HARRISBURG, PA. TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 6, 1864.

Dr. Smith Fuller Elected.

We are gratified to announce the fact that Dr. SMITH FULLER, the Union candidate in the Twenty-first Congressional District, has been legally elected to Congress by a majority of 15. The returns from the three counties composing the District have been carefully examined by two competent gentlemen, and there can be no doubt of the result. The soldiers' vote, which had been thrown out by the Copperhead Prothonotary in Westmoreland county in order to elect Dawson, has been added to the resident vote, which gives Dr. Fuller the majority already stated, and on which Gov. Curtin cannot hesitate for a moment to issue the proper certificate of election.

Dr. FULLER has this clear majority of fifteen votes, allowing all the returns claimed for Dawson, by adding the soldiers' votes legally returned to the Secretary's office. That gross frauds were committed in Westmoreland county cannot be disputed. In one box Dawson claims a majority of sixty, and by comparing the list of voters, it has been discovered that 28 more votes are in the box than there are names of voters on the tally lists.

a. The Prothonotary of Westmoreland county has thrown out eighty votes returned for Dr. Fuller in that county, without the least excuse other than to elect a Copperhead Congressman. We repeat our hope that the Governor will not hesitate to declare the election of Dr. Fuller under the broad seal of the Commonwealth.

Don't be Deceived.

Hon. Myer Strouse, a Democratic member of Congress from Schuylkill county, spoke at the grand banquet lately given in Philadelphia to Speaker Colfax, following Hon. William D. Kelley. Strouse avowed his purpose of acquiescing in the popular voice as expressed at the late election, and of giving to the Administration a cordial support.

This Stronge is an ardent copperhead, and we trust our friends will not be deceived. He an Elector, for the VIIIth District, and dying is no doubt making these pretensions of loyalty, in order to prevent the contesting of his seat. Howell Fisher is the legally elected Congressman from that district, and is entitled to his seat if the election frauds in Schuylkill county are properly investigated. The election officers in two of the strongest copperhead townships were never sworn, and that alone vitiates the whole vote. But aside from this, if the illegal votes polled in Schuyl- radical Union men: kill county are discarded, it will be sufficient to give Mr. Fisher his seat. We have no doubt Strouse is very anxious to prevent this investigation, by now proclaiming himself ar ardent Union man.

Meeting of the Electoral College.

The Electoral College will meet to mor row, (Wednesday,) at twelve o'clock, in the Senate Chamber. Every member is expected to be present except John Wister, Esq., of the 15th district, who is absent on a European tour. His place will be supplied by an election to be held by the College, the Elector thus chosen to be commissioned by the Governor. Three separate returns will be made out. One to be deposited in the Secretary's office, the other to be forwarded to the presiding officer of the United States Senate, and the third will be sent to the Vice President of the United States by a special messenger appointed by the College. The College will vote unanimously for ABRAHAM LINCOLN and An-DREW JOHNSON.

GOVERNOR VANCE, in a recent message to the Legislature of North Carolina, confirms the reports, heretofore published, regarding the existence of organized bands of rebel deserters in the western portion of that State. He says: "The western border of the State is. subject to raids and depredations from bands. of lawless men, who swarm in the mountain: frontier, and murder, burn and destroy with savage cruelty. Some of the interior counties also are infested by deserters, representing nearly every State in the Confederacy, who lurk in the swamps and mountains, stealing, plundering, and in many instances murdering the inhabitants. In some places they muster in such force as almost to amount to a suspension of the civil authority, aided and protected, as they are, by their relatives and friends. All of our efforts to abate the nuisance by efforts of pardon having proved fruitless. I see no remedy for the evil but to outlaw them and drive them from the State by the strong hand."

WHEN THE REBELS in command received the news of Mr. Lincoln's re-election, they communicated the fact to their followers with the assurance that the result was all that was necessary to secure an uprising in the North, to resist the decision of the ballot-box. But the rebels did not inform their dupes who were to "rise" and when the "uprising" would take place.

 SCATTERING VOTE

 In the vote given in the returns below, that of Mr. Aaron Mull is explained by the fact that, having been originally on the ticket as before the election, Mr. William Taylor was substituted. 'A portion of the tickets with Mr. Mull's name on them had been erroneously printed and circulated; and many of these having been voted, fully explains the discrepancy in the vote for Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Foote, in behalf of the committee ap pointed yesterday to wait on the President, and inform him that Congress was ready to proceed to business, reported that the committee had performed its duty, and the President would send in his message to both Houses at one o'clock.

Petitions and bills were called for, and none being offered the Senate, on motion of Mr. Sumner, took a recess until 1 o'clock.

