

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Market Days at the New Market House. Tuesday morning, from 5 to 10. Friday morning, from 5 to 10. Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8.

55-1—Some of the bucksters demanded fifty cents per pound for butter, this morning.

An interesting article, written by President Lincoln, will be found in our columns, to-day.

ATTENTION!—The members of the brass band will meet this evening, at six o'clock, at the room. Business of great importance is on hand and must be disposed of.

CAPT. B. R. HOOVER, Co. B, 200th Regt. P. V., has been honorably released from arrest, no charges having been preferred against him. He has been ordered to his regiment.

The 16th regiment (Invalid Corps) has been ordered to McConnellsburg, to relieve the companies of the 201st Penna. Vols., now on duty there. The veterans left here this afternoon.

The Jones House Restaurant is open, for the winter season. Under the management of Mr. Nicholson, it must prove a popular resort. Everything belonging to the line of business will be found there in season. See card.

CHRISTMAS GOODS.—Messrs. Kunkel and Bro. have opened an immense variety of holiday goods, at their drug and variety store, on Market street. The stock embraces thousands of articles, and persons wanting suitable presents for the approaching gift season would do well to call at Kunkel & Bro's.

THE BUEHLER HOUSE.—Attention is directed to the card of this popular house. Mr. Bolton, the proprietor, is determined to render the Buehler House one of the first-class hotels in the city, and all who desire a home during their sojourn in the city, will find it a most admirable stopping place.

IN TOWN.—Our old friend, Richard Wilder, formerly the Representative of the 12th Legislative District, Philadelphia, was in town this morning, looking as pleasant and as handsome as ever. But all this is accounted for by his Republicanism. Richard being one of the most ardent and unwavering Republicans in the country.

MARBLE ON THE WING.—The following we find in one of our Illinois exchanges. No doubt many of our citizens will rejoice to learn that Marble is yet alive:

Marble, the proprietor of a theatre which has been performing in Dubuque, for the last few weeks, left on the 24th ult., with the whole troupe, leaving his bill unpaid.

PRESIDENT PETROLEUM COMPANY.—J. W. Simonton requests us to say that he has returned from a visit to the Venango county oil region, and will be glad to see at his office those who called in his absence to purchase stock in the above company, as well as any others who may wish to obtain information or invest.

Those who desire to unite in a company about being formed by citizens of this place and vicinity, can also obtain the necessary information by calling on Mr. Simonton.

DAMON AND PYTHIAS.—This is a play that should be witnessed by every patriot. In it are enacted scenes not unlike those which have transpired in our country since the southern traitors conspired to destroy the good old Union. In the play, traitors enter into a conspiracy to overthrow a glorious republic, but are ultimately defeated. This great piece will be performed at Brant's Hall this evening. Mr. J. B. Roberts will appear as Damon, and Mr. Meeker as Pythias—supported by the whole star company. The entertainment will conclude with the protean burlesque, entitled In and Out of Place, in which Miss Fanny Denham will appear in five characters, with songs, &c. The Presidential electors who are in the city, will find the Theatre an excellent place to pass the evening pleasantly.

ANOTHER FATAL SHOOTING CASE.—A Soldier killed at the Invalid Barracks.—We are called upon to chronicle another fatal accident resulting from the use of fire-arms. The veterans at the barracks on Second street have exchanged their old guns for Enfield rifles, and yesterday the pieces received were thoroughly cleaned. One of the men placed a cap on the tube for the purpose of blowing the dust out of his gun, which happened to be loaded. The contents were discharged, the bullet passing through a bunk, entered the thigh of Sergeant Fay (who was near by), and passing upward through his body, came out at his neck. Death ensued last night, and Sergeant Fay is added to the long list of those who have been killed "accidentally." The fact that the gun was loaded is evidence of gross carelessness on the part of the ordnance department, where every piece should be kept in good order and ready for use. Had the arms been properly attended to, their contents would have been extracted, and Sergeant Fay would not now be numbered with the dead.

Sergeant Fay belonged to Co. A, 16th regiment, Invalid Corps. His home was in New York State.

A MEMORABLE WEDDING took place at Lancaster on Sunday last. To those of the audience who were never present at a wedding of members of this denomination, the affair was novel and interesting. The sermon was appropriate to the occasion. The preacher read from the 3d to the 19th verses of the 19th chapter of Matthew, and from the 22d verse to the end of the 5th chapter of Ephesians, basing his remarks on these passages of scripture. The whole discourse was devoted to the duties of the candidates for matrimony to each other, and their spiritual relations to "Christ, the head of the Church." At the conclusion of the regular exercises, the marriage rite was performed in front of the pulpit. The bridegroom was asked whether he believed this sister of his faith was allotted by Christ to be his wife, and whether he was free from all other women persons. Affirmative answers being given, similar questions were put to the bride and answered. The usual questions were then put and answered, when the twin were pronounced man and wife. The manner of bringing about marriages between the members of this denomination differs from that of other Christians. What is called "courtship" is done by their preachers, the candidates for matrimonial honors not being allowed to visit the object of their affections. When a brother wishes to take to himself one of the sisters as a wife, the fact is communicated to the preacher, who makes known to the sister the feelings of his brother, and if no objections be made on her part, the bans are published in church and the wedding takes place in due time.

From the 201st Regiment.

