The DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market streets.

PATRIOT AND UNION.—The DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION can be had by Dauphin subscribers, every morning, at the periodical store of J. S. FRANK.

THE MAILS.—Under the change of schedule on the different railroads, the time of closing the mails at the Harrisburg Post Office, December 1st, 1860, is as follows:

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. East.—7 a. m.—way mail, 12.15 p. m., 5 p. m., 9 p. m. West.—6.30 a. m.—way mail, 3.50 p. m., 9 p. m.

NORTHERN CENTRAL R. R. South.—12.15 p. m.—way mail, 3 p. m., 7 p. m. North.—1 p. m.

LEBANON VALLEY R. R. 7.30 a. m. DAUPHIN AND SUSQ. R. R. 1.30 p. m. CUMBERLAND VALLEY R. R. 7.30 a. m., 1 p. m.—way mail.

7 a. m., to Gettysburg, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. 7 a. m. to Jonestown, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. 1 p. m. to Lewisberry, on Saturday.

"BRIEF LET ME BE."—The side walks have been in an awful condition for the last few days. "Peace to the ashes" of those who refuse to better their condition.

We are gratified to notice that S. T. Jones has recovered from a long and painful illness. It is proposed to erect an Executive mansion south of the Laad office, on a line with the public buildings.

The Junata Register contains what is intended for a complimentary notice of Samuel D. Young, Esq. We should like to publish it, but we fear that it would subject us to an indictment for assault and battery on the King's English.

As soon as Barry gets through with horse taming in New York, it is proposed to bring him to the seat of government of Pennsylvania to subdue some of the rampant Jackasses.

Hon. W. H. Witt is in town yesterday. He is one of the men of the day. Our hotels still keep filled. The places made vacant one day are filled the next.

The Jersey Shore boom question is before the Third House on first reading. The minor bill has again been read in place in the House. Its merits are better understood this year, and it is not likely that the Butchers' Association will be able to defeat it.

Samuel M. Fox, Esq., of Philadelphia, has been elected Sergeant-at-Arms of the Third House. The Altoona Tribune, Blairsville Record, Railway Gazette, Pittsburg Post and other papers are advocating the repeal of the tonnage tax.

Atwood's portraits of the Presidents in the Rotunda and both chambers are very attractive. Davis' daily lunch at 11 o'clock at the Baehler House has become a popular institution.

Harry Davis is pegging away at his Indian Panoram, in spite of the hard times. He has completed six scenes this winter, making in all upwards of fifty.

Only two cases turned out of the look-up yesterday morning—a young darkey and a voluntary lodger. The State Capital Band is improving rapidly. It will soon be among the best in the State.

We acknowledge the receipt of the daguerrotype of a monster trout caught by Col. W. Butler. He was a beauty, according to his shadow. The miserable caricatures denominated valentines have again made their appearance in the shop windows. Any person sending one should be indicted for libel. The law will reach the case.

The Senate quit operating on Thursday, and will resume on Monday. The ice dealers of our city have laid in their usual supply of a first class article. Crime is on the wane. The police records are clean for the season.

It is said that William B. Sipes, Esq., formerly a resident of this city, has purchased the State Sentinel from Mr. Hinchelne, and that he will take charge next week. The new machinery in the water works is said to work admirably. We shall take a look at it one of these days, and have something to say about it. The works of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in this city, are nearly completed.

The Court House is to be freed by some eminent artist. The steeple of the building is awfully ornamental. Benjamin F. French is holding forth at No. 12 Market street. It is worth a man's while to spend an evening at his store just to hear him talk. He cannot sell at auction, but he does sell at auction prices.

The Third House anticipates a lively time next week. Subjects of grave and heavy import will be up for consideration. The snow storm on the mountain must have been "some." We hear of cuts on the Pennsylvania Railroad where the drift was ten feet deep! Jester & Co's Business Charts, we are gratified to say, are very much admired.

The old couplet may be applied to the weather on Thursday: "First it snow, Then it blow, Then it thaw, And then it friz!" We are in a dilemma. The Third House is divided on the subject of a boom at Jersey Shore. One party offered us a box of cigars for influence for the boom—whereupon the other party offered us two boxes to go against it. The boom men hearing this, saw that two boxes and a bottle of "compromise" better! We are waiting to see whether the other party will lay down or brag over!

