DYSPEPSIA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSPEPSIA.

I, ELIZABETH BRANSON, of Brandywine, Del., formerly of Old Chester, Del., do certify that, for one year and a half I suffered everything but death from that awful disease called Dyspepsia. My whole system was prostrated with weakness and nervous debility; I could not digest my food; if I ate even a cracker or the smallest amount of food, it would return just as I swallowed it; I became so costive in my bowels that I would not have a passage in less than from four and often eight days; under this immense suffering, my mind seemed entirely to give way. I had a dreadful horror and evil forebodings. I thought everybody hated me, and I hated everybody; I could not bear my husband nor my own children, everything appeared to be horror-stricken to me; I had no ambition to do anything; I lost all my love of family and home; I would ramble and wander from place to place, but could not be contented; I felt that I was doomed to hell, and that there was no heaven for me, and was often tempted to commit suicide, so near was my whole nervous system destroyed, and also my mind from that awful complaint, Dyspepsia, that my friends thought best to have me placed in Dr Kirkbride's hospital, West Philadelphia; I remained there nine weeks, and thought I was a little better, but in a few days my dreadful complaint was raging as bad as ever. Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and his treatment for Dyspepsia, my husband called on Dr. Wishart and stated my case to him. He said he had no doubt he could cure me. So in three days after I called and placed myself under the Doctor's treatment, and in two weeks I began to digest my food, and felt that my disease was fast giving way, and I continued to recover for about three months, and at the present time I enjoy perfect health of body and mind, and I most sincerely return my thanks to a merciful God and Dr. Wishart, and to his great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial that saved me from an Insane Asylum and premature grave. All persons suffering with Dyspepsia are at liberty to call on me or write, as I am willing to do all the good I can for suffering humanity. ELIZABETH BRANSON, Brandywine, Del., formerly of Old Chester, Delaware county, Pa.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

DR. WISHART—I have been a constant sufferer with Dyspepsia for the last eighteen years, during which time I cannot say I ever enjoyed a perfectly well day. There were times when the symptoms were more aggravated than at others, and then it seemed it would be a great relief to die. I had at all times an unpleasant feeling in my head, but latterly my sufferings so much increased that I became almost unfit for business of any kind; my mind was continually filled with gloomy thoughts and forebodings, and if I attempted to change their current by reading, at once a sensation of icy coldness in connection with a dead weight, as it were, rested upon my brain; also, a feeling of sickness would occur at the stomach, and great pain to my eyes, accompanied with which was the continual fear of losing my reason. I also experienced great lassitude, debility and nervousness, which made it difficult to walk by day or sleep at night. I became averse to society, and disposed only to seclusion, and having tried the skill of a number of eminent physicians of various schools, finally came to the conclusion that, for this disease at my present age (46 years) there was no cure in existence. But, through the interference of Divine Providence, to whom I devoutly offer my thanks, I at last found a sovereign remedy in your Dyspepsia Pills and Tar Cordial, which seem to have effectually removed almost the last trace of my long list of ailments and bad feelings, and is their place health, pleasure and contentment are my everyday companions.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

HEAR WHAT MR. JOHN H. BABCOCK SAYS.

No. 1028 OLIVE STREET,
Philadelphia, January 22d, 1863.

DR. WISHART—Sir:—It is with much pleasure that I am now able to inform you that, by the use of your great American Dyspepsia Pills, I have been entirely cured of that most distressing complaint, Dyspepsia. I had been grieviously afflicted for the last twenty-eight years, and for ten years of that time have not been free from its path one week at a time. I have had it in its worst form and have dragged on a most miserable existence—in pain day and night. Every kind of food that I ate filled me with wind and pain, it mattered not how light, or how small the quantity. A continued belching was sure to follow. I had no appetite for any kinds of meats whatever and my distress was so great for several months before I heard of your Pills, that I frequently wished for death. I had taken everything that I had heard of for Dyspepsia, without receiving any benefit; but on your Pills being recommended to me by one who had been cured by them, I concluded to give them a trial, although I had no faith in them. To my astonishment, I found myself getting better before I had taken one-fourth of a box, and after taking half a box, I am a well man, and can eat anything I wish, and enjoy a hearty meal three times a day, without inconvenience from anything I eat or drink. If you think proper, you are at liberty to make this public and refer to me. I will cheerfully give all desirable information to any one who may call on me.

Yours, respectfully, JOHN H. BABCOCK.

