Losr .--- A gold seal with cornelian setting, containing two ambrotypes. The finder will be liberally rewarded, and confer a great favor by leaving the same at the Brady House.

Case of Logue .- A writ of error has been allowed in the case of Commonwealth vs. Charles Logue, for the murder of Jared Lewis. The case will be argued in Philadelphia on the 28th of February next. It will be remembered that Logue was tried, convicted and sentenced to be bung by the court of Clarion county.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.-By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that a slight change has been made in the time of arrival and departure of trains. The change, although slight, is nevertheless worthy the attention of travelers .---The mail train for the east in the evening, it will be observed, now leaves at precisely 5 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF JEREMIAN REESS.-The funeral of Mr. Rese took place on Sunday afternoon, and was attended by the Masons, the Cameron Guard, the State Capital Band, the old soldiers, and a large concourse of oitizens. The impressive funeral service of the Masons was read by Robert Meunch, and after the grave was filled, the Cameroa Guard fired several volleys over it.

THE BIGHTH OF JANUARY .---- To-day is a day hallowed in American History-the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, when Gen. Jackson, backed by the Hunters of Kentucky, protected the beauty and boory of that city, and gained one of the most brilliant victories ever achieved.

In honor of the event, the Cameron Guard will parade this afternoon, but we de not hear of any thing else to commemorate the day. An effort was made yesterday to raise amunition for a National salute, which may be successful to-day.

A VERITABLE CAPTAIN BOBADIL -Jomes S. Bris_ bin, of the Centre Democrat, seems determined to immortalize himself. Not satisfied with the enviable reputation be gained by receiving a reply to his letter to Governor Letcher, he evidently pants for a fresh invoice. It would puzzle the most astute philosopher, after reading his rhodomontade, to decide whether he is a natural born imbecile, or merety laboring under dementia brought about by laboring under the hallucination that he is a distinguished politician of a bundred ass power. In his last he lets off the following :

"Call meetings at once ; organize yourselves into military companies, and declare by one voice that you will stand by the Constitution and the Union to the last of your breath and your blood. Let all the Wide Awake clubs in the county elect delegates immediate y to meet in convention at the January Court, and take into consideration what is best to be done. These are dark hours and we must prepare for the worst. Is there a coward among us? ballot for a ballot fo up Dixie again, re-trim your lamps, and if the wor comes to the worst, throw them away and ta muskets in your hands, and from Maine to Oreg let the earth shake to the tread of three millions semed Wile Awakee, sworn to protect the Cons tution and the Union. Do your duty and the Uni is safe-fail to do it and all the noble blood sp in the Revolution will have been poured out in vain. Wide Awakes of Centre county, in the name of your country, in the name of your glorious principles, in the name of liberty, we call upon you to organize at once." "Fe, 6, fo, fum---

I smell the blood of a Southern man, And dead or alive, I'll have some.'

There is no use in recommending a straightjacket for Brisbin, because when the fools are all dead and the lunatic asylums filled, we shall have nobody to expend sympathy upon. But, touching these three millions of Wide Awakes, who are called upon to make the earth shake-this must include the halt, lame, blind, deaf, damb, idiots, Quakers, non-resistants and non-combatants, who voted for Lincoln, and about a million who did not vote for him. Here is a discrepancy between fact and fancy; but a small man, physically as well as intellectually, may be permitted to indulge in enlarged ideas, on the same principle that we tolerate a short man wearing a long-tailed coat and a three-story stove-pipe hat. It is a sort of poetic license and must be allowed ; but, strange to say, the fact is here revealed that the Wide Awakes were leagued together by oaths-sworn to support the Constitution and the Union-a fact not admitted during the late campaign, that the organization was a revival of Know-Nethingism. Ever since the one hundred valorous Virginians offered to place themselves under the command of Col. Pluck Brisbin [in a pig's eye] to fight the disunionists, a martial spirit has arose within him that would have done credit to Bombastes Furioso, when he challenged all the human race. We hope something will be done to enable to the pent-up ferocity of Brisbin ventilation, or really, swelling as he does, he might fare like the frog in the fable, to the serious detriment of his lines.

We propose to have a pair of tin spurs made, and send him Lieutenant Alleman's long wooden sword, and the chapean lately worn by the commander of the Tycoons. He might practice among the tall pines of Centre, and charge upon them as Don Quixote did upon the wind mills. About the time he attains profisiency, and can cut off the head of a fire-eater as "slick as geese grease," and just as "easy as rolling off a log," the two millions of Wide Awakes will be ready to make the earth shake at his command. Glorious Brisbin ! Immaculate Brisbin !-- then shall your name be carved, burnt and seared upon the hearts of the American people. Unbern nations shall gaze with reverential awe upon statues raised high in the niches of fame ward-walk last evening our old, and highly valued | to thy memory. Talk not to us that "raths of glory friend, Col. William Butler, of Lewistown. The | lead but to the grave." Long live Brisbin !- and

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS .- The following shows the vote for Senator in the Republican caucus last eve bing. The result may be regarded as a favorable omen for the peace of the country :

