THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

THE DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION can be had by Dauphin subscribers, every morning, at the periodical store of J. S. FRAM.

DEATH FROM LOCK-JAW.—A young woman in the employ of Henry Welsh, Esq., of York, died on Tuesday last week, from the above cause, occasioned by having a splinter run in her finger, some days previous.

CAMERON GUARD.—The Cameron Guard paraded on Saturday afternoon, and made a very creditable display, although they had but twenty muskets out. Their spirited determination not to die is commendable, and it is to be hoped that the ranks will be better filled for the inauguration.

NEARLY ALL RIGHT.—As a committee of the whole to compare bills, we report ourselves nearly right for to-morrow. We have the turkey—a present—we know just exactly where to call to get the real Havana—and if a bag of oysters that we have been looking for reaches our domicile to-morrow, who shall say that we will not be "in town."

A HEAVY ADVERTISING CONTRACT.—Spaulding, the prepared-glad man, has made a contract with the New York Tribune to insert his advertisement, occupying a column, in the daily, semi-weekly and weekly editions of that paper for one year, at a cost of $31,000. Spaulding has made a fortune by advertising.

OMISSION.—In our report of the proceedings of the Union meeting, the names of John H. Briggs, Esq., and C. M. Shull, Esq., who both took an active part in the meeting, were omitted. At the time those gentlemen spoke, considerable confusion reigned, so that the omission of their names was entirely accidental, and not through any design.

A SIGN OF GOOD LIVING.—We noticed yesterday a very clever child, with four-pronged antlers, hanging in front of Herr's Hotel. The inference is that Mr. Sanford contemplates feeding his guests well during the holidays. Several deer were brought to this city on Friday evening by a hunter from Lycoming county. They looked to be in admirable condition.

SUDDEN DEATH.—In our paper to-day the death of a little daughter of Col. Murray, formerly of this place, is recorded. She died of diphtheria, that dreadful scourge before which scarlet fever itself fades into insignificance. Mr. and Mrs. Murray have our warmest sympathies in their affliction, knowing, as they do, that Sallie was one of our little favorites.

DEATH OF A REPORTER.—Mr. Lewis S. Bristol, died on Saturday morning, at his residence, on Marlott street, below Sixth, Philadelphia. Mr. Bristol was a printer by profession, and was well known in this city as a newspaper reporter and correspondent, having spent several winters here. He has been attached to the press of Philadelphia for some ten or fifteen years. The deceased also served as a volunteer in the Mexican War. He has been suffering for some time past from consumption, which was the cause of his decease.

A MURDER.—One day last week a man with a load of hoop-poles got on the commons, or open grounds, above North street, between Second and Third, and for a long time he was unable to see his way clear. He was slightly inebriated, and he worked fully an hour with his team—"getting" and "hewing," before he reached North street; which he had no sooner effected than he fell, and one of the wheels of the heavily-loaded wagon passed diagonally over him. On Saturday we heard that he was lying in a critical condition from the effects of the accident—the result of folly and imprudence.

DEATH OF A VETERAN.—Captain Jacob Hummel died recently at his residence in Penns township, Snyder county, aged upwards of 80 years. He was captain of a company during the war with Great Britain, and at one time represented Union county in the Legislature—we believe in the year 1834.—He will be remembered as one of the jolly old school, and used to be known about here as the "Old Hunter." He was immensely popular in Union county in his day—a type of the old-time, rough, hardy pioneers of Pennsylvania, who will live long in the memory of all who enjoyed his acquaintance and friendship during life.

Motter quiescent one!

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.—William B. Scott, to be Notary Public for the county of Crawford, to reside at Meadville.

Abraham Dodge, to be Notary Public for the county of Greene, to reside at Waynesburg.

Jacob Weidie, to be Notary Public for the county of Lebanon, to reside at Lebanon.

Junius B. Kaufman, to be Notary Public for the county of Lancaster, to reside at Lancaster.

William Carpenter, to be Recorder for the city of Lancaster.

