

MISCELLANY.

RECIPES FOR ECONOMIZING.—For Ladies.—Keep all bread when "great bargains" and "extraordinary reductions" are advertised. Leave your purse in the bureau drawer at home, if necessity compels you to pass a "cheap store"!

If you catch yourself thinking how "nice" it would be if you could have a new carpet, just transfer the adjective to another subject, and reflect how nice the old one still looks.

If you see anything going "at a ruinous sacrifice"—let it go!

Don't subscribe to that doctrine of economy which buys a shining palio "to save," and then pays a dressmaker three times the value of the fabric to make it up.

Settle in your mind just what you can afford to buy, before you go to market, and don't allow yourself to be tempted by any "surprisingly cheap" luxury.

Have your purse big enough to hold the pennies and keep them there.

Don't feel mortified because your neighbor sneers at the darn in your pocket-handkerchief, or the mended place in your gloves: the time will probably come when all the needles and thread in Christendom will be insufficient to mend her broken fortunes.

Remember that your expenditures must be regulated by your own circumstances, not the "say so" of Mrs. Grundy. "Let every woman judge for herself" is a capital motto.

And above all, never allow yourself to forget that money goes faster after cheap things than expensive ones. And that, as the wife cannot earn money, it is her duty to save it.

For Gentlemen.—Get a porte-manteau with a good rheumatic strap to it—these purses that are easily opened are easily emptied.

Don't carry bank-bills about with you, unless you want to run into immediately; leave your money at home with your wife, and it will be a great deal easier to say "no" to those borrowing friends who come within the Scripture clause of "never repaying."

If you feel inclined to smoke a six-cent Havana, just put a good dry-straw between your teeth instead, and "chaw it" on your leisure. It is astonishing how superior you will find the flavor.

Don't get into a car or omnibus to ride half-dozen blocks, but walk, and set your sluggish blood into brisk circulation. Thereby you will save two things—your fare and your doctor's bill.

Remember how superior water is to sherry-cobblers and brandy-smashes on all occasions. Let no day pass without laying by something for cloudy weather. Half a dime is better than nothing. If you can't save something out of the smallest salary, you may safely consider yourself en route for the poor-house!

Don't think how long you have had that old coat of yours—think, rather, how much longer you can make it last.—Life Illustrated.

THE FRUITS OF AN ELOPEMENT.—Our readers will recollect that some months ago we announced that Mr. Joseph Bader and a Mrs. Miesner, of Triadelphia, had eloped together for parts unknown, the one leaving a dotting husband, the other a fond wife, and both a host of distressed friends in the village. Nothing was heard of the runaway until Wednesday, when, much to the surprise of the Triadelphians, Mrs. Miesner returned, all tears, and repenting, to ask forgiveness of her outraged husband. She and Bader had wandered about, spent their money, and the unholy alliance, like all such wicked affairs, ended in a quarrel, and the wife, relying upon the old love of her husband, fled away and returned to her former home. Mr. Miesner, possessing more of the milk of human kindness than usually falls to the lot of his species, received his wife with open arms, and would, no doubt, have resumed his relations with her had it not been for the outside pressure. Mrs. Miesner, under the outrage which had been inflicted upon her by Mrs. M., and the still absent Joseph, and being, with all, in entire possession of the green-eyed monster, she gathered up a lot of stones and made a fierce attack upon the hawk in which Mrs. M., arrived, breaking the glass in the vehicle, and coming within a short distance of cracking the skull of her enemy. The excitement spread about the town and considerable indignation was manifested by Mrs. Bader's friends. It was given out in an unmistakable manner that Mrs. Miesner could not remain in Triadelphia; that if she did these bottles of brandy, after which she did not show the slightest trace of intoxication or any signs of sickness.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION OF 1862.—The latest English papers announce the completion of arrangements which insure the progress of the International Exhibition of 1862. Lord Granville, the Marquis of Chandos and Messrs. T. Baring, C. Wentworth Dilke and T. Fairbairn have accepted the position of trustees, and satisfactory security has been deposited in the Bank of England to assure the needful advances.

