SEED CORN-How to Produce Early Geamingtion.—For the consideration of our agricultural readers—of whom we are pleased to say we have a large number-we transfer to our columns the following with respect to seed-corn and early germina-

If you did not, as you have so often been advised, to do, save your seed-corn by selecting the best ears in the field, don't lose another day, but go at once to your corn-cribs and pick out the handsomest ears that you can find, and store them up in some dry loft; no matter if it is a very smoky one, and as hot as a July sun, it won't hurt the vitality of the seed.

It is of the highest importance that your seed should germinate immediately after you plant it.
That is of more importance than early planting.
Germination can undoubtedly be hastened by artificial means. Dr. Chamberlin of Buren county, Ill., has made some important discoveries in this direction. The Republican says:

"Last year Dr. Chamberlin of this place made some practical experiments, and demonstrated that nearly half the time may be saved in germinating the seed by the use of chloride of lime.

"Not satisfied with the success of last year, he is again experimenting. In his office he has four boxes; in the first is corn planted without soaking and the seed not germinated; in the second, the seed was soaked in warm water, which has just commenced to germinate; in the third is seed soaked in a solution of lime, and green blades are just peeping from the ground; in the fourth is seed soaked in a solution of chloride of lime and copperas, and the blades are now nearly three inches above the ground. 'All the seeds were planted at the same time, in the same quality of soil, and taken from the same ear. The boxes have all had an equal share of heat and light, neither allowed any advantage over the other.

"This experiment should attract the attention of farmers. We conclude from four to six weeks may be saved by the use of chloride of lime and copperas, which is a matter of no ordinary moment when we reflect that a delay in the germination of the seed of two weeks frequently places the crop within the reach of the frost in fall. Another fact of some importance may also be mentioned. The copperas used in soaking will prevent the birds, squirrels, worms, &c., from eating the seed.

"Dr. Chamberlin assures us that one pound of chloride of lime and one pound of copperas in water, will soak enough seed for twenty acres. The cost will not be twenty-five cents. Every far-mer could afford to make the experiment, even if he should fail to derive any benefit from it."

A NEW WAY TO PRESERVE MEAT .- We cut the following method of curing meat from the New York Tribune of the 14th inst. The suggestions are new to this county, and worthy the consideration of our farmers. The recipe is a simple one, and we have no doubt it will answer the purpose. If sugar will cure hams why should not molasses effect the same purpose? The Tribune says upon the subject: "Sugar-cured hams" have long been in fashion in this country. They are moderately salted, and sugar or molasses added to assist in their preservation. In France, all sorts of fresh meat have been preserved by molasses alone. An article in L'Invention asserts that meat may be preserved by molasses alone in the most perfect manner, and with the following important advantages: It has an agreeable flavor, it produces no scurvy or other disorders which result from the use of salt food, and it may be prepared at a moderate price. The process consists simply in cutting the meat into pieces of moderate size and dropping them into molasses, such as is obtained from the sugar manufactories or refineries. By a natural process of osmose the lighter juices of the meat pass out, and the heavier molasses penetrates inward to every part of the meat. When the external molasses has acquired a certain degree of liquidity from the mixture of the juices of the meat, it is a sure sign that the meat is thoroughly impregnated. It is now taken out of the molasses, a doubt, and that many of them are so deeply | thoroughly washed, and hung in a current of air and in the science of abstraction that they can to dry. After it is completely dry, it may be elieve a pocket of its contents without the owner's | packed in boxes and sent all over the world with-

> A VALUABLE HELP IN EXTINGUISHING FIRES IN FACTORIES.—A very ingenious and desirable invention for facilitating the extinguishment of fires in factories or large buildings of any kind, has been applied at the mills of the Agawam canal, company, in West Springfield, and is worthy the attention of mill owners and manufacturers generally. It consists, generally, of a small bydrostatic engine, set in motion from any part of the building by a sort of water telegraph, and operating at once to start the wheels, the pumps and bells of the mill. On the discovery of a fire, the watchman in ene minute can have all these means for giving alarm and putting out the flames put in full and permanent motion, and then he can go to work himself in the use of the hose directly upon the fire. Without this machinery, on discovering a fire, he must go to the pumps, put them in gearing then start the wheel, and then go to ringing the bell; and the flames must rage until help comes to apply the water with the hose. All this must take at least fifteen minutes, probably half an hour of the most precious time-usually fatal time, for it permits the flames to get an uncontrollable headway. With the help of the invention we have described a single faithful watchman would alone extinguish nine out of ten of all fires occurring in mills. The managers of the Agawam mills are much gratified with the invention and its operation, and warmly commend it to their fellow mill

