A Good CHANCE.—An enterprising individual in Troy, N. Y., advertises to furnish aspirants for office with signatures to petitions at the rate of one dollar a hundred.

WHEAT.-Our exchanges, from all parts of the State, say that the wheat looks very well, notwithstanding the severe freezings and frequent thaws of the past winter. Very little of it is winterkilled, and very little frozen out.

RAILROAD TRAVEL.—There appears to be a great increase in the railroad travel at the present time. The reception room at the depot is nightly crowded and the trains are leaving full.

BALLS AND PARTIES.—The time is fast drawing to a close when these juvenile and healthful amusements will be entertained in town. The last chance to "trip it on the light fantastic toe" occurs on the 10th inst.

THE GUARDS.—We learn that a number of young men of our city are about joining the Cameron Guards. The corps is one of the finest and best drilled companies in the State, and it is a burning shame that they cannot turn out at least one hun-

Jos Printing .- We are at all times prepared to execute every description of book, job and card printing at this office, in the highest style of the art, and at the cheapest living prices. Our office is the most complete in the county, and the specimens of fine printing which we have sent out are not to be excelled.

About a dozen hands were discharged at G. D. Coleman's Lebanon Furnaces last week, and we are informed that still more are to be discharged this week. The intention of putting into blast the other furnace has been given up for the present. A further proof that the good times that were to arrive after the election and the passage of the Morrill tariff bill have arrived. BAD BEHAVIOR.—On Wednesday night last a number of young men, mostly from the country, managed to get themselves outside of some shocking bad whisky, and conducted memselves in a manner altogether creditable to the whisky, and as such patriotic efforts on their part should not go unnoticed, we shall give their names to notoriety the next time they thus distinguish themselves.

A NEW ESTERPRISE .- The citizens of Chesnut Hill have just received from the Legislature a charter for an academy in that beautiful suburb. The plans for the building are already prepared, and its erection is to be commenced at once. The material will be the stone found in abundance in that vicinity, out of which are constructed so many of the villas that stud the beautiful landscape in COUNTERFEIT COIN.-A Philadelphia paper of yesterday says that a number of $2.50 gold pieces. dated 1858, have been passed in that city within the last few days. One which we examined last evening was well executed, but was lighter than the genuine coin. We noticed also that the piece has a line above the female head, as if from a broken die. Storekeepers should be on their guard.

To FARMERS.—An act is now before the Legislature, entitled "An act to secure to farmers certain rights in the markets of the city of Philadelphia." It ordains that any farmer may lawfully sell at any stall or stand in the city, in any quantity, any meat of a marketable quality slaughtered on his farm, without regard to whether the same be produced or fattened on his farm or elsewhere.

SHADE TREES .- We have heard of several citizens who have had the shade trees in front of their houses spoiled, the present season, by intinerant trimmers who called at their doors and professed their ability to trim the trees in a skillful and satisfactory manner. When it was too late to remedy the mischeif it was discovered that the persons were pretenders, who knew nothing whatover concerning the business they had undertaken. The better plan is to have such work done only by persons who are known to be practiced gardeners.

FUNERAL OF Mr. WAUGE .- The remains of Prof. Waugh were yesterday interred in the Harrisburg cemetery, and was largely attended by his former friends and acquaintances. The clergy turned out in full force, and the cortege consisted of twentythree carriages and seven omnibuses. The remains of Mr. Waugh were followed to the grave by his pupils, who showed their feelings toward their former preceptor by an extreme ebulition of grief. The funeral was one of the largest that ever took FORTUNE TELLERS.—We are glad to see that the law against fortune tellers victimizing the people has passed the Legislature. Our city, at this time contains several of these humbugs, and hopes are now entertained that they will endeavor to find some means by which they can make an honest living. One of our exchanges truly remarks that but little is known to the public of the tricks practised upon the unsuspecting by the fortune tellers who infest every city and town of any size. These mountebanks claim that they can look into the mysterious future and discover coming events, and their victims are generally the weak and superstitious-pretty servant girls, who imagine that their charms are for a higher sphere than the kitchen, When such poor, deluded girls visit one of these professors of second sights, he can easily discern the condition of the simpletons, and at once hold out the lure of higher social rank and unbounded connubial love and felicity. These professors are almost always in league with the roues of the town, who employ them to procure for them introductions, which almost always result in ruin to the unfortunate girls.

One method of exciting the curiosity of the misguided females is to place a daguerrectype of the future husband in a vessel of water, from which the veil is drawn for an instant, revealing to the victim's eyes her lover. She is so bewildered with the mystery that she does not detect the cheat, and finally believes in the illusion. She is delighted, and accepts the procuress' statement that if she will walk in a particular place, at some defined hour, she will meet with her lover. The rone is informed that this poor dupe will be ready, and he meets her. The sequel will be to ruin her, almost to a certainty. This is only one of the tricks of these detestable swindlers, but the most frequently practiced upon silly girls.

