THE CAPTURE OF THE CITY OF PERIN_SACKING OF THE EMPEROR'S PALACE—IMMENSE PLUN-DER, &c.

The London journals are replete with incidents relative to the taking of Pokin. It appears the Chinese offered every indignity to the prisoners they had taken. A correspondent, who accompanied the army, after noting the capture of the city by the English and French troops, thus describes the sacking of the emperor's palace:

The summer palace is about five miles by a circuitous road northwest of this camp, outside the earthwork. A description of it is given in Staunton's account of Lord Macariney's Embassy, and other works on China, but no pen can describe correctly the scene that has taken place there within the last two days. Indisoriminate license has been allowed. The public reception hall, the state and private bedrooms, ante-rooms, boudoirs and every other apartment have been ransacked; articles of virtu, of native and foreign workmanship, taken, or broken if too large to be carried away; ornamental lattice work, screens, jade stone ornaments, jars, clocks, watches and other pieces of mechanism. curtains and furniture—none have escaped from destruction. There were extensive wardrobes of every article of dress; coats richly embroidered in silk and gold thread in the imperial dragon pattern; boots, head-dresses, fans, &c.; in fact, rooms all but filled with them; store-rooms of manufactured silk in rolls, such as may be bought in Canton at twenty dollars to thirty dollars per piece. By a calculation made in the rooms there must have been 70,000 or 80,000 pieces. Hundreds were thrown down and trampled on, and the floor covered thickly with them; men were throwing them at each other, and all taking as many as they could carry. They were used instead of rope to secure the loading of carts filled with them. Throughout the French camp were hundreds of pieces, some heaped up, others used to make tents or beds and coverlets.

In the afternoon a party of French went through the apartments with sticks, breaking everything that remained mirrors, screens, panels, &c. It is said that they did so in revenge for the barbarous treatment the released prisoners, their countrymen, had received. A treasury containing a large quantity of gold ingots and sycee silver is under charge of a guard, and is to be divided between the English and French. The total value of property destroyed would amount to a large installment of the indemnity claimed. In one of the anterooms of the state bed-room at the Summer Palace, the treaty of Tien-tsin, in English and Chinese, signed by Lord Elgin, was found. It had been thrown on the ground by some one, and lay in a heap of broken articles till the English paper evidently attracted the eye of the person who discovered it.

A general order from the British commanderin-chief desired that all articles taken by officers and men were to be sent in for sale by public auction, for the benefit of the army, which was done. All were permitted to have the articles they had brought away for themselves valued, and have the option of taking or rejecting them. Many beautiful curiosities and souvenirs were thus obtained at a nominal price. The sale realized $32,000, which, with the value of the treasure, estimated at $61,000, is to be divided as prize money on the spot.

The commander-in-chief and general officers have waived their right to share. A gold jug of great value was presented to the commander-in-chief by the army. Nearly all the articles were sold at very high prices, large enamelled and inlaid vases and ornaments realizing full Shanghai prices for such articles, the fact of their having been the property of Hien-Pung adding an imaginary value to everything. The scenes where the sale was held, in the temple Lamisiri, occupied as headquarters, were worthy of the pencil of an artist. Had his Imperial Majesty handed over the whole of the contents of that palace, uninjured, it would have sold for an enormous amount, more than three-four: hs having been destroyed or taken by the French.

All round the vicinity of the palace are large enclosures, parks or cemeteries, with trees of some magnitude, and many stone bridges over nullahs, the country being very dry at present. Branching off from the palace are several paved roads, and just outside of it is the French camp, by the side of two large lotus ponds.

