

TOWN AND COUNTRY

Supplement to the Telegraph.

In order to accommodate our numerous advertising customers, we shall issue a supplement to the TELEGRAPH, on Wednesday next. An edition of TEN THOUSAND will be printed, and advertisements for the same should be handed in by Tuesday evening.

COURT.—The next regular term of court for this county will commence on Monday, the 17th of January, and continue two weeks.

A CHRISTMAS BALL will be given at the Hope Engine House, on Friday evening next. A pleasant time is anticipated by the Hivers.

ELECTION.—An election for officers of the Harrisburg Bridge Company will be held at the Eastern toll house, on Monday, the 2d of January.

WM. M. GRAY & Co. advertise a large assortment of fruits, jellies, and other goods, for which there is a heavy demand during the holiday season.

The Friendship Fire Company will give its annual ball on Monday evening, the 2d day of January. The Blooey Reds are doing their prettiest to render the occasion worthy of patronage.

There has been another sudden change in the weather. The late thaws and rains have given place to a cold wind, which had the effect of freezing up the water and mud on the streets.

OLD MISS KRINKLE is filling his budget at our notion stores, preparatory to making his annual visit, on Saturday night. He will make glad the hearts of many children, whose baskets and stockings will occupy their accustomed places in the chimney corner.

OUR ANNUAL NOTICE of the Advertising patrons of the TELEGRAPH will appear to-morrow, when we shall refer in fitting terms to the business and the business men of Harrisburg. Advertisers will please bear this in mind.

SHISLER & FEAZER open to-day, an immense lot of fruit in cans and jars, raisins, almonds, figs, oranges, prunes, &c., to which we direct the attention of the reader. In addition, the same firm has just received a splendid lot of sugars and syrups, for baking and table use. Indeed the stock of groceries at this establishment is now beyond all comparison.

A NATIONAL SALUTE.—By order of Governor Curtin one hundred guns were fired at noon, to-day, from Capitol Hill, in honor of the victories being achieved by the armies and navies of the United States. These victories now fill the nation with joy and gratitude, and have been won in time to add to the pleasures of the coming holidays.

CAPITOL EXTENSION.—We noticed this morning, that workmen were busily engaged in erecting a building on the Capitol grounds, to be used as a tool-house for those who are to be engaged on the Capitol extension. Mr. Simon, the contractor for this work, is now to break ground in a few days, and is now making arrangements for the mechanics and laborers necessary for this immense improvement.

BRADY, Market street, below Dewberry alley, has the honor of attracting to his place of business, crowds of people to admire and purchase the splendid productions of his oven. Indeed, Brady, as a baker, has no superior in the Commonwealth. His fancy cakes are beyond description, and his elegant appearance and refined taste, we have ever examined and tasted. It would be economy if those who consume great quantities of fancy cakes during the holidays, gave Brady the order to supply all they need, as he bakes cheaper and better than the same article can be produced in a family. It is almost as good as a feast to look at Brady's stock.

To the subscribers to the stock of the New York and Philadelphia Petroleum Company:—It is advertised that 50,000 shares of the Capital Stock of this Company will be reserved as Working Capital. To prevent misconception, the management desire to state that ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, (100,000,) in Cash, will be deposited with the Company's bankers, to be used only in the development of the magnificent property belonging to the Company, and for the legitimate contingent expenses. A large majority of the stock having been taken, the books will soon be closed. S. D. Ingram, Esq., No. 15, Market street, is Agent for the Company in this city.

PENNSYLVANIA OFFICERS EXCHANGED.—Among the officers of the following from Pennsylvania regiments:—

Capt. John Morris, 2d artillery; Col. John Frazer, 140th; Lt. Col. J. H. Connyngham, 52d; Capt. W. Robinson, 77th; Capt. Geo. O. Urwidler, 97th; Lieut. Oscar Robn, 73th; Lieut. W. C. Beck, 32d; Lieut. C. F. Barclay, 149th; Lieut. Chas Jones, 15th cavalry; Capt. G. S. Donahy, 7th Reserve; Lieut. W. H. Bricker, 3d Cavalry; Lieut. H. C. Potter, 18th cavalry; Lieut. F. R. Eastman, 2d Cavalry; Lieut. C. M. Hart, 45th; Lieut. E. D. C. Leard, 2d artillery; Lieut. H. S. Horton, 101st; Lieut. J. M. Gorman, 73d; Lieut. A. A. Sutherland, 2d cavalry; Capt. C. W. Newlan, 7th cavalry; Lieut. Myron Fellows, 149th; Col. Pennock Huey, 8th cavalry; Lieut. W. G. Dalton, 62d; Capt. J. T. Piggott, 8th cavalry; Lieut. W. A. Dailoy, 8th cavalry; Capt. H. K. Kelley, 118th; Capt. J. Krome, 3d artillery.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Joseph B. Rife, of the Sixth U. S. Infantry, passed through our city this morning, on his way home to Middlebrook, N. York Harbor, and is on a short leave in New York.

