A MARRIAGE.—On the 26th ult., ex-Senator Geo. W. Brewer was married to Miss Louisa Gebr, in Chambersburg. Two hundred guests made up the wedding party.

NOTICE.—The ladies of St. Lawrence Church, Front street, have re-adorned their Christmas tree (in the basement of the church) for New Years, and hope their friends who patronized them so liberally on Christmas day will manifest their generosity on this occasion.

A VETERAN GONE.—Robert Coney, aged 102 years, died at his residence in Hamilton county, Ohio, last week. He was born in York, Pa., in 1758, and at the age of 13 was employed as a drummer-boy in the forces under command of General Washington.

NOT REALIZED.—Our anticipations of a glorious reign of sleigh-bells is not likely to be realized.—The sun came out a little too affectionate for the snow yesterday, and it melted before its warm embraces. A friend from the Allegheny Mountains informs us that there has been uninterrupted sleighing there since the 1st of December.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE.—To-day at 12 o'clock, M., the House of Representatives meets, and the Senate convenes at 3 o'clock, P. M., when both will be organized. The appointment of the committees will follow, which will constitute the bulk of the week's business. Full reports of the proceedings of both Houses will be published in the PATRIOT AND UNION.

LANCASTER AND HARRISBURG RAILROAD.—We are informed that the exact vote given at the meeting of the stockholders of the above company, held in Sansom Street Hall, on the 27th ultimo, was 12,935 votes (as represented by stock) in favor of executing the lease with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and only 558 votes adversely to the measure.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—The many friends of T. Scott Stewart, Esq., late of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will hear with pleasure of his appointment, by the Secretary of War, to the highly responsible and lucrative position of Sutler, with the rank of Captain, in the United States Army. At present, Captain Stewart's residence will be Carlisle, Pa., and all communications to him should be addressed, "Captain T. Scott Stewart, Carlisle Barracks, Pa."

ROADS IN CHINA.—The Moniteur de l'Armee says "Among the numerous details we have received from our correspondents in China, we find it mentioned that the road from Tien-tsin to Pekin is entirely macadamized, and has the advantage over roads of the same kind in Europe of not retaining water on the surface, so that it is quite dry in a few minutes after the rain cases. The inhabitants declare to our correspondent that all the principal roads in China are made in the same manner, and have been for centuries."

THE SENATE "SLATE."—The Senate slate was made up by a ring on Saturday last, and leaves George Hill, J. B. Dodds, Peter S. Marts, Thomas Walker, Daniel Crum and Dr. Levis out in the cold. Herman Yerkes is to be Sergeant-at-arms, and some man from Lancaster is to be the door-keeper. Only five of the old officers are to be retained. The slate, as figured up, has given some dissatisfaction, and may be changed materially this morning when the caucus meets, or probably this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when the Senate meets. The House slate has been completed, and also contemplates some changes, but we did not hear the nature of them.

P. S.—The pressure became so strong, and so many became anxious to have their hash settled at the earliest possible moment, the caucus met in the Senate Chamber at 3 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. The following are the nominations made:

Speaker—Robert M. Palmer.

Clerk—Russel Erret.

Assistant Clerk—C. P. Ramsdell.

Transcribing Clerks—George W. Patton, G. S. Berry, J. Hitchcock, R. F. Cooper (short term.)

Sergeant-at-Arms—Herman Yerkes.

Door-keeper—John Martin.

Assistant—J. B. Hines.

Messenger—Mr. Huddelson, of Delaware.

Librarian—J. P. Brady.

We did not ascertain the names of the Assistant Messengers.

A series of curious experiments have lately been made by M. Rayer on the torpedo. It was found that curarina, the most powerful of known poisons, when injected into the dorsal vein of this electrical fish, rendered inactive the motor nerves, but left the sensitive nerves active. By several experiments in connection with the galvanic battery, it was ascertained that the sensitive nerves, in spite of the fact that all motion was suspended by the power of the injected poison, acted upon the brain, which in turn influenced the excitor nerves of the torpedo's electrical apparatus. The functions of this apparatus were thus performed without the intervention of the motor nerves.