William Kennedy, to be Notary Public for the county of Franklin, to reside at Chambersburg.

John McGill, to be Auctioneer for the county of Mercer.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.—There will be no lack of amusements this evening to usher in Christmas, and if every man, woman and child cannot find entertainment, they will be hard to please.

Prof. Anderson opens at Brant's Hall. He comes here with such recommendations as to leave no doubt about his skill and ability to entertain. His exhibitions will no doubt be peculiarly attractive to the juvenile portion of the community.

Those who are fond of indulging in the intricate and giddy maze of the cotillon, as it is constructed on modern principles, will find a fair opportunity at the soiree of Mr. Mather, at the Exchange.

Those who are fond of music—vocal and instrumental, with the dance added—can be accommodated by attending the annual soiree of the Eintracht Singing Association, at Konig's, in Chestnut street. This is one of our annual festivals, not opened for the purpose of making money—but solely for the enjoyment of themselves and their friends. Quite as much in value as they can possibly net by admissions will be given away in presents.

In addition to this, the show windows will no doubt be stuffed in their most attractive garb, and in the evening the little folks must get a sharp look out for Old Kris Kingle, for a telegraphic dispatch says that he is sure to be about.

"INFLUENCE."—The local editor of the Telegraph appears to glory in being instrumental in keeping the Democratic Convention of last spring from this city, and seems to think that he "did the city good service." There were 5,000 people at the Reading Convention, who disbursed not less than $50,000, and if the mass of our people think that it was better for Reading to have this amount than Harrisburg, why we have no right to complain. But the abuse which drives people from here the local claims as influence!

We should look upon it as of a kind akin to that which an armed highwayman could wield over his unarmed victim—of the compulsory order. He also talks of driving away borses, blacksmelters and gamblers. Very good—he would do the community an essential service if he succeeded in doing so, but unfortunately, although he boasts of his knowledge of the existence of such institutions, he never speaks of them openly and manly, but in remote insinuations which saves him the risk of a taste of boot leather or an application of rawhide.

In the character of a scandal-monger, his style of information is similar to that we find in the columns of a "Paul Pry," or a "Man About Town," and not half as honorable as that of the correspondent of the Police Gazette, who generally makes his charges openly. But what influence, we ask, is exercised by vague assertion one day that a "gambling house exists under the very eyes of the Mayor"—the next, that a "sink of pollution exists in our midst, where married women are led from the path of rectitude"—and on the next, again, that an old gentleman, near the city, "has two wives"? The vagueness of their looks exceedingly like an effort to make the sponduelicks come, and this belief is strengthened by the fact that they are never heard of again.

Here is a sample of the style of the local of the Telegraph—that is, his influential and telling style: "On Saturday evening last, a gentleman who supposes himself to stand very high in this community, who writes a great deal on temperance and morality, and whose efforts to root out the unlicensed groggeries in this city, and thereby arrest the spread of intemperance, went into a small lager beer saloon kept by a Teuton in an alley in the rear of Kelker's Hardware Store. Being considerably under the influence of tanglefoot, he ran his face for 48 cents worth of lager, and then refused to pay for it, declaring that the Dutchman had robbed him. The indignant Teuton put him out, and after he had staggered a couple of squares on his way home, he discovered his money in another pocket, but, we regret to say, he was not honorable enough to go back, make an apology, and fork over. His next elucidation of the question how to prevent the spread of intemperance will be an onslaught on Dutch lager beer saloons."

Now, this we call vague! nobody, of course, knows who is meant, or in fact whether such an occurrence took place at all, and yet this is the style of influence wielded by the local of the Telegraph—varied sometimes by an attack upon those who are unable to defend themselves!

BEFORE THE MAYOR.—David Davis and John Thomas are two Welsh miners, who are realizing, in its fullest extent, a taste of the good times that seem to follow immediately after the election of Lincoln, when there was to be "land for the landless," "homes for the homeless," and good wages and plenty of work for the laboring man. Like hundreds of their deluded and humbugged fellow-countrymen, they no doubt voted to bring about such a desirable state of affairs, while employed at Danville. With hundreds of others, however, they have suddenly been thrown out of employment, and, without means, they are now strolling about the country seeking employment of any kind to keep them from starvation. Yesterday morning they came before the Mayor as temporary lodgers, and were duly discharged.

