about prepared to save our courts the trouble of disposing of horse-thieves. They are either rebels or in collusion with rebels, and their villainous work will be arrested

> A CARD. OFFICE SUBSISTENCE DEPARTMENT, )

Camp Curtin, Dec. 3, 1864. Editor Telegraph:—My attention has been called to an article in your last issue, entitled "The Reception of Returning Volunteers." Your informant is in error when he states that "The Commissary at that camp is prepared to issue rations in kind, but the soldier, having no facilities to cook them, must eat them raw, or content himself on an empty stomach." This Department is prepared to cook rations, and has been accustomed to issue cooked rations to all soldiers desiring them. On the arrival in camp of the 76th regiment, P. V., preparations were immeregiment, r. v., preparations were immediately made to cook rations for them, but before they could be cooked, I was informed the soldiers had left the camp for the city. That they were not fed here is not the fault of this Department. Please make this correction.
Yours, &c., J. A. KNOWLES,

Commissary of Subsistence.

PAY OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Dec. 2, 1864.
Mr. Bergner:—In the Telegraph of this evening, in an article headed "The reception of returning volunteers," your "local" makes the assertion that regiments are frequently mustered out days before they are paid off, implying that the delay is in the Pay Depart-

Such is not the case. Since I have been in charge of this office, now nearly ten months, no regiment has been delayed as much as a day in payment.

As regards the 76th—the case in point—

BUSINESS ITEMS.

THE HARMONIC SOCIETY has resumed active operations for the season. At the large and pleasant meeting last Monday evening it was fully organized. D. A. Kepner, Esq., was elected President, vice F. A. Awl, (absent,) and Prof. Page was elected Conductor. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 6th, in the usual place.

AT THE JONES HOUSE FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY. -Prof. Sibbet, of the city of New York, would inform the citizens of Harrisburg, that he has opened reception rooms at the Jones House for a few days, where he can be consulted for all disases of the scalp and hair, and all other diseased conditions of the body which either directly or indirectly affect the growth of the hair. Many persons, when their hair becomes thin and diseased, and prematurely gray, resort to that compound known as lac sulphur and sugar of lead, to restore its color and promote its health. Others again resort to alcohol and castor oil as a tonic for the hair. The result is, that in the end, the hair is not only not improved, but often absolutely injured by such treatment. The only sure method of restoring the hair is to give back to the glands of the scalp that vigor which is always absent when the hair rapidly falls off and becomes thin and diseased

Examinations free.

The most reliable references given. I can be consulted from 9 to 12, and from 2 to 9

We would add to the above that our exchanges fully endorse the Professor's method of restoring the hair.

MAYER'S MILLINERY GOODS. O, but the weather is getting cold. I can scarcely draw my breath;
If I don't get furs with my silver and gold,
I will surely be frozen to death.

I must buy some nubias and hoods. As thick as a feather bed; Some plain and embroidered woollen goods To cover my shoulders and head. Good gloves for the hands, and veils for my

And the best bonnet trimmings about; So I'll go to Mayer's—yes, that's the place, For they say he is bound to sell out.

He has ladies' cloaks and bonnets and hats. And breakfasting capes and veils, And knit woollen hoods, as thick as door mats And then he makes very cheap sales.

If you want perfumery, rich and rare, Or handkerchiefs, tidy and neat, Or under garments of linen to wear, Go to Mayer's on Market street.

Between River alley and Front, The sign hangs over the door; Go to Mayer's, because, if you don't, You'll rue it a thousand times o'er.
