HARRISBURG, PA.

MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 19, 1864.

TOWN AND COUNTRY. RECEIVED this afternoon at Keller's, a fine assortment of French Confections. POLICE AFFAIRS are dull. But two drunks were before the Mayor yesterday, and none

COL. SMALL, the celebrated Female Character Dancer, at the National Hall, Wednesday evening, December 21st.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Attention is invited to the advertisement of C. A. Boas, who has a very extensive-assortment of clocks, watches and jewelry, suitable for holiday presents.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL -Mr. J. W. Jennings, the popular actor, who performed here with Rouse's troupe, last season, is now filling an engagement at Grover's theatre, in Wash-

CELERY.-Mr. William E. Hargest sends us a splendid bunch of celery, the best of the season. All lovers of the article will find a general supply of the same kind at his stall in the lower market house.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—M. H. Lee, Market street, has just received a large stock of Gold and Silver headed canes suitable for Christ-

land county, where he said some of his friends

THE greatest attraction in our city is caused by the exhibition of a large and varied assortment of fancy goods, adapted for Christmas and New Year gifts, by Kunkel & Bro., 118, Market street. We would advise all who desire anything in their line to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere

Johnson's Atlas will be presented to the citizens of Harrisburg by the agent, J. H. Leiper, who will give a fair representation of the work to those who will spend a few minutes and be entertained by such an intellectual feast. Mr. Leiper comes to us highly recommended as a true contemp. mended as a true gentleman.

ARREST OF A SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER.—A SUSpicious character who was lounging about the depot for several days, has been arrested and placed in prison. He gave the name of Charles Parker. Parties who visited the jail pronounce Parker to be a deserter from Carlisle. He will probably be sent there by the never return. While ten make fortunes by such investments, a hundred cast their money to the wind, as it were, by the same process.

A COMPLETE LIST OF FAMILY GROCERIES .-Shisler & Frazer have printed for general circulation, a neat pamphlet, containing a comculation, a neat pamphiet, containing a complete list of their stock of goods, which is calculated to be very useful to families. This pamphlet also contains several valuable recipes for preserving fruits, which can be had gratuitously by calling at the store of the firm, Market street, opposite the Court House.

REV. WM. H. H. SNYDER, who was recently REV. WM. H. H. SNIDER, who was recently elected pastor of the First German Reformed Church, in this city, has arrived, and yesterday he preached his introductory sermon, to a very large congregation. Mr. Snyder is a young minister, possessing great ability as a writer, and is a pleasant speaker. His sermon of yesterday is highly spoken of by those who heard it.

DESERTERS CAPTURED.—Six more deserters have been captured by Captain Ensminger's Company of the 201st regiment, and were taken to the Provost Marshal's headquarters, at Chambersburg. The men were captured in the vicinity of Bloody run, Bedford county. Captain Ensminger's men are doing a good work in the benighted region in which the company is stationed. Numerous cap-tures have been made, and the deserters in all cases forwarded to headquarters without a single escape being effected.

Connecticut paper contains the following announcement:

·Married -- In the public highway at Green Holland, in Voluntown, Ct., on Sunday, the 5th inst., about 1 o'clock P. M., the rain pouring in torrents from the clouds, with high winds from the southeast, by Elder Charles Weaver, while on the way to attend the funeral of Mrs. Amy R. Gallup, wife of Benjamin Gal-iup, 2d, Esq., of Voluntown, who died November 3, aged 26 years, Mr. John Tanner of the former place, to Miss Mary Carter of Hopkinton, county of Washington and State of Rhode

THE "SWORD SWALLOWER" ABRESTED-He is Ordered to Leave the City within Twelve Hours.—Several months ago a one-horse show was opened on Third street, opposite the Telegraph office, and a "happy family," composed of a large number of mice and a coon, were exhibited. Shortly afterward a coon, were exhibited. "sword-swallower" and other features were added to the "attractions." An old windbroken organ annoyed the citizens of the vicinity, by its horrible screeching in murder-ing "Old Hundred" and other tunes that it attempted to play. The very limited patronage bestowed upon the establishment were certainly inadequate to pay the expenses of rent and oil, to say nothing of a dividend among the "stars." A case has at last been among the "stars." A case has at last been brought to light which is sufficient to convince the public that other than lawful measures have been resorted to to "raise the wind" necessary to keep the concern in motion.

On Saturday evening E. W. Webb, the "sword-swallower," was taken into custody on a charge of arresting George Jenkins and another young man, and locking them in a room, for the alleged purpose of placing them in the army as substitutes. Webb was taken before the Mayor, and after a hearing was committed to prison until Sunday morning, when he seein appeared before the His Hong, when he again appeared before His Honor, who, after investigating the case, ordered the defendant to leave the city within twelve hours. The Mayor strongly hinted that the establishment was not run for the purpose of doing any good to the public, and our citizens would rejoice to learn that the whole concern, "happy family" and all, including those in charge of it, had determined to leave town.