For sale at Dr. Wishart's Medical Depot, No. 10 North Second street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price One Dollar per box. Sent by mail, free of charge, on receipt of price.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

I, Samuel D. Haven, have been a great sufferer with Chronic Dyspepsia and Inflammation of the Kidneys for three years. I employed three or four of the most eminent physicians of Philadelphia, also of Burlington county N. J. They did all for me they could, but all to no purpose. I was constantly filled with awful pain and distress, and with constant belching of wind and sour acid. My tongue was covered with a white coating of mucus until it cracked in large furrows, and was dreadfully sore! Oh! I ofttimes wished for death to relieve me of my sufferings, for I had lost all hope of ever being well again. I made it a subject of prayer to God that he would direct me to some physician or medicine that would cure me. I was told to read an advertisement of Dr. Wishart's in the Philadelphia Ledger, of a great cure made upon Mr. John Babcock, of 1028 Olive street, Philadelphia, by the great American Dyspepsia Pills. I went to the Doctor's Office, and placed myself under his treatment, and told him if he failed to cure me, it would be the last effort I would make. It has been six weeks since I commenced the use of his medicine, and I am now a well man, free from all pain and distress, and can eat three hearty meals a day with comfort, and feel perfectly well. Dr. Wishart, I want you to publish my case, as I want every poor dyspeptic suffering as I was, to call on me, and I will tell them of the great cure I have received from your invaluable medicine. SAMUEL D. HAVEN.

The above are a few among the thousands which this great remedy has saved from an untimely grave.

We have thousands of letters from physicians and druggists who have prescribed and sold the Tar Cordial, saying that they have never used or sold a medical which gave such universal satisfaction.

EVENING EDITION.

From the 201st Regiment.

CAMP SLOUGH, WEST ALEXANDRIA, VA.,
Thursday Evening, Dec. 22, 1864.

EDITOR TELEGRPH—Dear Sir:—I have been abroad to-day, and replenished my note-book to some purpose. I paid a visit to the "Mount Cameron Reservoir and Water Works," under the superintendence of Daniel W. Lewis, Esq., an intelligent, clever, gentlemanly and communicative citizen of Alexandria. The water-works in question are built precisely on the same principle as those at Harrisburg, and are about the same capacity, and cost $100,000. They were erected, Mr. Lewis informed me, in the year 1851, under the supervision of Frederick Erdman, Esq., of Philadelphia, the same engineer that constructed the works at Harrisburg. It made me feel a trifle proud to learn of friend Lewis that Pennsylvania skill had left her mark here in old Virginia. The work is skillfully done, and the reservoir placed on a beautiful site, overlooking the city and Potomac river. A guard from the 201st, in charge of Corporal E. J. Mills, and privates Lorenzo D. Ramber, Samuel Shreadley, John Roberts and George Shultze, is placed around the premises, watching day and night; and our boys stationed there speak in the highest terms of Mr. Lewis and his family, for the many acts of kindness extended to them. I learned many interesting facts from friend Lewis, he being an old Virginian, and acquainted with many subjects of interest, pertaining to the history of Virginia. He remarked he did not claim to be an "F. F. V.," but that the family is at least two hundred years old—his ancestors were among the first settlers of the Old Dominion. Mr. L. exhibited to me an ordinary iron poker, which he assured me was used by the great Washington himself, to stir up his fires at Mount Vernon! You may rest assured it is valued by this interesting family, accordingly. Mr. Lewis is a modest, unassuming gentleman, and a genuine Unionist. His wife is a lady of refinement, well-bred and intelligent, (and, I beg her pardon)—handsome. She is proud of her sire, and informed me that her husband was a distant relative of George Washington, the father of his country. I contemplate visiting there in future, and have the promise of many interesting items from my much esteemed friend Lewis.

In the afternoon, in company with my friend Sergeant N——, of Company A, I paid a visit to my typo friend S——y, at the Castle on St. Asaph street, where we spent an hour with interest. There are 148 prisoners in the jail—some for trifling offences, who will receive corresponding sentences; and others answering to two or three aliases, who will stand a pretty good chance for three or four years confinement in Fort Delaware, if not a free passage to the Dry Tortugas for several years, for their misconduct toward the U. S. Government. The treatment of prisoners at this institution is strict, yet humane and respectful—plenty of substantial food and good clothing is furnished the culprits, by the Government.

We stepped out to one of the wharves and beheld a small army of men unloading forage, (hay, oats, &c.,) in large quantities, from canal-boats, barges and transports. Close to the Government buildings we saw and inspected two fine steam fire engines, numbered "1" and "2," built by the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, Massachusetts, for the exclusive use of the United States Government. They are of the largest class, elegantly finished and highly ornamented—each steamer furnished with a tender and sufficient quantity of hose. These engines are ready, at all hours, for action, and can be got under full headway in twenty minutes time.

