COLLECTION.—The carriers of the PATRIOT AND Union beg leave to say that they will, as usual collect their dues this morning.

THE Union Prayer Meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church, on Market Square, this aftermoon, at 4 o'clock, as usual. A REVIYAL.—There is a very refreshing revival in progress at the Vine Street Methodist Church. which has been crowded every night for the last two weeks. Quite a number profess to have found Grace, and there are still a large number of seekers after light.

SKATING.—The smooth, glassy surface of the ponds and basin are just now the places for juvenile excitement and fun alive. When we think back on the days of yore, our bowels of compassion vesta for the boy that does not own a pair of skates.

Four new planets have lately been added to the asteroidal groups, making the whole number of asteroids sixty-two. The fifty-ninth was discovered by Chacomac, in France, the sixtieth by Goldschmidt, of Chantillon, the sixty-first by Ferguson, of the National Observatory, at Washington, and the sixty-second by Forster and Lesser, of the Berlin Observatory. The sixtieth had been named by Goldschmidt Danæ; the others are yet undesignated.

PENNSYLVANIA POSTNASTEBS APPOINTED .- Amos Rocky , postmaster at Bellemonts, Lancaster county, vice Robert S. M'Ilvain, resigned. Franklin S. Bryder, postmaster at Elizabethtown, Lancaster county, vice John A. Gross, resigned. Adam Rhoads, postmaster at Manada Hill, Dauphin county, vice Jacob Wagner, resigned. John Hough, postmaster at Mount Carmel, Northumberland county, vice James B. Welsh, resigned. Jos. B. Potter, poetmaster at Steamburg, Crawford county, vice A. S. Potter, resigned.

Rev. Crammond Kennedy, known as the Boy Preacher, will preach in the Baptist Church on Sunday morning and evening next. It will be remembered that Mr. Kennedy spent some time in our city last Spring, at which time he created considerable sensation as a pulpit orator—although enly seventeen years and a half of age. He entered Madison University last fall to complete his education, and according to a previous engagement will spend a day or two of his heliday vacation in

HOW TO MAKE ALL PHOTOGRAPHS STEREOGRAPHS -If we close one eye and bring the other opposite the centre of a photograph, and tolerably near to it, the picture usually starts out with almost stere oscopic distinctness. The effect is finest in architectural photographs. A similar result, in a feebler degree, is produced by looking at drawings and paintings in the same way. The explanation is too obvious to need statement; but the fact, although interesting and valuable, usually escapes notice.

KISSING THE HANDSOMEST GIRLS .- A distinguished candidate for an office of high trust in a certain State, who is "up to a thing or two," and has a keen appreciation of live beauty, when about to set off on an election certag tour recently, said to his wife, who was to accompany him for prudential reasons:

"My dear, inasmuch as this election is complicated and the canvass will be close. I am anxious to leave nothing undone that would promote my popularity, and so I have thought it would be good plan for me to kiss a number of the handsomest girls in every place where I may be honored with a public reception. Don't you think it would be a good idea?" "Capital!" exclaimed the devoted wife, "and to make your election a sure thing, while you are kissing the handsomest girls, I will kiss an equal number of the handsomest young men!"

The distinguished candidate, we believe, has not show referred to this pleasing means of popu-

ARREST FOR FORGERY AND LARCENY .- Several days ago we gave the particulars attending the passage of a check for $13.50, purporting to be signed by Gen. Cameron, on Mr. Eppley, a dry goods dealer in Second street.

The parties, stimulated no doubt by the success of their first effort, subsequently passed a check upon Urich & Cowperthwait, at the corner of Market and Front streets, for $15.75, purporting to be signed by John B. Simon. The latter was drawn on the Harrisburg Bank, and the former on the State Capital Bank—the first in favor of Margaret Campbell, and the last in favor of Thomas Rogers.