1st. 2d. 31. 4th, 5th. Wilmot 23 28 30 33 36 26 88 36 43 49 38 58 Cowan The caucus thereupon unanimously nominated Hon. Henry D. Moore for State Treasurer, for the nnexpired term of Hon. Eli Slifer, who, we understand, resigns to-day, and for the full term of the ensuing year.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.-The Democrats of the Senate and House of Representatives met in caucus in the Senate Chamber last evening, and organized by calling Dr. Hill, of Montgomery, to the Chair, and appointing Hiester Clymer, of Berks, Secretary. On motion, the caucus proceeded to ballot for a United States Senator, with the follow inated. CALIFORNIA GOLD .--- The following table shows the amount of gold dust received each year since the close of 1854, by steamers, from California:

1855	$ 19,682.524
1856	40, $19.929
1857
1858
1859	39.075.750
1860	33 499.409
	0.5 .79 880

It will be seen that since 1855 the yearly product has decreased, showing a falling off in six years of over seven million dollars. The decrease is doubtless owing chiefly to two causes, viz: the surface gold has been exhausted, rendering considerable capital necessary to profitable mining, and consequently diminishing the number of those engaged in producing gold ; as other avenues of industry are opening up, and the inhabitants of California become citizens instead of more sojour ers, as they were to a large extent in former years, a great deal of gold is retained there that would under former circumstances have been sent to the States.

SPLENDID FAT DURHAM CATTLE .--- One of our en. terprising butchers, Mr. Alexander Koser, has purchased of Jacob S. Haldeman, Esq., two of the largest, finest and fattest young Durham oxen in this region of country, which he intends slaughtering and serving up to our beef-eating citizens. We subjoin the pedigree of these splendid animals, as furnished by the gentleman who raised them :

SNOW BALL, bred by Jacob S. Haldeman, Fair view, York county; three years old Sept. 1, 1860. Got by Mr. Gowen's celebrated Duke of Cumberland, dam Victoria by Prince of Wales, granddam mported Virginia by Enterprise, &c. Duke of Cumberland got by Lamartine, dam Rose by Daady, granddam imported King Charles II. DUKE OF YORK, the property of Jicob S. Haldeman, Fairview, York county, six years old, got by Comet, dam Annie, granddam Pretty Face by im-ported Alexander, Comet by Roderics II., dam imported Nell, Nell by Jerry, Jerry by imported Albion

These cattle will arrive in the city this morning and may be seen at the stable of Mr. Buck's hotel until to-morrow morning, when they will be exhibited in the market-place for an hour or two. In the afternoon they will be slaughtered at Mr. Koser's butcher shop, corner of Mary's alley and Second street, and on Saturday morning served up to his customers in market. All lovers of choice beef. should be on hand to secure "cuts" of these young, tender and fat cattle, which will be disposed of by Mr. Koser at prices to suit the times. jan8-d5t7

THE GREAT DEMONSTRATION ON SATURDAY NIGHT. The meeting at National Hall, on Saturday night, was sufficient to prove the devotion of the people of Philadelphia to the Unicn. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed, and cheers were given with a will whenever the Union or the Star Spangled Banner was alluded to. This display of patriotism might have been expected in the city which gave birth to the Declaration of Independence, and where the masses of the people procure their garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street above Sixth, Philadelphia, where the most splendid stock of garments for gentlemen and youths, to be found in the country, is constantly on hand. A LARGE LOT OF GCODS received to-day, suitable for presents, which will be sold off much below their real value. 60 dozen of Hem-stitched and Grass Linen Handkerchiefs, at 20, 25, 37 and 50 cents a piece ; 100 Sets of Collars and Sleeves, direct from New York auction, at very low prices; Gents' Plain and Bordered Linen Hundkerchiefs; beautiful lot of Lace Curtains; Chenille Scarfs, at 121 and 25 cents; 10 pieces of Cassimere for pants; 10 pieces of Cloth, for Cloaks; 25 pieces of all kinds of Flannel; 2,000 yards of best brown Muslin, for 10 cents; Woollen Socks, 15, 20 cents; Undershirts, Drawers, 50, 62, 75, and a great many other bargains. ne of the Whisky Inspectors under Gov. Cartin, an appointment that will give the most unlimited the tongue of Peter the Hermit, creates an enthu-Mielas ion to all who know bim-Democrats as | siasm that nothing but death itself (or, we might well as Republicans. The Colonel, it will be remembered, had the misfortune to lose a leg while | to the crusader who has discovered that there are engaged in tr ut fishing, and our admiration of this reience runs so high, that we would vote a government pension to any one disabled while purming the business, if in our power.

FINE EUL-GIFS .- Yesterday, in the Senate, Mezzre, tchindel and Clymer delivered eulogies on Benjanin Nuonemacher, Esq., who died in May an-at the time holding the position of Senator of Berks county. Mr. Schindel's eulogy was mainly a tribute to the worth of the deceased, and to the integrity of purpose and moral honesty of the Penney Ivania German race from which Mr. N. sprang. The eulogy of Mr. Clymer was listened to with the most marked attention by Senators and spectators. It was a cool and calm piece of eratory, admirably fitted to the theme, and made a most favorable impression upon all who heard it. Mr. Clymer is certainly a man of more than ordinary ability, and we are vastly mistaken if he does not succeed in making his mark before the close of the ession.