THIRD HOUSE.—We are requested to say that the Third House will hold an informal caucus this evening, when the new members applying for admission will be on hand with their credentials, or other evidences upon which they claim membership. Ex-members of the House and Senate, it is understood by one of the rules of Captain Zeigler's manual, are members of the Third House ex officio, on payment of "footing," consisting of oysters and ale. At this meeting the question of a State Treasurer and United States Senator will be discussed, and the claims of the different candidates will be canvassed in a friendly and sociable manner. We find by outside conversation—although quite a number of the old members are still absent—that a dead-set will be made against the introduction of many new members, on the well-grounded fear that such an act would have a tendency to reduce the size of the "divvies."

In view of the tightness of the times, the member from Lycoming proposes a joint rule making the euchre of a lone hand forty cents to the Poor House, instead of twenty, as heretofore, and several other measures of great importance are now being worked up to a head.

INTERESTING RAILROAD DECISION.—In a recent case before Judge Marvin, at the Erie general term of the Supreme Court, it was decided that a passenger traveling on a ticket made out for a continuous trip, cannot stop over at any way stations, and proceed afterwards upon the same ticket.

The action was to recover damages for an assault, and for ejecting the plaintiff from the cars of the New York Central Railroad. The defendant was a conductor on the cars. On the 12th of August, 1858, the plaintiff purchased of the Hudson River Railroad Company, at its depot in New York city, a ticket for a passage to Buffalo. He inquired what the fare to Buffalo was, and was told five dollars, which he paid, and received a ticket reading thus: "Good for one seat in first-class car from New York to Buffalo, by Hudson River and New York Central Railroads, to be used within three days from date; good for a continuous trip only; issued by the Hudson River Railroad Company, signed C. H. Kendrick." On the back was printed "Hudson R. R. Ticket Office, August 12, 1858."

The plaintiff left the city immediately and rode to Albany, where he remained until the 18th or 19th of August, when he took the cars of the Central Railroad and rode to a place west of Syracuse. The defendant came into the cars as conductor, at Syracuse, and, after calling upon the passengers for tickets or fare, the plaintiff exhibited the ticket, and the conductor refused it and told him it had expired and was not good, and that the plaintiff must pay fare. The plaintiff refused and the defendant removed him from the cars, using no unnecessary force, and acting under instructions from the New York Central Railroad Company. After the plaintiff was thus removed he returned to the car, paid fare, and continued his journey. The reduction of fare to $5 was owing to competition; the usual fare from New York to Buffalo was about $9.50.

Upon the trial the court non-suited the plaintiff and gave judgment to the defendant. The plaintiff then moved for a new trial, which motion was heard at the Erie general term of the Supreme Court, and the motion was denied, thus sustaining the position of the action of the conductor, and the position of the railroad company.

WHAT NEXT?—We read in the New York Express that a new fashion has been introduced into what is considered "high society" in Paris. Private theatricals and private concerts are known as among the most piquant amusements of the fashionable world, but the Parisians have invented private preaching. Cards of invitation for a mantinee religieuse are issued, a pulpit is erected in the drawing-room, and one of the most popular preachers is secured, just as at a musical party the pet singer of the town is often obtained. Sometimes rival entertainments of this nature occur on the same morning, and then the strife is between the rival hostesses which shall proffer the most tempting inducements, and which shall succeed in drawing the largest crowd. As the winter season of gaiety is about to begin in New York, the Express asks, would not the novelty of this style of party make a sensation, if it were proposed in blase circles, tired of balls and visits and the ordinary routine of social life? and the editor suggests the following invitations; to be engraved, of course:

MRS. JOHN SMITH,
AT HOME.
On Friday morning, November 1st,
From 2 to 4.
On priera. 999 Fifth Avenue.

The refreshments should not be served until after the sermon; and amateur performances might be introduced after the regular entertainment was over. The costume should be the same worn at weddings; if it were thought advisable, ball dress would be allowed instead when preferred. A fine opportunity would be afforded for the display of a graceful figure when kneeling; and the gesticulation in the sermon would call into play the arms nearly or quite as much as performances on the harp. The preaching should by no means be confined to men.