Another correspondent writes of the Imperial Palace:

No description can give an idea of the splendor of this residence. The entrance or recep-tion hall is paved with marble, and painted with gold, azure and scarlet, in the most gorgeous style. The throne of the Emperor is of beautiful carved dark wood, and the cushions, embroidered with gold dragons, attracted general admiration; every inner chamber and saloon was very handsomely fitted up, and the rolls of silk, satin and crape, all of splendid workmanship, furnished cummerbunds and puggarees for the French soldiers, who appear to have adopted our custom in this respect.-The jade stone and china were of great value, and some Sevres china of Louis Quatorze would have delighted the eye of many a curious fancier; and a presentation sword, with the English coat or arms, studded with gems, and evidently of antiquity, gave rise to some speculation. The last treaty of Tien-tsin was also found, and the immense quantity of booty of all kinds made it almost impossible to know what to take away. Some idea of the quantity of silk may be given by the fact that fowls, old pots, &c., were wrapped in the most costly silks and satins. All the ladies had disappeared, but their little Japanese dogs, something resembling a King Charles spaniel, were running about in a distracted state.

Thirty brass Chinese guns, mounted on the walls of Pekin, were taken by the victors. The wall is 60 feet wide and well paved. The American and Russian ministers followed the army; the former as far as Pekin.

LIVING IN JAPAN .- A correspondent, writing from the dominions of the Tycoon, gives the following interesting information:

"You ask us in regard to our mode of living. It is simply this: -You rent a house (a moderate-sized house costs about $100 per annum) with some four or five rooms; one of these, the front, is the office or counting-room; the next to the rear is the drawing and dining-room, and answers at the same time for a private counting-room. To the rear of this is the kitchen. In the upper story one room is occupied by yourself, one by the housekeeper, and the other by the servants, usually young men, say eighteen to twenty, who are young errand boys, &c. Your housekeeper, who, by the way, is generally a pretty black-eyed young lady, is very attentive to your wants. On her devolves the whole charge of the house, procuring the provisions, washing the clothing, and cooking the food, besides keeping the whole house thoroughly clean. Her services cost you her board and about fifty to seventy five dollars per year. The whole expense of my family, including house rent, pay of housekeeper and servants for the last year, has been only five hundred dollars-some difference between this and the cost of living in the same style in

The gaoler of the Bristol (England) prison, has devised an improvement of the tread-mill. The prisoners, at every step they take, call up to view a letter or word, and are thus taught the alphabet and reading while they are at work. By degrees, says an English paper, they become able to read a chapter in the Bible.

Miscellaneous.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES .- There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in c innection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common. as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native a to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'crrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?'' "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'oner it cured me se quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

III HEADACHE is the favorite sign by [which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which night otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Head. aches may be classified under two names, viz : Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Ueadache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterioe affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache.-Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a State of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instan ces the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be aither knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist — You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarth rand giv me the Pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness or sedentary babits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to votice arriver which in selling it to be previous and the consequence to regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the unferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evits of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Healthche, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others off the nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhæa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melaucholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unirequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it fellows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache? Mrs. Jones—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.
Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists. Call for Cepbalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED .- Mr. Spalding TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAYED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle sayes at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from to alloss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching hears with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety il_JUVER EXOITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to the close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatat blow to all energy and ambition.—Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and juring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and servates the disordered condition of the ompanies and aggravates the disordered condition FACT WORTS KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a crtain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Caphain Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is aure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by sufring humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten

DID you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food? How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or atndy. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all ths suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as a consion requires use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Neryous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering ffrom Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and msy be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable tasts renders it easy to administer them to you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and else where, has given rise to numerous enquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much iraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated, and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your festorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful: I gave it to my friends and thereby induced them to try it; many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty, as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who enquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice net to make known to the world, the wonderful as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it. Respectfully yours, REY. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited; but if you think it worthy of a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not destroy and say nothing.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description or written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent manasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of from must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastrie purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action.

In Dyspersia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness. In unchecked Diabered, even when advanced to Dysen Terr, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing. In the local pains, loss of fieth and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent bectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumerion, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Unol-now Oulfe's extensive warchouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wines, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wines, &c. in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolff's alse of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally success? with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pu

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing IRON, SULPHUR, AND PHOSPHOROUS, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood. In all diseases accompanied with DEBILITY, pale countenance and nervons derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a deficiency of the red globule,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of IRON have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that IRON alone, SULPHUR alone, or PHOSPHOROUS alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the BLOOD FOOD, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in age. Its effects in CONSUMPTION are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh.
