

LOCAL NEWS.

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

PATRIOT AND UNION.—The DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION can be had by Dauphin subscribers, every morning, at the periodical store of J. S. FRANK.

HEAVY FROSTS.—This vicinity was visited by very heavy frosts on Friday and Saturday nights, making havoc among the flowers and late vegetables.

ACCIDENT.—A Mr. Flowers, working at the Round House, on Wednesday, met with a severe accident that will result in all probability in the loss of one or more fingers. He was engaged working some machinery at the time.

STRAIGHT-OUT TICKETS.—The Union News, the Bell-Everett organ, of Saturday, takes strong ground in favor of a straight-out ticket. The Sentinel, of squatter sovereignty dogma, is firmer than ever against fusion.

DEAD.—We see by the Philadelphia papers that Henry C. Pratt, formerly a State Senator from that city and well known in our community, died at his residence, in Frankford, on Wednesday. He was buried with Masonic honors on Saturday.

THE LAMP POST, ordered by Council to be placed at the corner of Front street and Mary's alley, has been put in position. We trust now that our political friends in the First ward will have light enough at the next election.

CITY COUNCIL holds an adjourned meeting to-night on proposals for digging and filling a ditch, and building a sewer in South street between Third street and the Susquehanna river; and also for a sewer in Nagle street, leading from Race street to the river.

STREET WIDENED.—Third street, between North street and Hammon's lane, has been opened the entire way, and the supervisor has put it in temporary repair. That portion of that destined great thoroughfare requires filling and grading, which will soon be done.

THE original estimates for the cost of the New York ball to the Prince of Wales were that its expense could be covered by an assessment of $70 upon each subscriber, making a total of $28,000. Now it is ascertained that an additional tax of $30 will be requisite, which brings the expense of the affair up to $40,000.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE.—Information was made before the Mayor, on Friday evening, against the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company, for violating the ordinance requiring flagmen to be stationed at the corners of Front and Second streets. Summons were issued on Saturday, and a hearing of the case will take place next Friday, at 7 o'clock, p. m.

ANOTHER CONTEST.—Among the new counterfeits are 50 on the Clinton bank, New Jersey, altered. Vignette—man seated, girl pointing to a boy on the ground playing with a dog, two horses in the distance; on right end 5, V, 5; on left, same; temple of Liberty between the signatures. But little of this money circulates in this neighborhood, yet it would be well to look out for this bogus stuff.

THE market on Saturday morning was well attended. Butter is still plenty and moderate in price, the best selling from fifteen to sixteen cents per pound. Eggs rate high. Vegetables are plenty, while fruit is scarce—if we may except large quantities of apples, brought from the Northern part of our State and from New York. Cheese commanded twelve cents a quart—rather an exorbitant price, considering the abundance.

RECURS.—On Saturday noon a large detachment of raw recruits came over the Lebanon Valley route from New York city, on their way to Uncle Sam's headquarters at Carlisle barracks. They left in the 2 o'clock train for that place. The majority of them were stout, robust men, and seem well formed for military service; while others, we noted, will scarcely ever be able to endure the hardships of a soldier's life on our frontiers.

THE Democratic vote on the county ticket is exceedingly gratifying, and had it been at any other time than a gubernatorial election preceding a Presidential contest, we could easily have elected our entire ticket. It will be seen by reference to our official returns, published on Saturday, that while Curtis had a majority of 1,253 votes, Peter Hummel, candidate for Recorder, was only beaten by 739 votes; Peter Hoeker, for Commissioner, 179, and Henry Lauman, for Director of Poor, 866.

BUYER, Republican, leads Dr. Zerbe, Independent, only 531 votes. Good for old Dauphin; she done well in the local contest, and sends one honest, upright and conservative man, Dr. Heck, to the Legislature.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—The lock-up contained three occupants on Friday night—one "voluntary" and two lodgers by compulsion. The latter worthies were Irish—of opposite sex—representing themselves as man and wife. They were arrested for drunkenness. Although they pleaded hard to be put together in one cell, this was refused, and out of revenge, they made the night hideous with their shouts and curses against the officers who arrested them. In the morning, however, they changed the application of their choice epithets, and were lustily cursing each other. Upon a hearing before his Honor, the Mayor, the entire party were discharged, with injunctions to leave the city forthwith.

THE cross suits between Mrs. McGirk and Mrs. Cochran, Irish neighbors, living in Sixth street, above South, who brought an action for surety of the peace against each other, were dismissed, owing to their trivial character.

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED ROBBER.—Last Saturday afternoon Chief Morgan received a telegraphic dispatch from Jos. Wood, Chief of the detective police of Philadelphia, requesting the arrest of one Isaac Kengertz, a German Jew peddler, who was caught in Philadelphia with the robbery of eighty dollars in cash and $1,200 worth of jewelry.

