THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 15, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

SEE advertisements of lost pocket-books.

DEER are unusually plenty upon the mountains in Huntingdon county.

Bellefonte is putting on city airs, shop lifting being quite fashionable there.

Local affairs are unusually dull. No mur-ders, no robberies, no fights, "no nothing."

Our notion stores are well stocked with holiday goods. Buy from those who advertise. Now is the time, friends, to advertise your holiday goods. Take people while they are

Mr. Wm. BRADY offers a handsome stock of jewelry, watches, etc., suitable for presents. Call and examine the assortment.

JOE MILLER opens Sanford's Hall, to night, with a good company. Joe, himself, is card enough to draw a full house. We wish him success in his new enterprise.

THE proceedings of the Teachers' Institute held at Middletown, are published to-day, in a condensed form, except the resolutions adopted, which are given in full. THE youngsters are on tip-toe in anticipathe youngsters are on tip-toe in anticipation of the annual call of good old Kriss Kringle, who is always on the alert to discover the whereabouts of good children. May all their fond expectations be fully realized. THE rush of holiday advertisements is so great, that we are compelled to condense our reading matter, to a considerable extent. We trust our readers will bear with us a short time, until we have more room.

How to get up a cheap concert—Buy fifteen grains of quinine, swallow it in five grain doses, and shortly after the last instalment is down you will be enjoying such a singing and buzzing in your head and ears as will rival all the humble bee, hornet and yellow jacket nests ever dreamed of in your musical phi-

ATTENTION is directed to the extensive advertisement of the New York and Philadelphia Petroleum Company. Several tracts of land located along the Allegheny River and Oil Creek are owned by this company. S. D. Ingram, Esq., is the agent in this city. All information desired can be obtained by calling upon him.

CATHCART & BROTHER are on hand with an immense lot of Furs, Dress Goods of all kinds; Mourning goods, &c. The stock is one of the best ever brought to Harrisburg, and the prices are very low. The display is highly suitable for the holidays, and many valuable articles can be obtained, suitable for presents. Attention is invited to the half-column advertisement of the firm, in our columns, to-day.

DEATH OF S. J. REA.-The well-known Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia and Pirttsburg press, S. J. Rea, Esq., died at the residence of his brother-in-law in Beaver county, on Friday last. He served one term in the Legislature. He was well posted in State affairs, and, therefore well qualified for the duties of a newspaper correspondent. He leaves a wife and family.

THE DEAD ALIVE!—Among the members of the 93d Regiment P. V., reported killed at the battle of the Wilderness, was James Youtz, of Lebanon, Pa. His friends mourned his loss, and the necessary steps were taken to settle up his affairs. But a few days ago he rejoiced his friends by appearing among them again his friends by appearing among them again in the flesh, looking only a little worse for the wear. Instead of being killed, he had been taken prisoner, and was among those exchanged recently at Savannah. Herman Rambleton, of the 4th Pennsylvania Cavalry, who was also thought to be dead, returned with Mr. Youtz.

PINE GROVE. - The Pine Grove Iron Works. situate in Penn township, Cumberland county, have been sold to the "South Mountain Iron Company" for a million and a half of dollars. The same property was sold less than a year ago to Jay Cooke & Co., for $225,000. It is an extensive and valuable estate, well wooded and watered, and contains inexhaustible supplies of the purest iron ore.

We learn that it is the intention of the new firm to make extensive improvements at the Works, and to construct a railroad from Pine Grove to the Cumberland Valley railroad .-This will give employment to a large number of laborers, and be the means of putting in circulation a great deal of money.

THE HOLIDAY SEASON is drawing near. Everybody is now beginning to think of what they body is now beginning to think of what they will buy to make some other body happy during the festive season. To all such we commend the advertising columns of the Telegraph as worthy their attention. As a general rule it may be taken for granted that all who advertise are enterprising and fully up with the times. They who invite public attention to what they have to sell will always be prepared for the closest public inspection. be prepared for the closest public inspection. They expect to make large sales, and therefore buy so as to sell at resonable profits Our general knowledge of the dealers who adour general movings of the details who active in this paper fully justifies us in commending them as enterprising and honorable business men, with whom it is always a pleasure to deal, and we confidently believe such will be the experience of all who try ROUSE'S STAR COMBINATION COMPANY continues to draw fine audiences. There was a large crowd present last night, when the emotions drama of East Lynne was performed. Full satisfaction was rendered. This evening the thrilling tragedy of Lucretia Borgia will be produced—Miss Fanny B. Price appearing as the Poisoner. Another opportunity will not be afforded our citizens to witness the famous tragedienne in this great character. She will be sustained by the full strength of the Star troupe. Mr. D. Hanchett, and Mr. Meeker, both actors of great ability, appear in characters suited to them. The entertainment will conclude with the amusing afterpiece of Mr. AND Mrs. Peter White, or "The Blessed Baby." Go to Brant's Hall this evening. The bill is one of the best presented this season.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

Notice.—Citizens of Latrobe, Westmorehand county: Samuel Hassinger, late of your borough, takes this method to renew his acquaintance and inform you that he is located at Harrisburg, Pa., with C. L. Bowman, in the dry goods business, at the cheap store No. 1, southeast corner of Front and Market

A CARD.

Owing to the constantly increasing demand for his Hair Restorative, Prof. Sibbet has been induced to remain in Harrisburg until Tuesday noon of next week; positively no longer.— There are now a great many of our citizens who have been using the Professor's Restorative for some time, and they unite in one common testimonial, as to its efficiency in leansing the scalp from dandruff, enlivening the hair and arresting it from falling off.— This result secured, the hair must rapidly grow and thicken, it cannot be otherwise. Persons who have not as yet called on Mr. S., can still have this further opportunity. He saye that he can convince the judgment of any one by a process of reasoning, whose correctness all will acknowledge, that the hair can be restored when the glands of the scalp are not entirely disorganized. This Restorative as a dressing for the hair is pronounced to be superior to anything now before the public, being entirely free from oil or any other injurious property, and as a Restorative it speaks for itself. It has never been known to fail.

A CARD. To the Ladies of Harrisburg.—In order to reduce my stock of dry goods previous to taking inventory, I have reduced all kinds of dress goods twenty-five per cent., from this day until January 1st, 1865. As the holidays approach it will certainly be to your advantage to examine my large stock of dress goods, cloaks, shawls, scarfs, gloves, hose and hundreds of other articles suitable for holiday Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C.A. Bannvart-Dear Sir; I have used Brown's Bronchial 'Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have round need, most effectually.

To C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: Having used your Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice, arising from public speaking or singing.

Yours, &c., G. G. RAKESTRAW,
Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church. DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 29, 1864. To C A. BANNYART—Dear Sir. I have found your Troches to be invaluable in relieving hoarseness and in strengthening the muscles of the throat. They impart clearness to the voice, and are certainly of great benefit to all public speakers.

Dr. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The Specific of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons massicate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would al-ways recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.
