

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

supplement to the Telegraph.

In order to accommodate our numerous advertising customers, we shall issue a supplement to the TELEGRAPH, on Wednesday next.

The Legislature will assemble in this city on Wednesday next.

Our first page contains a large amount of glorious news from the armies of the Union.

Do not forget the great sale of captured rebel cattle, to commence on Monday, at York. Three thousand head will be sold.

A WEDDING occurred at Altoona a couple of Sundays ago, and two days after being "hitched," the bride ran away with another fellow!

ELLINGER AND FOOTE'S combination of attractions at the National Hall, corner Second and South streets, Wednesday evening, December 21st.

The Northumberland County Bank, at Shamokin, is now a national institution. Its title is "Northumberland County National Bank."

The Ebensburg Allegian contains the following bit of wholesome advice: "If you want a good daily newspaper, subscribe for the Harrisburg TELEGRAPH."

CATTLE COMING.—On Saturday last, two thousand head of cattle, the fruits of Gen. Merritt's expedition to Loudon Valley, Va., passed through Frederick, Md., en route for Pennsylvania.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH, CHESTNUT ST.—Divine service to-morrow (Sabbath) morning and evening at the usual hour. Preaching by the pastor elect, the Rev. Wm. H. H. Snyder.

Some of the copperheads say they will have to quit attending church, as the preachers are all opposed to their (copperhead) party. A county editor says "the preachers are also united in their opposition to the devil."

One of the teachers at Middleburg, Snyder county, while whipping a boy, accidentally knocked an eye out of another. The rod was broken, and the end of it struck the unfortunate lad in the eye, with the result stated.

A DABBY, while carrying a basket of eggs from market this morning, met with a collision. His feet slipping, the pavement flew up and knocked him down, and the eggs were scattered in every direction. A costly accident, at this season of the year.

NOTWITHSTANDING the very inclement state of the weather throughout the night, market was well attended this morning, and the display of everything was abundant. "Locomotion" was rather difficult, on account of the ice that covered the pavements.

The rain which fell last night glazed the face of nature in this region, making the streets and sidewalks as smooth as glass and as sleek as soft soap. If the majority of our population did not "come down" this morning, it exhibits an alarming state of depravity, since it is the wicked that are said to stand on slippery places.

DISORDERLY.—Last evening the notorious Cal Paris was arrested by officer Weitzel for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. When in the lock-up her screams and oaths annoyed the citizens within several squares of the Mayor's office, until she was finally sent to Fort Simmons, where she became quiet.

The greatest attraction in our city is caused by the exhibition of a large and varied assortment of fancy goods, adapted for Christmas and New Year gifts, by Kunkel & Bro., 118 Market Street. We would advise all who desire anything in their line to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere.

ENGRAVINGS FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—The finest stock of engravings, plain and colored, ever brought to this city can now be seen at W. Knoche's Music Store, 93 Market Street. All friends of this art are invited to call and examine, as they certainly can spend an hour very delightfully in looking over this selection.

HOW TO SHOW YOUR FRIENDSHIP FOR THIS PAPER.—We can adopt the following language of a cotemporary: "Subscribe and pay for it. Send your printing and advertising to this office. Help to make the paper interesting by sending items of local interest to the reader. Do not expect the editor to call attention to your errors brought to this office. If any of our readers consider these suggestions personal we advise them to ease their consciences at once."

LOOK OUT FOR AN IMPOSTOR.—We have been informed that parties are soliciting subscriptions for the new brass band about being started in this city. Those really engaged in the organization of this band, have never authorized any person to solicit such subscriptions, and therefore the persons asking money for this purpose are rank impostors, whom the public should sternly repulse. If the members of the band find it necessary to appeal to their fellow citizens for aid, the proper notices will be given in the TELEGRAPH, and a reputable committee appointed to wait on the people.

A SILVER MEDAL TO HARRY DAVIS.—We find the following description of the presentation of a medal to our young friend Harry Davis, the artist of the Panorama of the Great Rebellion, in the Star of Green, published at Cardiff, Wales: "Presentation.—Coffee a bathodyn llyn ar dydd Llyn, Hydref 24ain, 1864, ar ba ddymnod y cyffwrdd Harri H. Davis, o Went, yn Nheudir Cymru, Llyr o Bhanhigion gwyll Americanaidd wedi eu casglu a syhgwand'o et i Argylwyddes Llanover "Gwynnyn Gwent," yn Eisteddfod Cymreigyddol Llanover.—A medal containing the above inscription was presented to Mr. Henry H. Davis, the well known painter of the Panorama of the American War. The medal is of silver, bearing on one side a representation of the oak surrounded by oak leaves, and the reverse, wheat and the mistletoe. The medal has two clasps or buckles with white and green ribbon. The upper one bearing the name of Lady Llanover, the lower one that of the Welsh artist, Harry H. Davis. The words "Cymreigyddion Llanover, Hydref 24ain," are also inscribed on the medal.