Miscellaneous.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the appropriate words of other languages; and after a while, to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which in the Greek, signifies "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's Great Cephalic Remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native" to the major born.

Hardly Realized.
His "I'd 'ardly realized he had an ounce of Cephalic Pills," hand upon him that he gave me that I 'rdly realized I 'd had an ounce thereof. no26

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the normal state of the brain; and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headaches is exceedingly common and the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Great Intentionality and other cerebral affections, and it is often the cause of other cerebral diseases. In its nervous form it is a general disease of the stomach constituting Sick Headache, and of hepatic disease constituting Bilious Headache, or worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Angina and Plethora are also affections which frequently occasion Headaches. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of Spalding's Cephalic, sometimes coming on suddenly in a State of apparently sound health and protruding at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this name it is also known as Nervous.

For the treatment of other classes of Headache the Cephalic Pills have found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the ushering index.

REMEDI.—Missus writes you to send her a box of Cephalic Pills, no. 4, bottle of Prepared Pills—she is feeling that's not just it; neither, but perhaps you'll be further pleased to send her a box of Prepared Pills, and a box of Cephalic Pills, and she will be so glad to receive them. Spalding's Cephalic Pills.—You must send Spalding's Cephalic Pills, no. 4, bottle of Prepared Pills, and a box of Cephalic Pills, and she will be so glad to receive them. Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Constipation or Costiveness.
No one of the "many ills" is so much neglected as Costiveness. When originating in carelessness or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight inconvenience, and not as a source of real anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases. It not only causes nervous debility, but is the cause of an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Fever, Breath, Nausea and other ailments, many a long train of difficult diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Catarrh of the Bladder, Hypochondriac, Melancholy and insanity, first indicating its presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not until the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on independent action, do we begin to neglect the cause of our distress. From all these considerations it follows that the diaphanous should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person neglecting to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as they timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.
Physician—Well, Mr. Jones, how is that headache? Physician—Gone! Doctor, you got a pill you sent me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you could send me more so that I can have them handy. Physician—Do not send me more. Physician—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Pills, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken fortunes, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from the hands of the unfortunate. He now proposes to do the world still greater service by caring all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are good as he claims, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

D. 1860, and to be located in the City of Philadelphia, and to consist of a Capital Stock of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND Dollars, in shares of Fifty Dollars each, with the privilege of increasing the same to any amount not exceeding in all One Million of Dollars. no29-30m

The Toilet.

THE ONLY DISCOVERY
WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE FOR THE RESTORING OF THE BALD AND GRAY.

Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but to profane his name; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Professor Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its restitutive assay. Read the following:
BATH, MAINE, April 13, 1859.

Prof. O. J. WOOD & Co.: Gentlemen.—The letter I wrote you 2366 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous enquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habit and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all the stated contents; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To you I can do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored than it has ever been, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent application of the soap, when if care were used in wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of the Republic, and from all ages, and all complexions to be good as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds, and as well as in the name, but being lately initiated, and being not only without any cure, but being subjected to a severe attack of the disease, I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever. I have examined it with a microscope, and find it all over 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken from the neck, and you will find it to be the same as if just restored to me by your Restorative. I will ask you as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many. I am, dear Sir, your most obedient servant,
I remain, dear Sir, yours,
A. C. RAYMOND.
ARON'S HUR, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858.

Prof. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir.—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative. I have used two bottles, and now my hair grows as usual, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which is the case with many of the cheap imitations, and henceforth, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, I assure all who enquire of me of my unshaken opinion of the value of your Restorative.
I remain, dear Sir, yours,
A. C. RAYMOND.

Spalding's Prepared Glue.
As accidents will happen, even in well-regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Toys, Crockery, &c. SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE meets all these emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready to do the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls, and broken crockery. It is just the thing for the painter and other ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.
This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically made in solution, and possessing the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-makers' Glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mullage, being vastly more adhesive.
"USEFUL IN EVERY HOUSE."
N. B.—A Brush accompanies each bottle. Price, 25 cents.
