ANOTHER VAGRANT .--- William Johnson appeared before the Mayor yesterday morning-he was short of funds and on a tramp. The Mayor let him slide.

STILL RUNNING, -A large number of rafts passed our city front yesterday, wending their way towards an eastern market.

ERBATUM.-In the Senate report yesterday, it was announced that Mr. Schindel nominated Mr. Witte for United States Senator. Such was not the fact. He nominated Mr. Welsh.

SIXTH WARD CONSTABLE .- At a meeting of the Democratic citizens of the Sixth ward, held on Tuesday evening, A. M'Clintick was duly nominated as a candidate for the office of Constable.

A FEHALE D. D.-Mrs. Allender appeared before Alderman Maglauchlin, yesterday, charged with being drunk and disorderly. She promised to reform and leave town, and was therefore diacharged.

TAKEN IN .--- Jack McKinnett, a stranger in this section of the country, who looked like a regular tramper, was introduced to the Mayor on Wednesday morning, after sojourning in the city apparatus the night previous. Jack was let slide, but previous to leaving he was compelled to produce a golden dollar; which one of his friends kindly loaned him on the occasion.

THE SPRING ELECTIOTS .--- Many persons are not aware that our spring or primary elections are almost as important as in the fall. We are not disposed to bring politics into the arena when candidates for constable, supervisors, or school directors are to be elected, yet at the same time we think that the Democratic party should look to their own interest, and see that good men and true are elected to the offices of judges and inspectors.

BREACH OF THE PEACE .- Frank Moyer, a young and unsophisticated German, was compelled to appear before Alderman Maglauchlin, yesterday, charged by one Hetty Eagle with making use of bad language, and threatening her. It was one of those frivolous cases, too many of which are brought before our alderman, and as Frank has entered bail far his good behavior, we don't suppose the case will ever be brought before court.

A REFORMED SHOEMAKER.--- A country gentleman from Newport, in the great county of Perry, cele_ Auker's at the time the deed was committed, was

COUNTY .--- One of the most brutal murders we recollect ever hearing of, occurred in Black Dog Valley, Fayette township, about midway between M'Alisterville and Richfield, and three miles east of Stitzer's Mill, Juniata county, on Saturday evening last, and which resulted in the death of an aged and estcemed citizen named Henry Auker, over 70 years old. The particulars, as detailed in the Sentinel, are as follows: Some time between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock on that evening, tw men came to the house and asked for admission There were, at the time, three persons in the house Mr. Auker, an old lady who acted as housekeepe and a grand daughter of Mr. Auker, aged about 14 years. Mr. Auker and the old lady had retired. When the two men knocked at the door, the girl went to her grand-father and told him that two men desired admission into the house. Mr. Auker told the girl to admit them. As soon as they en tered, one sat on the wood-box near the stove, an the other sat on a chair near the door at which they entered. They then inquired of the girl w were in the house, who told them, but said the were both in bed. They then told her that the wished to see Mr. Auker, who got up and cau into the room. After conversing with them various topics for about fifteen minutes, he ask them what they wanted. The large man told him & cus adjourned. that they wanted his money. Mr. Auker told them that there was not $10 about the house, and that they might search if they desired to. He then got up and went to the door leading to his bedroom, over which hung his rifle. He opened the door and reached for his gun, and as soon as he got it in his possession, the tall man went up to him and shot him with a pistol through the arm, near the elbow. Failing to prostrate him with the pistol, he drew from under his garments a hatchet, and struck him three times on the head, which caused him to fall on the floor in an insensible condition. The ruffians, as if alarmed at their own work, immediately fled, without making any search for what they came after. The little girl ran at once to the nearest neighbor's and gave the alarm, and soon the whole neighborhood was apprised of the atrocious murder. Mr. Auker died in about an hour and a half after receiving the injury, without being able to speak a word. The next moraing a man upon observing the tracks leading from the house, immediately said that one of the men was John Lovering. Suspicion immediately rested upon him and a man named Zimmerman, and men started off in pursuit of them. Zimmerman was arrested at Goodwill, two miles east of M'Alisterville, about 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, and taken before Esquire Dunn, at M'Alisterville, and at once proved his innocence and was discharged.-Constable Kenawell, of Fayette township, was informed that Lovering and a man named Samuel Howder had left Zimmerman's residence about 6 o'clock on Saturday evening. Howder was arrested in M'Alisterville about 6 o'clock on Sunday evening, and said be had left Zimmerman's in company with Lovering the evening previous to hunt roots. It was supposed that Lovering, if in the county, was at the house of Peter Varner, in the Shade Gap of the Shade Mountain, about four miles north of M'Alisterville. About 8 o'clock a party of men under the command of Constable Kenawell, armed to the teeth, proceeded to the house of Varner, which they immediately surrounded. On inquiring of Varner whether Lovering was in the house, he said that he was about somewhere. Some of them entered the house and after searching, found Lovering crouched under the bed. A loaded pistol was found in his possession. He was taken before Esquire Dunn. After the capture of Lovering, Howder turned State's evidence against him, and related substantially the above facts. The little girl who was at CLASSIC GROUND .- Sixth and Chestnut streets is classic ground. Independence was declared there, Congress met there until the City of Washington was founded, and there stood "Old Drury," where Fanny Kemble, Cooke, Cooper, Macready, Ellsler and Jenny Lind fascinated and delighted the playgoers of a past generation. "Old Drury" has departed; but the ancient temple of the muses has a fit successor in the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia. There is no more fine tragic declamation upon the spot; no more celestial strains ; but there is the sober and practical reality of a magnificent stock of clothing of every description for gentlemen and youths.

