

LOCAL NEWS.

PATRIOT AND UNION.—The Daily Patriot and Union can be had by Dauphin subscribers, every morning, at the periodical office of J. S. FRANK.

BY STAGE. 7 a. m., to Gettysburg, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. 7 a. m., to Jonestown, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. 1 p. m., to Lewisberry, on Saturday.

Lloyd's Minstrels are performing in Pittsburg.

Fresh rolls every morning—rolling to the other side of the bed for a fresh snooze.

Look well to your daughters; sparks falling upon your house are often less dangerous than those coming into it.

COURT.—The next court of fifty sessions will be held on Monday, the twenty-second of April. All ye who are interested should make a note of it.

LOANS SOLICITED.—The County Commissioners of Dauphin county are in want of funds. See the advertisement.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE.—Mr. Henry Radabaugh, Chief of Police, is confined to his bed with a severe attack of the inflammatory rheumatism.

THE CANAL.—We hear it stated that the water will be let into the Pennsylvania Canal on Thursday next, and in a short time we may expect to hear the music of the boat horn.

OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.—A great many men are out of employment in town. That is plain enough to any one who has eyes. But never mind, hard times won't last forever.

STREET RAILWAYS.—The Philadelphia Ledger, in an article on the value of street railways to cities, says: "The value of real estate in the suburbs has been raised nearly fifty per cent. by our city railroad improvements."

BEAR IT IN MIND.—Persons elected Justices of the Peace at the last election must signify their acceptance to the Prothonotary in writing within thirty days after the election, or commissions will not be issued.

NAVIGATION.—The Pittsburg Dispatch of Saturday says, the river is still rising, having swollen eleven inches in the twenty-four hours ending at dusk last evening, there being ten feet four inches by the marks.

THE ZOUAVES.—What has become of the grand army of Zouaves who were to appear and make a magnificent show in town? We hear nothing of the piercing fire or the soul stirring drum, and consequently they are played out.

BORING FOR OIL.—We understand that Corney Shell will commence boring for oil on Independence Island next week. If he fails to get oil, he is bound to get water, and that will suit him as well.

Our exchanges, in different sections of the county, speak of the appearance of mad dogs. The usual precautions against the spread of hydrophobia should be taken to prevent its appearance in our midst.

THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.—On Sunday night the "retreat" was entirely deserted. Nary a "vag," nary an inebriate, and nix lodger. There appears to be a reformation among the strangers who visit town, or else the night was too cold to go in.

BAD BOYS.—Some of the hardest cases to be found this side of New Ger-sea can be seen nightly perambulating our streets, with courage to dare, and ambition to insult every respectable female they may meet on the streets. We hope the Chief, as soon as he is able to be about, will attend to them.

A GOOD IDEA.—Horticultural and pomologists will be pleased to learn that by the new postal regulations seeds or cuttings are classed as mailable matter, and are to be charged with postage at the rate of one cent an ounce when sent under 1,500 miles, and two cents an ounce when sent over that distance.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Communications of any kind, for publication, must be accompanied with the name of the author—not that it will appear, but as an evidence of its genuineness, and as an assumption of responsibility. No notice will be taken of any paper without it—no matter what merit it may have.

DEMAND FOR PAPER.—The demand for materials to be converted into paper has increased enormously within a few years. Junk dealers and tinmen penetrate every part of New England in search of rags, and lately they have commenced purchasing books and pamphlets for this purpose. Ninety-eight out of one hundred of the paper mills in Massachusetts in one year.

COMING.—Many of the mechanics heretofore employed on the Pennsylvania railroad have arrived here from Parkburg and other places, seeking homes preparatory to locating themselves in our midst. There appears to be much difficulty at present in obtaining suitable structures, and we learn that some of our capitalists contemplate erecting a large lot of small tenements in the course of the ensuing summer.

THE GOOD WILL FAIR.—The closing scenes of the fair took place last evening. The affair has been a success, and the ladies deserve great praise for their efforts and energy in getting it up. We have not yet learned the amount realized, but from the crowds who have nightly been in attendance, it ought to be considerable. The object of the company is to raise funds to purchase a new engine, and we hope they may be successful in the undertaking. Our city is fast increasing in the neighborhood of the Good Will house, and we would be pleased to hear of them making a purchase of a steamer, for such they ought to have.

HE GOT WHAT HE CAME FOR.—A large sized individual, who hails from Lebanon, made his appearance in town, on Saturday night last, and fed, disposed to try his hand as a champion. As many of our boys had been out, and "bottle holders" were not scarce, the gentleman from Lebanon was soon engaged in business. We were not present at the time the fracas occurred, but learn that the combatants came to time, in a style that would have delighted the "fancy" who took such an interest in the great mill of Heenan and Bayers. The constables were not about, and no arrests were made.