CAMP SLOUGH, WEST ALEXANDRIA, Va., Friday Evening, Dec. 2, 1864. EDITOR TELEGRAPH.—I am pleased to find in to-day's TELEGRAPH a denial of the charges made by the minor, Martin, of Capt. Fenn's company, in regard to the manner in which the elections were held in the 201st, in November last, at Manassas Junction. As one of the judges of company I, I may not be amiss to state that all persons voting on age, or who did not produce a tax receipt for the current year, were sworn, or affirmed, regardless of party. Martin's article (or, rather, the communication of which he assumed the responsibility by lending his signature) was as obnoxious to every honorable politician as it was to every citizen of the 201st. The case is correct, and we would rather pity the minor than the man who has taken in this lying affair, for he was made the dupes of a pair of individuals who had neither the courage nor the manhood to patelize the falsehood they invented. Capt. Fenn's timely exposure of the vile slanders prevents me from contradicting this and similar copperhead inventions, traducing the victorious Union war.

We received, per morning's mail, the remainder of the photographs representing (truthfully) our Gainesville shobangs. The pictures are correct, life-like and satisfactory, in every respect. The fact of reproducing a hurried pencil-sketch, in the highest style of the photographic art, places the firm of Burnie & Weidner in the front rank of the army of American artists. My efforts to re-fer to the case, and to prove as successful as in the present instance, and abundantly remunerate them for genius displayed in this beautiful art.

Fred. Douglass, the celebrated colored lecturer, held forth in Liberty Hall, Cameron street, last evening. This was his second or third lecture here, and the vast assemblage was dismissed with shouts of applause. This, too, in Alexandria, where slave-pens and auction-bills for the disposal of negro slaves were to be seen. "What are we doing?" inquired the copperhead journalist, before the result of the Presidential election was known. Whither? To freedom and greatness—the signs of the times prove it, beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Last evening Sergeant Saul, of company B, who has charge of the city patrol, made a descent upon a house of ill-fame, in Railroad street. They captured three white and one colored woman, and two men, and carried them—the females—to the Provost Marshal's office, and the men to the guard-house. This morning the party had a hearing before Captain Gwin, of the Court Martial Board. What disposition was made of this depraved party I could not learn up to the hour of closing my letter.

Several steamers went down the river, at 12 M., filled with reinforcements for Grant, to be used in the capture of a portion of the 6th Army Corps, and embarked at Washington this forenoon. They were reported to be Col. Gallop's regiment.

Express boxes from our friends at the North are coming into camp, daily, and the men "pitch into" the good things to some purpose. The boys insist, that if "There is no place like home," there is also nothing to compare with the delicate and "fixings" that come from there.

In looking over my loose papers and notes—by-the-way, I found the following, "picked up" a day or two before we left Manassas.

About one-fourth of a mile from camp (Manassas Junction) may be seen a square block of marble, lying flat on the ground, and on which is the following inscription:

"This marble marks the spot where fell George F. Stoval, of the Rome Light Guards, 8th Regiment Georgia Volunteers, in the battle of Gettysburg, 31st July, 1863. Born at Augusta, Georgia, April 7th, 1835, his life he devoted to his God, and sacrificed it in his country's defence. His last words were, 'I am going to Heaven!'"

We sincerely hope the words uttered by the dying Georgian were realized in the consummation of his entrance into the realms of bliss. Yet the delusion of sacrificing life and limb, and honor and manhood, in the vain effort to establish a Southern Confederacy, was, nevertheless, a part of that creed, dogma, and religion, from which many of his people and kindred are fast dissenting, at this stage of affairs in the South. The block of marble referred to was pretty well "chipped," and broken by acts of vandalism, from visitors, who carried off the pieces for mementoes, no doubt.

Permit me to return my sincere thanks to Mr. George L. Walters, of the News Depot, Market street, for a supply of reading matter, Frank Leslie's Magazine and Yankee Notions were quite acceptable. So, also, the splendid work entitled "History of Little Mac." The latter work produced fits of laughter from those who perused it. Thank you, friend Walters.

There is a smart sprinkling of rain at this writing—cold and disagreeable. Can't think of running down town after news this evening. I am in delicate health, you are aware, since Thanksgiving day. Cause—foundered on baked beans! More anon. A. H. R.

BURNING SPRING OIL COMPANY.—We would invite attention to the prospectus of this company, appearing in our advertising columns for the first time to-day. The immense value of the Burning Spring Oil District in which the lands of this company are located, and the large extent of territory which it controls, seem to warrant us in recommending it to those seeking investment of the character which it offers. We are well aware that many fictitious organizations are flooding the country with worthless stock, but from what we have been able to learn of the resources and objects of this company and the character of the men who control its operations, we feel assured that we are not recommending a "speculative concern," but a sound, substantial company, which, if managed as we have reason to believe it will be, cannot fail to pay large dividends to its stockholders at a very early day. See advertisement in another column.

Drunkness Cured.

The inebriate may now bid defiance to the tempting cup. Dr. Zane's antidote for strong drink is a certain cure for drunkenness. It creates a dislike for strong drink, and can be administered without the knowledge of the patient.

Descriptive circulars sent to any address. For sale by all respectable druggists in the United States and Canada. Price $1 per box, or packages of six boxes for $5.

JNO. J. KROMER, Wholesale Agent, 403 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Rand's Specific.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.

DR. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of opening a bottle from taking any kind of pills. The Specific of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons mistake them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.

Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are especially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used BROWN'S Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches. W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice, arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. BAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HERR.