John Harris and William Gibbs, who claim to hail from Buffalo, New York, also out of money and in search of work, had taken lodgings in the look-up, and were permitted to travel.

Two other wanderers applied for accommodations, but on a survey of the internal arrangements of the Callender House, they concluded to bivouac at Porter's Farmhouse for the night.

THE INAUGURATION AND THE MILITARY.—The president efforts to inaugurate Governor Curtin by the Wide Awakes is accomplishing just what we expected it would. Up to this time but ONE COMPANY from abroad has reported to head quarters—the National Artillerists, of Pottsville; and from present appearances this one company, with two or three from our own county, is likely to form the entire military escort. Before this time in 1867, fifteen companies had reported themselves, and in 1864 nearly the same number had made their arrangements to attend the inauguration of Governor Pollock. The cause of this is palpably plain. On Saturday evening Capt. Williams asked the Capt. of a company in Bloomfield the reason why the military of Perry county had made no arrangements to attend the inauguration of Gov. Curtin. The reply was that they heard the Wide Awakes were to turn out, on that occasion, and that the soldiers of Perry county would not mix with them!

The gentleman in question is the captain of a company numbering 125 privates, with one of the best brass bands in the State attached to it.

AMERICAN ART ABROAD.—George H. Hall, who left last spring to pursue the study of his art in Spain, has created a furore by an exhibition of two small fruit-pieces at Sevilla. The Duke and Duchess of Montpensier had requested to have them sent to the palace, and desired to purchase them, but they were not for sale. The newspapers contain long articles upon them, holding them up as examples of their own artists. The Andalusian says:

"It is impossible to say a greater approximation to the works of man to the creations of nature. The transparency which permits us to see the fibres of the grapes, the happy effect of the coloring, and the mastery with which the pictures are touched, reveal in the author a consummate artist."

Another editor says:

"Not Nature herself is capable of producing two bunches of grapes more beautiful, more fresh, more golden, transparent and velvety, than these which have issued from the able pencil of this artist, of whose name we are ignorant, but of whom we implore in the name of all the lovers of the art of Murillo and Raphael, that these be not the last pictures that he exposes to the view of a public which will only have applause for them."

EXTRAORDINARY IDEA OF JUSTICE IN CUBA.—A Showman Made Responsible for a Bear's Covardice. We read in the last Cuban Messenger which has come to hand, that a man in Matanzas, the proprietor of the public bullring, advertised a grand fight between a bull and bear. Anxious for exciting entertainment, the public crowded the ring at the appointed time, paying an admission fee. But when the animals were turned into the arena, Ursus showed considerable of the white feather, and only acted on the defensive, refusing to attack Taurus, but satisfying himself with boxing his ears and scratching his face, when the horned enemy attempted to gore him, and he was in such a position that he could not run out of his difficulty. This lack of pluck was detrimental to the quality of the sport promised, and the public and officials were disgusted. Forthwith, the proprietor was brought before the authorities, and a heavy fine levied on him, because his bear was deficient in pluck, and thereby made him a swindler, in depreciating the quality of the entertainment which the public paid to see.

On no occasion, says the Springfield Republican, do people seem more prone to commit blunders than at a wedding. The following actually occurred at a neighboring town: "In the midst of a crowd of witnesses, the clergyman had just completed the interesting ceremony which binds in the silver bonds of wedlock two willing hearts, and stretched forth his hands to implore the blessing of Heaven on the union. At this point the groomsmen, seeing the open hands reached out, supposed it was the signal for him to surrender the wedding fee, which was burning in his pocket. Accordingly, just as the clergyman was closing his eyes in prayer, he felt the pressure of two twenty-half dollars upon his open palm. The good man hesitated a moment, appalled at the largeness of his situation, but he only deposited the money in his pocket and proceeded with his devotion."