The man who painted the picture of Curtin, now exposed in the Rotunda, should possess brains enough to know that, although the painting is good, it is no likeness. The books have so accumulated in the State Library that a new building will soon be necessary to store them.

The contest for Superintendent of the public grounds is becoming animated. There are any number of patriots who are anxious to relieve Mr. Boyd of the onerous duties of the post. Salary, nine hundred and twelve dollars and fifty one-hundredths—and pickings.

Gen. Tom Thumb will be here the last of next week. He is a sure card—never fails to bring out the crowd. Miles Green, of Huntington county, Andrew J. Jones and Dr. George Dock, of Harrisburg, have been appointed Trustees of the State Lunatic Asylum by Gov. Curtin.

H. L. Godbold wishes it to be distinctly understood that he still lives, and devotes his time to tuning pianos. Offices at Knoche's music store. Several audacious robberies have lately been committed upon guests at the Jones' House. The robbers entered the rooms by the use of "snipers."

The colored population of Philadelphia lately held a meeting at the Bancker Institute, and resolved to remonstrate against the repeal of the 95th and 96th sections of the Penal Code.

Spring must be coming around. We notice fresh garden seeds advertised in the Chambersburg papers, and the Pittsburg papers announce the arrival there of the first seed of the season.

Daniel Shellenberger has been appointed a prison inspector in place of A. F. Hamilton, whose term has expired. The meeting of the workmen at the Court House on Thursday evening was largely attended, and the Crittenden compromise was unanimously adopted. We regret our inability to find room for the proceedings.

Resolutions in favor of the Crittenden compromise passed the Senate of New Jersey on Thursday by a vote of 11 to 6, no Republicans voting for them.

UNION MASS MEETING.—We learn from the Middletown Journal that on last Saturday evening a meeting was held at the hotel of Messrs. Raymond & Kendig, in that borough, for the purpose of making arrangements to hold a Union Mass Meeting.

Dr. J. Schaeffer was chosen President, Messrs. J. E. Allen, Thomas Wilson and Benjamin Whitman, Secretaries. The following committee to prepare resolutions was appointed:

N. W.—Geo. Crist, Seymour Raymond and Stephen Wilson. M. W.—N. Buckingham, Wm. Starr and Daniel Kendig.

S. W.—Yelman Eves, Elijah M'Creary and Dr. J. Schaeffer. A committee of one from each ward was appointed to make arrangements for the meeting, as follows:

N. W., A. Brant; M. W., John Garmon; S. W., Joseph Stewart. Tuesday evening, the 22d inst., was fixed for the meeting.

A hand-bill, of which the following is a copy, was issued: "The people of Middletown and its vicinity who are favorable to the continuance of the Federal Union, now attracted by national sentiment and indignation at wicked men; who desire 'equal and exact justice' to be given to all sections of our common country; and who favor the adoption of fair and honorable constitutional amendments, by which the subjects of dispute and discord shall be removed from the field of political strife, and peace and harmony again restored to the nation, are respectfully invited to assemble at Union Hall, on Tuesday evening, the 22d inst., at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of adopting a series of resolutions expressive of their sentiments. A general attendance of all who approve the purpose of the meeting is desired."

Parasitic to the above call, a very large meeting of the citizens of that borough and the surrounding townships, favorable to the adoption of compromise measures, by which the exciting subjects of dispute, between the two sections of the country, shall be settled, was held at the Hall on Tuesday evening. At an early hour the people commenced pouring into the Hall in great numbers, and by the time the meeting was organized an immense crowd was collected, which filled the room to overflowing.

Col. John Raymond called the meeting to order, and nominated Doctor Mercer Brown for President, who was unanimously elected. Thirty-three Vice Presidents (the list is too lengthy for our columns) and the following persons as Secretaries, were also chosen: Benjamin Whitman, Thomas Wilson, Wm. Ross and Henry Raymond.

