

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Market Days at the New Market House. Tuesday morning, from 5 to 10. Friday morning, from 5 to 10. Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8.

NOVEMBER POCKET PICKED.—A man, whose name we did not learn, was robbed in market, this morning, of a portmanteau, containing about thirteen dollars.

BUTTER STOLEN.—A gentleman had three pounds of butter taken from his basket, in market, this morning, while he was examining some articles displayed on a stand.

DO THE COWS EAT GOLD?—Some of the farmers demanded seventy cents for a pound of butter, this morning, and none sold at a lower figure than sixty cents. These are certainly golden prices.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—There will be service in the Baptist church, corner of Second and Pine streets, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and at 7 o'clock in the evening. The pulpit will be occupied by Rev. George R. Bliss, of Lewisburg, Pa. The public are invited to attend.

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, corner of Ridge Avenue and Reservoir. Divine service to-morrow at 10:30 A. M., and 6:30 P. M. In the evening the Rev. A. J. Barrow will continue his discourses on the Episcopal church. Subject.—"The Reformation and the causes which led to it." All are invited.

SALE OF CATTLE.—About three hundred thousand head of captured cattle will be sold at the Motter House Drive Yard, York, Pa., on Monday, the 13th inst. A large number of the cattle are of the Durham and Devonshire stock. The sale will be continued from day to day, until the entire lot is disposed of. Bargains may be had.

BOXES FOR SOLDIERS.—Many of our citizens are preparing, and some have already forwarded boxes, containing a variety of provisions suitable for holiday dinners, to the soldiers in the 201st regiment. All who have friends in the army, who can be reached by express, should send them the material for a good Christmas dinner. Let those brave men feel that those whom they left at home care for them.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH, CHESTNUT ST.—Divine service in this church to-morrow (Saturday) morning and evening at the usual hours. Preaching by the Rev. Theodore Appel, of Lancaster.

The Rev. Wm. Henry Harrison Snyder of Ohio, has accepted the call unanimously tendered to him by this congregation, and is expected to enter upon the duties of his office, on Sabbath week, the 18th inst. We have heretofore referred to the reputation of this gentleman as being a man of fine intellectual attainments and with a sound Gospel preacher.

REMOVE THE KNOW AND SAVE A DOLLAR.—We beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of Harrisburg to the following section of "An ordinance prohibiting nuisances within the city."

Sec. 18. That it shall be the duty of the lot holders within the inclosed parts of the city, within twenty-four hours after the fall of a snow, to have the same removed from their pavements and gutters into the street, in front of their dwellings or lots, under the penalty of one dollar for each offence, to be recovered for the use of the city, as other fines are by law recoverable.

WINTER IS EARNEST.—Snow commenced falling about ten o'clock last evening, and continued during the whole night. By this morning it had reached the depth of about ten inches. Shortly after daylight the jingle of the "morning bells" could be heard upon the streets—some of our citizens having improved the first opportunity to enjoy a sleigh-ride. Whilst winter brings joy into certain circles, it saddens the hearts of many. There are in our midst families who are in destitute circumstances, without sufficient food, fuel or clothing. Let those who have "enough, and to spare," look after the poor and supply their wants. Let no one be permitted to shut his door in winter, where there is an abundance for every one. None need want if those who have the means will lend a helping hand to the poor.

HANCOCK'S VETERAN CORPS.—Previous mention has been made of the Provost Marshals of this State, under instructions from Provost Marshal General Fry, through Colonel Browne, Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General for Maryland and Delaware, had been authorized to assist in the recruiting for the "First Corps," which Major General Hancock, under special orders from the War Department, has been empowered to raise for service. Only those persons who have served two years and been honorably discharged from service are privileged to enter this favorite corps, the officers of which have served honorably for the same period. The Provost Marshals are to receive the men and furnish transportation to Washington, where they will be enlisted and mustered into service, receiving $300 cash bounty—even though they may enlist only for one year, though volunteers for two or three years, will be received. Every volunteer who serves faithfully and preserves the arms which are given into his charge when mustered in service, will be entitled to them upon being honorably discharged.

MARKET PRICES.—This morning, to be sure, was very violent. Snow ten inches deep; some trouble to wade to market; but necessities of families required it to be encountered and conquered. The country people, too, of course, suffered in the same proportion, and, therefore, the attendance on their part was thin.

