

ARTEMUS WARD VISITS LINCOLN.

I live no politics. Nary a one. I'm not in the business. If I was, I should go home...

"How 'bout my Cabnit Ministre, Ward?"
"Fill it up with showmen, sir! Showmen is devoid of politics. They hain't got a darn principle..."

There's, hevin no politics, I made bold to visit Old Abe at his humstid in Springfield. I found the old fellow in his parlor, surrounded by a perfect swarm of orifice seekers...

"Mr. Linkin, who do you spect I air?" sed I. "Orifice seeker, to be sure!" sed he. "Wall, sir, I air 't you's never more mite-taken in your life..."

"Repose in Abraham's Buzzum!" sed one of the orifice seekers, his idee bein to get off a goak at his expense. "Wall, sir, I air 't you's fellers repose in that Buzzum there he'll mity poor nassin for sum of you..."

"Se I, 'Square, you wouldn't take a small Post Office if you'd git it, would you?" "Se he, 'a patrit, a boy, any things, sir!" "That's a patrit, a boy, any things, sir!"

"Go-d God!" cried old Abe, "they cum upon me from the skize-down the chimneys, and from the bowels of the yearth!"

"Se I, 'you egronis air, gittin up & brushin the dust from my eyes, 'I'll sign your papers with this bunch of bones, if you don't be a little more keeful how you make my bread backside at me..."

"But I work hard for the ticket; I toiled night and day! The patrit should be rewarded!" "Virtue," sed I, holdin' the infatuated man by the coat-collar, "virtue, sir, is its own reward. Look at me! Fe did look at me, and qualed best my gase..."

"What you see here for?" I contintioned, warmin' up considerable, "can't you giv Abe a mimit's peech? Don't you see he's worrid most to death! Go home you miserable men, go home and till the sile! Go to peddlin tinware to choppin wood-go to bilin' soap-stuff sasseners-black boots-git a clerkship on sum respectable manure cart-go round as original Senec Bell Ringers-becum 'original and only' Campbell Ministre..."

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in our age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after using them to suit our own use...

Hardly Realized. Hi'ad 'n' terrible headache this mornin', hand I stepped into the bath-room and says hi to the man, "Can you heuse me o' a headache?"

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the normal state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might threaten escape attention, till too late to be remedied...

Constipation or Costiveness. No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness or sedentary habits; it is rarely a permanent ailment, but it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases...

DR. MOFFAT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON. An apartment and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen...

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities in the blood, depression of vitality, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

It is in cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, where the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, or trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which would seem to indicate that the system had been brought to a point where it could no longer sustain itself...