THE Great Pan-teo-mo-theo-a-t at Brant's Hall last night. Never before since our residence in Harrisburg has there been such an exhibition in our midst. Commencing with the City of Washington it shows the Capitol, the Senate Chamber, the Hall of Representatives, all the public buildings of Washington, the President's house, and the famous Suez Canal. Then comes five splendid views of Niagara Falls, which, for their startling truthfulness and reality, actually seduce one into the belief that they stand before the great cataract. The view of Niagara Falls in winter is the most splendid thing we ever saw. The incomparable scenery of the White Mountains of New Hampshire, is presented to view in a style and manner which we imagine cannot be surpassed.

The views in Mammoth Cave are more gorgeous and beautiful than anything we have ever believed could exist in the bowels of the earth. The glorious beauty of these scenes beggars description.—The great Voyage from New York to Liverpool presents to view all the incidents of three thousand miles' travel on the water.

The great phenomenon of the moon rising from the sea is perfectly splendid, while the sunrise off Cape Race, for artistic beauty is beyond our power to describe.

It would fill a whole column of our paper to fully describe the merits of this exhibition. For accuracy, splendor, and artistic display, it surpasses all we have ever witnessed. We will only add, go and see it by all means. It is a rare treat, and well worth visiting.

A FRAIL FAIR ONE.—A Woman on a Spy.—On Friday evening a lady, apparently just arrived by the Baltimore train, took lodgings at the Buehler House. In the morning she ordered several drinks of brandy, and her breakfast, for all of which she paid, when she ordered a carriage, and left for parts unknown. Later in the day she took lodgings at the Pennsylvania House, where it was found that her principal baggage consisted of a bottle of brandy, at which she took frequent pulls. Late in the evening she was found in Walnut street, with a procession of loafers after her, scarcely able to navigate; when officer Fleck arrested her, and Justice Beader committed her to jail. She told a pitiful story about being seduced, and robbed in the cars.

Yesterday we went into the jail in company with the officer, when the woman gave her name as Jane Stewart, of Washington City, and said she started to go to New York, but got to drinking in Baltimore, and took the wrong route. She is not very prepossessing in appearance, but has evidently been well raised, has probably a tolerable education, and is about 28 years of age. She is seemingly not a public street walker, but she is evidently such a slave to intoxication as to be placed beyond the hope of redemption.

A MISTAKE.—Henry Gilbert, hardware merchant, wishes it to be distinctly understood that he is not the man to which the Evening Journal dispatch has reference. He is no candidate for the Post office, or any other office, so that it must have had reference to some other Gilbert.

Since the above was in type, we learn that the person meant is a German tailor named Guilbert, who is running a muck against Bergner and Frenner.

Postscript.—A dispatch has just been received from Washington that the contest is now between Frenner and Col. Wells Covery—the latter being there in person, paying his respects to Old Abe.

OFFICE ANOINSED.—The office heretofore held by Captain John W. Hall, that of agent for the Northern Central railroad in this city, has been abolished, and the business of the office transferred to the officers of the Pennsylvania railroad company. Captain Hall was an obliging, attentive and extremely popular officer, and the employees of the road will no doubt regret his loss. The Captain proposes going into business in this city at an early day, the nature of which will be duly announced.

SAVANNAH A FOREIGN PORT.—Passengers for Savannah by the steamship lines were notified that their baggage would be subject to the scrutiny of the Savannah Custom House officers. The officers it is said, make a very rigid examination, and allow nothing but the strictly personal effects of the passengers to pass. Travelers will make a memorandum of this fact, and also of the necessity of having their trunks well filled with such splendid garments as are made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

SATURDAY NIGHT.—It is generally supposed that Saturday night is a free night for everybody, and a stranger passing through town, or located here for the time being, would have been under the same impression. The whole town appeared to have been out celebrating St. Patrick's Day, slightly previous. Several black eyes were manufactured, a number of noses were tapped, and the olfact brought forth. Sundry individuals retired to their homes with dispirited clothing, and sundry bruises about the body.

HIS PRIMER.—David Wilmont, the successor of Simon Cameron in the United States Senate, was born at Bethany, Wayne county, Pennsylvania, on the 20th of January, 1814. He was educated at Bethany Academy, and at Aurora, Cayuga county, New York; read law and was admitted to the bar in 1834. He was a member of Congress from 1845 to 1851, and has since been President Judge of the Thirtieth Judicial District of Pennsylvania, and resides at Towanda, Bradford county, Pennsylvania.

A SAD SIGHT.—While perambulating through town yesterday we met a couple specimens of humanity promenaading through Raspberry alley. Both of them appeared to have been fortunate, and had obtained their share of corn juice; sufficient, at all events, to put them on their winding way. They no doubt reached "melodiously drunk" and met their wives most seriously indignant. But as one of them exclaimed, as they were passing down the street, "what's the odds so long as you are happy?"

MINISTER TO ECUADOR.—Dr. Fuller, of the Senate, returned from Washington yesterday, with the positive assurance that Hon. Robert M. Palmer, Speaker of the Senate, has been appointed Minister to Ecuador, in place of Mr. Buckalew, who will be recalled at an early day. Mr. Palmer is among the ablest of the representative men of the Republican party, with the hosts of warm personal friends, who will be highly elated at his success.