But what we wish to draw attention to in this brief article, is the disposition of our country consuls on all such occasions, to take advantage of, to impose on the people who are their customers by exacting exorbitant prices for their produce. For instance, some had the audacity to ask seventy-five cents for a pound of butter! Others, less voracious, contented at sixty cents. Eggs, almost universally, ranged at fifty cents a dozen and other farm products in proportion. We regard this as imposition, and a mistake on the part of the farmers. The minimum consequence will be that the towns-people will be obliged to combine against them, resolving to become non-consumers, until they learn, by sad experience, to be guided by better reason, humanity and justice. If the consumers resolve not to buy, they cannot sell, and their produce must decay. The subject is worthy public consideration; and a public meeting of our citizens on the subject would be not only out of place, but quite appropriate. Our troops deserve to be defended against such gross imposition.

From the 201st Regiment.

CAMP SLOUGH, WEST ALEXANDRIA, VA. WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6.—4 P. M., 1864. EDITOR TELEGRAPH.—Dear Sir:—There is a steady shower of rain falling, and a brisk east wind prevailing at this hour. The weather, nevertheless, is mild, and the boys express themselves comfortable. They are delighted to learn of the contemplated presence of our clever Harrisburg friends are getting up for us. "What!" suggested one of our friends—"what if the outsiders belonging to other regiments should style us the 'sauter-krant' regiment in a spirit of envy?" "That's an affair of little import—let them proceed, so far as I am concerned," replied a visor-faced member of company "K." "They may just as well term us that, as anything else, providing the krant comes to hand." Did not Shakespeare tell his admiring readers that "A rose, by any other name, would smell as sweet,"

And is there not something firm, substantial and wholesome in a dish of good sauter-krant? Yes, sir, and if we should, on some occasion, be marched to face the enemy on the battle-field, our adversary need not be ashamed to hear of the "sauter-krant" lovers of the Keystone State, attached to the 201st Regiment!

Among the visitors of the past few days I notice Mrs. Dr. Wagonseller, Mrs. Samuel Wiestling, Mrs. Fow and brother, Mr. Rose, of Philadelphia. Mr. J. Gilman, of Adams & Co's Express, Harrisburg, paid our camp a visit yesterday evening, and stopped at the "United States," Strick, Nichols & Co., proprietors, corner Broad and Chestnut streets. "Pap" Gilman left this morning for City Point, on one of the Potomac steamers, for the purpose of taking north the body of his son, John Gilman, who fell in front of Petersburg, in June last. We parted, with a feeling of regret for our aged friend, and hope sincerely that he may return in safety from his sad mission.

Yesterday, while your correspondent was in the act of reaching for the pass or permit of a gentleman seated in a neat carry-all, a spunky-looking, black-and-tan terrier dog, leaped on the seat beside the driver, bristling up and barking at a furious rate, ready to devour us on the spot. "Friend," we inquired, "What is the matter with pup?—he seems to be excited wonderfully."

"I will tell thee the man were the unmistakable 'Irish of the Quaker'—'A month since I came to the city on foot—lost the animal on leaving Alexandria—but, lo! and behold in an hour afterward I observed the brute coming over the hill, near my residence, almost out of breath, with a Union soldier's canteen fastened to his tail! 'Wouldst thou believe it, friend—the dog became greatly excited whenever he sees a Union soldier, since that variable afternoon! He is ruder, friend—bitter as a secessionist against the soldiers!'" Our friend Lewis, the Superintendent of Reservoir, is the possessor of a fine watch-dog—like his master he is Union to the backbone, allowing no one to enter the premises, save a soldier. On the appearance of any individual wearing Uncle Sam's clothing, he wags his tail with delight, as much as to say, "Step in, boys—you are of the right stripe!" Truly they have some "knowing dogs" in Virginia!

On a recent visit to the Government cemetery, in West King street, yesterday, one of the herders informed me that 900 head are sent down the river daily. On inquiry as to the terrific noise we heard on the previous night, while on duty between one and four o'clock, A. M., he stated that a fresh herd had arrived the day before, and were turned into a corral close to one confining "old Turk." Among the latter herd were two giant bulls, who possessed the same progenitors as that slaymaker's bull," said to have butted an engine, once, somewhere in Lancaster county, as the story was told by Harry Hold, an old and excellent engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad. To our story: "Down went the fence, and into a 'free fight' went both herds, bellowing and roaring like Cummins' lions at the pools to which they nightly resorted, while the daring African adventurer lay in his top of the Alexandria, on that hand, listening to the horrible din. The 'herders,' with long poles, were obliged to 'pitch in,' and, after an hour's work, succeeded in separating the combatants.

