MISCELLANY.

A WONDERFUL PHENOMENON.—The following extract, descriptive of an atmospheric display witnessed at Omaha City, Nebraska, is taken from a letter addressed to a gentleman of Philadelphia, from his daughter, who resides in Omaha:

Last evening (Dec. 28th,) just after tea, on going to the front door, I witnessed the most remarkable as well as the most beautiful lunar exhibition I ever gazed upon. There before me was the full moon, the centre of a golden cross, as brilliant as herself. One column extended from the horizon nearly to the zenith, and the other, running horizontally through the moon, was also of immense length. It continued visible in all its grandeur and beauty for more than an hour. Everybody in our little city was gazing at the strange sight, and many were filled with fear. Some thought that the Union was to be dissolved, and others thought that "Fort Moultrie had been taken." At 9 o'clock it began to fade, but still we could see it distinctly. At 9½ o'clock a circle was formed round the moon, making an appearance like a cross enclosed in a circle.

The cross was of luminous bars, and at the ends of the arms the rainbows appeared, not circular, but perpendicular. The large circle possessed all the colors of the rainbow, and was very brilliant, reflecting two smaller circles, one northwest and the other southwest. Oh, how we wished for you all. We have watched the papers closely to see whether you were favored in the east with the same sight. I hope you were.

The Daily Telegraph, a little paper published at Omaha, gives, in its issue of Jan. 3d, the following account of the phenomenon above described:

On the night of the 28th of December, was witnessed a most beautiful lunar bow, or rainbow, as it is commonly called, though there was no rain at the time. It was caused by the reflection and refraction of the rays of light upon the sleet-encrusted snow which covered the earth. The moon, which was full the day previous, rose about 7 o'clock, when the beautiful phenomenon commenced. At first the bow was distinct at the edge of the horizon, but pointed up. In half an hour it became very plain throughout, as much so as any solar bow we ever saw. It continued so for more than an hour. All the prismatic tints were very vivid, though the red, violet and green were the brightest. It gave a pale orange tint to the whole eastern part of the firmament.—The radius of the bow seemed about 30°. There was a bright streak of white light, as broad as the moon, extending from the horizon up through the moon perpendicularly, apparently 20 deg. in length. Another streak of like color and dimensions ran horizontally across through the moon—thus forming a beautiful and perfect cross, which has given rise to various conjectures connected with the millenium, and the Pope's removal to America.

At 9½ o'clock a circle was formed, retaining the prismatic colors, and reflecting two secondary circles—one northwest, the other southwest. From 10 to 12 o'clock its grandeur culminated. There were six circles—one around the edge of the horizon—one around the moon, with a radius of about 10 deg.—the remaining four circles, each the size of the latter, filled the vacancy between the two, occupying the N. E., N. W. and S. W. parts of the compass.

DESPATCHES FROM COM. STRIBLING—His Explorations in the "Inner Sea" of Japan.—The Navy Department has received despatches from flag officer Stribling, with dates from Hong Kong to November 15. He communicates important information respecting the discovery of a new channel in his passage from Nangasaki to Kanagawa. He says: "In our passage from the former place to the latter, we went through the 'inner sea' of Japan. This sea has not been frequented by foreign ships until the present year. It is studded with many islands, and has several tortuous straits. It is free from difficulties, not well adapted for sailing vessels, but is perfectly safe for steamers. On our passage through it we anchored every night, as the pilots were not willing to run except by daylight. When the sea is more frequented, and shipmasters become acquainted with the proper places for anchorage, it will, I have no doubt, be the thoroughfare for all steamers running between Kanagawa and Nagasaki, particularly after the ports of Heogo and Osaca are opened to trade, Osaca is the commercial emporium of Japan, where all the capatalists reside. In its vicinity are the principal silk and tea districts, and on an island not far distant are the richest copper mines.

"On our passage through the 'inner sea' we anchored four times. At two of these we were offered wood and water, and when parties of officers landed they were permitted to walk around the towns, and were treated with the greatest civility. At Osaca, which is the residence of a Governor of the highest order, I sent a message on shore expressing my wish to pay my respects to the Governor. The officer sent was informed that an answer would be sent on board at a certain hour. Two messages were sent on board during the night, deferring the time for giving an answer to my request. Having no business at Osaca, and being satisfied that the object of deferring to answer my request was to avoid permitting us by authority to visit the city, I concluded not to await the Governor's answer.

"At all the places visited in Japan, we were recieved kindly and civilly, except at Osaca, and our merchants appeared to be carrying on their business successfully, without impediments of any importance from the Japanese authorities."

