

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA.
FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 9, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Market Days at the New Market House.
Tuesday morning, from 5 to 10.
Friday morning, from 5 to 10.
Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8.
nov16-17m

FAIR.—A ladies' fair is in progress in Altoona, for the benefit of the Catholic Church of that place.

We learn that an oil company is about to be organized in this city, to operate in the Venango oil region. Many of our citizens have "oil on the brain."

SUPERINTENDENT APPOINTED.—Hugh R. Stewart has been appointed Superintendent of Public Schools of Crawford county, vice Prof. S. R. Thompson, resigned.

An excellent pavement has been laid along the Forster street side of the reservoir. The citizens of the upper portion of the city consider the pavement a valuable improvement.

GAS BILLS must be paid by to-morrow, or darkness will reign in some of the houses, as a substitute for gas-light. Walk up to the "Captain's office," and get one of his receipts.

There will be a sale of horses, mares and mules, at the Hummelstown Corral, on Tuesday next. The animals belong to the U. S. Government, and have been condemned as unfit for service.

CAPT. GRANBERG, of the Commissary Department, will receive proposals for fifteen hundred barrels of flour, to be delivered in this city. Proposals will be received until 2 o'clock on Monday next.

SKATING.—Ice of sufficient thickness for skating has been formed, and this morning a large number of the young folks availed themselves of the first opportunity offered this season, to have an hour's enjoyment upon the pond.

REV. OFF.—This morning the horse attached to Hallcock's bread wagon, ran off, and it was found at the corner of Second and Chestnut streets. The box was broken by falling on the pavement. The contents were uninjured.

FIFTH WARD, ATTENTION!—A meeting of the enrolled citizens of the above ward will be held at the Fifth Ward House, this (Friday) evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Every one is expected to attend, as business of importance will be transacted, relative to the proper quota of the ward.
MANY CITIZENS.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE MIDDLETOWN BANK CAME.—The other day George Smuller, Esq., President of the Middletown Bank, was the recipient of a beautiful canoe, which bears the following inscription: "Lockport Mountain, George F. Mieh to George Smuller." The canoe was manufactured from a hickory sprout which grew on Lookout Mountain.

It is said that a Yankee has invented a machine for extricating the lies from quack advertisements. Some of them are never seen after entering the machine, as only the truth comes out. It would be an excellent invention to apply to our copperhead contemporaries. But precious little of them would be left after passing through.

The mild weather of the past week or two was brought to an end by a cold wind yesterday which was exceedingly unpleasant to those who were compelled to "face the music." Overcoats and furs were in demand. An extra quantity of coal was necessary to render rooms and shops comfortable. Ice was formed upon all the ponds and pools, and the mud in the streets was converted into a solid mass.

GOOD BY, SULLIVAN.—Our good friend, Sullivan S. Child, who has for more than a year occupied a place in our counting room for the transaction of collecting and paying the taxes, claims, pensions, Bounties, &c., and removed to an office in Walnut, a few doors south of Third street. After an association with Sullivan of more than a year, we now part with him with sincere regret, trusting that his prosperity in his new place of business may increase. He is a clever, faithful, competent and reliable man, to whom we cheerfully recommend our friends having business in his line.

THE NEW POSTAL CURRENCY.—The Pittsburg Chronicle says: We saw to-day a specimen of the new fractional currency now being issued by the Treasury Department. It was a fifty cent note, about twice as large as those of that denomination now current. We must confess we don't like it much. Part of the engraving is very poorly executed. The vignette of the Goddess of Liberty ditto. The paper is rather coarse and sticky. On the whole, this is a fair specimen of the new issue, it does not reflect much credit upon Treasury designing or machinery. New and enlarged currency wallets will now be in order.

OFFICERS OF THE GRAND LODGE.—The following named officers were elected by the Grand Lodge of Free Masons of this State, at their meeting held on Monday evening: Brother Lucius H. Scott, Right Worshipful Grand Master, Dr. D. C. Skerritt, having declined a re-election; Brother John L. Goddard, E. W. D. G. M.; Brother Richard Vanx, R. W. S. G. W.; Brother Robert A. Lambertson, R. W. G. W.; Brother Peter Williams, R. W. G. T.; Brother W. H. Adams, R. W. S. G. W. Trustees of the Grand Lodge Charity Fund—Brothers Joseph S. Rily, Wm F. Black, A. N. Macpherson, Jacob Loudenslager, George Grison. Trustees of the Girard Bequest—Brothers Samuel H. Perkins, James Hutchinson, David Boyd, David Jayne, M. D. Geo. Thomson. Trustees of Masonic Loan—Brothers Wm Badger, James Shields, Wm Barger, Alex. Kirkpatrick, J. U. Giller.