The President, in explaining the object of the meeting, made a brief speech, alluding to the distractions of the nation in an affecting manner.—The committee appointed at the preparatory meeting appeared, and presented the following resolutions, which were adopted by sections, most of them being received with rapturous applause:

Resolved, That the peace and prosperity of our Union is in danger; anarchy and dissolution pervade our land, bloodshed, as yet, it is true; but how long we shall enjoy this exemption is only known to that Being who controls the tide and the storm, and holds the destiny of nations in his hand—no man, however prophetic, can say what to-morrow will bring forth; and whereas, in view of this sad and deplorable condition of our national affairs, and the prospect of our national prosperity, it becomes the duty of all Union and peace-loving citizens, irrespective of party; all who honor their country's flag, and keep step to the music of the Constitution of the nation (no matter what their conditions in life) to express their sentiments upon the blessings of peace and our country's interest are in jeopardy; therefore be it

Resolved, That we cherish for our brethren of the Union the most cordial and fraternal regard, whether they live in slaveholding or free States, and are willing to accord to them every right guaranteed by the Constitution, and that we respectfully request the Congress of the United States as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the nation as the highest law of the land, and that all other laws enacted either by Congress, State or Territorial Legislatures, any law conflicting therewith, are null and of no effect.

Resolved, That as peaceable, union-loving citizens, we deem it not only our privilege but our imperative duty by this public expression to make known to those who represent us in the legislative councils of our State and nation, that so far as we have the power we shall hold them to strict accountability for every legislative act and vote upon all the issues in any way affecting the settlement of the sectional and political difficulties which are now distracting our country.

Resolved, That we are for union, peace and harmony, and as much as we are opposed to the secession of any of the States, we are still more opposed to using coercive and warlike means to keep the seceding States within the Union, further than is necessary to protect government property and collect the revenues.

Resolved, That the party platforms and partisan proclivities must not and shall not, so far as we are concerned, stand in the way of an amicable and peaceful adjustment of the difficulties which are now conflicting with the welfare and happiness of thirty millions of American citizens.

Resolved, That we hold it to be the sacred duty of our Representatives in Congress to exert all their energies and talents to secure the peace and welfare of our country by the speedy settlement of all the distracting issues that are so rapidly leading us to irretrievable ruin, and that it is our honest conviction that a fearful retribution awaits any and every member of Congress, who will stubbornly and unwisely plead personal consistency or party predilections in impeding by his votes the peace and safety of the American people.

Resolved, That to give peace and its happy results to our country, which every good, Union-loving citizen so earnestly desires, we are in favor of the passage by Congress of the so-called Crittenden resolutions, or any other propositions of a like character that may be acceptable to our brethren of the slaveholding States, as a basis of permanent settlement of all our sectional controversies now and forever.

Col. John Raymond offered the following, which was hailed with great delight, and passed in a unanimous and hearty burst of enthusiasm: Resolved, That we hail with pride and heartfelt satisfaction the patriotic declarations of Senator Cameron in his earnest support, yesterday, of the propositions of Senator Bigler, and his avowed determination to do all in his power to save the Union.

On motion it was Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of our United States Senators, to Hon. J. W. Kilgure, Congressman from this district, and to Messrs. Olin and Hick, our Representatives in the Legislature, and that the proceedings and resolutions be published in the Middletown Journal and Harrisburg Patriot.

Loud calls were made for different gentlemen who were present, and brief speeches were made by Messrs. Crist, Buckingham, Seymour Raymond, Eves, Col. John Raymond, Frederick Lawman and Henry Raymond, all of them in a most conciliatory and temperate strain, and without allusion to party questions.

Committees were appointed to obtain signatures to the resolutions, in the different wards of that borough, and the surrounding townships.

The meeting was of such a character as to gratify the most ardent wishes of its originators, and equalled in numbers and enthusiasm any ever held in the Hall.

ENTRACHT SOIRER.—The "Eintracht" Singing Association will give another of their social parties on the 11th of February, on the eve of Shrove-Tuesday. The Society always entertain their visitors in the best style, with fine glee and "the light fantastic trip," and as the proceeds of the party mentioned will go to the fund for procuring a new banner, we advise all lovers of singing and walking to be at the "Eintracht's" hall, in Chestnut street, on the 11th of February.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following cases were disposed of on yesterday and Thursday: Com. vs. James M'Kee, assault and battery, on oath of Robert Humphreys. The parties are small boys, and defendant was charged with shooting Humphreys. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, but directed the defendant to pay the costs. The Directors of the Poor vs. David F. Wagner. The plaintiff sued defendant for the maintenance of his wife. On trial.

Com. vs. Richard Johnson, larceny. Verdict not guilty, and defendant was discharged. The petit jury was discharged yesterday, and the Court was occupied for the remainder of the day with surety of the peace cases.