From the wharves we sauntered up to corner of Washington and Cameron streets, where is situated "Christ's Church," a quaint-looking, old-fashioned Episcopalian house of worship—the same church in which Washington last worshipped in life. The exterior of the edifice has an air of antiquity about it—old-fashioned shutters, painted green, on both stories—an ordinary spire which much resembles that of an old-fashioned village church, the brick walls overhung with bright, green ivy; and the yard, probably embracing three acres, contains a number of trees of the aspen, ash, locust, mulberry, sycamore and red cedar species, with a small number of tomb-stones and monuments interspersed through the grounds. The sexton, Mr. Wm. M. Hunter, a typo, who has also charge of the U. S. M. R. R. Printing Office, informed us that the edifice is just 100 years old to-day! It was built in 1764, and finished on the 23d of December—the brick being brought from England. Mr. Hunter unlocked the door and admitted us into the church. It contains three rows of aisles, and on the left hand side, facing the pulpit, is a large double pew, the seats facing each other, and on the top of a panel at the entrance is a neat silver plate with the words Washington's Pew. It is numbered "60," and is not rented away under any consideration, but is reserved for the especial accommodation of strangers worshipping at this remarkable church. It holds probably 8 or 10 persons, and the pew is occupied by many distinguished visitors on days of worship. I will not attempt to describe my feelings, dear TELEGRAPH, as I reluctantly nestled myself in the soft crimson cushions, and reflected on the fact that on this sacred spot once sat the great and God-like Washington! O, sir, it made me feel unworthy of so great an honor. It almost seemed to me an act of sacrilege! Lee and family also occupied Washington's pew regularly, while attending Christ's Church, before the rebellion broke ou Mr. Hunter informed me that not long since an old man visited the church—he was a very old man—his head whitened by the frosts of many winters—and as he sat in the memorable "Washington's pew," for half an hour, his feelings so completely gained the mastery over him that he wept like a child, and the tears rolled down his furrowed cheeks like drops of rain! The pews and interior of the church were originally painted white, ornamented with gold. They are made to represent a beautiful oak graining. The pulpit is an ordinary one, plain, neat and unostentatious! On the right hand side is a tablet, in pannel-form, containing the words of the XX chapter of Exodus—the ten commandments. On the left side of the pulpit several verses, found in Psalms—a part of the impressive service of the Church of England—and the God-like admonition: "Do unto others as you would wish them to do unto you." A fine organ occupies a small gallery—just large enough to accommodate the choir—said to be the finest one in Alexandria. The good people were arranging festoons made of evergreens, and busily at work decorating the interior for holiday worship.

We are under many obligations to Mr. Hunter, who, by the way, is an Ohioian, and was formerly attached to the 7th Ohio Infantry—has seen active service in Southwestern Virginia, and in the Shenandoah valley. We will gladly accept the invitation of our typo friend to attend divine worship on Christmas eve, the Lord willing. While on the subject of churches, I will state that there are houses of worship of all Christian denominations here. The Methodist Episcopal Church North and the same church South, are directly opposite each other, on the same street, with this difference: The church North is on the south side of the street, and the church South on the north side!

A high wind prevailed all day causing the slosh and mud, ankle deep in the streets, to "dry up" instanter. It is intensely cold, and the steamers and sailing craft in the Potomac are belabored with floating ice.

The members of the band and drum corps are "fixing up" in fine style. They are to have caps ornamented with gold cord, and a cord or stripe of gold down the side of their pantaloons, and some becoming and tasteful trimming to their dress coats. Bully for the musical portion of the gay 201st!

There was an unusual amount of express goods brought to camp to-day—Christmas presents for the boys—but nary drop of sauer kraut! The boys want to know if there is any likelihood of its having been confiscated at Washington! Please inform us, and oblige truly yours, A. H. B.

The Advance of Our Forces.

HOOD STILL RETREATING

NASHVILLE, Dec. 27.

The advance of our army was, on Monday nigh, 21 miles south of Columbia, about half way between that place and the Tennessee river. The roads, on account of the heavy rains, were nearly impassable.

Hood is steadily retreating before our advancing troops. Prisoners who have deserted are being brought in every day. 200 reached here yesterday.

It is reported that Hood intends to reach the Tennessee River near the mouth of the Elk River. General Thomas having forced him considerably to the coast. The military authorities consider the situation as very encouraging.

Railroad and telegraphic communication is open to Columbia, on the Tennessee and Alabama rivers, and the road will now be in running order to Chattanooga. The river is at a stand, with 18 feet on the shoals.