THE LATE RAILROAD ACCIDENT-The Burned Mails.—The postmaster of the city has politely furnished the following letter for publication in relation to the mails burned on the Pennsylvania Railroad on the 20th instant :

POST OFFICE, PHILADA., } March 27, 1861. In addition to the information unofficially published in papers of the 22d instant, relative to the burning of the mail car on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, on the night of the 20th inst., it has been ascertained to have contained one pouch for New York, five for Washington, D. C., four for Baltimore, Md., six for Harrisburg, and sixteen for Philadelphia delivery and distribution. Of those intended for Philadelphia, twelve pouches were received at Pittsburg, and, by the way, one from Johnstown, one from Hollidaysburg, one from Altoona, and one from Tyrone.

The Southern and Western mail for Philadelphia, via Pittsburg, appears to have embraced pouches from the following named places, viz: New Or-leaus, 14th inst; Mobile, 17th inst; Nashville, 18th inst.; Louisville, 19th inst.; St. Louis, 19th inst., a. m.; Chicago, 19th inst., p. m.; Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, Route Agent, 20th inst.; Toledo, 20th inst. (supposed:) Cleveland, 20th inst.; Cincinnati, 19th inst., p. m.; Columbus, Ohio, 20th inst.; Pittsburg, 20th inst., p. m.

So far as return registered letter bills received, there appears to have been eighteen registered letters from the following places, viz: Slaystown, Pa.; Pitteburg, Pa.; Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio; Toledo, Ohio; Cincinnati, Ohio; Chicago, Ill.; Altoona, Pa. The parties in interest have been notified. N. B. Browne, P. M.

MIDDLETOWN ITEMS .- From the Journal of yesterday : Exploded.-The boiler on the engine of the first freight train down, on Tuesday, exploded at Hurst's station, below town. The top of the engine was shattered to pieces and otherwise damaged. The track was also torn up. Strange to say, no person was injured.

Wood & Sterling's Furnaces .- These extensive works have been leased by Messrs. H. J. Miley & Co., under whose management both furnaces will be put into operation—but one has been in blast for some time past; the other, under the new arrangement, will be ready for operation in a few weeks, when a large number of additional hands Mr. H. Miley, the principal will be employed. gentleman composing the firm, is one of our most influential, enterprising and elever citizens, and we are pleased that he has taken hold of these works. Success to him.

THE DAYS OF QUEEN ELIZABETH .- In England, in the days of "Good Old Queen Bess," education was chiefly confined to nobles and priests; the comforts and luxuries of life were scarcely enjoyed even by the rich; commerce was small; wood was exported to Flanders; the coin was debased; the roads were nearly impassible except to horsemen; trade was in the hands of monopolists; the streets were infected with vagabonds; great public functionaries were venial; the clergy were too ignorant to write sermons; there was nothing imposing in art; the kingdom numbered only about four millions, and these four millions of people were generally attired in garments which were vastly inferior to the splendid suits produced now-a-days at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall, of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. Philadelphia.

THE EXTRAVAGANCE OF FASHION .- Since the rage, says the London Review, for dress and finery set in; since the extravagance is a womanly beauty, and to live beyond one's means a social requirement; since the loom and the workshop have taken the place of birth and refinement, and the moneyed vulgarian is counted higher than the penniless aristocrat; since women have been ranked by what they wear and not by what they are, and a becoming toilet is counted equal to a personal grace; since none but a chosen few dare to be simple, none but a remnant of the faithful dare to hold themselves aloof from luxury and fashionmore families have been ruined than has ever been known before, and the boasted happiness of the English home is fast becoming a fable and a myth.

Office Seekers .- We flad the following special dispatch from Washington in the Philadelphia Inquirer of the 26th inst.:

Mr. Lincoln is besieged by members of the Pennsylvania Legislature, who are rendered keen by the success of the Speakers of both Houses in obtaining lucrative positions. Every one desires something for himself and his relatives. It is rumored to-day that the President will require them, on filing their applications, to subscribe under oath as follows: "I, A. B., solemnly declare that I have not, as member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, received any consideration for voting for any bill, and that I am not interested in any passenger railway or other corporation, chartered during the present session." It is expected that this will reduce the number of applicants considerably, and a general scatter is expected.

FACTORY BURNED .- A few nights since the large factory of Mr. James Buckley, in Sadsbury township, Chester county, was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered in the garret, and rapidly spreading, soon destroyed the whole building and contents. This factory was formerly engaged in the manufacture of satinetts, the necessary machinery for which was still in the building. About two years since, the manufacture of jeans was commenced, which continued up to week before last, when the stock was all used up and the factory stonned. There were no goods or stock in the building when it was burned, except a small bunplace in this city, and shows the estimation of the | dle of cotton and two bundles of waste or inferior people of Harrisburg toward one they dearly cotton. The building was of stone, about 70 by 50 feet, and was full of valuable machinery.

it from ruin-take it under your protection. The Councils of Philadelphia, at all times, have desccrated it, and in making use of it as a business house have exposed it to all the accidents of fire and light. Royal palaces, if destroyed by fire, can be rebuilt; but not so with this gem of our national independence. If burned down, it is gove forever. Does not our national honor command us to protect it from such a fearful calamity? Order, by law, that courts of justice and their offices should no longer be kept in it; let it be made fireproof outside, and let light and fire be forbidden inside; forbid it to be used, as it is now, as a common thoroughfare; let it be (surrounded by a gilt iron railing) the only building on Independence

THE STRONGEST BOND OF UNION YET DISCOVERED BETWEEN THE NORTH AND SOUTH,

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. READ WHAT A DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN OF ST. LOUIS SAYS OF IT.