FALSE.—The marriage notice of Mr. J. V. Buser and Miss Eva Banks, published in our paper of yesterday—no such marriage having taken place. The notice was left at our office by Milton Stoner, an employee in the telegraph office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. He says it was only intended as a "joke." Rather a dangerous manner of "joking," Milton!

We publish some very important news this morning. Some of our forces have advanced from Tennessee into Virginia, along the East Tennessee and Virginia railroad which is one of the principal lines running to Lynchburg, and over which the rebels at Richmond received a large portion of their supplies. Other glorious news will be found in this morning's paper.

THE HUNTRESS OF THE MISSISSIPPI.—To-night Miss Fanny B. Price will make her farewell appearance at Brant's Hall. On this occasion she will sustain her popular character of MIAMI, THE HUNTRESS OF THE MISSISSIPPI, in the very exciting drama of that name.

The capital piece, and Miami is one of Miss Price's favorite characters. Let all who desire to see her admirable performances go to Brant's Hall this evening. The Theatre will be closed for a short time after to-night. On Monday next Rouse's great Combination Company will leave our city, for a very short season, during which time they will visit Reading, Lancaster and several other cities and towns. We heartily recommend the troupe to the citizens of these places, and assure them that they are about to witness the very best dramatic entertainments ever given in their respective towns. The manager, Mr. W. A. Rouse, is a gentleman in every sense of the term, and has the best company in the State, out of Philadelphia. Our brethren of the press will find Mr. R. prompt to meet all engagements, or contracts made, and a wholesome man worthy of confidence, who can safely be recommended to their patrons. The company will re-appear in our city on the 16th of January.

A GENTLEMAN from a neighboring town, seeing a lady in the street in a very fine dress, as he thought, begged her to be pleased to tell him where she purchased it. The lady, a little surprised at the question, called him an impudent fellow.

"Why, I hope no offence, madam," cried he; "I am a man, just going out of town, and my wife generally expects I should bring her something, and as it is near Christmas, I thought a fine dress like that, would not fail to please a good house wife, which occasioned my inquiry."

"Sir, it was purchased at A. F. Brant's new cheap store on the southeast corner of Walnut and Second streets," where the gentleman called after relating his story, and had his wishes amply gratified. dec17-2t

POSITIVELY SELLING OUT! The undersigned being desirous of closing out his stock on account of taking an inventory, will sell the following articles until January 1st, 1865, at lower than Philadelphia and New York wholesale prices:

Ladies' bonnets and hats. Misses hats. Hair nets. Head-dresses. Ladies' cloaks and circulars. Fur capes and muffins. Ladies' and Misses' woolen hoods and nubias. Sontags and riding hoods. COSETTES, plain, embroidered and hemstitched handkerchiefs. Embroidered and morning collars. Ladies' scarfs. Ribbons, bonnet silks, velvets, flowers, rushes, laces, bonnet ornaments, feathers, &c. Dealers would do well to call and examine my stock, as they can buy their goods lower than city wholesale prices. Call one and all and judge for yourselves. M. MATHER'S Bonnet and cloak store, 13 Market street, between the River alley and Front street. dec15-4t

A CARD. To THE LADIES OF HARRISBURG.—In order to reduce my stock of dry goods previously to taking inventory, I have reduced all kinds of dress goods twenty-five per cent., from this day until January 1st, 1865. As the holidays approach it will certainly be to your advantage to examine my large stock of dress goods, cloaks, shawls, scarfs, gloves, hose and hundreds of other articles suitable for holiday presents.

Spl. Brownold, corner Second and Market, opposite Jones House, Harrisburg. dec15-3tjans

FEVER AND AGUE can be cured. Do not think because you have tried everything you can't read or hear of, that you cannot get anything to cure you, for you have not taken the pure vegetable that is curing every one that takes it. It does not stop your shaking for a week or two, but it is a perfect cure. A trial of this will convince you and your neighbors. It can be had only at No. 27, South Pine street, by Mrs. L. Ball. oct17-4t

DR. LOCKWOOD'S GREAT CURE.—Dr. Lockwood having become eminently successful in curing this terrible malarial, invites all similarly afflicted to call or send for circulars of references and testimonials of numerous cases cured of from one to twenty-four years' standing, and especially to diseases of the Liver, Spleen, Stomach, Spinal Axis, or Nervous System, and solicits an investigation of his claim to public confidence. He may be consulted at his private residence, No. 341 West 24th street, daily, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., except Saturday and Sunday. Address all letters to Dr. V. B. LOCKWOOD, New York. Care of P. O. Box 1114. oct16-4t