THE NORTH CENTRAL ROAD.—Some days ago we noticed the introduction of a bill in the House to fance the North Central road. We have been called upon by persons who state that the bill only provides for fencing a small portion of it. Any expense to the company, just after the loss of their bridge, must be heavy, and any other time would have been more appropriate than the present. We copy the following from the Telegaaph by request:

Correction .- In our local column of yesterday we stated that Dr. Heck had read a bill in place requiring the Northern Central Railroad Company to fence their road in this county. The bill was not read by Dr. Heck, but by Mr. Clark; and upon a careful examination of the provisions of the bill, we must admit that Mr. Clark was fally justified in presenting it. The road passes alongside and in many cases over the only passable wagon road leading from Halifax to Millersburg, and it is extremely dangerous to travel the road with convey-If a fence was erected many accidents would be avoided.

COMING EVENTS .- Important coming events are casting their shadows before them. The 22d of February is at hand, and the 4th of March is within less than a fortnight of us. The Southern Confederacy is organized, and a complete change in the National Administration impends. Then will come the inauguration of new spring habits, and a consequent grand rush for the latest styles, to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street, above Sixth. Philadelphia. Their stock of garments for gentlemen and youths is matchless.

THE GRAIN TRADE. -- The export of grain from the United States to Europe during the past year has been unequalled. In the year 1859, 2,590,937 bushels of grain were exported to Great Britain; in 1860 there were 23,820,820 bushels exported, being an increase of 21,590,927 bushels. Never before has the surplus product of the United States risen to such gigantic proportions.

THE cavalry squadron of Harrisburg will meet at Richard Hogan's Hotel, on Friday morning, 22d inst., at 9 o'clock, to participate in the parade of D. J. UNGER, Acting Orderly Sergeant.

I. O. O. F .-- A special meeting of Dauphin Encampment, No. 10; also, of Olive Encampment, No. 56, will be held at the hall of No. 10, (Exchange building, Walnut street,) on Thursday evening, February 21st, at a quarter before eight o'clock. The officers of the Grand Encampment will be present and instruct in the work of the Order. Sojourning members of other Encampments are cordially invited to attend. By order.

MITCHELL'S NEW GENERAL ATLAS .- Says the Principal of one of our best seminaries: "I have examined Mitchell's New General Atlas, and find it to be decidedly the best work of the kind that I have ever seen. As a map view of the world, it seems to leave nothing to be desired. The statistical tables, and the plans of the principal cities, evidently prepared with much care and accuracy. add greatly to its worth. The enlarged maps of the several States, showing the county boundaries -and, also, of all the countries to which any special interest attaches, add immensely to its value. The typographical execution of the work is beyond all praise, and it is indeed a splendid illustration of the progress of art in that direction. Every teacher should have a copy, for reference, in his school. It should be in every library and reading room-and no family that can afford the expense should be without it."

REDUCED PRICES!

The moderate price at which Machines, making the GROVER & BAKER stitch, can now be had, brings them within the reach of all, and renders the use of Machines making inferior stitches as unnecessary as it is unwise. Persons desiring the best Machines, and the right to use them, must not only be sure to buy Machines making the Grover & Baker stitch, but also that such Machines are made and stamped under our patents and those of ELIAS HOWE, JR. GROVER & BAKER S. M. CO.,

495 Broadway, New York.

A CARD FROM ELIAS HOWE, JR. All persons are cautioned not to make, deal in, or use any Sewing Machines which sew from two spools and make the stitch known as the GROYER & RAKER stitch, unless the same are purchased from the GROVER & BA-KER Sewing Machine Company, or their Agents, or Licenses, and stamped under my patent of September 10. 1846.

Said Company, and their Licenses, alone, are legally authorized under their own patents, and my said patent, during the extended term thereof, to make and sell this kind of Sewing Machine, and all others are piracies upon my said patent, and will be dealt with accordingly, wherever found.