St. Louis, July 10th, 1860.

O. J. Wood, Esq.: Dear Sir—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction to transmit to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative after a trial of five years. I commenced using your Restorative in January. 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks time there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times per month. My hair this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times per month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular aivantage to you, or even flatter your vanity at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in traveling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pride and pleasure in recommending your Restorative and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people that have pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it, and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved by probing the matter, that they had not used the article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good as yours, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbug. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of those charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word in several instances, merely inserting some other name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

ork. You are at liberty to publish this or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box 1920, will be promptly answered. Yours, truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

Warren Springs, Perry Co., PA., June 7th, 1850.

PROF. WOOD: Dear Sir.—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative, for the purpose of cleansing my head of dandruff I had suffered with it upon my head for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good in removing it, although I had tried many preparations, until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. Being there at the time, I called at Gross & Ross's Drug Store and bought a bottle, and now am prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from any itching or other unpleasantness.—I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and, by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me, in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been achild. I consider your preparation of great value, and although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper; if it is worth anything to you.

Yours, &c.

H. H. ETTER. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

Bloomington, Ind., July 30th, 1859.

Dear Sir:—I here send you a statement that I think you are entitled to the benefit of. I am a resident of Bloomington and have been for over thirty years. I am now over 50 years of age. For about twenty years past my hair has been turning considerably gray, and was almost entirely white, and very stiff and unpliant. I had seen a number of certificates of the very wonderful effect of your Hair Restorative, but supposed there was more fiction than truth in them; but entertaining a strong desire to have my hair, if possible, restored to its original color and fineness, as it was in my younger days a beautiful black, I concluded I would make the experiment, commencing in a small way. I purchased one of a beautiful black, I concluded I would make the experiment, commencing in a small way. I purchased one of your small bottles, at one dollar, and commenced using, following directions as nearly as I could. I soon discovered the dandruff removed, and my hair, that was falling off in large quantities, was considerably tightened, and a radical change taking place in the color. I have continued to use it till I have used three of your small bottles, and just begun on the fourth. I have now as pretty a head of dark brown, or light black hair, as any man, or as I had in my youthful days when a boy in the hills of Western Virginia. My head is entirely clear of hills of Western Virginia. My head is entirely clear of dandruff, and the hair ceased entirely falling off, and is as soft and fine, and feels as oily, as though it was just from under the hands of a French shampooer. Many of my acquaintances frequently say to me, "Butler, where did you get that fine wig?" I tell them it was the effects of your Restorative. It is almost impossible to convince them that it is the original hair of the same old gray head. Yours, truly. convince them that it is the convince the convince them that it is the convince that it is th

Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another col-umn will be found an advertisement of this well-known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaoriginal color. The Hair Restorative also cures cuta-neous eruptions, and prevents the hair falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most re-liable character. Don't dye till you have tried this Re-storative.—Boston Olive Branch.

Woon's HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for nine cases of ten they are quack nostrums, but we take great pleasure in recommending Professor Wood's article to all whose hair recommending Professor would statistic and which was the is falling off, or turning gray. Our well-known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefits of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in Summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities, which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative properties of another descript in Inmany cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innoxious.—Bos ton Transcript, April 22, '59. A GENUINE BOON .- In our capacity as conductor of public journal we are called upon to advertise the cure alls of the day, each of which claims to be unadultera alls of the day, each of which claims to be unadulterated in its composition and infallible in its curative effects—with what justice we leave our readers to determine. In one instance, however—Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative—we are so well assured of the notable qualities of the article that we give it our endorsement as all that its inventor and vender claims it to be. Its effect upon a falling head of hair is universally known to be magical; like lime or guano on exhausted land, it brings its crop wherever applied. Our own thatch is fortunately healthy, but we advise our friends with sparsely growing hair to try the Restorative.—Columbia Spy.

QUACK NOSTRUM—The imajority of hair washes, hair dyes, hair tonics, hair oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show windows and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. Hog's lard, whale oil, lard oil, sweet oil, seented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers, and white flint glass bottles, the costilest character of tonics, and when thus costly, are baptised with some tri-syllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of boths exces. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "highfalutin" Xilophloforium or any other astounding and startling catch-penny term; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—whatit expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalu. simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts.