W. BROWN, well known in this city as a vocalist, and who was formerly connected with the opera house, is in town, on a short leave of absence. Mr. Brown is Captain's Clerk of the U. S. steamer Washburne, and was "in at the fight," when that vessel captured the rebel privateer "Florida," and received a dangerous wound. Mr. B. shot fired by the rebel "Ironclad," and was a very interesting description of the capture of the privateer. The Washburne is undergoing repairs, at Boston. Mr. Brown will remain in our city for several days. He is a brave soldier, and will doubtless be heard from when next his vessel "operates" up the enemies of the Union.

J. Ed. Fought and thirteen other members of the 201st regiment, arrived here last evening, from Alexandria. They are en route for Chambersburg, from which point they will be forwarded to their companies, (F, and G,) in Bedford county.

The tide of trade sets in at Keller's, where the most handsome display of holiday goods is found.

There is none equal to the confectionery sold at Keller's. A splendid variety now in store.

A. F. ZIMMERMAN, No. 52 Market street, is determined to attract the attention of the public, as well by the liberality of his advertising as by the extent, variety and magnificence of his stock of jewelry, watches, clocks, and silver ware. He has every article manufactured from precious metals or valuable stones calculated to adorn the person; he has watches of rare excellence, and clocks of unflattering correctness. Indeed it is only necessary for the public to give Zimmerman a call to discover that his stock contains something they need for use or ornament.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—It has been the custom of many of the Christian churches, not only in this country, but in different parts of the world, to observe the first week in January, each year, as a week of special prayer for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ. We understand that the Old School Presbyterian church of this city, in accordance with the recommendation of their General Assembly, has already made arrangements for a series of meetings to be held in that church during the week referred to, commencing with Sunday, the first day of the year. We presume that similar services will be held in most, if not all the other churches.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.—The following announcement of liberal newspaper enterprise is from the Boston Daily Advertiser:

"We see that Mr. Beecher and Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe are both writing for the Watchman and Register, of Boston. Mrs. Stowe is giving a series of graphic sketches of our most prominent public men, and Henry Ward Beecher, in his off-hand brilliant style, monthly letters from New York. The Watchman seems determined to maintain its position as one of the best family journals in the country. Its editorial staff is very large and able, and besides the contributors mentioned above, its prospectus of this year announces such eminent writers as President Sears, of Brown University; Dr. Lague, of Andover; and Mr. Beecher, with Peter Bane, the brilliant English Essayist, as its English Correspondent, and such writers as 'Carleton,' from the army. Such enterprise is an honor to the journalism of the country.

OUR PRISONERS.—The following, giving an account of members of the 87th Pennsylvania regiment, we clip from the York True Democrat. A report has been current here that all those whose names are included in the list, are dead. Such is not the fact, however. The names of the dead are Sergeant Edward Rudy, and Wm Ramsey, of Co B; Private Brennan, of Co C; and David Myers, of Co F. Sergeant Rudy is a son of Mr. J. J. Rudy, of our city. His death will be deeply lamented by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Charles E. Gotwalt, of this borough, who for a long time was confined as a prisoner of war in one of the Southern dens, arrived in this place a few days ago, having been recently exchanged. Mr. Gotwalt is a member of the 87th Penna. Volunteers, and the following is a list of the prisoners belonging to that regiment whom, with a few others whose names he does not recollect, he last saw at Millen, Georgia, on the 19th or 20th of November.

Co A.—Capt John Fahn, Serg Henry Shultz, Privates Samuel Andrews, Howard Anderson, William Shuman, Michael Marra, (exchanged), Charles Metzgar, Peter Bott, Samuel Baumgardner, (wounded in neck), Harrison Kramer.

Co B.—Sergeant Edward Rudy, (died at Andersonville, Ga.), Privates George Rogah, (George Zentel), George Tommy, Samuel Zortman, (died at Millen, Ga.), Henry Welker, James Oran, William Ramsey, (died at Andersonville, Ga.)