The check with Simon's name attached was passed upon a clerk named E. J. Jones, and was thrown out by the Bank as soon as offered. Mr. Jones immediately set to work to trace the forgery. To do this was no easy matter, as he was not positive that he could recognize the woman who passed the check. At this juncture, fortunately, Dr. Patterson was called into council, and he thought he traced a resemblance between the filling up of the cheek, and a bill rendered him for digging a cellar, by one Patrick Brett, and a comparison at once gave a clue to the forgery. A warrant was issued, and Patrick Brett and his wife were arrested, and taken before Alderman Peffer. Their house, located near Trullinger's Planing Mill, at the lower end of the city, was searched, and a portion of the goods purchased with the check at Urich & Cowperthwait's was found, and identified by one of the clerks. Officer Fleck also found concealed in a chaff bed thirtyfour yards of delaine, stolen from the above storeso that the Bretts were not only forgers, but shoplifters. Mrs. Breft was fully identified by clerks at both stores as the woman who passed the checks. Mr. Brett has heretofore borne a very good character—is the Secretary of the Paxton Hose Company, and all his neighbors, as well as his landlord, speak in high terms of him. It is feared that he has, in an evil moment, turned his talents to bad account. We saw the checks at the Alderman's office. The name of Simon Cameron is a clever imitation which one might readily/overlock on check for a small amount, but which any one at all conversant with that gentleman's hand writing con tell is a forgery on close sorutiny. The Brotts have two children, which the neighbors, have taken

MEETING OF THE HARRISBURG, PORTSMOUTH Mount Joy and Lancaster Railboad Company.— A meeting of the stockholders of this company was held at Sansom Street Hall, on Thursday evening, to take action on the acceptance or rejection of a contract for a more permanent lease of their road to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. There was a large attendance of share holders. Mr. Samuel C. Morton was called to the chair, and Mr. George Taber was chosen Secretary.

Mesers. Samuel Guthrie and John Tucks were selected as tellers to conduct the election. The call for the meeting was read by the Secre-

By instruction of the Chairman, the roll was called in order to ascertain if a majority of the stock was represented. This operation entailed a great expenditure of time. It was finally ascertained that there were 15,490 shares represented out of 21,741, the whole number of shares. This being more than a quorum of the stock, the meeting proceeded to business.

Mr. Baker, the President of the company, read the contract made with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the renewal of the lease of the Harrisburg and Lancaster Railroad to the Pennsylvania Railroad. The substance of the contract is that the organisation of the Harrisburg Company shall be maintained, and the lease be made for 999 years; the Pennsylvania Railroad Company maintaining the road and paying the interest on the funded debt, and seven per cent. per annum on the stock. As the cost of the Harrisburg Railroad is some $95,000 greater than the amount represented by the existing number of shares, the Harrisburg Railread Company is to be allowed to issue 1,900 shares of new stock, thus making the number of shares, equal the cost of the work, and on this increased capital, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will pay 7 per cent., which is equal to about seven and six-tenths per cent. per annum, on the present number of shares. The new stock to be issued is a fraction less than one to eleven. The profits since the last dividend in October are to be divided among stockholders, and the dividend periods, hereafter, are to be in January and July, instead of April and October.

Attached to the contract was a resolution autherizing the Board of Directors to consummate the contract and the lease to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. A motion was made that the resolution be adopted. Mr. Baker spoke in advocacy of the contract. The advantages of the arrangement was mutual. If the Penusylvania Railroad were to choose to get a charter and construct a road from Lancaster to Harrisburg, our line would not be worth the bonds. They have us in their power in a great measure, and the lease is, under the circumstances, the best that could be made for the Lancaster and Harrisburg Railroad Company. The Stockholders are guaranteed the payment of 7 6-10 per cent. interest on their steek, and this is the best price the Pennsylvania Railread Company will pay at any future time.

Several Stockholdars asked for an explanation of various points in the contract. The explanations were given by Mr. Baker.

Mr. Pleasanton thought that many of the Stock. nolders were not properly enlightened as to the old and new contracts. He would confess himself rather in the dark. He moved that the matter be referred to a committee of five to investigate the whole matter, and to report at a future time after publication of the results of their labors in the newspapers of the city.

Mr. Baker said that full opportunity had been afforded to every Stockholder to become familiar with the contract, and he saw no necessity for

Mr. Algernon S. Roberts reviewed at length the history of the connection, referred to the disadvantages and annoyances incident to the old lease, and urged the adoption of the new contract as advantageous to the Harrisburg and Lancaster Company. Every possible care had been taken to make the lease as secure as possible and as free from legal objection. In conclusion, Mr. Roberts urged the immediate ratification of the contract.

