

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Market Days at the New Market House. Tuesday morning, from 6 to 10. Friday morning, from 5 to 10. Saturday afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8.

JOHN WISE has a splendid assortment of goods suitable for the holidays.

Two hundred condemned cavalry horses will be sold at Johnstown on Thursday next.

An election for thirteen directors of the Harrisburg National Bank will be held on the 10th of January next.

Fears of "ground and lofty tumbling" have been witnessed frequently along our streets, since the late "freeze."

War. K. ESERBECK has been appointed route agent between Harrisburg and Altoona, vice John Lookhart, resigned.

A New Daily.—An evening paper, to be called the Record, is about being started in Reading, by E. H. Ranch, Esq.

GRAPES.—Wm. M. Gray & Co. have received a lot of very excellent Catawba grapes, which will be sold at low rates. Call and see them.

REOPENING of Sanford's Hall to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, 14th, with an entire new company under the management of Joe Miller.

REBEL PAPERS.—We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the Richmond Examiner, from Dr. Wm. H. Egle, Surgeon in the U. S. Army. The paper is dated Dec. 7th.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at their rooms this evening at seven o'clock. Business of importance being on hand, it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

We notice that a few of our citizens permit their pavements to be covered with ice, thus endangering the life and limbs of persons passing over them. Somebody may have to pay damages to "somebody," if the ice is not removed.

PRICES OF BOARDING IN RICHMOND.—The Richmond Examiner contains an advertisement of the Edgmont House, in that city, from which we learn that the prices of boarding are as follows: Per day, $25.00; breakfast and supper, each $8.00; dinner, $10.00.

We are informed that a shooting affair occurred at Shippensburg, a few days ago. Capt. Baughman, (late of the Third Penna. Cavalry,) attempted to arrest a number of deserters, who endeavored to escape by making use of their limbs. The Captain fired at them, and one of the party was "brought down" by a bullet striking him in the rear. The deserters were afterwards captured and are now under guard in this city.

NEW COUNTERPARTS.—The following new counterparts upon Pennsylvania Banks, have made their appearance since the 1st inst.: Bank of Chambersburg—10s, altered from 1s. Vig. on right and left; well done.

Bank of Penn Township, Phila.—5s, spurious; vig. eagle, horses, building and cars in distance; male bust and 6 on each end.

Government Bank, Pottsville—10s, altered from 1s; vig. stag; well done.

Mechanics' Bank, Philada.—3s, spurious; vig. st. ship; figure 3 each side in green; eagle on shield on each end; also THREE and 3.

COURSE OF SERMONS TO YOUNG MEN.—Rev. J. Walker Jackson, one of the most eminent and eloquent pulpited orators in the country, and a vital a pure-minded Christian and an earnest patriot, has consented to preach a course of sermons to the young men of Harrisburg, the introductory production to be delivered on Sunday evening next, and to be continued from Sabbath to Sabbath, until the course is completed. The following are the heads of these sermons:

- 1. The young man and his Maker. 2. The young man and his bible. 3. The young man and his soul. 4. The young man, his character and disposition. 5. The young man, his companions and associates. 6. The young man and his business. 7. The young man and his country.

FALSE INFORMATION.—Individuals who conceive that the readiest and most simple method of avoiding military duty is to furnish false information to enrolling officers, are invited by the Board of Enrollment to give special attention to the following order, paragraph 23, revised regulations:

If a person, with intent to prevent the draft, refuses to give his true name when lawfully requested to do so, by an officer whose legal duty it is to ascertain and enroll it, it is an obstruction to that officer in the performance of one of his duties in relation to the draft. So, also, of the giving of false names with the same literal intent, and the offender will, in either case, be subject to summary arrest by the Provost Marshal.

It is the opinion that by refusing to give information or by giving false statements, they can deceive the enrolling officer, are egregiously mistaken. It is very seldom, indeed, that the officer is compelled to rely for his knowledge of the civil status of any individual upon the sole information of the party concerned. The attempt to relieve trusted men from military service, upon the plea that the names drawn—furnished by themselves—were fictitious or defective, has utterly failed, and if John Brown wishes to give his name to John Smith to the enrolling officer, he will simply subject himself to punishment, without thereby escaping service if drafted.

THE SPECIAL INCOME TAX.—This tax will soon be demanded by the collectors, and the public should be in readiness to make proper and prompt returns, under the penalties prescribed in the act. This tax, it will be remembered, is the second one for 1863, and amounts to an additional five per cent. on the income. The first tax was but three per cent., and was paid some time ago. The intention of the law is that, every man having an income over $600, shall pay in the aggregate for that year, eight per cent. No deductions are allowed on the five per cent. assessment for dividends or interests received from any company or association. The full amount of a man's income, from all sources, must be reported, not including, however, certain other deductions which are printed on the back of the return furnished by the assessor. Every person is obliged to make a return, and these returns are open to the inspection of any citizen, so that every man in a district can see that his neighbor complies with the law and bears his proper share of taxation.

THE red flag floats over Brant's Hall, indicating that the skating pond is in good condition.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTION.—We understand that the Old School Presbyterian congregation contributed the liberal sum of over four hundred dollars since Thanksgiving Day for the Christian Commission, to be distributed for the comfort of the soldiers.

