A stated meeting of the Washington Hose Company will be held at the hose house this (Friday) evening at seven o'clock. Punctual attendance is SLIPPERY .- The pavements yesterday morning were exceedingly dangerous to pedestrians. If they continue so to-day people will do well to sprinkle ashes on them-that is, those who have net already attended to this duty. BEFORE TEE MAYOR .- John Harman, a revolver.

and Edward Boyle, in search of a "home for the homeless," were turned out of the leck-up yesterday morning, and permitted to pursue their jour-

Poor House Appointments .- Dr. Mish has been re-elected surgeon and physician of 'the Poor House for the year 1861, and Mr. Fantz has been re-elected clerk of the Board of Directors. The Steward, whose name we did not learn, has also been continued for the current year.

RAILBOAD ACCIDENT .- James Moss, of Columbia a flagman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, had one of the fingers of the left hand taken off and two others severely crushed on Tuesday, while in the act of coupling freight cars near Lancaster. He was taken to the office of Dr. J. L. Atlee, Sr., who attended to the injuries.

THE ALLEGED CONFESSION.—The statement going the rounds of the press that a man died at Pottsville, Pa., and on his dying bed confessed that he participated in the murder of Miss Bavor. in Berks county, and that he gave the name of the principal in the bloody deed, is untrue. No such confession has been made.

GONE.-Well, young ladies, leap year is passed, and those of you who did not take our advice and. as the preachers say, "improve the occasion," cannot blame us that the year 1861 finds you running into old maids. However, don't despair; remember we read in the Bible of a young lady who was not married until she was over five hundred years of age. Think of that!

DEATH OF A REVENUE OFFICER .- A dispatch from Eastport, Maine, announces the death of Capt. John L. Prouty, of the revenue cutter Jackson. He died last Friday.

The above vacancy leaves an opening for our former fellow-townsman, Lieut. John Carson, who was next in command to the late Capt. Prouty on the same station. We hope that in due time we will learn of the promotion of Lieut. Carson, a fact which will be gratifying to his numerous friends and admirers in this city.

MAN SCALDED .- A man named Frederick Hiney, in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company, was so badly scalded at the Round House on Wednesday evening that his life is despaired of .-He took up an engine, and while working at the head-bolt the cap suddenly flew off, when a stream of hot water and steam poured over him. Mr. Hiney is a man of family, and resides in Second street, where he now lies in a very critical condi-

HOTEL CHANGES .- Sheriff Hoffman has become the proprietor of the White Hall Hotel, but will also keep open the stand heretofore occupied by him until the first of April, when Mr. B. Peters, who has purchased it from Mr. Stahl, will take possession. Mr. Turbett, we understand, has bought the good will and fixtures of the Franklin House. A Mr. Thompson, of Thompsontown, we learn, leased the United States Hotel from the first of April next, but subsequently purchased the Susquehanna House. The latter is an eligibly located stand, and when properly refitted and the repairs put upon it which it properly demands, cannot fail to do an excellent business.

DISSATISFIED WITH THE UNITED STATES CENSUS. The citizens of Philadelphia, dissatisfied with the inaccuracies of the United States census, and believing that their resident population far exceeds that allowed them by official returns, are having the population counted over again by enumerators of their own. The census exhibits that while Philadelphia has 5,118 more dwellings houses than New York and Brooklyn combined, her resident population is nearly 250,000 less than that of the former city alone—a discrepancy which the Press thinks the amended returns will correct in favor of Philadelphia, and show her to be possessed of near or quite 650,000 inhabitants, 82,000 more than is assigned her by the census.

REPORTED SHOOTING OF GEN. CADWALLADER, OF PHILADELPHIA, NEAR HAVER-DE-GRACE.-A report reached Philadelphia on Monday last, from a source which entitles it to credit, to the effect that Gen. George Cadwallader, of Philadelphia, had been shot and seriously injured on Saturday, on Bush river, Harford county, where he owns several ducking shores. In the absence of the particulars of the affair, it is inferred by the friends of the General in this city that the shooting was the act of some party engaged in the unlawful killing of ducks from "sink-boats," and against whom Gen. Cadwallader was known to be engaged in bringing the law to bear. Neither the nature nor extent of the wound was known. The General was removed to Philadelphia, where he resided.

