PAMPHLETS, to any extent, executed in the most expeditious manner and cheapest rates, at the Job Printing Office of the PATRIOT AND UNION.

Excugn of Then.-It is said that the number of applicants, in Reading, for the mail Agency on the Lebanon Valley Branch, is 23; in Harrisburg 15; along the line 8.

DULL EVERYWHERE .- Yesterday was not well calculated to bring forth many items. The walking was desperate, the atmosphere awful, and every one appeared to be in a bad humor.

Ordinary diarrhon is now very successfully treated abroad according to Dr. Markham's method -five grains of compound ipecachuana powder in a tesspoonful of gruel after each loose motion.

THE UNION CANAL. - The improvements on the Union Canal are now completed. The water has been let in, and we presume it is now in navigable order. The canal has been put in excellent condition for the business of the season.

Township Elections.—The township elections will take place throughout the county to-day. We hope our friends in the rural districts, will lend us a helping hand, by forwarding at the earliest moment the result of the election.

BILL HEADS .- This very cheap and useful mode of advertising got up in the most showy style, and printed to order at the shortest notice, and at any price, according to the work required, at the Pa-TRIOT AND UNION office.

THE WIDE AWAKES .- We see it stated that the Wide Awakes have determined to discard their old uniforms and adopt the "Tartan plaid and long military coat," introduced by their great chieftain on his triumphal march from Harrisburg to Wash-

RATHER HARD .- A poor woman was found in the neighborhood of the depot on Wednesday night, and having no place to locate, the Chief accompanied her to our city hotel, where she remained until yesterday morning. After breakfast the Mayor gave her some money and sent her away rejoicing.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.—We hope the officers of the various wards will assist us to-day in ob- Jacob Hummelbach; Inspector, William Stephen; taining the returns at the earliest moment. If | Constable, A. M'Clintick. they will only systematize the thing, and after the result is known, forward it to the office, we will feel under many obligations.

THE GYMMASIUM.—This institution, which recently occupied the large room of the Exchange, is "played out." We are sorry to say it, but such is the fact. Our people, generally speaking, are not disposed to patronize any establishment where it requires labor to obtain enjoyment.

A CUMBERLAND COUNTY VICTIM.—A young man of very genteel appearance was located in the lock-up, on Wednesday night. He stated to the Mayor yesterday that he was a resident of Mechanicshurg, and had come down here on a spree. Upon promising to keep sober, and leave the city, the Mayor discharged him.

NEW COUNTERFEIT .- There is now being circulated in Philadelphia an altered ten dollar note purporting to be the true issue of the Real Estate Bank, Delaware. Vignette, on upper left, man feeding hegs; Penn on lower right; 10 above; 10 on lower left; altered from genuine ones. The vignette of the genuine tens is a harvesting scene on lower centre.

OUR WEEKLY .- If you wish to present to your friend in the country a paper that is worth reading, containing the news of the day, the market reports, foreign and domestic intelligence, and other matters, too numerous to mention, then call at the PATRIOT AND UNION Office, and obtain a copy of our Weekly, put up in wrappers, ready for mailing.

A CLEAR CONSCIENCE.—How heavenly a man can walk on earth, bear the heaviest burdens, perform the severest duties, and look all men square in the face, if he only bears in his breast a clear conscience, void of offence toward God or man .-There is no spring, no spur, no inspiration like this. To feel that we have omitted no task, no obligation unfulfilled; this fills the heart with satisfaction, and the soul with strength.

A FREE BRIDGE.-We honestly and sincerely believe that if a petition was gotten up, that ninetenths of the residents of Market street would sign it. Not a day passes but what some of them are called upon for money to pay toll. The taxation is rather heavy upon them, and many of the residents in that quarter are agitating the subject of petitioning the County Commissioners to purchase the bridge, and make it free to all.

DIP-NET FISHING .- The lovers of this delectable amusement have got their traps all ready, and are anxiously awaiting the good time coming to cast their nets. All that is needed to start the suckers from their winter quarters, is a warm rain or two and then they (the fishermen, not the suckers) will be in their glory. It is a style of fishing we never could see much sport in, to say nothing of the quality of the fish. However, every one to their taste, as the old lady remarked when she kissed the cow.

THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.-A motley crew assembled at the Mayor's office yesterday. Some were in search of employment, and others charged with i nebriation. The first individual brought forth was a "volunteer"-said he was a resident of Philadelphia, and was homeward bound. In company was a young a interesting looking girl, and how the oil and water ever amalgated we could not imagine. Upon promising to leave town, the parties were discharged. Several other "bummers" were brought forth and presented to his Honor. The party being minus of the spoons, they were all discharged, each individual promising to leave town instanter.