The spot where the "corral" is located is an enclosed yard, containing a large number of Aspen trees. It embraces about five acres, front, with a substantial brick house, on a slight eminence, in which the "herders" are quartered. In the rear are long and roomy covered sheds, and subdivided yards, with cattle and sheep, with a sufficient quantity of hay, and cut-hay mixed with a kind of chop made from damaged hard-tack. The latter preparation the stock eats readily. The property was formerly owned by Col. Peyton, an aristocratic and influential Virginian; but, latterly, fell into the hands of M'Nair & Co., of Alexandria. The Aspen grove in question (as I am informed) was once the resort of beauty and fashion of the city of Alexandria, on the occasion of pic-nics, and Fourth-of-July celebrations. To what base purposes, &c., has this fine homestead been appropriated! Well, "they that sow the wind, must reap the whirlwind."

Somebody—and we readily guess who—has asked the part of the "Good Samaritan" to ward your correspondent—sent him, prepaid, a fine supply of note paper and envelopes—articles greatly needed, since the lazy party would not stop this way. Thank you very much—and may this unlooked for addition to our meagre stock of writing material help us to verify the quotation of "The pen is mightier than the sword."

A large number of express boxes arrive daily, and the boys have a general season of plenty among themselves. Excuse this rambling style of writing, for I am laboring under difficulties—my dead feels as if it were in the mill, and the weather is too unpromising, this afternoon, to ally itself in quest of news. The President's message appeared in camp, yesterday, and everybody that could raise the 5 cent postal currency invested it in a copy of the Washington Evening Star. The views contained therein meet with the entire approbation of every loyal man in the country.

Truly yours, A. H. B. A DEFENCE OF PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS. Correspondence of the Telegraph.] ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, NEAR PETERSBURG, VA., 20TH REG'T. P. V., Dec. 3, 1864.

Permit me, through your paper, to correct a slander and falsehood on our brave Pennsylvania soldiers, by a special correspondent to the New York Tribune of Nov. 23d, in which the pimp, who signs himself J. B. C., near Richmond, Va., attempts to give the Tribune an account of the attack on the picket line in front of Bermuda Hundred, Va., on the night of the 17th Nov., picketed at the time of the attack by six Pa. one-year regiments, and the 12th N. H. volunteers, old company. It will be seen at a glance that this cowardly hanger-on never saw the front, and all his attempted account was ootraband and slander on our brave men in the field, from the fact that this would-be nice correspondent states that, in his former communication to the Tribune, he puts our loss at 40 men captured, including Col. Kaufman, of the 209th Pa. volunteers, but omitted to mention that 48 men of the 12th N. H., including two commissioned officers, old troops, were taken prisoners at the same time, and that our line was first penetrated at a point held by the 12th N. H. It is not true that any of our troops skedaddled, as the cowardly writer terms it. Not a single shot gave way until ordered to do so. The left of the line was held by the 209th and 208th regiments Pa. volunteers. Part of this line was under heavy fire, and the rebels rushed. The right of the line was picketed by the 207th, 209th and 211th Pa. volunteers, and the 12th N. H. volunteers, and no attempt was made to fall back until ordered to do so. The attack was made under the cover of the night, at a point where our picket line makes a short curve. Part of two brigades of the rebels advanced, penetrated our line and flanked some thirty companies comprising 130 men, Col. Kaufman and two line officers. The men on the right and left of the line stood firm and repulsed the attack, and our loss was altogether owing to the superior force of the rebels at a favorable point to them, under cover of darkness, and not for the want of valor and bravery of our troops, notwithstanding the statement of the cowardly pimp to the Tribune of Nov. 23, 1864.

THE TRIUMPH OF VIRTUE.—After a successful engagement of two weeks, Mr. James B. Roberts, the great tragedian, is about to leave our city, and will this evening appear for the last time, at Brant's Hall. During his engagement our people have been favored with some of the grandest plays ever witnessed, all of which were produced in a style that reflects great credit upon the manager (Mr. Rouse), and the whole Combination Company. This evening we are to be favored with the beautiful domestic drama entitled THE ORPHAN OF GENEVA, or THE TRIUMPH OF VIRTUE. Mr. Roberts will sustain the great character of CARVIN. The entertainment will conclude with the interesting afterpiece, entitled In and Out of Place, in which the talented actress, Miss Fanny Denham, will appear in five characters. The bill of this evening's performance is worth seeing, and the play is very large audience will be present. Go to Bannvart's Drug Store, and secure seats for your wives and sweet hearts." This is the last opportunity you will have to see Mr. Roberts. New stars will appear next week.