SCIENTIFIC RIFLE SHOOTING .- It should, in these days of sanguinary portent, afford some little consolation to know that the killing of a combatant in battle is averse to the "true art" of war, as we learn from Col. Peard, "Garibaldi's Englishman," who is reported to have said of rifle shooting in "Mind, if ever you go rifle shooting, use your rifie in a scientific manner. Recollect always not to kill your man but to wound him; then it takes two men to carry him off, and those two men never by any chance come back the same day. With a double-barrelled rifle, therefore, you may get rid of six men at each discharge." Should our present difficulties unhappily resolve themselves into an appeal to arms—which humanity forbid-we trust our military may be found perfect in the "scientific" use of the rifle, and other

A HARD CASE. -On Tuesday evening a German called upon the Mayor, and made complaint that he had no ahiding place, no change of clothing, and his body was covered with vermin! This was a new case for the Mayor, not on the books, and without precedent in his experience. He was at a loss how to proceed. There was no such thing as issning an ejectment against the sovereign squatters, and it was not good policy to introduce them into the city feather beds to the infinite injury of future lodgers-neither would it do to send him to jail. He advised the poor man to do the best he could until morning, when he would get him a permit to go to the Alms House. An order to that effect was issued and signed by the Mayor, and countersigned by District Attorney Herr, and the man went out to the farm. Later in the day he returned, declaring that the Steward or overseer would not receive him! This is a shocking piece of cruelty : if the Mayor, as a committing Magistrate, and the District Attorney are vested with less power than the keeper of the Poor House, it is right that the people should know it. The man in question is literally being eaten up with vermin, and must die in the street if some relief is not afforded him. Yesterday morning he again visited the Mayor's office, and said he had friends in Pittsburg if he could only get there. The Mayor gave him some money, and a letter to the railroad authorities, but for some reason he was not taken-probably because it would not do to take him in a passenger train, and in a pattle car he would be likely to freeze crossing the mountain. Truly his is a hard

POLITICS AND RELIGION .- The N. Y. Christian Advocate publishes an elaborate article on the effects of political campaigns on religious progress-The evil results of the former are very plainly shown in the statistics of the M.E. Church. Says the writer: The increase of the membership in the campaign year of 1848 was 7,508, while the average of the three succeeding years was 27,869, nearly four times as many. The increase during the campaign year of 1852 was 6,896, while the average of the three succeeding years was 16,914. The increase of the year of the Fremont campaign when the clegry went into the work of defining political duty, was 896. God showed his approval of their faithfulness to the cause of liberty by giving an increase of .57,973 for the three succeed_ ing years. The same is true as regards the Sunday School. The average increase of the three Presidential years referred to has been 229 schools. while the average increase of the remaining nine years has been 614. The same result has been clearly shown in all the departments of labor. It is less clearly shown, perhaps not at all, in the department of finance.

DIXIE,-The power of popular music was well illustrated in Hartford, Conn., on Christmas Eve A supper was given to the children of the "Morgan Street Mission School," and the press says everything passed off as decorously as a Sunday School should, until, whilst they were devouring the "goodies," the band struck up "Dixie:" In an instant the boys were singing, at the top of their

> "I wish I was in Dixie-Hooray! Hooray! In Dixie's land I'll take my stand And lib and die in Dixie's land!

Away, away, away down souf in Dixie. The teacher's tried to look grave, and said "s-s-h-h!" with a warning finger lifted; but it was no use: they gave it up, and joined in the song and the general amusement. It was not exactly a Sunday School song, but seemed to do the boys a "heap o' good." Said a grinning little darkey, rolling the whites of his eyes up to the city missionary, "We couldn't help it, Massa. If dey didn't want us to sing Dixie, de band no business to play such jolly tunes!"

COTTON AND FLAX .- The Rhode Island Society for the encouragement of domestic industry, at its last session appointed a committee to investigate the subject of flax cotton, and its probable value and feasability as a substitute for cotton. The Providence Journal, in speaking of the action of of the committee, says: The manufacture of flax cotton, its extent and prospects, was again brought before the Standing Committee, and elicited an interesting discussion; in the course of which it appeared that different individuals in various parts of this country had turned their attention to this subject, and were pursuing experiments in relation to it. It was said that the manufacture of a good article in large quantities was already in successful operation. This being a subject of great importance to this community, it was referred to the sub-Committee on Manufactures to ascertain the extent of the manufacture of this article in various parts of the country, and the processes used in it so far as the same are public.

A very simple, economical and efficient form of portable concentrated food is what is termed the meat biscuit. In this preparation the best wheat flour is combined with the nutriment of the finest beef, and these are presented for use as food, in the form of a dry, inodorous, flat, brittle cake, which will keep, when dry, for an unlimited period. It only requires hot water and seasoning to the taste, to produce a first-rate, agreeably-flavored, highly nutritous soup, somewhat of the consistence of sago. One pound of the biscuit contains the nutrive matter, fat excepted, of five pounds of prime beef, mixed with half a pound of the best wheat flour. One ounce of the biscuit grated, and boiled in a pint of water, forms a rich, nutritous soup .--It is also averred that ten pounds of this substance, with a proper allowance of water, afford, both in bulk and nutriment, food sufficient to support the physical and mental powers of a healthy workingman for a month. THE FAST DAY .- Our readers will bear in mind thatto-day is the day appointed by President Buchanan, as a day of fasting and prayer to God in behalf our of country. The terrible evils that are threatening us, the apparent inability of our rulers to grapple with and subdue these evils, the unreasonableness of the men who are determined to destroy our republic, and the fact that Omnipotence alone can avert these calamities, should induce every lover of his country to comply with the request of our Chief Magistrate. We do not know to what extent the day will be observed in Harrisburg, neither are we advised officially of any arrangements made to observe it. It is fair to presume, however, that the churches will be opened: and as we are among those who believe in the efficacy of prayer, we hope that the most fervent appeals in behalf of our beloved country will be made by all whose prayers are likely to be heard.