ANOTHER DOUGHTY HERO IN THE FIELD .--- It seems that the valorous Brisbin is not to monopolize all the glory arising from the slaughter of Southern fire caters. He finds a rival in one Col. J. K. Waltman, a resident of Mount Joy, whom the Telegraph facctiously dubbs "gallant." We have no doubt that the gallant Colonal, who, by the bye, is only a Captain, would carve up the dis-Inionists with the same ease and facility that he used to carve up cheese and bologna sausage, when he was in the grocery business, in this city, "corner of Fourth and Market;" but our voice is not for war, and we therefore hope that his ambition will not be gratified. He advertises for able-bodied men to swell the ranks of his company, which is to be subject to the call of the Governor. We derpreat the shedding of blood. It is cruel in this enlightened age. If the Govervor could send a couple of companies of gas-pots like Waltman to the Bouth, we think the wind-work would end the chemes of the Carolinians-if not, nothing but the strongest kind of coercion would be of any use.

THE STATE UPON & WAR FOOTING .-- We understand that several Yankees are here pressing upon the Republicans the necessity of putting the State upon a war footing. So anxious are they to necomplish this that they are using the finest sophistry that a glib Yankee tongue can invent, and it is not improbable that they are so deeply interested in the welfare of the Union that, rather than not see an appropriation of a million made for that purpose, they would themselves make a small ap propriation to the Third House! Of course, in these degenerate times, no person is supposed to Perform a purely disinterested act, and these gen. limen are no exception to a rule which has betam; as palpable as that which declares that twice one is two. But they are doubly interested-first in the preservation of the Union, and secondly, in the suls of arms manufactured in Connecticut !.... Queer people, these jack-knife-whittling, woodenatmeg Yankees. They preach up treasonable Abulition sentiments, and aid in robbing the Southtmers of their slaves until they bring them to a Hats where forbearance reases to be a virtue.---They then supply the entire South with arms .--This done, they immediately set to work to supply he Rorth, cheap for each. A war is what they "hat. Anything to bring each into their coffers; ans to the man whose eloquent pen, like add, the want of spondulix) can check. All hail twenty-eight millions of people in the North, and two millions of Wide Awakes sworn to support the Constitution.

to, and everything is their profit.

POLICE RECORD .- Dr. John H. Dean, operative dentist-surgical and mechanical-resides in a classical locality euphoniously denominated "Ram Cat alloy." Assumed, that the Doctor is fond of fire water-in consequence of which he gets very little work to do at home, and not on the hypothesis of "no profit," etc., ctc., and so forth. The Doctor goes abroad in pursuit of his calling, armed with pullikens, pincers, cork-screws, and other diabolical devices, to operate upon the molars and incisors of the country folks, who are supposed not to be so particular as to ask for a sight of the documents to prove that a man is not a mere pretender to an intricate, and, take it all in all, a delicate profession. It appears that the disjointed condition of the times affects the dents profession as well as all other business pursuits, on the wellestablished principle that a man has very little use for teeth, good, bad or indifferent, when he has no meat to eat. We now draw conclusions from analysis, viz: that the Doctor made an unsuccessful incursion, and returned to his mansion in Ram Cat alley on Saturday, without the spondulix which gladdens the eye and maketh the heart gladwhereupon he proceeded to drive dull care away by looking deeply into a quart flask. Now, if he did so in order to spend a few hours under the delusion that he was rich, he signally failed in his intention, for instead of getting a quart of mollifying whisky, he accidentally got the fighting brand, and went off at a tangent. He was boiling over with fight, and for a time he supposed, with the fancy of the prize ring, that the sum and substance of human happiness consisted in fighting, and there was little else worth living for. In this amiable state he made an attack upon his wifenobody else being within reach-but at the third round, special officer John Fleck came upon him, sadly interfering with his demonstrations of pugilistic science, and took him to the lock-up-from whence he went to jail to answer. He will have ample time to reflect upon the injustice of the law, between this time and next Court.

Columbus Vanriper was sailing about the rear of the Capitol on Saturday night, making discoveries -in search of a new continent where whisky was both plenty and cheap. He found it, too, but unfortunately lost himself in the intricate windings of the walks of the Capitol Park. He pursued his devious and winding way until overcome by fatigue, he wrapped his martial coat around him, lay down upon one of the benches, and resigned himself to the arms of Morpheus-perchance to indulge in pleasant dreams. Special officer Fleck discovered him, and conveyed him to the lock-up, and on Sunday morning "Kerlumbus" paid his fine, and left the Mayor's office "a sadder man, if not a wiser one."

Charley Butler, like his namesake, Picayune, came to town on Saturday, after an absence of many years, and finding many good fellows, he indulged in many drinks, until he got one too many, and as it was the last straw which broke the camol's back, even so the last drink fetched Butler-to the lock-up. No money to pay the fine, and let off on promise.
