THE LAST NIGHT .-- If you want to see the storm at sea and the grand "peck," this is your only

Never take morning bitters. Morning sweets, from the lips of a pretty wife, just before going out, are much better.

The general impression in influential circles is that a proclamation calling for an extra session of Congress will be issued in a few days. A NEW Show .- It is reported that P. T. Barnum is about to lease the Girard House property for the purpose of converting it into a museum of living wonders. THE WATER.-The City Council have passed a new ordinance in relation to the use of water. It will be well to read it and make a note of its provisions. Moving Time .- As moving time is near at hand, we request all of our subscribers who may change their places of residence so far as to change their post offices, to give us notice thereof, so that we can send their papers to their nearest post office. ADVERTISE.—Judicious advertising is the lever which moves the business community, and he who disregards it will be sure to find himself lagging behind in this age of competition. There is nothing like "keeping before the people" your business. REMEMBER THE CARRIER.—Our subscribes should bear in mind that the carrier will be about to-day.

Although the amount may appear small to each delinquent, yet when collected it will make a vast difference in the appearance of the carrier's money bag. THE CITY COUNCIL .- A meeting of the Council was held yesterday. The members were all present and agreed, by unanimous consent, to elect David Harris Clerk, and D. W. Gross President. A full report of the proceedings will be published in a day

Before the Mayor.—The candidates for situations at the Mayor's office, on Thursday night, numbered five. They were all of German extraction and in search of Carl Shurz, an office or a home for the friendless. As they were not charged with any crime the Mayor let them depart in Peace.

GRAND PARADE. -The members of the Cameron Guard are making extensive arrangements for a grand parade on Saturday afternoon next. They meet at the armory, in Walnut street, at 2 o'clock precisely. The State Capital Band has been engaged for the occasion, and will accompany the Guards.

RACING AT POINT BREEZE, PHILA.—There is a prospect of a race meeting this spring at this park-Mr. Kilpatrick has been in correspondence with many of the leading turfmen in all sections of the country, and has rereived many affirmative replies from the owners of prominent stables. We hear their fast nags.

FISH AND FOWL.-The fishermen on the Potomac have began to haul their seines, and small quantities of fine shad are received daily at the Alexandria market. Large flocks of wild geese and ducks have been seen flying down the river, which the weatherwise regard as indicative of a return of cold weather. Several fine swans have been shot by the hands employed at one of the lower fishing stations.

FLITTING.—Yesterday we noticed a flitting as is a flitting-a party from the neighborhood of Hummelstown, in this county, on their way to take possession of Haldeman's farm, in Cumberland county. The procession consisted of about twenty tilburies, several Conestoga wagons, all filled with furniture, men in sulkeys, and others on horseback. The parade was a grand one, and looked like a caravan passing over the Desert of Arabia.

HIGH RAILROAD BRIDGES .- The highest railroad bridge in the United States is upon the Catawissa Railroad, and is 128 feet high. The Media bridge, on the West Chester and Philadelphia Bailroad, is 101 feet high. The highest bridge on the Pennsylvania Railroad, is at Coatesville, and is 72 feet high. The bridge on the Huntingdon and Broad Top road, at Stonerstown, is 97 feet high; and the celebrated Wissahickon bridge, on the Philadelphia and Norristown Railroad, is but 68 feet high.

THE PAN-TEC-NA-THEC-A.—The entertainments at Brant's Hall still continue to attract. Last night the crowd of visitors was equal to any of the preceding. The beautiful paintings, the fine singing, and the liberal distribution of presents constitute a variety at once amusing and exciting. There is no doubt but the attendance will be large to-night. All who have not been there will not fail to embrace this opportunity of going. Such a combination of amusements is rarely to be found. And it seems to be appreciated too, for the throngs who nightly attend and fill the spacious room to overflowing are unprecedented in Harrisburg.

RAILBOAD Accident.—The through express train, from Pittsburg, due here on Thursday night, met with a mishap when about three miles above Huntingdon. It appears that some cattle broke loose from the fast freight trains, and were standing upon the track when the passenger train came along, which ran into them, killing one of their number. The train was thrown from the track, and received some injury. By the sudden stop-Page of the train the baggage car was set on fire. and containing some fluid or camphene, which immediately ignited, was almost instantly enveloped in flames, and shortly consumed by the devouring element. The baggage of the passengers and the mails were all burnt, except one or two pieces of the former, and two bags of the latter and the letter boxes. The cars were got upon the track and the ruins of the baggage car removed so as to enable the trains to run on regular time. No personal injury was sustained by the accident.

POPULATION OF DAUPHIN COUNTY .- The figures of the census of 1860 show the population of this county to be 46,757 souls, an increase of 31 per cent. The average increase of the State at large has been about 26 per cent. The greatest increase in Dauphin county has been in Harrisburg, and the surrounding townships, Swatara and Susquehanna-parts of which have been incorporated into the city since 1850; and in the mountain township of Wiconisco, in which are the principal coal mines of the county. Rush exhibits a large decrease of population. The valuation of the county, under the State laws, shows an increase of about 50 per cent.; or that the wealth of the county grows more rapidly than the population:

The population of Harrisburg, Middletown, Hummelstown, Millersburg, &c, are in gross for 1860 with the election districts in which they are situated, marked

