As the speaker ceased, one of the older occupants of the room described me, 'said my grandmother. He at once made room for me to enter, and begged me to remain while and hear the remarks. I consented, and took a seat near the entrance.

'I said a little fellow, rising from his seat with his blue eyes all bloodshot, and his curls matted together, 'died of delirium tremens. At the age of six months, I was a confirmed drunkard. I had not been a very quiet baby, and every time I was uneasy, a little liquor was administered to me. I did not want wine but water. I was naturally a very thirsty child, and everything that was put between my speechless lips increased my thirst.
