COLLECTION. The carriers of the Patriot And Union beg leave to say that they will, as usual, collect their dues this morning.

THE Union Prayer Meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church, on Market Square, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, as usual.

Notice.-The regular monthly meeting of the Harrisburg Typographical Union, No. 14, will be held this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Citizen en-B. F. WORK, Sec'y.

LOCUST STREET M. E. CHURCH.—Rev. Dr. Robinson, of New York, an eloquent and successful revivalist, will preach in this church to-morrow-Sabbath morning and evening.

CAMERON GUARDS, ATTENTION .- The members of the Cameron Guards are requested to meet at their Armory, this (Saturday) evening. By order of the JOHN BALL, O. S. Captain.

NEW MUSIC .- We are indebted to the publishers, William Hall & Son, 543 Broadway, New York, for the following pieces of music, lately issued by them : "Grand Polonaise," for the piano ; "The Matinee," a choice selection from popular Operas; "Phenie Polka Galop," and the "Dream of Love," a popular ballad. All of these can be had at the music stere of O. C. B. Carter, Market street, who is the agent for the Messrs. Hall, as well as numerous other publishing houses.

THE HOPE BALL. The "Hivers" will be at home at Brant's Hall on Monday evening. They have made such arrangements as cannot fail to prove attractive to every one who will attend. There will be a display of crinoline that would tempt an anchorite from his cell, and music that cannot be excelled. There is a strong indication that there will be an unusually large turn out, and, as the number of tickets is limited, those who contemplate attending should not fail to secure one to-

To CLARIFY OIL FOR RIFLE GUN-LOCKS .- Fill a phial three parts with almond oil, then fill up the remainder with clean lead chips. Keep the phial in a warm room and shake it now and then for a month, at the end of which time most of the mucilage and seid naturally in the oil will have combined with the lead, and thus be clarified and fit for lubricating gun-locks and other similar work. The lead is easily procured in chips by cutting up with a knife a couple of elongated builets.

Explanation.—An article in yesterday's paper, embodying an extract from the correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer was not written by the local editor of this paper. He deems this explanation due to himself, inasmuch as the publication and remarks would seem to imply that he considers himself hit-whereas he makes no acknowledgment of the kind. He flatters himself that by years of unremitted labor with the pen, both summer and winter, he has made literature his professien, and he considers it no egotism to say that he has reached a position beyond that of a " mere scribbler." Neither does he believe that the correspondent in question, or any other person laying claim to the title of a gentleman, would write him down as such.

BEFORE THE MAYOR .- The lock-up declared a large dividend yesterday morning. The erection of apparatus to heat the cells has made them attractive to wanderers, and there is no doubt but what they will be most liberally patronized as long as the "eager and nipping air" is with us. Henry Hart and Frederick Souder, sober looking men, en their way to Canada, were permitted to depart in peace.

David Gouldy was from nowhere in particular. and going to the same place, in search of a home for the homeless, was also permitted to pursue his Joseph Marshall and his wife, from Butler county, on their way to Trenton, next demanded the attention of the Mayor. Marshall is blind, but evidently not sharp, or he would never want for the wherewithal to pay for a night's lodging. If there is any mendicant in the world who can make the chord of sympathy vibrate, it is one who is deprived of his sight.

Peter Tenion and Alexander Stewart, noticed yesterday, spent Thursday in hunting work, but were unsuccessful, and at night again compelled to ledge in the lock-up. They were permitted to fake a fresh start.

John Meiley was up for disorderly conductthreatening his father, &c. The lock-up was full, and John was sent over the way to await a further

THE WHITE SLAVES OF ENGLAND .- One of the items of news by the recent Liverpool steamer is, says the New York Express, that there is a dreadful distress at Coventry, England-distress so great that forty thousand weavers are actually starving !

Perhaps it may not be an impertinence on the part of an American journal to suggest now, as we have often before suggested to our British cousins the propriety of appropriating to the relief of their famishing countrymen some little of the "aid and comfort" which not a few of them-of the unco guid sort—are in the habit of ostentationaly bestewing upon American Abolition beggars who go over among them, en behalf of the "poor negro" of the Southern States. Why don't the Puritan Anti-Slavery Humanitarians of Glasgow and Edinburg, who are busy raising subscriptions to enable such men as Rev. Dr. Cheever to keep up his crusade against slavery on this side of the Atlantic, do something for these poor, hungry slaves of Coventry? Coventry, comparatively speaking, is right under their eyes and noses, and surely the "humanity" and "philanthropy" of England and Scotland may find a nearer, as well as a more needful field there, than three thousand miles away, among the well-fed, well-clothed and well-housed negroes of Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, &c., where "starvation" is a thing utterly unknown.