Gen. John Davis spoke of the distracted cendition of national affairs and its possible effect upon railroad securities. He urged the immediate ratification of the contract as the best possible that could be made for the company. [Applause.]

There were now loud cries of "question !" "question!" and the vote having been taken viva voce, on the ratification of the contract, it was almost unanimously affirmative.

Several gentlemen objected to taking the vote in this way, and Mr. Thomas S. Smith called for a stock vote. The Secretary stated his belief that under the charter of the company a stock vote was not necessary where there was a clear majority of stock represented at the meeting. The chairman announced that the question was decided in the affirmative.

There being much objection to a viva voce vote in settlement of the question; a stock vote was called and ordered.

The taking of the vote occupied the time until near two o'clock. The majority in favor of ratifying the contract is about 10,000 shares.

DR. Dock .- We regret to say that our friend Dr. Dock takes exceptions to a few editorial remarks appended to a notice we clipped from a Newville. paper, but we regret still more to say that he has reason to do so. In the first place, it is true that he was a Professor of Surgery, in one of the Medical Schools of Philadelphia, but he abhors the term "Professor," because it has been assumed by charlatans, mountebanks and humbugs, until it has besome a stench in the nostrils of men of modest merit. In the second place, he says that he does not profess to remove cataract without pain, and the announcement sounds exceedingly like a quack advertisement, which he also abbors and detests as a means of bringing the medical profession into disrepute. Of course we are at fault, and should have said that he performs these operations with as little pain as can be, under the circumstances. We are fully justified in saying this, not only from his reputation at home and abroad as an occulist.

but from actual observation. CITY POLICE.-We hope our Lebanon friends will pardon us, and not be put out about it, when we say that one John Kroner, who claims to hail from that place, lodged in the lock-up on Thursday night-for no crime, however, except poverty. Jack Hegins was brought in by the Mayor in propria persona. His Honor found Jack laying out worm fences along Second street, and he accerdingly took him in tow, and landed him in the " happy land of Canaan." Jack made a night of it singing songs and telling stories, and yesterday morning the Mayor had an idea that Jack was entirely too jolly to be let loose, so he kept him cooped until evening, by which time he had become very much calmed.

WHITE GUNPOWDER. - A letter from London says I have heard in the city of a curious invention, which concerns alike sportsmen, riflemen, and the scientific. It is the manufacture of white guapowder. It is made ne mystery of, being hompay for it. posed of yellow potassa, chloride of potassium, lost sugar, crystalized sugar and brimstone. At possesses superior qualities over the black powder, being quicker and more powerful in its action, and not fouling the gun. For the delicate in the olfactory nerves, it may be added that it is without unpleasant smell. It has just been patented."

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL .- Nothing more surely marks the prosperity of our beautiful city than the picturesque mission churches, which here and light nights are just the thing for treeing the there dot its environs. Into one of them, now recognized as the Second Evangelical Lutheran Church, we chanced to saunter last Christmas morning, led by a winning strain of music, which the closed doors and windows only muffled into more expressive sweetness. Within the little church all was holiday smiles, freshness and gladness. Green, fragrant cedar branches wreathed the pulpit, hung in festoons around the white walls, veiled the lamps, and frescoed every bare spot near which a tiny spray hung. The children, nearly two hundred in number, and regular members of that Sabbath School, were singing the chorus, " We Come With Joy to Greet You," with an earnestness which left no one in doubt that theirs was the language of sincerity and gladness. As the last note seased, their young pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnson, addressed to them a few words of most affectionate counsel, born of the pithy proverb, "Buy truth and sell it not." His earnest exordium to first get and then give light from this precious lamp was followed by another song from the children, "A Happy Christmas to All," whose heartiness, as it burst from their innocent lips, seemed to be a welcome to all creation. Their Superintendent, Mr. David Eyster, in pursuance of an established custom in the school, asked how many scholars present could repeat a verse from the Bible in which the words "gospel" or "glad tidings" occurred. The query was scarcely made than here and there, from almost every class. came some or another sentence from which the appointed word spoke as either a command or a glorious promise. The promptness of the pupils and their clearness of utterance heightened the attraction of this distinctive exercise.