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—The temple of Minstrelsy, in which are given chaste and drawing-room entertainments by Miller's National Minstrel Troupe. It is the largest and best troupe we have witnessed for some time. Second night of the laughable after-piece, written by Andy Williams, entitled "The Musicians"; Second night of the "Oil Borens"; Second night of the "Young Men's Seminary."

SELLING OFF OUR WHOLE STOCK OF DRY GOODS.—Among the goods we are selling off, we have 25 dozen of hemstitched ladies' pocket handkerchiefs, 30 dozen of gentlemen's linen pocket handkerchiefs, 25 dozen of small woolen stockings, at 15 cents per pair, 200 yards of remnants of paramattas, at half price, 50 black cloth cloaks and circulars, at 9, 10 and 12 dollars.

FURS! furs! at very low prices, to close out 200 gentlemen's neck ties at 25, 35 and 45 cents. Broche shawls, in double and single, 200 pieces of calicos and muslins, 500 pieces of black alpaccas, bombazines and merinos, 500 dozen of woolen and cotton stockings, 45 dozen of gentlemen's woolen and cotton socks.

I would call particular attention to some bleached muslin we have at 35 cents per yard, 50 pieces of red, white and yellow wool flannel, all to be sold cheap, in order to close out our stock. Persons in want of dry goods, would do well to call before purchasing. N. B.—15 pieces of black silks at great bargains. S. LEWY.

AGONY.—Mr. Barr will sell, on Wednesday morning at market, (fair weather,) a large lot of glass jars, candies, tin, wood and China toys, fancy work-boxes, seggers and tobacco, apples, 25 bushels of chestnuts, peanuts, and shellbarks, together with a variety of other Christmas articles, from a farm in the city. Christmas articles, from a farm in the city, closing out. Sale to commence at 7 o'clock. dec19-2t

A CARD.—To the LADIES of HARRISBURG.—In order to reduce my stock of dry goods previous to taking inventory, I have reduced all kinds of dress goods twenty-five per cent., from this day until January 1st, 1865. As the holidays approach it will certainly be to your advantage to examine my large stock of dress goods, cloaks, shawls, scarves, gloves, hose and handkerchiefs of the articles suitable for holidays presents.

Sol. Brownold, corner Second and Market, opposite Jones House, Harrisburg, dec13-dtjan5

POSITIVELY SELLING OUT! The undersigned being desirous of closing out his stock on account of taking an inventory, will sell the following articles until January 1st, 1865, at a price that Philadelphia and New York wholesale prices: Ladies' bonnets and hats, Misses hats, Hair nets, Head-dresses, Ladies' cloaks and circulars, Fur capes and muffers, Ladies' and Misses' woolen hoods and nubias, Sontags and riding hoods, COBSETS, plain, embroidered and hem-stitched handkerchiefs, Embroidered and morning collars, Ladies' scarfs, Ribbons, bonnet silks, velvets, flowers, ruffles, laces, bonnet ornaments, feathers, &c. Dealers would do well to call and examine my stock, as they can buy their goods lower than city wholesale prices. Call on me all and judge for yourselves. M. MAYER'S Bonnet and cloak store, 13 Market street, between River alley and Front street. dec15-1t

SUBSTITUTE PAPERS promptly made out by Sullivan S. Child, claim agent, Walnut street, 3d door below Third. d8-4m

CHRISTMAS.—The celebration of Christmas day, as one of merriment, feasting and presents, runs far back into the misty periods of Christian antiquity. The modes of enjoying the festival have been various, not only in different nations, but in different parts of the same country. In our city of Harrisburg, Christmas is the peculiar holiday of the whole year. In country villages, like New York, they make a great ado on New Year's day; but with us it is but the feeble lag-end of the festival which opens with Christmas. The approach of the season is heralded by seductive advertisements of all sorts of things which enterprise asserts are suitable for presents. The stores are choked with customers, and as the eve of the happy day approaches, parcels—portentous of gifts—are in almost every pedestrian's hands; and the incessant peal of front door bells, heralding the delivery of them, takes the place of "The chiming which in olden times Rang out upon Christmas Eve." In this connection I am authorized, by C. L. Bowman, to say that for the purpose of increasing his business, and offering an additional inducement to those disposed to obtain Christmas presents at low prices, he will sell, during this week, fur, cloth circulars, coats and Chesterfield's for ladies, balmaral skirts, broche and plaid wool shawls, merino scarfs, and fancy dress goods, at a very small profit. Store No. 1, southeast corner of Front and Market streets Yours, &c., J. T. VAN HORN.