Union Eating Saloon. Joseph Burkhart having removed from the "White Hall," and taken the above saloon, Market street, near Dewberry alley, is now prepared to furnish his customers with the best of oysters, Reading Ale, Lager Beer, &c. Give ing Hall of Rockbill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 him a call.

GLANCES AT CITY LIFE.—It is a long night that knows no morning, and through the present clouded sky of the political world we hope soon to discern a ray of light. Men are discussing it-at the street corners, in legislative halls, in public and private places-South Carolina, revolution and secession form the burden of the song. It is hard to divert the mind from the subject.

Yet, in our midst, we are shortly to have a local excitement. The new Governor of the State will be inaugurated on the 15th. Men with offices in their gift have always scores of friends, and these quasi patriots will, of course, attend. The military display, we are afraid, will be like the moustache of Albert Edward, "nothing to speak of!" The committees of the Legislature who have the arrangements in charge, will designate the rotunds as the place for the ceremony, and the time high noon.

High noon! When our bells are tolling, and whistles are blowing, to announce the relief, for a short hour, of the laborer. When huge wheels and factory looms stop their motion, and smoke and steam curl lazily from the pipes, instead of finding vent in one prolonged stream. High noon! which brings us daily nearer to the hour of death, standing mile-post-like on the river of time!

But if time is so unmerciful to us, it builds up improvements which stand for the future. Our own city, growing with years, promises well. We miss the old Court House, faded as it was, and bearing marks of stormy days and winter winds.— In its place rises, stone by stone, the new Temple of Justice. May the goddess never loose her standing among men, or balance her scales with golden coin.

On the hill, however, where the Capitol loomed up in the snow storm of yesterday morning like the great eastle of Giant Despair, we fear that justice does not always get her due. It is likely that tax-payers suffer now and then for partizan purposes. At the Capitol there are many officers, probably chosen on the principle that in a multitude of laborers there is easy work. There is a certain method of detecting these men-take a position in the centre of the Hall of the House--shut your eyes and throw a newspaper, and the first man that it hits will be a salary drawing officer of the State. The rule is infallible-there are Doorkeepers and Assistant Door-keepers, Sergeant-at-Arms and Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, pasters, folders, clerks, sweeping women and pages, and many others too tedious to mention. Not more than two or three of the whole lot belong to Har-

And this reminds us of the disappointed aspirant who left the city yesterday in the Reading train. He was a nice young man, he was! Six months ago this patriot joined the Wide Awakes, and made extensive investments in patent capes, glazed hats and printed songs about Dixie. Dixie was his ruin He burned up his salary in oil for the torches-lost his reputation by drinking the health of the Republican leaders-lost his sweetheart by his rabid political views, and came to the Legislature to be rewarded. His modest request was a Transcribing Clerkship. Republics are ungrateful-so is the "People's" party. He was defeated, and adopted Legislative boring as the means of obtaining "an honest livelihood." But his talent was not appreciated, and yesterday, as we have said, the enthusiastic Dixie's man took his glory with him, and went to Philadelphia. That victim will be a Democrat next year, and vote the whole ticket, in company with the majority of tax-payers. Such is life.

THEM'S OUR SENTIMENTS .- It is not our province to write of the "crisis"-to commend this party or condemn that—to say that Anderson, in his efforts to preserve in tact the ensign of the Nation, was right the stars and stripes, and when such an extract as | In fact, if the blood is poisoned, it is impure, and imthe following comes under our notice, we have a pure blood results in disease. strong disposition to do what the Hoosier wanted his "gal" to do when he brought her the "hoops" -spread ourself, and give three cheers:

It is eighty-four years ago, since Uncle Sam was born, and what an eventful eighty-four years the have been. Eighty-four years ago the United States was a remote circumstance, they now com pose the second commercial nation in the world. In that time they have revolutionized the world, built up an empire, licked our mother, and fenced in a continent. In less time than it took Methuselah to get out of swaddling-clothes, we have made more canals, tamed more lightning, and harnessed more steam, and at a greater cost in money than the whole revenues of the world could have paid for the day he got out of his time. In eighty-four years we have not only changed the politics of the earth, but its wearing apparel—cotton shirts being as much the offspring of the United States as the ballot boxes. Since the Fourth of July, 1776, the whole world has been to school, and what is better, learned more sense than was taught in the previous four thousand years. The problem of self-government has been solved, and its truth made immortal as Washington or yellow corn. Its adaptation to all the wants of the more aspiring nation has been made more signally manifest Under harmonious working a Republic has grown up in an ordinary lifetime, that would have taken any other system of government a thousand years to have brought about. Yes, in less time than it has taken some greenhouse plants to arrive at maturity, we have built a nation that has spread itself from Maine to Mexico, from the Atlantic to the Pacific-a nation that has caught more whales, licked more Mexicans, planted more telegraph poles and owns more steamboats, than any other nation that has ever lived or ever will live. For all this, thank God. and praise Thomas Jefferson