Indeed, young ladies could rehearse at evening visits, and thus vary the monotony of these occasions. Themes for the preachers could readily be procured; perhaps they should be required, like the improvisatores, to take their subjects from the company. Those who are used to discussing their neighbors behind their backs, would soon get used to talking as openly in their presence, and everybody would have the advantage of knowing his own faults. The refreshing novelty of this alone would cause the religious matinees to become speedily popular. If it were thought advisable, refreshments might be served after each discussion.

NEW YEAR.—Yesterday ended the first decade of the last half of the nineteenth century, and today we enter upon the year of 1861. If 1860 is to be memorable, who knows what will be recorded upon the pages of history before another twelve months shall have vanished? Dark clouds like funeral palls hang over our devoted country, and doubt, dismay and distrust stalk abroad at noon day. But, with all this, let us not despond—"every cloud has a silver lining," and the "darkest hour is just before day." We therefore wish all and every one of our readers, old and young—in fact, of all ages, sexes, and conditions in life, a prosperous and happy New Year, and a speedy return of peace to the world and all the rest of mankind.

HOUSE CAUCUS.—The Republican House caucus met last evening and made the following nominations:

Speaker—Elisha W. Davis, of Venango county.

Clerk—E. H. Rauch, of Lehigh county.

Assistant Clerk—E. W. Caperon, of Chester county.

Transcribing Clerks—C. W. Walker, of Philadelphia; W. H. Denniston, of Pittsburg; W. A. Nichols, of M'Kean; John R. Porter, of Schuylkill county.

Post Master—H. A. Woodhouse, of Wayne county.

Sergeant-at-Arms—J. R. Matthews, of Philadelphia.

Door-keeper—E. D. Pickett, of Erie.

Assistant Sergeant-at-arms.—James Gubers, of Philadelphia; J. C. Sturdevant, of Crawford; John Mecklin, of Armstrong; Casper Gang, of Allegheny.

Assistant Door-keepers—W. Gardy, of Philadelphia; J. R. Miller; of Lawrence; Wm. Lewis, of Bradford; Henry Hough, of Bucks.

Messenger—H. G. Gibson, of Mercer.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.—The Democrats of the House of Representatives met in caucus in the North Committee Room, at 4 o'clock last evening, and made the following nominations:

Speaker—Dr. Charles H. Hill, of Montgomery.

Clerk—Captain Jacob Zeigler.

Assistant Clerk—J. Simpson Africa.

Sergeant-at-Arms—John Grill.

Door-keeper—John Farrel.

Post Master—Thomas O'Hara.

Messenger—Jacob Weigman.

Dr. Charles H. Hill, of Montgomery, who received the honorary nomination for Speaker, by the Democratic caucus of the House of Representatives, is now in his third Legislative term. The father of Dr. H. is at present a member of the California State Senate. The endorsement which Dr. H. has received at the hands of his colleagues is none the less effective because the Democratic party are in the minority.

A CURIOSITY.—C. B. Cotter, Esq., formerly of Potter county, but at present an editor in Iowa, was in this city yesterday, having in his possession a piece of a petrified tree, found at Pike's Peak.

LARGE SLEIGHING PARTY.—Last evening several four-horse sleighs, freighted with gay young lads and lasses, went out to Halbach's, where, the presumption is, they had a time. This impromptu party no doubt interfered some with the Friendship ball.

SALE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE TREVORTON COAL AND RAILROAD COMPANY.—The valuable and extensive property of this company, including the railroad, bridges, coal lands, breaker, &c., as well as the property in Snyder county, is advertised to be sold in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 23d of January, by virtue of a decree of the Supreme Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. This is a most valuable property. The railroad is about 14½ miles in length, including the two bridges over the Susquehanna at Port Trevorton, which are 3,600 feet in length, with 1,400 feet of trestling. The sale will be held by Messrs. W. C. Pickersgill and Oswald J. Camman, of New York, trustees under the mortgage, upon which it will be sold. The original cost of this property is over one million of dollars.