A SPLENDID EXHIBITION COMING TO HARRIS-BURG.-We are pleased to announce to our readers that Morrison's Grand Pan-tee-na-thec-a one of the largest and most splendid exhibitions in the world, will visit this place and exhibit at Brant's Hall, for four nights, commencing March 18th.

We copy the following description of this exhibition from the New York papers. It will se seen that the attractions offered surpass anything ever yet brought to Harrisburg.

This Great Exhibition consists of five splendid Panoramas, painted in a new and novel style, with Dioramic effect on a scale of magnificence never before attempted. They present to view as distinct and plain as though one stood on the spot represented the following scenes :

The city of Washington-the Capitol, with the new Dome and Marble Extension-the inside of the Capitol-the new Senate Chamber, with its gorgecus decorations-the Hall of Representatives -the Public Buildings of Washington-the Patent Office-the U.S. Treasury-the Smithsonian Institute-the President's House and Grounds-and the famous East Room in the President's House, where all the Levees are held-showing all its furniture, marble mantles, magnificent mirrors, and glittering chandeliers, even to the colors and pattern of the two thousand dollar carpet that covers the floor.

Then comes five splendid views of Niagara Falls-Showing them in every aspect, in summer and winter-the Lake of a thousand Isles on the River St. Lawrence-the Hudson River-and the entire scenery of the White Mountains, from the snow covered dome of Mount Washington to the old man of the Mountain-magnificent scenes in New England, Virginia, Minnesota, and California, with aree beautiful views in Mammoth Cave—showing the great Gothie or Arched Gallery-Echo-River -Lake Lethe and the Fairy Grotto with its Starry Dome, magnificent columns and limpid waters. making the scene one great resplendency of Gem-Work, Blazing Carbuncles, Rubies and Molten Gold. But the Great Feature in this Exhibition is the Voyage across the Atlantic Ocean from New York to Liverpool with Storm at Ses, in which all the incidents of three thousand miles travel on the water are presented to view, with a distinctness and vividness mocking reality, and leading the spectators to believe themselves on the briny deep.

THE GOOD WILL FAIR,-The Good Will fair at the Exchaege, which opened yesterday, is highly creditable to the Ladies through whose exertions it has been gotten up. There is a profusion of most beautiful needlework and fancy articles and goods of every day's use. The good things, such as pound cake, pies, oysters, turtle soup, and other rare titbits are enough to make the greatest epicure's mouth water. We would advise those of our citizens who wish to patronize such a worthy company. as the Good Will, or whe wish to enjoy themselves for an hour, to go to the fair this evening.

OFFICE HUNTING .- Among the most serious evils that afflict our country is the prevailing mania for office, which forms one of the most striking characteristics of the American people, and which seems to be an inevitable accompaniment of our free Government and frequent political revolutions. -Phila. Press.