AT THE HOUSE.—Owing to the largely increased demand for his Hair Restorative, Professor Sibbet will remain in Harrisburg, until Wednesday noon of next week. Engagements in Pittsburg will prevent him from staying longer. The Professor warrants every case that he undertakes. Persons who have used all the Hair Restoratives of the day without avail will do well to throw aside their prejudices and give him a call. The Professor claims that with his method of treating the scalp, follicles are impossible. Call and see him at once and have explained to your entire satisfaction, why it is that the hair becomes in so many cases thin and diseased, and prematurely gray, and then obtain if you choose a Restorative that will remove all the causes of these sad results, and clothe your head with that beautiful covering which nature designed it to have viz: good hair. 2t.

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists everywhere. Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen: Harrisburg, Feb. 8th, 1864. C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, J. H. ROBINSON, Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannvart's Troches. W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 1864. To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the act of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c. JNO. WALKER JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice, arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c. J. R. KLESTRAW, Pastor Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE. Harrisburg, Feb. 20, 1864. To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers. A. J. HEHR.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE BURNING SPRING OIL COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA. CAPITAL, $1,000,000. 100,000 Shares, Par Value $10 00 Working Capital . . . $30,000. HON. GEO. O. EVANS, President. J. C. FAYER, Esq., Treasurer. DIRECTORS.—Wm. S. Hassall, John Glading, Thomas Tolman.

THE property of this company consists of the following valuable lands: No. 1. Eleven hundred and seventy-three (1,173) acres in fee simple, situated in Wirt county, West Virginia, on the waters of Rock and Two Runs, branches of the Little Kanawha river, more than three-fourths of which is very fine boreing territory, being on the same plateau with the celebrated "Burning Spring" oil lands, and known as the best oil reservoir upon the western or north western coast of our country. Four wells are now being sunk on this large tract. One is almost complete and will be ready for testing in a few days, and promises to yield very largely of superior oil. Two others are nearly down, and the remainder are rapidly progressing. It is a very remarkable fact that no well has been sunk on this flat that has failed to produce oil in large quantities and of fine quality. It is destined to become the most valuable and most productive oil region of the great Kanawha Valley.

No. 2. Five (5) acres in fee simple (being a part of a large tract of valuable oil and coal lands, bounded and lying on the East Sandy river, three miles above the Allegheny river. One well is now in successful operation on this tract, with sufficient territory to sink twenty-five more wells.

The following valuable leases belong to this company: No. 1. The "Austin Dickley" lease of one and three-quarters acres of land situated in Wirt county, West Virginia, lying at the mouth of Burning Spring Run. Two (2) wells on this tract are now being sunk.

No. 2. The "Harper's Lease" of one acre of land situated as aforesaid, and lying at the first fork of the Burning Spring Run. One well is now being sunk on this tract.

No. 3. The "Gordon & Necomb's" lease of one acre, situated as aforesaid, on Burning Spring Run, near the Washington Co. lease. Two (2) wells on this tract.

No. 4. The "McFarland's" lease of one-third of an acre of land, situated as aforesaid at the head of Burning Spring Run. Two wells are in operation on this tract. The vast territory of almost Twelve hundred acres of land owned by this company, with Seven Wells now in successful operation and producing oil, and the vigor with which the other wells are being sunk, and being organized entirely and solely for the purpose of engaging in the legitimate business of producing oil, and developing and improving the same, belonging to the company. The management of the same having been entrusted to gentlemen of known business enterprise, responsibility and skill, who will bring to the accomplishment of the object their united energy and business industry. We are satisfied in believing and assuring the stockholders that it will yield largely to them, and offers inducements of the highest character to capitalists and men of small means who wish a profitable, safe and paying investment.

I have sold a few shares of stock of this company to offer for sale. Those wishing the same can obtain all the necessary information together with full particulars, description of the lands, maps, &c. etc., by applying to me either in person or through the J. R. MUFFLY, General Superintendent and Agent. Apply in person to Robert Snodgrass, Esq., Law office, North Third street, above Market, Harrisburg, Pa. Address by mail—P. O.