THE PEACH CROP IN NEW JERSEY.—It is feared that the peach crop in some quarters in this State is again nearly destroyed. The pleasant weather had caused the peach buds to swell and almost burst; but the cold has since blackened the buds, and in some orchards not a tree has been spared. The trees which bud a little later than the earlier blossomers will stand a better chance.

HORSES.—Within the last few days we have noticed quite a number of horses on their way east, many by way of the Pennsylvania railroad, and others on foot. Those in droves passing through here generally pay better than the others, as the drovers are compelled to hold up, and feed at this point.

Chronic invalids should read Dr. Stewart's advertisement in another column.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—A young man, giving the name of Henry Charles Turner, who represents himself as a native of England, now in search of his father and mother in this country, is endeavoring to live by his wits, by adopting a new method. He first made his appearance at Mount Holly, where he caused a pathetic advertisement to be put in the Herald at that place. By this method he excited some sympathy, and got into the good graces of the family of a Mr. Oliver, residing at that country town. He departed suddenly taking with him a coat and shawl. The fellow may turn his steps in this direction, and it may be well to look out for him.

A LIBERAL MAN AND A SURPRISE AT BRANT'S HALL LAST NIGHT.—The people who visited the splendid Pan-teo-mo-theo-a Exhibition at Brant's Hall last evening were completely taken by surprise at the close of the Exhibition. The proprietor requested the people to remain a little after the Exhibition was over, and they did so. He then came out upon the stage, and as we looked at him, gave away, in the most reckless manner, about one hundred dollars worth of splendid presents to the audience. These presents consisted of a splendid gold-leaf large Family Bible, valued at $20; a silver case basket, valued at $15; a heavy gold bracelet, valued at $10; a silver goblet, valued at $10; about 20 elegant books, with numerous sets of ladies' jewelry, &c., &c. He told the audience that he gave them these presents to advertise his exhibition. To-night he will give to the audience who are present after the exhibition is over another gold-leaf Family Bible, another silver case basket, another silver goblet, another gold bracelet, with about fifty other presents, consisting of nice books, jewelry, &c.

We would advise all who intend visiting the exhibition to go to-night, as we are not informed that presents will be given away after this evening.—But one thing we will assure our readers—that the exhibition is the finest we have ever seen, and every man, woman and child in Harrisburg should visit it.

MUSLINS, MUSLINS, MUSLINS!—1,000 yards the very best Unbleached Muslin, 10 cents; 2,000 yds. beautiful Bleached Muslin, 10 cents; 2,000 yards of the best long Cloth Muslin, 12 cents; which I will sell by the piece at 11 cents. A large lot of remnants of Calicoes, to be sold cheap; remnants of Colored Silk; remnants of Delaine; all will be sold cheap. Delaine, Broche Shawls, other Shawls, Cassinets, Cassinets for pants, Black Cloth, at cost price. THE BEST!

WORCESTER'S ROYAL QUARTO PICTORIAL DICTIONARY!

This Dictionary is the recognized standard of the English language throughout the world. It is the standard for the English language, and is the only one of the kind published in the United States, and is the only one of the kind published in the English language, and contains over three hundred more useful matter than any other similar work—more than NINETEEN THOUSAND important words and meanings not found in Webster's Fourth Edition. It is illustrated by more than 1,000 superb woodcuts; 6,000 words are accurately SYNONYMIZED, together with their French and Latin Equivalents. No student can afford to be without it.

That it is the best Dictionary in every department of Lexicography, is the opinion of our most competent scholars.

I have examined the new edition of Dr. Worcester's English Dictionary, with care, and have formed a very favorable opinion of its merits, and have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are desirous of acquiring a complete knowledge of the English language.

The principal points to be aimed at in a hand-dictionary are accuracy in orthography and etymology—the written and spoken forms of words; fullness and distinctness in definition; and the inclusion of all the words and phrases which are in common use.

The work of Dr. Worcester is unquestionably MUCH SUPERIOR to any other dictionary of the English language in EVERY ONE of these particulars, and it is therefore entitled to rank first among the existing helps to a complete knowledge of English philology.

From William Cutler Bryant and Washington Irving.

The Dictionary is a monument of labor, and one of which our city and country may be proud as long as we have a city, a country and a language.

From Charles Dickens, England.

It is the most remarkable work of which America will be proud to boast. It is the most complete and the most perfect of its kind, and the English language will long have reason to respect your name, and to be grateful to you.

From Herbert Colridge, Secretary of the London Philological Society, England.

Your magnificent present reached me here at length, and I feel it to be a most valuable acquisition to my library. I feel it to be a most valuable acquisition to my library. I feel it to be a most valuable acquisition to my library.

Your magnificent present reached me here at length, and I feel it to be a most valuable acquisition to my library. I feel it to be a most valuable acquisition to my library. I feel it to be a most valuable acquisition to my library.

I have repeatedly consulted the Dictionary since it was first published, and I have found it to be a most complete and a most exact than any of its predecessors.