The young men arrested by Webb are Virtue.

ginians, and somewhat ignorant, and had not the chief of police learned of their arrest and confinement, and rescued them, they would doubtless have been placed in the service, and and swindled out of their bounty.

Brady, the Market street baker, advertises an arrival of Whitman's celebrated confectionery, from Philadelphia. Call at Brady's, and examine the assortment. Mr. B. is also prepared to furnish a splendid assortment of colors switchle for the helidars. We have been permitted to test the quality of a fine cake, and would advise all who desire a good article to give Brady's a trial.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD.-We learn NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—We learn that the work of laying the second track on the line of this road is progressing rapidly, notwithstanding the fact that winter is at hand. A large number of men are engaged upon various sections of the road, and at a day not very distant the Northern Central line will be supplied with a double track from Baltimore to Sunbury. When this is com-pleted the traveling public will be relieved of the most of the vexatious delays which are unavoidable upon a single track line. The constantly increasing business of the North-ern Central road rendered an additional track

BUSINESS ITEMS.

AUCTION .- Mr. Barr will sell, on Wednesday norning at market, (fair weather,) a large lot of glass jars, candies, tin, wood and China toys, fancy work-boxes, segars and tobacco, apples, 25 bushels of chestnuts. peanuts, and shellbarks, together with a variety of other Christmas articles, from a firm in the city closing out. Sale to commence at 7 o'clock. dec19-2t

CHRISTMAS. -The celebration of Christmas day, as one of merriment, feasting and presents, runs far back into the misty periods of Christian antiquity. The modes of enjoying the festival have been various, not only in difstreet, has just received a large stock of Gold and Silver headed canes suitable for Christmas Presents. Also, a fine assortment of Watches and Jewelry. Call and see them.

Died in Prison.—Joseph M. Marsh, an old soldier, died in prison yesterday where he had been sent for drunkenness. It seems that he formerly lived in Watsontown, Northumberland country where he said some of his friends and several service where he said some of Gold the festival have been various, not only in different nations, but in different parts of the whole same country. In our city of Harrisburg, Christmas is the peculiar holiday of the whole wear. In country villages, like New York, they make a great ado on New Year's day; but with us it is but the feeble fag-end of the festival which opens with Christmas. The approach of the season is heralded by seductive advertisments of all sorts of things which enterprise asserts are suitable for presents. The terprise asserts are sintable for presents. The stores are choked with customers, and as the eve of the happy day approaches, parcels—portentous of gifts—are in almost every pedestrian's hands; and the incessant peal of front door bells, heralding the delivery of them, takes the place of "The chimes which in olden times Rang out upon Christmas Eve.

In this connection I am authorized, by C. L. Bowman, to say that for the purpose of in-creasing his business, and offering an addi-tional inducement to those disposed to obtain Christmas presents at low prices, he will sell during this week, furs, cloth circulars, coats and Chesterfield's for ladies, balmoral skirts brocha and plaid wool shawls, merino scarfs and fancy dress goods, at a very small profit. Store No. 1, southeast corner of Front and Market streets. Yours, &c., J. T. VAN HORN.

Harrisburg, Dec. 5, 1864. I consider "Johnson's New Illustrated Family Atlas" decidedly superior to any other work of the kind with which I am acquainted. Oil is King.—The newspapers are full of oil; and capitalists are investing in oil.— Whenever you go, oil, oil, oil, oil, oil, oil, oil on the brain" will invest capital that will observed into so small a compass. Another will be a compassed into so small a compass. Another will only the compassion of the compassion o compressed into so small a compass. Another feature of the Atlas is, that it is so are ranged that other maps can be fastened into the volume wherever desired. If in the pro-gress of the war, or in consequence of the for-mation of a new Territory or State, new maps become necessary, they can be put into the work just where they are required. The pubishers give to each subscriber a document in which they obligate themselves to furnish all such maps as may be published, at the cost such maps as may of postage.

No private or public library can be considered complete without a copy of the work.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 17, 1864. Having purchased Johnson's Family Atlas in 1860, I lately availed myself of the privi-lege extended by the new house of Johnson & Ward, of obtaining such new maps as they have issued since 1860, to the number of four-MARRIAGE IN THE OLDEN TIMES.—An old shall have them entered in their proper onnecticut paper contains the following anplaces.

T. H. ROBINSON. P. S.—They also furnish over one hundred pages of additional printed matter, including the record of the war down to January 1864.

> A GENTLEMAN from a neighboring town, seeing a lady in the street in a very fine dress, as he thought, begged her to be pleased to tell him where she purchased it. The lady, a little surprised at the question, called him an impudent fellow.

"Nay, I hope no offence, madam," cried he "I am a man, just going out of town, and my wife generally expects I should bring her something, and as it is near Christmas, I thought a fine dress like that, would not fail to please a gude house wife, which occasioned my inquiry."

"Sir, it was purchased at A. F. Brandt's new cheap store on the southeast corner of Walnut and Second streets," where the gentleman called after relating his story, and had his wishes amply gratified.