A PRISON CONDUCIVE TO HEALTH .-- The physician employed at the Moyamensing prison, Philadelphia, in speaking of the "convict department" of that institution, in which the prisoners are sentenced to hard labor, says the health of the inmates has never been better than at present. He also states that he was forcibly struck with the comparatively small number, in so depraved a population, of genuine and severe cases of disease, and the marked improvement among many of the convicts-the beneficial effects of the change from a career of dissipation, privation and exposure, to one of regular and industrious occupation, with plenty of good food and comfortable quarters,-The circumstances of being withdrawn from the influences of the severer atmospheric vicissitudes, such as wet and cold, which are prolific in sources of disease with a large portion of the community, would, of itself, more than compensate for the operation of any unfavorable causes to health experienced in the prison. But when it is considered that many of the individuals sent to prison have been in previous habits of drunkenness and debauchery, the comparative healthfulness of the confinement and mode of discipline must be apparent. Of the 732 in Moyamensing during 1860, sentenced to hard labor, only four died, making the ratio of mortality eighty-seven hundredths of one per cent. T of the whole number of inmates. In the entire department, there were but 50 deaths out of 21,309 prisoners, making the ratio of mortality for all cases, as compared with the number of inmates, twenty-three hundredths of one per cent. The deaths that occurred, states the physician, may be generally traced, as usual, directly to rum and its in in a dying condition, having been picked up in the streets or by-ways, and carried into prison, there to die in a few hours or days; hence the prison is burdened by a class that should never be brought to a prison, who are fit subjects only for the almshouse or home for inebriates.

A HARD-UP KIT .- The Detroit Free Press says. The following advertisement was handed in yeaterday for insertion. We say handed in, but the expression hardly conveys the true idea. A seedy, dilapidated person opened our office door, and, with a look of desperation on his countenance, flung the manuscript at the head of the editor. it stated that some of our sports intend entering | He then clattered down the stairs, and has not been seen since. It is one of those items whose intrinsic worth lies in the fact that it "suits the times:"

Lost.-On the night of the 12th of March a Small Walet, very valueable, Containing a two Dollar Bank Note on the Merchants Bank of Brooklyn Jackson County Michigan; one postage stamp that had been used; a leather string, and a Receipt for making Gin cocktails. Also a Washerwomans bill not receipted, two cameo shirt buttons made of bone & set with holes in; also a Batchelors Kit consisting of one button needle, four strands of black thread, and a knife blade. It constituted the personal effects of one who is hard up-all that remain of

The days when I was better off. I may be well off yet!

Public Vaccination.—The number of successful vaccinations under the new system of placing the appointment of vaccine physicians in the hands of the Board of Health, says a Philadelphia paper, is some two hundred per cent. on the old plan. The Board, however, thinks that still more adequate provision is demanded before a perfect report of the state of vaccination in Philadelphia can be exhibited. The members of the Board of Health think that there should be a compulsory system, under legal enactment, imposing a penalty for disobedience to its provisions, requiring every child born or brought into the city to be vaccinated. and making it an imperative obligation that satisfactory evidence of vaccination shall be given as a pre-requisite for admission of children into our public schools. This law, in order to operate effectually, should apply to the entire State.

A RICH SCENE.-Look at our good clothes, then think of our modesty, and then imagine yourself in company of the subscriber as he appears in the Mayor's office. A certain Miss-and when we speak of the girl we are not disposed to injure her character, or to say aught against her-but she came there, and thought she found the Mayor; but instead of that, we were waiting for copy, and enjoyed the conversation. She was intelligent and very interesting in her conversation, and her remarks were well calculated to make a disciple of Brigham Young squirm in ease of necessity. The above was received from a friend who is disposed to act as correspondent for this paper. We insert it, but do not take the responsibility. Hereafter, we hope he will write more intelligibly.

Source Dansante.-The Eintracht Singing Association will have another of their popular parties at their hall, Koenig's new building, Chesnut street, on Easter Monday, April 1st. The soirces of this society have always been largely attended on the part of our citizens, as they are well con. ducted by the managers, and besides this, the glees sung by the society are well executed and afford a rich musical treat to the lovers of good music. The services of Baumbach's excellent string band, of Middletown, have been secured for the soiree on Easter Monday, and those who are fond of the "light, fantastic trip" will no doubt have a good

WILD PIGEONS .- For several days past these birds have been very abundant. The warm weather led them northward to feed upon the mast laid bare by the melting of the snow. They are now cheap, and furnish good eating. Served in the form of a huge pie, they make a capital meal, with the advantage of being still more palatable every time the unconsumed portion is warmed and sent to the

NEW RAILROAD PROJECT .- A bill has been introduced into the State Senate to incorporate a company to make a railroad from any point on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, between Womelsdorf and Reading, to any point on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Lemon Place and Lancaster. The corporators live in Reading and Laneaster. Let the act of incorporation be granted, and the road built by all means. Such is the wish of the people of that neighborhood.

YANKEE Notions .- In the town of Concord' Mass., according to the recent census returns, there are annually manufactured 100,000 pails and 75,000 tubs, worth $94,000; 2,000 gross of pencils, worth $4,000; 2,000 packs of gold leaf, worth $14,000. The manufactures of Philadelphia are very important in respect to quantity, and superior in quality. For instance: Rockhill & Wilson, at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street, above Sixth, turn out the most elegant and comfortable garments, for gentlemen and youths, to be found in the world. Those who need a spring outfit will make a mem. of this fact.

WALL PAPER.-Shaffer, in Market square, has just received a large assortment of beautiful wall paper of the latest styles. Those who design papering their houses should examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the Classics that Psyche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Prosperine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the lid of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to.—Fortunately, hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the tion of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health, so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without any doubt the first article in the market for Purifying the Blood and strengthening the system.