A third carel, called "Hark! the Angels Singing," was the prolude to a scene which no one could witness, without feeling his heart grow warmer and younger. From out huge baskets (to the filling of which both Lutheran congregations had generously contributed) were brought cornuccipia, laden with candies, bags of cakes, and cards illustrating the Ten Commandments by beautifully colored engravings. While these were being distributed equally to each child, Rev. Mr. Hay explained the German origin of the "Chriskintolein" or "little child Christ," from whom all these gifts or "little child Christ," from whom all these gifts came, but whom we have perverted into the merry and substantial old Kriss Kringle. Twelve o'clock, and the song of dismission came—almost too soon for to us, the purest hours of that sacred day were passed in the festal celebration of the mission school childeren.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE. -Our hotels are gradually filling up with men brought hither by the annual meeting of the Legislature. Among them we recognize many familiar faces, and there are also new ones that come upon the stage, as members of the House, Senators and borers .-Nearly all of the former will be on hand to-day, while Monday's early trains will probably bring the balance of the latter. There is the strongest probability, based upon precedent, that few, if any changes will be made in the subordinate or petty officers; and yet, strange to say, the number of applicants for every place and position is nearly as great as if the party had just came into power. It is a great stretch of imagination for one man to feed himself on the idea that he can oust an officer and take his place—especially if that officer has heretofore done his duty, and given satisfaction; yet there are plenty such, and no argument can convince them save that which is made by the cau-

It is now settled, we believe, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that Robert M. Palmer, Esq., of Schuplkill county, will be Speaker of the Senate. Mr. P is one of the ablest men in the Senate, and there is no question but what he will fill the Chair with dignity and credit. Mr. Erret will be re-elected Clerk.

In the House, Elisha W. Davis, Esq., will be elected Speaker. At least that appeared to be the prevailing opinion yesterday. E. H. Rauch, Esq., will be re-elected Clerk.

The election of a State Treasurer will engross considerable attention next week in the way of electioneering, especially if Henry D. Moore has any formidable opposition, which does not appear probable at this time.

It is not likely that there will be any discussion of national affairs until after the inauguration, when we shall probably be edited by some extraordinary specimens of Buncombe.

A Donastic Ensure.—A little circumstance came to light yesterday which will afford food for seandal-mongers for a few days, at least. A gentleman some years ago took boarding in a private house. During the time he made it his home, the husband and father of the family died. In due time the widow married the boarder, and all things moved off harmoniously. Two children were the result of this union. A few weeks ago the wife heard with astonishment that her husband had another wife and six children living in Philadelphia. A woman is always slow to believe anything of the kind, but put doubt and mistrust into her mind, and she will stop at nothing to be satisfied. Actuated by these feelings, she went to Philadelphia in the early part of this week, and sure enough she found a woman who claimed to be the wife of her husband. On Thursday she returned, and called the delinquent to account, when he acknowledged that he had been married to the woman in question, but that he was separated from her by divorce. Wife No. 2 demanded a sight of the papers. These the husband declared were in the possession of his brother. To get these papers the husband left yesterday, but whether he will return with the properly authenticated documents. is a question, since he evidently imposed upon his wife in the first place, by not informing her of his previous marriage and divorce, if the latter had occurred.

The gentleman is a man of means—owns city property and a farm. The Harrisburg wife has respectable grown up children by her first husband. The discovery has caused a great amount of domestic misery, and, for the sake of all concerned, it is to be hoped that the husband will return with clear record at an early day.

A NUISANCE TO BE ABATED .- The firing of guns and pistols to welcome the advent of a New Year is a custom more honored in the breach than the observance." Surely years fly fast enough to render salvos of artillery unnecessary to express our joy. It is a barbarous old fogy custom which should long since have been abolished, but as the good sense of people will not put an end to it, the Mayor has determined to interpose the strong arm of the law in behalf of the peace and quiet of the people. Know ye, therefore, all neisy disposed juveniles, that the Mayor will employ an extra police force on Monday night, who will return every person found violating the law in discharging fire arms of any kind. A warrant will follow, and all who indulge in the sport will be most likely to