St. PATRICK'S DAY .- Next Sunday is supposed to be the anniversary of the death of that "gentleman who came of decent people," and gave the toads and frogs of green Erin their walking papers. It may not be generally known, by the way, that the 17th is not the anniversary of St. Patrick's birth. He first saw daylight on the 5th of April, A. D., 383, in Scotland. Usher fixes the date of his decease 17th March, A. D., 493; but Tillemont altered it to 455. Nenius to 464, and Moore to 465. St. Patrick was born, according to Usher and Tillemont, in 372; but Moore, in his "History of Ireland," states it 373. His birth took place, the majority of his biographers say, in the present town of Kilpatrick, at the mouth of the Clyde, between Dumbarton and Glasgow; but Moore insists that he was born near Boulogne, and that Nial, of the Nine Hostages, captured him, carried him to Ireland, and sold him to a person to tend sheep. He escaped, returned to France, became a monk, returned to Ireland, and converted the natives to Christianity. He used the shamrock, with its three leaves, to illustrate the Trinity. Hence its consecration to St. Patrick. Sunday will be the anniversary of his death, in 493, aged 120 years, when he was buried with two other good people at Down-one of them bearing the name since given to a land which the land Oftentimes it is not until we no longer have the | Shamrock has contributed so many gifted, gallant and gay citizens. The legend runs:

"These three in Down lie in tomb one, Bridget, Patricus and Columbia pious.' To the sons of Erin, in every clime, the natal day of Ireland's patron saint calls up the cherished memories of home, as they greet the green Shamrock, fit emblem of the Emerald Isle. Although "The harp that once through Tara's halls The soul of music shed, Now hangs as mute on Tara's walls As though that soul were dead." Although the landmarks of her greatness lie scattered and in ruins.

"Where ivied arch or pillar lone, Plead haughtily for glories gone," yet will her glories still live, in the eloquence of Curran, the self-sacrificing patriotism of Emmett, and the clowing numbers of Moore.

Long live the memories of the Harp and Shamrock, and may the rugged mountains and verdant plains, the laughing streams and clear blue skies of the "green isle," ever remain the genuine types of Irish character.

THE ELECTION To-DAY .-- The following nominations have been made by the Democratic party, for officers to be elected to-day:

First Ward-Council, Daniel Hocker; School Director, George Welker; Assessor, Ambrose Taylor; Judge, Alex. W. Bergstresser; Inspector, Henry Zimmerman; Alderman, George B. Caldwell; Constable, A. Jackson Wickert.

Second Ward-Council, Jacob Haehnlen; Assessor, Daniel Snyder; Judge, Edwin Pollock; Inspector, Philip Linn; School Director, A. Boyd Hamilton; Constable, Marks Snyder.

Third Ward-Council, John Stahl; School Director, John Till; and for the unexpired term of Dr. Wm. R. DeWitt, John Edwards; Assessor' Josiah Royal; Judge, George Bailey; Inspector, James Fitzgerald.

Fourth Ward-Council, David Mayer; School Directors, John Till, John H. Fager, John Edwards, (for unexpired term;) Assessor, John Tomlinson; Judge, Andrew Schlayer; Inspector, Geo. Forbes; Constable John Stoufer.

Fifth Ward-School Directors, Amos W. Young, John Till and John H. Fager; Assessor, Patrick Jordan; Judge, George Brenizer; Inspector, Geo. H. Miller, Jr.; Constable, George Garman,

Sixth Ward-Council, John Brooks; Alderman, John Christ; Assessor, Jacob Barnhard; Judge,

LLOYD'S MINSTRELS.—It is a long time since our citizens enjoyed such a rare treat as was offered them on Wednesday evening at Brant's Hall. We have no hesitation at all in saying that no troupe of artists, in the same line of business, ever visited the interior of the State that gave the same universal satisfaction as Lloyd's. Composed of first class artists, they do not undertake anything that is not executed in the most skillful and artistic manner. Cool White, as master of ceremonies, fills a difficult position; yet he does it with an ease and grace that is perfectly fascinating. The fun department is in the hands of Billy Birch, who is confessedly the ne plus ultra of darkey comedians. and who endangers your vest buttons by his mere looks. Mr. Bidaux is a charming vocalist, whose rendition of the Marseilles we would be willing to get up to hear at any hour of the night. But it is not necessary to individualize. Every man in the company is a star in the profession, and when this is said, nothing more remains for us to say than merely to announce that this is the last night, and those who fail to go will lose a rare treat.

Mr. R. M. DeWitt, New York, who by the way has in press another of Capt. Mayne Reid's dashing stories of adventure, publishes this week, in a handsome duodecimo, The Attorney, or the Correspondence of John Quod, by J. T. Irving, nephew of Washington Irving. We recollect the hearty satisfaction which we felt in perusing the correspondence of John Quod, during the Knickerbocker s palmiest days. Irving's style is picturesque, forcible and graphic. Its Saxon purity reminds us of his distinguished uncle, the lamented author and humorist of Sunnyside. Vigor, dash, humor, and pathos are mingled in the Attorney, which is his best work.

THE WEATHER.-March came in like a lamb, but, judging from present appearances, it will go out like a lion. Cold weather first, then a sprinkling of snow, then slush in any quantity, has been our portion. But such is fate, and local reporters should never complain.