long account of a case of black mail in that city, from which we gather the following particulars: "As a minister in one of the churches in this city was going from prayer meeting to his residence, he was accosted by a woman and two men, charged with having had illicit intercourse with the woman who confronted him, and was told that satisfaction was desired, and that he must not refuse it for fear of his life. Going a square or two In fact, if the blood is poisoned, it is impure, and imthe two men and the woman forced him into a house, where they compelled him under threats of immediate violence to his person, or danger of his life, to sign a note for $200, stating in the note that it was given as compensation to the woman for the base purposes for which, as they charged, he had used her. After signing the note, and being told that if he did not pay it he would be exposed, he was permitted to go. The next day one of the men called with the note and received the

BLACK MAIL.—The Indianapolis papers publish

PRESENTATION OF A CANE. - On Tuesday last the guests of the United States Hotel, corner of Eleventh and Market streets, Philadelphia, presented to H. W. Kanaga, the proprietor, a gold-mounted ebony cane. The presentation was made by Dr. M. C. B. Richardson, in a few well-timed remarks, as follows:

Sir, in behalf of a number of your guests, who have for some time been under your roof and enjoyed your hospitality, I have the pleasing task assigned me of presenting to you in their names this beautiful cane, as a token of their regard and esteem for you as a gentleman and as host. In performing this pleasing task which the partiality of my friends have placed upon me, flow me to express my own well wishes for your contined suc-cess and prosperity. We know full well that in an intrinsic point of view this gift has but little value; but, sir, it represents the well wishes, yea the hearty well wishes of many warm hearts who desire your success at all times and under all circumstances, as a just reward for your endeavors to promote the happiness of those around you. And is n after life the infirmities of age or the misfortunes of disease, which also humanity is heir to, should render it necessary for you to have to lean on something for support, may you find in this sturdy cane strength sufficient; and when leaning upon it can we not cherish the fond hope that you will kindly remember those whose pleasure it was to present it to you? I feel, sir, how little able I am o do justice to those I represent, to you, and to this occasion; how utterly impossible it is indeed for any one to speak the utterances and emotions of so many hearts. The task would be too difficult for the most experienced. I will not be presumptious enough to attempt it. We know full well if you understand the motives that prompt this gift, it will ever be cherished by you as one of friend-ship's purest offerings. May this scene ever be remembered by us, and appreciated by you. In a short while some of us will be scattered as it were to the four winds of Heaven. May we always know that we live in the same happy and prosperous country. If so we can think with pleasure thatour loved homes or the land that gave us birth is watered by the same murmuring rivers, warmed by the same genial sun, and canopied by the same bright

REPLY OF JOHN BROWNWELL-Gentlemen: It is no ordinary occurrence that has induced me to give utterance to one word on this occasion-nor is it a common mission to be deputed, as you are, by the guests of the United States Hotel, to bear the flattering testimonial, which you have accompanied with that eloquence which cannot fail in reaching every heart in our midst-and in, delivering that precious mark of their inestimable esteem is some hing that should ever be remembered with a feeling of profound gratitude and delight. If, indeed, the kind feeling in relation to this present be as sincere as the expression of your countenances, I have no hesitancy in saying it will be an imposing reflection in days to come. But feeling as I do entirely unprepared for an occasion of this kind, you will here accept my sincere thanks in behalf of my propriotor—knowing full well that silence on his part will speak more forcibly than words.

COTTON RAISING IN AFRICA .- A late number of the Sierra Leone African shows a growing interest in the subject of cotton. Rev. Alexander Robb gives encouraging accounts of the experiments in Old Kalabar. James Wilson, writing from Baraquilla, says: "I should think the land on this coast might produce cotton sufficient for the consumption of the world." He adds: "One advantage we have-the tree in this country lasts for many years; therefore, they are not obliged to go over the work of sowing, as in the North." The Commissioner at Loando reports a sixfold increase of exported cotton from 1857 to 1859.

A NORTHERN COLLECTOR FOR THE PORT OF CHARLESTON --- It is understood that a Philadelphian has been appointed a Collector of Customs for the Port of Charleston, S. C., and that he will be backed by a naval force when he goes upon his official mission. Some persons say he will go South as a military officer, and that he will make his appearance in full martial dress; but we learn that this is a mistake, as the centleman in question has procured for himself a full civilian outfit at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.
