HARRISBURG, PA.

FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 16, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

COM. FOOTE, with his miniature chariot, drawn by Six White Trained Goats, are coming!

SNOW.-We had another fall of snow yesterday and last night, but not sufficient to render sleighing pleasant.

THE ENROLLED MEN of the Fifth ward, will meet at the office of Alderman Bower, this evening at 71 o'clock.

BUTTER is selling at 60 to 70 cents a pound in Harrisburg lately. Have the farmers there got no conscience?—Ebensburg Alleghanian. "Nary" conscience, on market mornings!

J. M. Wiestling, Esq., has removed his law office to his residence on Walnut street, nearly opposite the First National Bank, and doors from Second street. His clients will always find him ready to attend their wants. See card.

Gen. KNIPE. - By reference to our telegraphic columns it will be seen that Gen. knipe participated in the fight at Nashville, yesterday. The General is always prominent in engagements with enemy, distinguishing himself by his bravery.

A FIGHT occurred between two darkies on Third street, near Mulberry, last night, in which one of them sustained serious injury. His head was badly cut and his nose broken. The affray was caused by a third party-a

We notice that the express wagons are crowded, daily, with boxes en route for the army. The boxes are filled with articles suitable for holiday dinners, which the brave boys will doubtless enjoy to the fullest extent. Let the boys know that their friends at home care for them.

THE GOOD WORK CONTINUES.—The revivals in the Ridge Road M. E. Church, and Salem Church on North street, are still in progress, and are increasing in interest. Many persons have professed conversion. May the good work continue. It was needed, and its continuance would accomplish a great amount GRAND DISPLAY.—Among the business items will be found the card of Mrs. Mayer, who announces that she will sell goods at city wholesale rates until the first of January when an inventory will be taken, as usual. The assortment of furs is one of the most elegant in the city, and the variety of bonnets, cloaks, circulars, trimmings, etc., for the la-dies cannot be surpassed. Great bargains may be had, and those desiring to purchase should go to Mayer's.

FIRING ON THE SENTINEL AT THE ARSENAL Early yesterday morning, as one of the sentries at the arsenal was making his usual round, and when at the northeast corner he observed a man crouching along side of the fence of the public grounds. The sentry challenged him, when the individual responded by discharging a rev olver at him, firing two shots in quick succession. The sentry returned the fire, and charged at his assailant, who sprang over the fence and escaped.

CHRISTMAS IS APPROACHING with all its pleasant associations, and many persons are looking out for suitable presents. For our part, we have always been an admirer of useful and instructive gifts, amongst which we would especially class books, musical instruments, and all things which help to elevate the mind. Song and music in a household have a purifying influence upon the mind of the young, and therefore every family should try to cultivate this art amongst its members. We are led to e remarks by having spent a short time in Mr. Knoche's establishment, in Market street, where we saw a magnificent assortment of Cabinet Organs, Pianos, Melodeons and smaller which should be in the hand of every Pianist. Besides these, he keeps a splendid assortment of Photographic Albums, Paintings, Pictures and oval and square frames, and we advise our readers who are in want of any of these articles for gifts, to give Mr. K. a call. He surely can suit them.

LATTLE BAREFOOT. -This beautiful domestic drama, one of the best ever placed upon the stage, will be performed this evening, at Rouse's Theatre. The occasion has been set apart for the farewell benefit of Miss Fanny Price, who will appear in her personation of AMBI. We think it is the perfection of acting to see this young lady in this character, because she has brought it so near to nature that she loses her own identity and becomes imbued with the true and pure attri-butes of the part as depicted so faithfully by the dramatist.

Mr. Rouse will appear as Little Jemmy, and Mr. Meeker as William Peace. This is one of the best bills of the season, and worthy of patronage.

Saturday Matinee.—A grand afternoon per formance will be given to-morrow, for the accommodation of ladies and children who cannot attend in the evening. One of the best bills of the season will be presented. Families, take notice and attend.