FANCY DANCING.—The La Crosse Democrat cautions young men who can't dance the fancy dances, not to go to a ball with a young lady who can, and adds a few suggestions as follows:

"If we ever have children, we shall teach them these fancy dances, to the neglect of their catechism. Not that they will enjoy the hopping around, first on one foot, then on the other, then on both, but they will have such a good chance to hug other folks' wives and sweethearts! That is the secret of the dancing! No one can object then, but if a fellow were to sit by the side of his own wife even in a ball room and hug her half as hard, well wouldn't there be remarks? Guess not? (We speak ironically!) Talk about going to picnics, visiting weddings, going to applecuts, sparking by moonlight, sitting on the porch Sunday evenings, and stealing a kiss every time a star shoots, (that's the nicest game!) sleigh-riding by the side of a red cheeked girl, or eating happiness with a gold spoon—all—all these sink into insignificance when fancy dancing comes on. But then! If a fellow don't know how, and takes to a party a pretty girl what does; and if he has to sit on a cold bench and see another fellow doing the sweet hugging of that angelic creature that he paid his ticket money to do, it's awful! Just to sit still and see another's arm where yours should be—her head where it should not be, and—and—well; don't take a girl to a fancy dancing party unless you know all the ropes!"

"A PAGE FROM REAL LIFE."—Under the above caption we published a sensation article yesterday morning, copied from the Philadelphia North American, which we have reason to believe was worked up without regard to real facts. We have been called upon by responsible and respectable parties, personal acquaintances of years standing, who declare that the most indubitable proof can and will be produced at the proper time to prove that connecting the name of a gentleman now sojourning in this city with the transaction in the manner in which it was, was the result of a conspiracy. The best evidence of this fact is, that Hunter and Miss Scott were married in Lewistown on Saturday. This crushes out all the romance connected with the "page." The only connection the gentleman in this city had in the matter can hardly be designated by the world as even an imprudent one. He endeavored to shield and screen a friend, both by his advice and means—this an enemy took advantage of, and the gentleman is determined to vindicate his character in a court of justice, not only by bringing suits against individuals, but also by putting the law of libel in force against all the papers who have brought him so prominently before the public in so unenviable a light.

To show how much confidence can be placed in the whole statement, it is only necessary to say that neither the Sheriff of Huntingdon or any of Miss Scott's relations were in Philadelphia at all. Hunter and her went there to get married, and would have got married there but for the interference of those who were in the conspiracy.

THE NEW YEAR.—Now is the time for all men to resolve to act wisely and well, and in such a manner as will subserve the public good and promote their own welfare. Different persons have different views as to how the first object can be accomplished; but no sane man need hesitate about the mode of advancing his own private interests. A virtuous life, is, of course, an essential of a happy one, and it then only needs to consult comfort, elegance and economy by procuring your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia, where the finest stock of wearing apparel for gentlemen and youths, in the country, will be found.

A LARGE LOT OF GOODS received to-day, suitable for presents, which will be sold off much below their real value. 60 dozen of Hem-stitched and Grass Linen Handkerchiefs, at 20, 25, 37 and 50 cents a piece; 100 Sets of Collars and Sleeves, direct from New York auction, at very low prices; Gents' Plain and Bordered Linen Handkerchiefs; beautiful lot of Lace Curtains; Chenille Scarfs, at 12½ and 25 cents; 10 pieces of Cassimere for pants; 10 pieces of Cloth, for Cloaks; 25 pieces of all kinds of Flannel; 2,000 yards of best brown Muslin, for 10 cents; Woollen Socks, 15, 20 cents; Undershirts, Drawers, 50, 62, 75, and a great many other bargains.

S. LEWY,
Rhoads' Corner.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Persons in search of goods suitable for holiday presents will do well to give BROWNOLD & SAM, Wyeth's building, opposite the Jones House, a call. They have fine Cambric setts, Cloaks and Cloth for Cloaks, Shawls, Pearl Purses, Collars, Sleeves, Gloves, Hosiery, Silks, Silk and Woolen Goods, and Ladies' Dress Goods of all descriptions. During the Holiday season they are determined not to be undersold, and they only ask the public to call, examine, and compare prices with any other establishment in the city or country. On many articles a reduction has been made, in order to carry out our determination to reduce our stock as much as possible during this week.

It is prepared with chemicals, by which it is kept in the proper condition for immediate use, the chemicals evaporating as soon as it is applied, leaving the glue to harden. which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