JEWELRY FOR HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—We direct attention to the advertisement of A. F. Zimmerman in another column, describing a splendid stock of jewelry just received from New York and Philadelphia, suitable for presents the coming holidays. The selections were made with an especial reference to pleasing all tastes and accommodating all persons. Those in want of goods in this line would do well to give Mr. Zimmerman a call.

FESTIVAL AT CAMP CURTIN HOSPITAL, ON SATURDAY PRECEDING CHRISTMAS.—The ladies respectfully solicit donations from those citizens of Harrisburg, who appreciate the services of those who have perilled their lives in the cause of Freedom and Union. Let it not be said that the soldier is forgotten by those whose homes he has defended.

Donations of cakes, fowls, fruits, a few vegetables and money, can be sent the Friday preceding Christmas and on Saturday morning, to the following ladies: Mrs. KEFFLE, State street. Mrs. ZOLLINGER, Third street. Mrs. SMALL, Chestnut street.

A SPLENDID FLAG FOR THE SIXTY-FIRST PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENT.—The 61st Pennsylvania Regiment, whose term of service has expired, has organized themselves into a battalion, and will shortly be again in the field. No regiment in the service has undergone more hardships or performed greater deeds of valor in the field than the 61st Pennsylvania. Many of the men belonged to the lamented Birney's original regiment, the 23d Pennsylvania. A number of the citizens of Philadelphia have had manufactured a magnificent flag for presentation to the new battalion. It is made of heavy blue silk; one side contains an elaborate painting of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, and the reverse a beautiful representation of an American eagle. The flag contains the following inscription: "Presented by the citizens of Philadelphia to the 61st Pennsylvania volunteers, for gallant conduct throughout the war." The names of the principal battles in which the regiment took an active part are inscribed on the flag; among them are: Mary's Heights, Fair Oaks, Washington, D. C., Malvern Hill, Winchester, Antietam, Cedar Creek, Wilderness, and many others.—The flag is safe from dishonor in the hands of the 61st.

How TO CUT PORK.—The following directions may be found useful, at this season of the year, to such of our readers as are able to "go the whole hog": Have the hog laid on his back on a stout table. Clean the carcass of the fat. Take off the feet at the ankle joints. Cut the head off close to the shoulders, separate the jaw from the skull, and open the skull lengthwise on the outer side, so as to remove the brains fully. Remove the back bone in its whole length, and with a sharp knife cut off the skin—then the fat, leaving only about one-half inch of fat on the spinal column. The middlings or sides are now cut from between the quarters, leaving the shoulders square shaped, and the ham pointed, or it may be rounded to suit your fancy. The ribs are next removed, partially or entirely from the sides. The trimmings of fat from the hams and flabby parts of the sides are rendered up with the backbone strip for lard. The sausage meat is cut off from the leaf fat and ribs; any other lean pieces are used for the same purpose. The thick part of the backbone that is cut from the tapering bony end, and the latter part called the backbone by way of distinction. The backbones are used while fresh; the chine is better after being smoked.

FEVER and AGUE can be cured. Do not think because you have tried everything you could read or hear of, that you cannot get anything to cure you, for you have not taken the pure vegetable that is curing every one that takes it. It does not stop your shaking for a week or two, but it is a perfect cure. A trial of this will convince you and your neighbors. It can be had only at No. 27, South Pine street, by Mrs. L. Ball. oct17-1t

CHRISTMAS AT KUNKEL & BRO'S.—By Mrs. Geo. S. Kunkel.—I have the honor to announce that our Bro's Dry Goods Store will be open on Monday morning, the 13th inst. You will find me there in all my glory. I advise all my followers to go there for their holiday gifts.—You will find displayed on their counters the most elegant and various stock of presents ever offered in this city. Come and see me, 118 Market street, Harrisburg. dec12-2t

OUR IMPRESSIONS AND INTENTIONS.—In our generous moods we have at times fancied ourselves in possession of the means and the disposition to relieve, by wholesale, the wants and distress growing out of the disproportion in the remuneration for labor, as compared with the cost of the necessary sustenance of life; and we here say, while we could not practically do more, we have always, through the conception we have of business generally, (and our interest, as we understand it,) contributed in every way to make the interest of the laborer more mutual. Our daily study is to bring goods cheaper to the consumer, at a lower price than our honest competitors, so as to convince the public that our object is not to make large profits, but for the purpose of increasing the amount of business done, which enables us to sell goods at smaller profits. Under the foregoing considerations, we ask the attention of buyers to C. L. Bowman's large stock of staple and fancy dry goods, at the cheap store, No. 1, southeast corner of Front and Market streets, Harrisburg, Pa.

USE THE SUFFERER'S BALM.—Lottin's Syrup of Roots, Bark and Herbs.—It will cure coughs, colds, sore throat, croup, bronchitis, asthma, &c. For sale at J. M. Bomgardner's, corner of Fourth and Market streets, Harrisburg, Pa. dec12-1w

NEW STORE.—Mr. A. F. Brant, through the columns of the TELEGRAPH, would proclaim throughout the land and to the inhabitants thereof, that he has recently opened a new dry goods store on the corner of Walnut and Second streets, Harrisburg, Pa., where he proposes to sell to all such as desire everything and anything to be found in a large and well selected stock of dry goods cheap for cash. The object of Mr. Brant is to sell goods with a very small profit. All goods warranted to be as represented. Call and examine the stock. Goods shown cheerfully. dec12-2t