It was ascertained that Kengertz had left Philadelphia at 5 o'clock, p. m., on Friday. Immediately upon the reception of the dispatch Chief Morgan proceeded to make inquiries in localities where it was supposed Kengertz would stop if in this city, but made no discoveries, further than that the fugitive was well known to the Jews hereabouts, and that he had previously resided here. The matter thus remained until about 8 o'clock last Saturday evening, when the Chief was informed by a person he had on the lookout that Kengertz had arrived in the train from Reading, and was then stopping at Barnhard's tavern, corner of Fourth and Walnut streets.

The Chief, accompanied by officer Fleck, at once proceeded to that locality and took Kengertz in custody to the Mayor's office, when his Honor, the Mayor, reminded him to prison for a further hearing this morning. Kengertz did not deny his name. A considerable portion of jewelry was found in his possession. Information of the arrest was dispatched to Philadelphia, and an officer from that city will arrive here this morning to take the prisoner in custody.

SAD ACCIDENT ON THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—On Wednesday evening last Jesse Bastian an old resident of Sunbury, aged about 60 years, was killed on the Northern Central railroad below the crossing of the Shamokin Valley road at that place. It seems, from what we can learn, that at the time he was engaged in carrying a bag of oysters from an oyster cart to a wheelbarrow standing on the opposite side of the road, and while crossing the main track an engine which was backing down to the engine house struck him, knocking him down, with his hand and arm on one rail and on the other his legs on the other. The driving wheels passed over him, completely severing his head from his body, cutting off his arm, and crushing his leg. His remains were taken to the residence of his son. The cause is not due to any neglect of the engineer of the locomotive, as the whistle had been distinctly sounded, but to the carelessness of the victim himself. Too much care cannot be taken by persons working or passing in the neighborhood of railroads—and we often wonder that not more accidents result from the recklessness of many.

NOT DROWNED.—We copied an article some time since, from one of our Lancaster exchanges of the mysterious disappearance of Mr. Campbell, receiving and shipping clerk at the iron works of David Reeves & Son, of that place, and was supposed to have been drowned. It will be recalled that Mr. Campbell went to the creek in the evening with the avowed intention of taking a bath. He was alone at the time, and as his clothing was found on the bank of the stream the next morning it was the prevailing opinion that he had been drowned. For several days after his disappearance, the stream had been dragged, but the body of the supposed drowned man could not be discovered. He was given up as lost, and the affair created considerable talk in the neighborhood. Imagine the surprise of the citizens of Safe Harbor, on Saturday last, in learning that Mr. Campbell had re-appeared at his home, alive and as "well as could be expected." Where he had been all the time no one knows, and he himself can give no reliable account of his whereabouts, nor the reasons for his mysterious disappearance.

ENTERPRISING.—With commendable enterprise, John B. Cox, Esq., has set to work with a determination that like another Phoenix from its ashes his saw-mill will soon again go on with its work. He is determined not to be idle, and is using strenuous exertions to rebuild his mill before the close of the season. The workmen are busy already in hewing the immense timbers used in its erection, the old rubbish having been nearly all cleared away. A few weeks hard and steady labor will see its completion. We are glad to see this spirit manifested in our citizens, for "where there's a will there's a way," and to "go-ahead" one must be ever active and vigilant in business. To succeed, "you must drive business—let not business drive you," is an old and good motto, and whoever follows its precepts will surely prosper.

INDIA RUBBER TREE.—The majority of our readers, and many strangers from abroad, have frequently seen at the Land Department, at the Capitol, a beautiful specimen of the Yatropha elastica, carotene or "India rubber tree," the property of Major Rehner, for many years the valuable and efficient Chief Clerk in that office. The Major has watched over and carefully tended that tree, and it would naturally be expected that, with its age has increased his veneration for it. Consequently, since his removal from his long and well-filled post, he has carried with him that memorial of many years. We saw the tree go by our office a few days since, and is now under the fostering care of Dr. George Duck, son-in-law of Major Rehner.

A MEDICAL OPINION UPON THE SCHOOL QUESTION.—The following paragraph appears editorially in the Medical and Surgical Reporter, a publication of established reputation in the profession: "In reference to the question now agitated, whether one or two sessions should be held in the public schools of this city, one of our daily papers appeals to the medical profession to give a decided opinion on the subject. One session, with a recess of half an hour, giving the children an opportunity to devote the afternoon to bodily recreation and preparatory study, is enough for all purposes; every hour spent in a second session only tends to cripple the children bodily and mentally."

Of course, this is the opinion of intelligent medical men, who examined the question thoroughly, as well as the opinion of good common sense.

THE PRESERVATION OF GAME.—The following excellent article, which we copy from the New York World, will be endorsed by all true sportsmen: Carlyle makes much grim sport over the nobility and gentry of England, for their assiduity in preserving their game. Perhaps greater interests may have suffered there, while spring lords were watching their preserves, and shooting and snipe were preserved, would speedily become extinct. The most barbarous and unsportsmanlike expedients, not for fair killing, but for ferocious massacre, in season and out of season, have been practiced. The motive is hardly conceivable. To kill a trout, for instance, when it lies unsuspecting in the shallow, under nature's spell, would scarcely be considered the zest of sportsmanship; while for food, the fish is, at such a time, simply insipid and unwholesome. The same is true of deer, and of every kind of fish, fowl, or fawn.

True sportsmen are awaking to the necessity of energetic and united action in this country for the purpose of preserving the game. As our great hunting party are public, and any man who means his rifle or sporting his fly, it is but reasonable that care should be so guarded by law as to secure the greatest public benefit and enjoyment. Recent laws have been passed, which, although not perfect, are much better than none. It only remains that they be enforced.

The annual convention of the sportsmen of the State was held at Syracuse on the 9th inst. One of its principal objects is to promote the observance of these laws, and to encourage the manly and athletic sports of the chase, under proper restrictions.

At the meeting of this convention, a more perfect organization was effected, and measures were taken for the formation of local associations, and to insure a system of watchfulness, to enforce the penalties of the law, when it is violated—as it is innumerable instances. Mr. Whitehead, of New York, who, we believe, was active in procuring the passage of the present game laws, gave an amusing account of the difficulties which he had encountered, but which were finally overcome by their manly justice and expediency. The next annual meeting of the convention will be held at Utica.

The object is commendable and practicable. There are genuine sportsmen even in every locality to insure a reasonable protection to the game when out of season, if they will take the pains. The interests of public health are deeply concerned in this matter. Unseasonable fish and game are entirely poisonous, and should be avoided as carefully as stale vegetables, uriciferous fruit, or stagnant water. It is not, therefore, merely to save the deer, woodcock and trout, that these laws are useful and should be enforced, but to protect the life and health of our citizens. The game laws are as arbitrary here as elsewhere. Game is undeciphered for food, but the "good creatures" that minister to us freely must have their annual vacation, or they will be like the quails in the wilderness, that brought disease and death to those who riotously abused them.

SOUTHERN AID SOCIETY. A meeting of all the evangelical denominations in our city met in the German Reformed Church yesterday afternoon to hear a sermon by the Rev. Luke Farham, agent of the Southern Aid Society, in aid of that Association. The meeting was largely attended. The object of this society is to aid gospel missions in the southern section of our country, and much good has resulted from the praiseworthy movement. Our own citizens, widely noted for their benevolence, will not fail to lend it a helping hand.

THE TONNAGE TAX CASE DECIDED.—The Supreme Court at Sunbury, on Wednesday, delivered an opinion, affirming the decision of Judge Pearson, in the suit against the Pennsylvania railroad company, for the tonnage tax, overruled. Judge Pearson decided the tax to be constitutional, and the Supreme Court, in affirming the decision, have thus decided that point against the railroad company. There is a large sum of money due the State, which will now have to be paid by the company into the State Treasury.

The "Fortress of the Union," at Old Point, has lately been somewhat renovated. It mounts a very formidable battery at present, which consists of more than 285 guns, capable of throwing 12,417 pounds of iron to a great distance. The Rip-Raps is approaching completion. It is to have 108 eight-inch Columbiads, 62 forty-two pound guns, all casemated, and 8 ten-inch Columbiads, and 46 nine-inch Columbiads, all embarrated.

APPLES AND CIDER AT THE CANAL.—Mr. John M. Queen, of Bradford county, has just arrived on the Gazette, canal boat, having on board a full cargo of sound pitted apples, principally Rhode Island Greenings and Rambos, with a few barrels of cider, for sale. The boats lay at Boaz & Foster's warehouse, foot of State street.

NEW GOODS! New Goods!—Having returned from New York, I have received now a large lot of goods, all of which I bought at auction. One hundred pieces of beautiful St. Flower De Laines, the best quality, which generally sells for 25 cents, at 20 cents; 50 pieces Unbleached Muslin, the best in town, at 10 cents; 150 pieces of Cassinets, Satinets and Cassimeres, from 25 cents up to $1.25 a yard; 25 pieces of White Flannel, cotton mixed, at 15 cents; 25 dozen of White Merino Stockings at 15 cents; 10 dozen Gent's All-Linen Pocket Handkerchiefs with Colored Borders, very fine, 81 cents; good Merino Undershirts and Drawers, at 65 and 75 cents a piece. A lot of beautiful Traveling Baskets. Best Calicoes, 10 cents, warranted fast colors.

Please call at Lewy's, at the old stand of John Rhoads, Esq., deceased.