There is no one in all this broad land who knows the evils arising from an insatiable thirst for office better than Forney, having lost the confidence of his friends and betrayed his party as a recompense for holding one at the hands of the opposition; but preaching a homily on these serious evils reminds one very much of "Satan rebuking sin."

BEFORE THE MAYOR .- There was a considerable increase in the number of boarders at the "retreat" on Tuesday night. Wm. Taylor, who was D. and D., was fined three dollars and costs, but being minus the small change, William went to jail.

Thomas Wilson, another "circulating medium" charged with being D. and D., upon the promise of reforming and leaving town, was discharged.

Thomas Nugent, a discharged soldier from the Carlisle barracks, was the next customer, and the position of Thomas was changed from the station house to the jail, for one calendar day.

Anthony Caingam, drunk and disorderly, had no money and was discharged.

Frederick Dininger was found peregrinating about town, and upon the polite invitation of the Chief. Fred concluded that he would visit the Mayor ; but as he was short of change, the Mayor gave him a lodging room for the night, and sent him on his way rejoicing the next morning.

brought into the office of the Justice where some twenty-five persons were congregated, and she at once recognized Lovering as the man who shot her grandfather, although she swore he had whiskers when he committed the act. Varner then swore that he had shaved Lovering on Sunday morning. Both Lovering and Howder were then remanded to jail to answer to the charge of murder. They arrived here about 6 o'clock on Monday morning, and were confined in jail.

An inquest was held on the body of the deceased on Sunday afternoon, when a verdict was returned that he had come to his death by blows inflicted upon his head with a hatchet or an axe.

The deceased was a highly respectable and worthy citizen of Fayette township, and was reputed as being quite wealthy. He sold one of his farms some time ago, and it was supposed that he had considerable money in his possession. He was buried on Monday. He leaves three daughters to mourn his loss, whe are all married. We believe to cling closer to their parents. he had no sons living.

DIED .- In San Francisco, California, on the 23d of January, in the 31st year of his age, Robt. B. Wallace, eldest son of Wm. Q. Wallace, Esq., of this city.

The deceased had been for some years connected with the Sheriff's department, and was a well known and popular citizen of that place. Although not a native of this city, he was for many years-from youth to early manhood-a resident in our midst, and will be remembered by a large number of our citizens, who esteemed him for his many engaging qualities of mind and heart. Mr. Wallace was cut off in the flower of his years and usefulness-just too as he was enjoying the society of the eminent persons whose confidence and friendship he had gained, in his far off home, by the suavity of his manners and the integrity of his character .--Those friends, as well as those of earlier years, will ever entertain the most enthusiastic regard for his memory. Remarkable for his passionate attachment to his friends, he was met only to be loved, lost only to be greatly mourned, by the hosts of sympathetic hearts which, by this quality, he entwined around his own. With truth, justice and right stamped upon his manly brow, he eutered the perilous mazes of the Pacific metropolis, were hundreds of young men of rare promise have sunk under the effect of dissipation and despondency; but he was enabled to live an ornament to seciety, and to die leaving an example worthy to be emulated by all. He was a loving, kind and affectionate husband, son and brother, and his loss will be keenly felt. His bereaved young wife, who in California's clime endearingly cared for him and smoothed his dying pillow, and his dis-TRIBUTE OF RESPECT .- At a stated meeting of tressed parents, brothers and sisters, have sincerely the sympathy of this community in this their hour of deep-felt sorrow. A FRIEND.

VOTE OF THANKS .- At a stated meeting of the Friendship Fire Company, No. 1, held in their hall on Monday evening last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted :

DANGEROUSLY ILL .--- We regret to learn that Col. Isaac Leech, at present a member of the Board of Control, and formerly a member of the legislature, is lying dangerously ill, at his residence in Kingsessing. He has a severe attack of bilious fever, assuming a typhoid character.

PLAYED OUT .- The attempt of some of our young men to form a Zouave corps appears to have met with but little success. We are, therefore, compelled to go without the enjoyment of witnessing the ground and lofty tumbling of the Zonaves.

The Great Phenomenon of the Moon Rising from the Sea, is to be witnessed by all, while in the Storm at Sea, all the elements in their majesty are to be seen and heard with such startling reality as to cause old men to shiver and the young children