SWINDLED.—The Baltimore American of yesterday says: A man, named Wm. F. Hawley, of Pittston, Luzerne county, Pennsylvania, yesterday afternoon reached Camden Station from Washington city and met a smooth-faced sharper who seconded him to accompany him as far as Second street, where, after a little negotiation, he palmed off on Hawley a bogus check on the Commercial and Farmers' Bank of this city, signed by Wm. B. King, in favor of Chas. Y. Funkhauser & Co., for $3,000 Treasury notes, and obtained from him $50 in genuine notes. After making the exchange the sharper vanished through a restaurant opposite Tripolet's alley, and reached Exchange Place. Hawley made complaint to policeman Burke, who conducted him to Capt. Mitchell, but all efforts to capture the swindler were ineffectual. The $50 was all that Hawley had with him.

From the 201st Regiment.
CAMP SLOUGH,
WEST ALEXANDRIA, VA.,
Monday morning, Dec. 5, 1864.
EDITOR TELEGRAPH.—Dear Sir:—After a hard frost, and a chilly night, the sun is shining in splendor, this morning, vivifying and brightening every object around camp.

A trio of types from Washington, formerly employees of the TELEGRAPH office—Messrs. John Fager, Jr., Thomas Forster and James Culp—paid our camp a visit yesterday, to see their Harrisburg friends, and were honored by a serenade from Professor A. Ball & Co. of our regimental band.

The following promotions were made in the regiment:

Acting Quartermaster, Lieutenant B. B. Stimmel, Company H, has been promoted to the responsible position of Regimental Quartermaster.

Second Lieutenant W. C. Daily, Company H, promoted to First Lieutenant, vice B. B. Stimmel, promoted.

First Sergeant Joseph L. Jack, Company H, to be promoted to Second Lieutenant of said company, vice Daily promoted.

Rev. Bakestraw, the pulpit of Washington Street M. E. Church, yesterday evening, and held forth to a large audience—many of them soldiers of the 201st and other regiments. The sermon was appropriate and interesting—short and to the point—based on words contained in the 35th chapter of Isaiah, 8th and 9th verses. Rev. Bishop was also present, and in the pulpit.

A highly respectable and well known citizen of Harrisburg, G—G—, Esq., has written our clever Quartermaster, that he had purchased a turkey for Thanksgiving dinner, and while in the act of catching the bird to carry him to the quillotine, for the purpose of killing him, the bird made use of his wings; and our friend, in order to save his Thanksgiving roast, grabbed him, (very naturally) by the tail. The gobble's rear ornament gave way—plunged clean out by the roots—and away sailed the hot-tailed rooster, out of sight and out of danger! Frank G— says: "I look out for the skeddaddler down there, and if you see him, catch the bird and use him for a Christmas dinner!" The turkey-flying portion of the regiment are on the qui vive—pickets are posted daily, and a sharp-look-out is kept up.

But the story says that, although they see a great many turkeys, buzzards, daily their number, thus far, have not been blessed with a sight of friend G—'s hot-tailed Thanksgiving turkey!

There is at present a military court-martial convened here, by order of General Shoghr. The following gentlemen and officers compose the court:

Lieutenant Colonel J. Wesley Awt, 201st regiment P. V., President; First Lieutenant Samuel B. Ulrich, 201st regiment P. V.; First Lieutenant Jacob H. Brown, 202d regiment P. V.; Second Lieutenant Stephen O. McCurdy, 202d regiment P. V.; Second Lieutenant Benjamin F. Boyer, 202d regiment P. V.; Second Lieutenant Philip Shafer, 202d regiment P. V.; Captain G. Washington Penn, 201st regiment P. V., Judge Advocate.

The court is trying a number of important cases.

It affords us pleasure to find, in two or three instances already mentioned, our esteemed Harrisburg friends occupying the important positions of President and Judge Advocate. Lieut. Col. Awt is a gentleman of education, talent and refinement—well versed in military tactics, a gentleman and soldier alike, unassuming in his manners, courteous in his deportment, enjoying the confidence and esteem of all the men in the regiment. Hence his fitness for the responsible and honorable position he so worthily occupies and satisfactorily fills. The command officer could not have found a man more competent for the office than Col. A.

