THE NATIONAL CRISIS.

THE DANGER OF DELAY. From the Baltimore Exchange. The announcement of the secession of South Carolina, though the measure had been generally anticipated, created everywhere the most intense excitement and anxiety.

And we further declare and ordain that all rights acquired and vested under the Constitution of the United States, or any act of Congress or treaty, or any law of this State, not incompatible with this ordinance, shall remain in force and have the same effect as if this ordinance had not been passed.

LETTER FROM MAJOR ANDERSON. Major Anderson having received an invitation to attend a Masonic festival at Albany, New York, sent the following reply:

IMPORTANT ARMY INTELLIGENCE. Gen. Scott has issued orders to the following effect: Officers on leave of absence who have been absent from duty for a period of eight months, will immediately proceed to join their respective companies or stations.

A DISCOVERY THAT WILL PUT AN END TO ALL WAR. Chloride of nitrogen will, it is said, soon be utilized as an implement of war.

THE REVENUE CUTTERS. The following is a list of the United States revenue cutters. They are all sailing vessels, and are all named after the States.

THE NEWS FROM TORONTO, CANADA. The British Government intends to acknowledge the independence of the Southern Confederacy, as soon as it is regularly organized and makes application in due diplomatic form.

THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA. The following is the address to the people of Virginia, adopted by the two Senators and eight of the thirteen of the Representatives in Congress.