A MAIL CARRIER ATTACKED BY WOLVES—Narrow Escape.—We gain the following information from a gentleman who passed through here about 10 o'clock yesterday evening, from Decatur:

The mail carrier between this place and Decatur, when about forty-five miles from here, on his return trip, was startled at hearing the howling of wolves, and, turning to ascertain the proximity of his danger, discovered, at no great distance, a pack of a hundred or more wolves, apparently frenzied with hunger, and with lolling tongues, rapidly lessening the distance between them and the horror-stricken mail carrier. Viewing thus his danger, with desperation lent by despair, the mail carrier immediately put whip to his horse, hoping to gain a place of refuge ere the hungering wolves could overtake him; but the wolves gradually gained upon him, he beginning to think that his sands of life had nearly run out, when suddenly a tree presented itself to his gladdened vision, for which he rode for dear life, and finally gained the asylum of his hopes, with the savage beasts close upon him, and jumped from his horse on to the limb of the tree. The wolves came up in a moment, and after howling with disappointment for a short time the loss of a warm supper, gradually settled down in quietude to watch their prey. The carrier remained in this awful condition until nearly morning, with scarcely any clothes on, having thrown off nearly all his wearing apparel, hoping to increase the speed of his poor animal. At about the dawn of day the wolves disappeared, when the mail carrier, nearly frozen to death, fell from the tree to the ground insensible. In that condition our informant, who came along a short time afterward, found him, and carried him to a house five miles distant, where he recovered sufficiently, previous to our informant's departure, to relate the story.

The horse was chased by a portion of the wolves, and is supposed to be lost, together with the mail.—Boyer Valley (Iowa) Record.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native a to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexcredingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplaxy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache.—Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a State of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be arther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.
Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.
Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and giv me the Pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated, it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?
Mrs Jones—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.
Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache
Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ OVER EXCITEMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to the close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition.—Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ DID you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food? How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.
They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.
They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.
For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.
The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.
They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

THE ONLY DISCOVERY
WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE FOR RESTORING THE BALD AND GRAY.
Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Professor Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Read the following:
BATH, Maine, April 18, 1859.
PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.: Gents:—The letter I wrote you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous enquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated, and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful: I gave it to my friends and thereby induced them to try it; many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty, as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who enquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results.
I remain, dear sirs, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.
AARON'S RUN, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using ONE bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it.
Respectfully yours, REV. S. ALLEN BROCK.
P. S—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited; but if you think it worthy of a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not destroy and say nothing.
Yours, &c., REV. S. A. B.

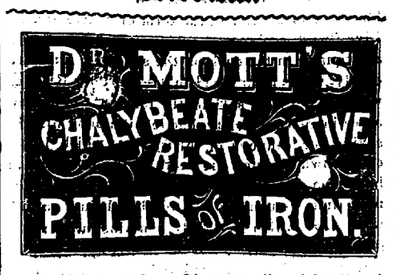
Medical.



AN aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.
Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS. LIVER COMPLAINTS, CHRONIC HEADACHES, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.
In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description or written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.
In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.
It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.
In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.
In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.
In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.
In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.
The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.
In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.
In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.
No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

APOTHECARIES, DRUGGISTS, GROCERS AND PRIVATE FAMILIES.
WOLFE'S PURE COGNAC BRANDY.
WOLFE'S PURE MADEIRA, SHERRY AND PORT WINE.
WOLFE'S PURE JAMAICA AND ST. CROIX RUM.
WOLFE'S PURE SCOTCH AND IRISH WHISKY.
ALL IN BOTTLES.
I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above WINES and LIQUORS, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. WOLFE, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his WINES and LIQUORS, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the BRANDY and WINES which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at RETAIL by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:
ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit UDOLPHO WOLFE'S extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wines, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wines, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. WOLFE'S sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.
His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. WOLFE, until every Apothecary in the land shake up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with WOLFE'S pure WINES and LIQUORS.
We understand Mr. WOLFE, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

MANHOOD,
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope,
A LECTURE ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and Involuntary Emissions, producing Impotency, Consumption and Mental and Physical Debility.
BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.
The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without internal medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. The Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing Dr. CHAS. J. C. KLINE, 480 First Avenue, New York, Post Box 4,586.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing IRON, SULPHUR, AND PHOSPHOROUS, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood. In all diseases accompanied with DEBILITY,
pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of IRON have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that IRON alone, SULPHUR alone, or PHOSPHOROUS alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the BLOOD FOOD, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important
