THE NATIONAL CRISIS.

South Carolina NOT AVERSE TO A SETTLEMENT. The National Intelligencer says we take great pleasure in citing the following words, contained in a private letter just received in this city from a prominent and wealthy citizen of South Carolina, whose character is a sufficient pledge of his reliability, and whose opportunities for correct information in regard to the temper and wishes of the people of that State are not surpassed by any citizen residing within her borders.

THE SOUTHERN REVOLUTION—A SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY—THE POLLY OF COERCION. The seizure by the local authorities of Georgia of the United States Arsenal at Augusta, with its store of arms, adds but another to the numerous proceedings of a similar character which have placed all the seceded States in the attitude of undeniable revolution against the general government of the Union.

THE SECESSION OF LOUISIANA. BATON ROUGE, Jan. 26.—The delay ordinance, moved to be substituted for the secession ordinance reported by the committee of fifteen, was voted down yesterday by an immense majority.

resources, maintain themselves better than could the people of the same extent of territory in any other part of the earth. Next as to the expenses of a Southern confederacy. They need not exceed, for a peace establishment, twenty millions a year, and an export duty of one cent per pound upon cotton will furnish that amount of money.

A SKETCH OF PEKIN. [Correspondence of the London Times, December 28.] Has any one described Pekin for you? The capital is two cities, known as the Tartar (north) and the Chinese (south); the latter an oblong stretching between four and five miles from east to west, while from south to north it is much over a mile wide; the former nearly three and one half miles square, and resting on the centre of the southern city, so as to produce a T-shaped figure, with a disproportionately stout perpendicular, North of all is a large earthwork, the north outline of which is exactly parallel to the north wall of the city, and distant from it perhaps a mile.