Capt. G. Washington Penn, the Judge Advocate, we are proud to say, is a brother typist, and well known in Harrisburg. He is a useful and energetic officer—he, alone, having the entire management of the business of the court. All those who are in any way acquainted with the nature of courts martial, know that the Judge Advocate is the responsible man, and how well and satisfactorily Captain Penn has discharged the duties devolving upon him, may be inferred from the fact of this being his second detail as such—the first having been "in the field," at Massachusetts Junction. Captain Penn is so thoroughly organized and systematized the business turned over to him, that he is now able to dispose of from fifteen to twenty cases per day. He is a most promising young officer, and deserving of higher honors.

There is a praiseworthy and highly beneficial institution in successful operation, known as the U. S. Christian Sanitary Commission, located corner of Fairfax and Prince streets. The rooms are open day and night, and attend to the needs of the soldier, where he can enjoy himself to his heart's content. The much abused and friendless defender of his country's flag is welcome to spend an hour here in writing to his friends. A sheet of paper and pen, ink, &c., is furnished him gratuitously. On the top of the blank sheet, in the left hand corner, is a dove, or carrier-pigeon, with a letter attached to its neck, carrying the welcome message to the far-off home of the soldier. In the center, as a heading, the words: "U. S. Christian Commission" sends this as the soldier's messenger to his home. Let it hasten to those who wait for tidings!

"Behold! now is the accepted time; behold! now is the day of salvation."

Reading matter, of a highly interesting description, is constantly distributed among the soldiers. For this part of the workings of the Commission, $60 per month are expended, and about $50 for stationery furnished the soldier. A large and well selected library is also connected with the establishment, and from the following paragraph, copied from an interesting pamphlet, your readers may form an idea as to what description of reading matter is furnished the soldier by the Commission:

"Send no trash. Soldiers deserve the best. A library is a valuable hygienic appliance. For the able-bodied, good publications are mental and spiritual food. For convalescents, lively, interesting books, for the months, the pictorials, works of art, science and literature, as well as those of moral and spiritual culture, such as you would put into the hands of a brother recovering."

The management of the Commission is so arranged that the gentlemen in charge are transferred to other departments every six weeks, I believe. The gentlemen at present officiating are:

Rev. O. C. Thompson, Agent, Detroit Michigan; O. C. Thompson, Jr., Assistant Agent, Detroit, Michigan; Rev. Wm. P. Russel, delegate, Memphis, Michigan; Rev. A. L. Pratt, Bedford, Vermont; Rev. L. A. Dunn, Fairfax, Vermont; E. P. Gobwin, M. D., Warren, Pa.; Rev. J. W. Snyder, Java, New York; Rev. Orvin Babcock, Eden, New York.

OFFICERS.

The officers are George H. Stuart, Esq., Chairman; Geo. Patterson, Esq., Treasurer; Rev. W. B. Boardman, Secretary; Rev. Lemuel Mass, Secretary Home Organization; Rev. Bernice D. Amos, Secretary Field Organization.

There is no end to the amount of good this humane and benevolent institution is doing for the soldier, sick and wounded, and those in distress. Contributions, such as generally sent to commissions, can be carefully packed and addressed to the following members of the Executive Committee, in care of Geo. H. Stuart, Esq., Patterson and Jay Cooke, Esqs., Philadelphia; Rev. Bishop B. S. James, D. D., or William E. Dodge, Esq., New York; G. S. Griffiths, Esq., Baltimore, Md.

All good and suitable stores are welcomed, and all necessary freight and charges paid by the Commission, and are distributed generally by delegates of the Christian Commission.

Send money, by all means, if possible. To invest money in articles to send is unwise. Send clothing, berries, fruit, vegetables, food, etc., beverages and stimulants. The well-disposed, humane and liberal-minded people of our common country are sending daily contributions for the sick and wounded lying in our Government hospitals. Those of the good citizens of the North who have hitherto been remiss, will please give their attention, and send something to cheer the brave and wounded soldier, far away from friends and kindred, with the assurance that "those who cast their bread upon the waters will find it many days thereafter."

Our friends of the 201st are in excellent spirits. No new cases of sickness, and very few men present in the hospitals.

The green-back man has not yet made his appearance. He'd better come soon, for the boys are getting clamorous. One of my messmates thinks that paymasters, like angels' visits, are few and far between! He is pretty near right. More anon.
A. H. B.

Bannwart's Troches.
For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Dis-eases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannwart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.
C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers. In cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly,
P. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannwart's Troches.

