LETTER FROM EX-GOV. WISE.

Ex-Governor Henry A. Wise, in a letter dated Dec. 1, addressed to a gentleman of Columbia, Ga., thus defines the meaning of the phrase "fighting in the Union."

Dear Sir: Yours of the 23d ult., was late coming to hand. I now thank you for it. As to my doctrine of "fighting in the Union," it is one of true policy.

effect that the Constitutional rights of all the States should be respected and secured; that all laws should be faithfully and promptly executed; and that the Union, the Constitution and the Laws, shall be maintained and enforced.

SOUTHERN SECESSION DONATIONS. The Port Gibson (Miss.) Revue states, from a private source, that a number of prominent wealthy citizens of Mississippi have donated various sums for the purpose of providing the State with the means of placing herself on a war footing...

SUPPOSE WAR! WHAT THEN? The Albany Argus deals some heavy blows to those Black Republican sons of thunder who raise their voices for war in the event of Southern secession. Says the Argus:— "Do these rash counsellors forget that the threat of sectional Civil War would compact the South, border States and all, in one mass?"

THE MEETING IN NEW YORK. The resolutions adopted at the meeting in New York (of which we gave an account yesterday) are as follows: Resolved, That the delivery of fugitive slaves to their masters is an obligation enjoined by the Constitution...

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to uphold these principles by all the means in our power; to seek by all practicable efforts a redress of the wrongs of which the Southern States justly complain, and to maintain their equality under the Constitution...

Resolved, That while we deplore the existing excitement in the Southern States, we do not hesitate to say that there is just ground for it. But we earnestly entreat our Southern brethren to abstain from hasty and inconsiderate action...

Resolved, That Hon. Millard Fillmore, Hon. Greene C. Bronson and Richard Lathers, Esq., be appointed a committee to proceed to the South, with a view to make such explanation to our Southern brethren, in regard to the subjects embraced in the address and resolutions as they may deem necessary...

Resolved, That in case either of the gentlemen named in the foregoing resolution be unable to perform the service for which he is appointed, the committee on the address and resolutions be authorized to fill the vacancy.

Resolved, That the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, in his letter of the 17th inst., says: Secretary Thompson will leave this city this evening for Raleigh, North Carolina, with the President's assent...

Resolved, That the subject of the rendition of fugitive slaves to their masters is an obligation enjoined by the Constitution...