IMPORTANT TO PARENTS AND CHILDREN. -By the following correspondence it will be seen that a list of truant scholars will be furnished regularly to the Mayor, by our teachers, in order that measures may be taken to put an end to the practice. Truants may find them-selves in the hands of the authorities if they persist in idly spending their time when they should be at school. Parents would do well to see that their children attend school regularly. Read the correspondence:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

HARRISBURG, Nov. 23, 1864.

To the President and Members of the Teachers

Institute: In view of the fact that our city is infested with truant-playing boys, who vagabondize during the day and depredate at night, I would respectfully request that each teacher, having the names of such upon their rolls, furnish a weekly or semi-monthly list of their names and residences, to be kept at this office, in order that the authorities may assist, as far as possible, in suppressing the perni-cious practice, and its consequent evils to socity at large. Yours, respectfully,
A. L. ROUMFORT, Mayor.

To the Hon. A. L. Roumfort, Mayor of the tily of Harrisburg:

DEAR SIB:—Yours of Nov. 23d was laid be fore the teachers of this city at a regular meeting of the institute held Dec. 5,

And, on motion, it was Resolved, That each teacher, in compliance with your request, furnish you with the names and residences of truants, by which you may be better enabled to prevent the evil practice of truant-playing.

Yours, respectfully, E. A. BISHOP, Sec'y of the Harrisburg Teachers' Institute. Day, 6, 1864.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

NOTICE.—Citizens of Latrobe, Westmore-land county: Samuel Hassinger, late of your borough, takes this method to renew his acquaintance and inform you that he is located at Harrisburg, Pa., with C. L. Bowman, in the dry goods business, at the cheap store No. 1, southeast corner of Front and Market

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. Owing to the constantly increasing demand for his Hair Restorative, Prof. Subbet has been induced to remain in Harrisburg until Tuesday noon of next week; positively no longer.—There are now a great many of our citizens who have been using the Professor's Restorative for some time, and they unite in one common testimonial, as to its efficiency in cleansing the scalp from dandruff, enlivening the hair and arresting it from falling off.— This result secured, the hair must rapidly grow and thicken: it cannot be otherwise. Persons who have not as yet called on Mr. S., can still have this further opportunity. He saye that he can convince the judgment of any one by a process of reasoning, whose correctness all will acknowledge, that the hair can be restored when the glands of the scalp are not entirely disorganized. This Restorative as a dressing for the hair is pronounced to be superior to anything now before the public, being entirely free from oil or any other injurious property, and as a Restorative it speaks for itself. It has never been known to fail. dec15-d2t

A CARD. To the Ladies of Harrisburg.—In order to reduce my stock of dry goods previous to taking inventory, I have reduced all kinds of dress goods twenty-five per cent, from this day until January 1st, 1865. As the holidays approach it will certainly be to your advantage to examine my large stock of dress goods, cloaks, shawls, scarfs, gloves, hose and hun-dreds of other articles suitable for holiday

Bannvart's Troches.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannvart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen: HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. C.A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges, and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and, in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of colds. I have sound need, most effectually.

W. C. CATTELL, Late Pastor of O. S. Presbyterian Church.

Harrisburg, Jan., 1864. To C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir: In the habi of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public address

Dr. Rand's Specific.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermatorhoea, Seminal Weakness Loss of Power &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.

Dr. RAND'S SPECIFIC is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the lowels from taking any kind of pills. The Speciffo of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medicinal virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired regenerative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.

Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by draggick everywhere.

Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all similar compluints.

The object of this Medicine is to soothe and ease the cough, to dissolve the congealed phlegm that adheres and sticks to the throat, which excites hacking, hawking, and coughing; to relieve the irritation in the throat, which is produced by catching cold on the slightest exposure. It expectorates the diseased matter that has accumulated in the Lungs which retards and oppresses the rospiratory or breathing organs, heels and nourishes the lungs and bronchial tubes.

This medicine gives tone to the stomach, it purifies and circulates the blood, which causes oppression of the chest and difficulty in breathing.

Good News for Mothers and Children.—Here is the sufferer's balm; keep it in your family, sickness comes as the fin the night, and your child is sufficated by the awful discusse, Croup, or similar complaints. Here is a preventative—it is nature's friend.
