EVENING EDITION.

Important From Mexico. NEW YORK, Dec. 8. By the steamer Ariel we have Havana advices to the 21st inst., city of Mexico to the 15th ult., and Vera Cruz to the 23rd ult.

Maximilian has met with an ovation on his return to the city. He had issued invitations to the prefects of the empire, for the civil administration, providing for the unity of Governmental action, justice for all, inexorable rigour towards evil doers, no matter what flag their deeds are committed under.

Cassatland was captured Oct. 30, by 800 Juaristas after an obstinate defence. Maximilian, in a letter to his Minister of State, says he was convinced in his voyage through the interior, that the Empire is an act firmly based upon the free will of an immense majority of the nation.

General Miramon and St. Agulay Marache, Mexican Minister to Rome, had left Vera Cruz for Europe. Part of the 99th line regiment, the first French troops sent to Mexico, had left for France.

XXXVIIIth Congress—Second Session. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. Stevens, (Pa.), from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported back the joint resolution explanatory of so much of the internal revenue act as referred to the duties on cigars, an abstract of which was printed on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Brooks (N. Y.) said that the Secretary of the Treasury had recommended the tax, and he now wished to know whether the Committee of Ways and Means intended to change the duty on tobacco.

Mr. Brooks suggested that the bill be postponed for a few days, for further examination. Mr. Stevens replied that in the opinion of those best instructed, the Department had lost millions of dollars by the construction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Mr. Brooks said in the opinion of a large number of manufacturers, it was quite impossible, under the principles of the law, ever to have honest manufacturing of cigars. The temptation was so great, the duty so immense and the punishment so severe, as to render it almost impossible to prevent frauds by the measure now before them.

Mr. Stevens then proceeded to show that nine-tenths of the cigar manufacturers since Congress adjourned, had paid but three instead of eight dollars a thousand. Owing to the construction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the measure pending was here repealed, to give the proper construction to the law.

Mr. Brooks expressed the hope that the committee would take time to consult with honest manufacturers in order to remove the existing difficulties. As the Secretary of the Treasury had recommended a duty on leaf tobacco, a duty on cigars should be considered in the same connection.

ANOTHER HORRIBLE MURDER.—A gentleman who formerly clerked in the Kinross Hotel, (name not known,) left the business office of the Sherman Well Oil Co. about 10 o'clock last Saturday night.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

REBEL ACCOUNTS FROM GEN. SHERMAN.

Sherman an "Artful Dodger." LATEST FROM GEORGIA. [From the Richmond Whig, Dec. 5.] The Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel of the 1st inst., contains the following paragraphs: Telegraphic communication with Millen has been re-opened.

Wheeler was still engaged in fighting the Federals on Wednesday. Results unknown. It is reported that a party of Sherman's scouts visited Demara's Ferry on Sunday. They remained some time in that vicinity taking observations. It is thought by many that Sherman will endeavor to cross the Savannah river at that point.

When General Wheeler struck Kilpatrick's raiders at Big Creek, they killed over three hundred head of horses to prevent them from falling into Wheeler's hands. The work of repairing the road to Atlanta will be commenced as soon as practicable.

Enory College, Oxford, was also destroyed, and all the buildings connected with the same, together with their contents. This College was the property of the Methodist Church of this State. Several fine libraries belonging to the various College Societies, were among the property burned.

Mr. Stevens seems to be making no progress in his invasion of the State. He is no nearer the coast than he was several days ago. He appears to be hesitating, and acting altogether as though he were caught in a bad box and don't know how to get out.

The indications are that Sherman will direct his course towards Darwin or Brunswick. We received by this morning's mail our Augusta exchanges of the 30th ult., and the Savannah News of the 29th. They throw very little light upon the situation of affairs at the date of their publication.

It must be confessed that for the past week Sherman has been very successfully acting the part of an artful dodger, confounding all calculations and exciting general surprise by his eccentric movements. The latest reports indicate that he is moving towards the Savannah river. But there is little reliance to be placed in any indications or intentions as yet.

The Constitutionalists of the 30th says: It is very generally conceded that Sherman, avoiding both Augusta and Macon, has gone on his winding way, either to Savannah, Brunswick or Port Royal. To reach either Brunswick or Savannah, he has to traverse a barren waste of land, to meet, as he approaches his destination, swamps impenetrable to an army, save by caneways, which could easily be destroyed before his arrival.

Somehow we are, in common with our fellow-citizens, strongly of the opinion that Sherman and his robbers are marching to doom. We know some very good news and see some very excellent signs.

While at Milledgeville, Sherman made his headquarters in the counting room of The State House was not burned, but much mutilated. The penitentiary and arsenal were burned and the magazine blown up.

Gen. Hancock's Veteran Corps.

The following circular has been issued from the War Department, showing the enlistments and appointments in the 1st Corps: WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, December 1, 1864. CIRCULAR No. 86.

I. Persons desiring and qualified to enlist in the 1st Army Corps, Gen. Hancock commanding, under General Order No. 2-7, current series, from this office, are hereby authorized to present themselves to any United States district provost marshal, who, if the applicant or party be qualified, will furnish a free transportation pass to Washington, D. C.

II. All enlistments and musters will be made at the rendezvous near Washington, by the corps commissary of musters and his assistants specially assigned to that duty, and in accordance with the recruiting and mustering regulations of the army. Recruits will be created in the district in which they or their families are domiciled.

III. The organization of the corps will be by successive regiments; that is, one regiment must be fully recruited before another is commenced. Each regiment will be recruited in like manner, by successive companies. The organization of regiments and companies must conform to that prescribed for the infantry arm, by paragraph 82, Mustering Regulations.

IV. Applicants for appointments as officers will address and forward their applications, in writing, to the "Adjutant General of the Army, Washington, D. C." At least two years' service will be necessary; and the applicant must give his military history in full, embracing them, as follows: 1. Date of original entry into service.

V. On application by the Governor of any State, recruiting officers will be designated for such State. By order of the Secretary of War. JOHN TOWNSEND, Adjutant General.

Gen. Hancock has issued the annexed notice to veterans desiring to enlist: HEADQUARTERS 1ST ARMY CORPS, WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1, 1864. Veterans desiring to enlist in the 1st Army Corps, to be organized under the recent order of the War Department, should apply, in person at the office of Col. J. E. Johnson, Inspector of the Office of Col. J. E. Johnson, Depot's Rest, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Depot, Washington. They will then be conducted to the barracks, where they will be critically examined, and, if found duly qualified, immediately mustered into the service.

From Fort Monroe. During the piratical capture of the tug Lieut. Freemen, while anchored off the mouth of Warwick river, as heretofore reported, on Monday night, the mate of the tug, Mr. William Spidel, was severely wounded in the shoulder, and one of the colored soldiers, acting as a guard on the barge Zimmerman, which the tug had in tow, was shot down in cold blood, and two others dangerously wounded, although they offered no resistance.