W. C. CATTELL,
Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 1864.
To C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,
J. N. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches for some time, they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice, arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c.,
G. G. BAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
HARRISBURG, Feb. 23, 1864.
To C. A. BANNWART.—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.

A. J. HERR.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

AT THE JONES HOUSE.—Owing to the largely increased demand for his Hair Restorative, Professor Sibbet will remain in Harrisburg until Wednesday noon of next week. Engagements in Pittsburg will prevent him from staying longer. Professor warrants every case that he undertakes. Persons who have used all the Hair Restoratives of the day without avail will do well to throw aside their prejudices and give him a call. The Professor claims that with his method of treating the scalp "failure is impossible. Call and see him at once and have explained to your entire satisfaction, why it is that the hair becomes in so many cases thin and discolored, and prevent its falling out. Do so, if you choose a Restorative, that will remove all the causes of these sad results, and clothe your head with that beautiful covering which nature designed it to have: good hair. 2t.

SUBSTITUTE PAPERS promptly made out by Sullivan S. Child, claim agent, Walnut street, 3d door below Third. 48-1m CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST.—Though some kinds of dry goods and notions have advanced in price, and are still advancing, we propose (from the fact of having some goods on hand that were bought lower than the present price) to sell at the following rates: Allen's 200 yards white and colored spool cotton 6 cents a spool; Coates' best spool cotton 13 cents a spool, or $1.50 per dozen; Skirt braid 13 cents a piece, or $1.50 per dozen. Our stock of fancy and staple dry goods is large, and we will dispose of them at the most accommodating terms possible, at the cheap dry goods store, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

C. L. BOWMAN.

SULLIVAN S. CHILD, CLAIM AGENT, has removed his office from the D. C. Skerritt Building to WALNUT STREET, 3D DOOR BELOW THIRD, OPPOSITE STATE CAPITOL. All claims for Premiums, Bounties and Back Pay promptly attended to. 48-tf

FOR SALE.—A valuable Building Lot, 21 feet front, running back 131 feet to a 20 feet wide alley, adjoining the property of C. H. Liebrue, corner of Third and Bosw. street. For particulars enquire at THIS OFFICE. nov31-tf

DR. M'BRIDE'S King of Pain should be kept in every family. Will cure Headache, Toothache, Earache in three minutes. Diarrhoea, Bloody Flux, pain in the Back and Side, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart. Sole agent for the State, S. A. KINKEAD, B. B., 113 Market Street, Harrisburg.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to. a sept20-tf

FEVER AND AGUE can be cured. Do not think because you have tried everything you could read or hear of, for you have not taken the cure, or that you are in a hurry, that you take it. It does not stop your shaking for a week or two, but it is a perfect cure. A trial of this will convince you and your neighbors. It can be had only at No. 27, South Pine street, by Mrs. L. Ball. oct17-4f

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SELLING OFF! SELLING OFF!

Our whole stock of Dry Goods, intending to engage in business in the city, I will commence on Monday next to sell out my whole stock of Dry Goods. My stock is very large and well selected, and is reduced prices. 1,000 yards last colored calicos at 25 cents a yard. 4,000 yards, yard wide muslins at 45 and 60 cents, worth 70 cents.

Of black silks, 70 cents a yard, and of the best make. Black bombazines of the finest quality; black alpines, black Canton cloth, blue French merinos, and a great many other black goods for mourning. Persons in want of such goods would do well to call.

Furs and cloaks sold at great reduced prices. Irish Linen of the best make, linen toweling, linen table cloth, Marcellus quilts and blankets.

We have some first quality of gentlemen's furnishings goods, such as undershirts, drawers, socks and white shirts.

500 dozen of ladies' wool and cotton stockings, gentlemen's, cassimere and black cloth.

We have a large assortment of fine French cambrics, Faneock muslins, undressed cambrics, brilliants and fine code linen drape.

A large assortment of plain and figured dress goods.

It is impossible to name all the goods on hand in a well selected and good assortment. Give us a call, and we will show you our stock of goods, and you will be sure to close my whole stock out, I am willing to sell at reduced prices. [2022] S. LEWY.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.—Containing nearly 800 pages, and 130 fine plates in a state of perfect preservation. This treatise is a grand and original work on marriage, with a treatise on the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition, and who are desirous of knowing the deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only original and successful mode of cure, as shown by the reports of cases treated by the author's plan of treatment, and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition,