Cabinet Speculations.

The newspapers are busy fixing up Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet for him. As is usual after the election of a new President, all sorts of rumors are afloat with regard to the policy he intends to pursue; but for the most part they are mere rumors without any more substantial foundation than the imagination of those manufacturing them.

Secretary of State..... W. H. Seward. Secretary of War..... F. P. Blair, Jr. Secretary of the Navy..... H. W. Davis. Secretary of the Treasury..... J. Sherman. Secretary of the Interior..... John H. Reagan. Postmaster-General..... H. Eberidge. Attorney-General..... S. T. Logan.

It is very well to speculate upon the probability of Lincoln's selecting such men as SEWARD, BLAIR, SHERMAN, DAVIS and HICKMAN as his constitutional advisers, but the Senate will have something to say with regard to the composition of the Cabinet—and not one of these men could pass the ordeal of the conservative majority in that body.

What Ought the South to Do? In appealing to our citizens, before the election, to render such a verdict in that great contest as we believed would preserve the Union and the Constitution in their integrity, we freely expressed our apprehensions of danger in the event of a different result.

Movements at the South. The news from the South continues to be of an exciting character. Senator Casswell, of South Carolina, notified the Legislature, now in session, that he had resigned his seat in the United States Senate.

The only increased danger, therefore, to the South, is from the Executive. What can the President do? How can he invade Southern interests, fenced in as he will be, by opposition in the co-ordinate branches of the government?

The Legislature of Georgia determined, after some discussion, not to proceed immediately to the election of a United States Senator in the place of Mr. Iverson, whose term expires on the 4th of March next, because such proceeding would be taken as an intimation that Georgia intended to remain in the Union after the inauguration of the Lincoln Administration.

FRANCE.—Formidable naval preparations are going on, and some writers construe the recent council of war at St. Cloud as a palpable indication of an eventual campaign. The Emperor on the 31st reviewed 20,000 men near Paris, bivouacking, and all the proceedings of a regular campaign well represented.

FRANCE.—On the 27th the Sardinian fleet cannonaded the Royalists near Gaeta. The French Admiral dispatched a frigate to stop the firing. The Sardinian Admiral then retired and returned to Naples, expressing regret at the conduct of the French.

Too Knowing by Far. The most marvellously knowing set of fellows in the world are the Washington correspondents of the New York papers, who impart to the public daily intelligence of the precise state of the President's mind concerning the troubles at the South.

plunges us again into doubt when he says—"It is reliably stated that the President has determined to enforce every federal law in the South; nor will he, as has been hinted, recognize any distinction as existing between nullification and secession." This ought to settle the matter. Our reliable informant talks as if he knew all about it, and had either obtained his information by means of a private interview, at which the President opened his own mind, in the strictest confidence, or else was upon the most intimate terms with the President's valet, to whom great men always confide their secrets.

Such—we, who have sympathized with them and fought for their constitutional rights, say to Southern men—are our dispassionate views of the present crisis and of the action and policy which wisdom and patriotism demand. We ask for them the calm consideration which becomes the occasion. Southern men owe it to themselves and their own honor—saying nothing about courtesy to their hosts of true friends at the North—to set in this emergency with dignity and deliberation.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—A Man Saturated With Whisky and set on Fire.—A horrible affair has just come to light in California. Some time since George Wilson and two of his "friends" got drunk at Reed's Rancho, Marion county; his "friends," not so much the worse for liquor, "amused" themselves with soaking the clothes of Wilson with whisky, and to make sure of their project, they poured a considerable quantity down his neck, in order to thoroughly soak his shirt with the liquid, after which they set fire to the clothes of the wretched man.

THE WARSAW MEETING.—The German journals are unanimous in pronouncing the Warsaw meeting a failure.

Count Reichberg has given an explanation to the Diplomatic Corps relative to the Warsaw meeting. Austria put the following questions to Russia: Will your government recognize the facts which have been or may be accomplished in Italy? Should Austria be attacked by Sardinia and the latter supported by another great power, what would be your attitude in the event of another war, and its being transferred to German territory?

The answers are not given, but Count Reichberg stated that Austria was about to issue a circular note to its representatives abroad giving the results.

RECEPTION FESTIVAL. AT RAYMOND SPRING, ON THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 16TH. Upon which occasion he will be assisted by AARON JONES, of London, and NED PRICE, of Boston.

THE ARRANGEMENTS will be conducted upon the most unexceptionable principles, and will be found in every respect worthy of the patronage of the elite. It is the intention of the management of the Festival to present as nearly as possible, the INTERNATIONAL CONTEST between England, April 17. In which the principals will give their MANLY MEETINGS, SO THAT LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF THIS CITY can witness the EXCITING AND ANTIHYGALIC EMULATIONS between the knights and champions of the 24 fencible squares.

THE OBJECT of this Fete, independent of conferring a well-merited compliment to the recipient of the order, is to allow that portion of the community who have never seen a struggle for superiority of science or strength (and who are desirous of witnessing the wonder of the modes pursued incident to such events, void of the unpleasant features that too often are attendant upon a personal encounter).

THE CHAMPION AND HIS FRIENDS will appear in the same costume and display the same colors (a fac simile of the handkerchief is given above,) as were employed at the meeting in England. MR. JOHN C. HEENAN will PERSONALLY APPEAR IN THE CONTEST.

All the movements and preliminary arrangements, and the entire management of THIS CITY can witness the REPRESENT THE GREAT CONTEST as it took place in England on the 17th of April last, with the real colors, &c.

Besides this interesting portrayal of the Great National Battle, Mr. Heenan will sustain the onset of the several eminent professors in a series of Sparring Scenes of a chivalrous and scientific character. The performances will be culled by an EXCELLENT HAND OF MUSIC.