DISCHARGED WORKMEN IN PHILADELPHIA.—The number of workmen now employed in sixty-nine leading manufacturing establishments in Philadelphia is 11,627. The same concerns have discharged 5,141 men since the commencement of the financial pressure. The Inquirer, which gives these statistics in detail, adds a qualifying statement. It says:

"From the large number of workmen recently discharged, there must be at the present time considerable distress among the laboring class, and it is generally thought that this is the worst of unprecedented sufferings. The number of persons discharged may probably be exaggerated. It is also well to bear in mind that the number of workmen employed during the winter is generally less than the number in the summer."

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Persons who contemplate purchasing articles for Christmas presents, or to decorate Christmas trees, will use well to call at S. M. Ettle's, in Second street, near North. His stock of toys, confectionaries and fancy articles is large and cheaper than any in this city. Call, see, and judge for yourselves.

CHRISTMAS VACATION.—The juveniles, much to their gratification, no doubt, are now enjoying their holiday vacation, which commenced on Saturday morning, and ends on the 14th proximo. It might just as well have been continued over the inauguration—two days more; as few, if any scholars, will miss seeing the display and participating in the attendant excitement.

HARMONIC SOCIETY.—The Harmonic Society will meet as usual this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock, in the Lecture Room of the Baptist Church. The attendance of every active member is desired, as important business will be brought before the Society.

DAVID HAYES, President. H. K. PARSONS, Secretary.

HORSE SHOE CLUB, ATTENTION.—The active and contributing members of the Horse Shoe Club of this city are requested to meet in their hall this (Monday) evening. By order.

The man who will live above his present circumstances, is in great danger of living in a little time much beneath them.

Go ahead in a good motto, look about is another.

A LARGE LOT OF GOODS received to-day, suitable for presents, which will be sold off much below their real value. 60 dozen of Hem-stitched and Grass Linen Handkerchiefs, at 25, 35, 45 and 50 cents a piece; 100 Sets of Collars and Sleeves, direct from New York auction, at very low prices; Gents' Plain and Bordered Linen Handkerchiefs; beautiful lot of Lace Curtains; Chenille Scarfs, at 12 1/2 and 25 cents; 10 pieces of Cassimere for pants; 10 pieces of Cloth, for Cloaks; 25 pieces of all kinds of Flannels; 2,000 yards of best Brown Muslin, for 10 cents; Woolen Socks, 15, 20 cents; Undershirts, Drawers, 50, 62, 75, and a great many other bargains. S. LEWY, Rhoads' Corner.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Persons in search of goods suitable for holiday presents will do well to give BROWNOLD & SAN, Wynn's building, opposite the Jones House, a call. They have the Cambria setts, Cloaks and Cloth for Cloaks, Shawls, Pearl Furres, Collars, Sleeves, Gloves, Hosiery, Silks, Silk and Woolen Goods, and Ladies' Dress Goods of all descriptions. During the Holiday season they are determined not to be undersold, and they only ask the public to call, examine, and compare prices with any other establishment in the city or country. On many articles a reduction has been made, in order to carry out our determination to reduce our stock as much as possible during this week. del7-11w.

Mothers, read this. The following is an extract from a letter written by pastor of the Baptist Church to the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that world-renowned medicine—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children's Teething.

"We see an advertisement in your columns of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. We never used a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to your readers that this is no humbug.—WE HAVE TRIED IT, AND KNOW IT TO BE ALL IT CLAIMS. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the day, because it is one of the best. And those of your readers who have babies can't do better than to lay in a supply. sep29-d4wly.

From the Independent, New York, July 28, 1860. GIVE.—Our advertising columns contain some testimonials of a new article known as "Spaulding's Prepared Glue," useful to housekeepers for mending furniture. It is prepared with chemicals, by which it is kept in a soft and adhesive condition, and is applied by chemical evaporation as soon as it is applied, leaving the glue to harden. We can assure our readers that this article has the excellent phenomenal quality of "large adhesive."