THE WAR IN TENNESSEE. POSITION OF THE OPPOSING ARMIES-ANTICIPA TIONS OF A GREAT BATTLE.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 3. After two days of wet weather, the clouds disappeared this morning, and the day has been magnificent. I have been on our right Our line of battle extends around the suburbs of the city, our right and left, respectively, resting on the Cumberland river, The enemy's line of battle is just two miles from the city. Quite heavy, skirmishing in front of Generals A. J. Smith and Wood has been going on all the afternoon, by sharpshooters on both sides. On the right of our centre, near widow Acklin's place, the enemy's skirmishers become troublesome, taking refuge behind houses, on Franklin, Granny White and Hillsbore' pikes,

Two houses were burned, several injured and ruined by our artilery.

We used considerable artillery this after-noon on our right and right centre, but elicited no reply from the rebel artillery. The supposition is that they are short of this kind supposition is that they are short of this kind of ammunition. Several of our men were killed to day by their sharp-shooters, including two members of the Sixth Ohio Battery. The enemy's line can be seen quite plainly with the naked eye.

All railroading south of this city has ceased to exist. Murfreesboro', Bridgoport and Chattanooga are deemed safe. Events of some moment are anticipated to-morrow. It may be considered an impossibility for the rebels to cross the river either on our right or left, as Commodore Fitch is here with a fleet of gun-boats.

Johnsonville has been evacuated. Everything was removed from all the railroads in Thirty-three locomotives and trains were sent north this morning.

Nashville and the surrounding country for miles has been converted into a huge fortered. The destruction of rebel property in defence of the city will be almost incalculable. almost all the rich property owners hereabouts are rebel sympathizers, the rage manifested by this portion of the community at the approach of the rebel army, necessiating the destruction of their property, is unbounded. General Frank Cheatham, commanding one of the rebel corps, has his headquarters at the house of Mr. Edmonson, on the Murfreesboro' pike, four miles from the city. He told Edmonson that Hood had orders to go to

REBEL REINFORCEMENTS AT SAVANNAH—THE UNION EXPEDITION UP BROAD RIVER-A REBEI COMPANY OF CONVICTS-GEN. TAYLOR IN COM-MAND AT SAVANNAH-BUCKNER MADE LIEUTER ANT GENERAL - GREAT DISTRESS AT MILLEDGE

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec. 4. The propeller Gen. Lyon has arrived from the Savannah river with 743 exchanged prisoners. These men are generally in good condition. A sergeant who was with them reports Sherman's cavalry within six miles of Savan nah on the 30th of November, and says that four trains, loaded with rebel soldiers, arrived by the Gulf Railroad. There had been no re port of disaster to any part of Sherman's corps. He says the railroad was cut just after the train he came to Savannah on had passed through.

The Savannah Republican, of November 30th, contains no telegraphic news from any quarter. The following are editorial items on the situation: "Reliable advices, received yesterday, indicate that Sherman has made little or no progress with the main body of his army dur-ing the last day or two. He is still on the railroad, some distance beyond Millen, and apparently replenishing his commissariat for the journey before him. His men and animals must be desperately jaded by this time, and but little prepared for the trials to come. We still believe that his intention is to reach the coast, if possible, by the route which presents the least danger of a fight. There was no enemy between here and Millen yesterday, and although a party of Sherman's cavalry had been near the latter place, everything renained untouched.

'Another fight was reported between Wheeler and Kilpatrick on Monday, with the usual result. The latter was decently thrashed, and drived back in the direction of the in fantry.

"It is reliably reported that a force of about 1,000 landed yesterday morning from the Yankee fleet at Boyd's Landing, on Broad river, in South Carolina, and some eight miles distant from the Savannah and Charleston Railroad. A portion of this command approached the railroad later in the day, and subsequently retired. Ample preparation has been made to meet them should they attempt to cut the road, which it was believed they would do last night. We still believe Sherman has no serious thought of encountering Savannah with his jaded columns, but will find it difficult to strike one that has no lion

Synopsis of the President's Message.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. The message recommends that provision be made for effectually preventing foreign slave traders from acquiring domicile and fa-cilities for their criminal occupation in our country. It has been thought proper to give notice that after the expiration of six months, the period conditionally stipulated in the existing arrangement with Great Britain, the United States must hold themselves at liberty to increase their naval armament on the lakes, if they shall find that precaution necessary. He suggests whether it might not be both competent and expedient for Congress to provide that a limited amount of some future issue of public securities might be held by a bona fide purchaser, exempt from taxation and from seizure for debt, under such restric-tions and limitations as might be necessary to guard against abuse of so important a privilege.

This would enable every prudent person to set aside a small annuity against a possible day of want.

Since the last annual message all the im portant lines and positions then occupied by our forces have been maintained, and our arms have steadily advanced.

He recommends the passage of a constitu-tional amendment abolishing slavery through-out the United States. The next Congress will pass it if the present does not.
On careful consideration of all the evidence cccessible, it seems to the President that no attempt at negotiation with the insurgent leaders could result in any good, as the rebels would accept nothing short of a severance of the Union, precisely what we will not and cannot give.

He retracts nothing he has heretofore said on slavery. I will not modify the emancipa-tion-proclamation. The war will cease on the part of the Government whenever it shall have ceased on the part of those who began it. Chief Justice Appointed.