MUSIC.—Mr. O. C. B. Carter has once more placed us under contribution by the presentation of the following pieces of new and well selected music, viz:—"Waiting in the Moonlight," by W. P. Hart; "Fairy's Dream," by M. Volkman; "Princess of Belgium Grand Waltz," by Musard; "Solos from the Opera, arranged for the violin or flute, with accompaniments for the piano forte," by Sep. Winner, and "Cheerful Glee," by Charles Grobe. The foregoing choice selections are but a few of the splendid stock Mr. Carter has now on hand, but they fully attest the care with which he caters to please the most fastidious taste in music. Ye who delight in the "concord of sweet sounds," and wish the latest creations of the best musical composers of the day, call on Carter, who will be sure to please you on the most accommodating terms.

A HARRISBURGER ROBERT.—The Baltimore Republican, of Wednesday, says that Mr. Jos. Logan, a resident of Harrisburg, Pa., was relieved of his pocket book, containing $18, about 11 o'clock last night. It appears from his own statement that he proceeded to see some female friends, of a rather questionable character, living in Orleans street, Old Town. Whilst there he formed the acquaintance of a "nice young man," who claimed an acquaintance with him, and upon his leaving the house accompanied him for a walk. They proceeded in company as far as the corner of Canal and Baltimore streets, when the "nice young man" bid him good evening and disappeared, passing rapidly into Baltimore street.

Mr. L. took a car to proceed to his boarding house in the western section of the city, and upon searching for his pocket book to pay fare his surprise can better be imagined than described upon discovering that it had disappeared—beyond a doubt with his new found friend. Owing to a want of time Mr. L. was unable to institute a search for the soundral, and was consequently compelled to leave for his home this morning minus his money.

THE OLD STAGE DRIVER GONE.—Mr. Editor: It is worthy of note that Mr. Peter Panek, who died in our town on Tuesday last, at the age of 92, was the first person who ever drove a stage between this place and Lancaster. In his latter days it seemed to afford him great pleasure to relate the exploits of his youth. He began to drive a two-horse stage between those towns about the year 1800. At that time there was no turnpike west of Lancaster, and Mr. Panek used to say in the spring of the year, when the roads were bad, it often took him two days to reach Lancaster—a distance of 36 miles. He considered it a good day's journey to reach Elizabethtown, which is half way. There was no bridge over the Swatara or any other creek on the route. Soon afterwards he began to drive a four-horse stage for the Slaymachers—and in this line of stages he had the neighbor Colonel Roberts as a passenger in the year 1803. When an opposition line was put on the road, he said they had some fast driving, putting the horses to the gallop, but he could beat the whole party. Mr. Panek had none of the advantages of education beyond the bare ability to write his name, and yet by his good common sense and sound judgment, he acquired a comfortable fortune—and this too in fair transactions between him and some of our most intelligent business men. His plain good sense he seemed to retain to the last, and in his latter days he set his face calmly and steadily towards "that better land."

GOING THE ROUNDS.—The members of the Board of Trade of Chicago and Milwaukee have lost no time since their arrival here. To-day they visited the Academy of Fine Arts, the Mint, &c., and a number of them then proceeded to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rookhill & Wilson, 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia, where they procured elegant outfits for themselves. The strangers had heard in their Western homes of the fame of this extensive establishment, but they were scarcely prepared to see so vast and splendid a stock of garments for gentlemen and youths.

CANES AND UMBRELLAS.—Strangers in the city should not fail to call at the cane and umbrella store of Mr. Lee, in Market street, near the Post Office. His stock of gold and silver mounted canes—especially such as are suitable for presents—cannot be surpassed. He has also on hand canes of every style, and at all prices, together with a splendid assortment of umbrellas of his own make. His prices are fully as low as these articles can be purchased any where.

SPECIAL NOTICES. Mothers, read this. The following is an extract from a letter written by a pastor of the Baptist Church to the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks returned in favor of that world-renowned medicine—Miss Winslow's Soothing Syrup. "New we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to your readers, that this is the best—our own children have used it, and know it to be all it claims. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the day, because it is the best. And those of our readers who have babies can do better than to lay in a supply. sep20-d&wly

From the Independent, New York, July 29, 1859. GLEET.—Our advertising columns contain some testimonials to the value of a new article known as "Spalding's Prepared Gleet," useful to housekeepers for removing stains from their carpets, by which it is kept in the proper condition for immediate use, and the chemicals evaporating as soon as it is applied, leaving the carpet clean and fresh. When can you test this article has the excellent phenological quality of "large advertisements."