Hamilton Alricks, Esq., was nominated for U. S. Senator, by Mr. Heck, of Dauphin, in the House of Representatives, on Tuesday last. His nomination was, by an oversight, omitted in the proceeding, of that day, as published in this paper.

Nothing There .- After visiting the various offices of the aldermen of our city, and finding that there was nothing there, we concluded to get out of the cold, and, in the language of Old Abe, say that nobody's hurt.

CALL ACCEPTED .- We learn that Rev. A. H. Kremer, of Carlisle, has accepted a call from the First German Reformed Church, of Lancaster, and will enter upon the duties of his new charge about DOGGEREL .- Mr. Editor: I sent your account of the death of a dog, published a day or two since, to "Nehemiah." He put it into his "machine," which immediately ground out the following:

The old dog lay in a musing mood, Watching the passers-by, And when he thought of the wrongs of his race,

A tear stood in his eye. Oh! the kicks and the cuffs that he had endured

From the tyrant man-alack! They had altogether broken his heart, And almost broken his back.

He thought of his yesterday's wearisome run, Without either meat or drink: And when he came for his supper at night,

They threw him a sausage link! Now the human practice of "dog eat doy" His principles made him decline, And the brave old dog crept hungry to bed,

Without a howl or a whine. But ingratitude from those he'd served In his bosom rankled deep,

And the big round tears ran down his face-Though tired, he could not sleep. He remembered that some of his dearest friends Had died by poison's breath,

And their masters whom they'd served so well, Left unrevenged their death.

He remembered his noble eldest born, Crushed under carriage wheel, While the biped that lashed the furious herse

Was without a heart to feel. 'Tis true, fast driving the Mayor had banned, And fined a puppy or two;

But the nuisance unabated remained. As well the old dog knew. A fine, to the poor who cannot pay, Is a grievous punishment;

But to one who has "more money than brains" It is not the least restraint. Then he thought of his pet-his youngest born-

His last and his only one-And he cried with pain, "Must this dear one, too, Meet the fate of my eldest son?"

Then the old dog arose and shook his mane, While fiercely gleamed his eye-"The Mayor and Councils both have failed;

I'll right this wrong or die." Just then the milkman came rumbling by; The dog set up a yell, For in his excited state, he took

The milkman for a "swell." Then fiercely out rushed this blooded dog, Determined to stop the horse; But his efforts were vain, for the rolling wheel Soon laid him a ghastly corpse.

There is no mistake about it!!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CHAIM FOR IT!!

And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not orly of your daughters before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they, too, would travel in the same often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they, too, would travel in the same downward path until it is too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, proprietor, No. 444 Broadway, New York, and No. 114 Market st., St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good druggists. Price one dollar per bottle. Read what the Press says, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have a doubt.

Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renov Prof. WOUD'S Restorative Cerdial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resist the assault of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined that while it exhibitates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A topic composed sylusivally of vectable metnot provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitament. A tonic, composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely neneficial, and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia. Pa'pitation of the Heart, Falling of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which woman is subject. For Sickness of the Stomach, bilious A'tacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Liver Complaints, Costivenes, Dyspopsia, Consumption and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.— St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL .- It is recorded PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the Classics that Psyche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sumple of the beauty of Prosperine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the lid of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to.—Fortunately, hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous systion of the story, for a respectively to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health, so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, fiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite. Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Giddiness, Neaural ia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will find here an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD REN-OVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from General Debiliworld. To those who are student from the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weaklest sur traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bo'lte of this Cordial none will be for a day without it.—New York Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the dele-A PURE, HEALTHY INSIC, and the first that the serious and injurious effects sure to fullow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one soskilfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and thus soothe the accordance with the laws of nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organ of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence, it is perfectly adapted to old and young. Reader, try it—Thousands have already done so, and the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD REN-ovator, for the cure of General Deblity, or Weakness arising from any cause; also, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Night Sweats, Incipient Consumption, Liver Cemplaints, Billiousness, Loss of Appetite, Female Weakness in all stages; also to prevent the contraction of disease, is cer-tainly the best and most agreeable Cordial tonic and Renovator ever offered to the afflicted, and so chemically combined as to be the most powerful tonic ever known to medical science. Reader, try it. It will do you good. We have no hesitation in recommending it, since we We have no hesitation in recommending it, know it to be a safe, pleasant and sure remed diseases enumerated.—New York Dispatch.

Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without any doubt the first article in the market for Purifying the Blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in strengthening the system. We have no recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

LOOK TO YOURSELF IN TIME.—How many, in conse LOOK TO YOURSELF IN THE .-HOW many, in consequence of a false delicacy, suffer from suppressed, paix ful or obstructed menstruation, and think because they are young that bye-and-bye nature will work itself clear from obstructions, and all come right in the end, little dreaming that the seeds of death are already germinating in the system because the vital energies are impaired; and the entire animal economy deranged, debilitated; and yet, careless of themselves as they are, if a remed were set before them which would restore all the fund were set before them which would restore all the func-tions of the system, and re-invigorate the body, they would take it, and thus be in time to save their lives.— Parents think of this, and at once give them a bottle of Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. -New York Courier.