To Prevent Hens Eating Eggs and Setting. A lady correspondent of the Rural New Yorker gives her way of controlling Mrs. Biddie. She

In the first place I have the right kind of hens full-blooded Brahms. Have nests prepared in the hen-house, where I keep slaked lime, charceal-dust and water-when not handy, anywhere near the barn-and every night gather the eggs; leaving no nest-egg, for my hens lay just as well without a nest-egg as with. During the winter feed them corn, oats, and occasionally a warm meal of potatoes, with boiled liver, &c., save butchering day. I never fail of having fresh eggs all winter, both to use and sell. I do not know as my hens ever ate an egg-perhaps they would if they were kept, as many hens are, without anything to eat or drink, except what they our steal some-where, and at night hunt up their ledgings in some old tree, or on a broken cart. I do not blame a hen treated in this way for eating all the products of her own labor, but think her a wise hen. When I do not wish my hens to set, I shut them up in a coop or some secure place, feed them well, keep them there till they either begin to lay, or croakingly make fair promises, which is not more than three or four days. ATTENTION, PARTON Hose.—The members of the Paxton Hose Company will meet at their hose house to-morrow (Sunday,) the 13th of January, at half past nine o'clock, a. m., to attend the Vine Street Church, to hear the funeral sermon of Frederick R. Hiney, their late brother fireman. Particular attendance is requested of every memberso turn out, one and all. Please bear this in mind. The fire department of this city are respectfully invited to attend. They will all meet at the Paxton house at the above time, where the procession

COME NORTH FOR INSTRUCTIONS .- By the latest dispatches from South Carolina, it will be seen that Major Anderson has sent Lieutenant Talbot to Washington for instructions. Lieutenant Talbot left immediately for the North, and he will reach the seat of Government shortly. The President will commit his instructions to writing, and while the dispatches are being prepared Lieutenant Talbot will come on to this city and procure for himself a comfortable outfit at the Brown Stone Cloth-Chesnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

SPLENDID FAT DURHAM CATTLE .- One of our en. terprising butchers, Mr. Alexander Koser, has purchased of Jacob S. Haldeman, Esq., two of the largest, finest and fattest young Durham oxen in this region of country, which he intends slaughtering and serving up to our beef-eating citizens, We subjoin the pedigree of these splendid animals, as furnished by the gentleman who raised them: Snow Ball, bred by Jacob S. Haldeman, Fairview, York county; three years old Sept. 1, 1860. Got by Mr. Gowen's celebrated Duke of Cumberland, dam Victoria by Prince of Wales, granddam imported Virginia by Enterprise, &c. Duke of Cumberland got by Lamartine, dam Rose by Dandy, granddam imported King Charles II.

DUKE OF YORK, the property of Jacob S. Haldeman, Fairview, York county, six years old, got by Comet, dam Annie, granddam Pretty Face by imported Alexander, Comet by Roderica II., dam ported Alexander, Comet by Roderick II., dam imported Nell, Nell by Jerry, Jerry by imported Albion.

These cattle will arrive in the city this morning and may be seen at the stable of Mr. Buck's hotel until to-morrow morning, when they will be exhibited in the market-place for an hour or two. In the afternoon they will be slaughtered at Mr. Koser's butcher shop, corner of Mary's alley and Second street, and on Saturday morning served up to his customers in market. All lovers of choice beef should be on hand to secure "cuts" of these young, tender and fat cattle, which will be disposed of by Mr. Koser at prices to suit the times. jan8-d5t†

Gruss—Our advertising columns contain some testi
nonies to the value of a new article known as "Spaiding's Prepared Glue," useful to housekeepers for mending furniture. It is prepared with chemicals, by which it is kept in the proper condition for immediate use, the chemicals evaporating as soon as it is applied, leaving the glue to harden. We can assure our readers that this article has the excellent phrenological quality of "large abhasiness".

WE call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the BLOOD, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD Food and be restored to health. We notice that our druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the world-renowned Dr. EATON'S INFANTIFE CORDIAL, which every mother should have. It contains no paragoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and or course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply and be at once relieved. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction or any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FIRE THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will all event instantive sellers.

nost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand JUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is
