John J. Cechrane, Esq., editor of the Lancaster Union, has been appointed postmaster for that city.

IMPROVING SLOWLY.—Mr. Radabaugh, the Chief of Police, is slowly improving.

Why is a bridge like a certain Jewish festival? Because it is the pass-over.

COLLECTION.—The carriers of the PATRIOT AND UNION beg leave to say that they will, as usual, collect their dues this morning.

THE Union Prayer Meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church, on Market Square, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, as usual.

The lumbermen report that the snow has nearly disappeared from the woods, and yet no flood to float logs out of the small streams.

THE regular daily sessions of the Pennsylvania Female College will be resumed on Monday morning next.

SALES.—Many of our citizens are now disposing of their household and kitchen furniture, and the things are selling at prices calculated to send a man to the poor house.

REMOVING.—The Clerk of the Council was actively engaged yesterday moving the books and papers of the Council from the Exchange to the Court House.

Many of the soldiers belonging to the companies of United States troops now in Washington are deserting. One company has lost seven men since they have been in the city.

THE CANAL.—The present intention is to let water into the West Branch canal on the first of April. Workmen have been engaged for a considerable length of time past in putting the canal in good condition.

THE CAMERON GUARDS.—The Guards had a drill at the armory on last Thursday night. Several new members were proposed and elected, and we hope soon to see the corps what it should be—one of the best in the State.

FAST DRIVING.—Wm. Reigle, employed by the Adams Express Company, was before the Mayor yesterday morning, charged with a violation of the ordinance prohibiting fast and reckless driving within the city limits.

APPOINTMENT.—E. V. V. Higgins, late of the State Department, has been appointed successor to J. L. Rightmeyer, as auditor of the transportation department of the Philadelphia & Erie railroad company, at Williamsport.

THE GYMNASIUM.—The members of the gymnasium are engaged in removing their property. We understand that Davis, who now occupies the lower part of the building, contemplates fitting the place up for exhibitions and the accommodation of dancing parties.

ON EXHIBITION.—We see it announced that the man who put up a stove-pipe without any profanity expressed or suggested, has been found, and that a company has secured him for exhibition in the principal towns and cities. It is said he will draw better than the pipe.

THE Cavalry Squadron will meet on the Park Grounds this afternoon at 1½ o'clock, for drill exercise, and the election of permanent officers. All desirous of joining the company will then be required to advance the sum of $5 towards the purchase of material for uniforms.

ARRESTED.—A gentleman who has crossed the big pond, and a lady who did likewise, appeared before Alderman Kline yesterday, at the earnest solicitation of a couple of our constables. The man promised to go to Pottsville, and the woman to Cumberland county, and they were both discharged.

There is an amateur magician in Albany, if we may believe all that is written of him, who can cause a loaded hod to go up a ladder without any assistance, transform a handkerchief into a rabbit, as is sometimes done for the amusement of children, and make it trot off at a rapid pace, and do many other things that would astonish Anderson, Houdin or Heller. That young man should travel.

King, who was arrested not long since at Oxford, Ind., for the murder of Dr. J. H. Rowe, who stopped all night at King's tavern, has been released, owing to the reappearance of the supposed victim. King extensively advertised his arrest, and besought Rowe to "turn up" and prove his innocence, and Rowe seeing the notice, confessed.—Another proof of the efficacy of advertising.

THE FASHIONS.—Latest Paris fashions announce that ladies' skirts have lost nothing of their amplitude, and continue to be made with small trains. The bodies are made round at the waist, or in a point; but the latter is considered the most easy. Sleeves for dresses of rich material are made half large, long, and open with trimmings, or three puffs. The trimmings, of course, must correspond with those of the dress.

PHILADELPHIA AHEAD OF THE WORLD.—A Washington newspaper sets down a leading hotel in this city as the most elegant and comfortable hostelrie in America. This is just praise; but it is equally true that we have here the most splendid clothing establishment in the world. We refer, of course, to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. The garments for gentlemen and youths, on hand there, are worthy of the palatial building in which they are sold.

EXPLOSIONS OF FLUID LAMPS.—A correspondent makes public, through the columns of the Scientific American, the following very simple, and, he asserts, successful plan which he has lately discovered to prevent the explosion of fluid, camphene and kerosene lamps:

Drill a very small hole through the tube plate of the lamp, and insert a common brass pin, the head of which shall prevent the pin from falling through. By this means you will obtain a perfect safety valve, that will admit the air contained inside of the lamp to escape whenever it is expanded by being heated from the burning light.

THE CITY COUNCIL.—A meeting of the Council was held at their Chamber, in the Exchange, on Thursday evening last. Mr. Gross presided. With the exception of the appointment of the committees, but little business of importance was transacted.

The Pennsylvania railroad company offered and agreed to build a sewer from their depot to the Paxton creek; which was referred to a committee of three, with power to act.

A motion was made to re-rent the office now occupied by the Mayor, and the room used as a lock-up, for another year. Upon taking the vote, it was decided in the negative.

A veto message from the Mayor was received and read. This message was in relation to the Cumberland Valley railroad company. It appears that several suits are now pending against this company for violation of the city ordinances, and they refuse to come to time, and, in fact, defy our City Fathers. Some of the Council wishing to "kiss, and be friends" with the company, introduced a new ordinance, (which was passed,) repealing the old one in relation to the flagmen, and substituting horns and bells. The Mayor, very properly, vetoed the bill, and the further consideration of the matter was postponed till the next meeting.

On motion, the following committees were then appointed by the President:

Fire Committee—Messrs. Stahl, Haehnlen and Martin.

Gas Committee—Messrs. Verbeke, Meyer and Garverich.

Finance Committee—Messrs. Hamilton, Bailey and Stahl.

Ordinance Committee—Hamilton, Bailey and Black.

Water Committee—Bailey, Hamilton and Black.

The Street Committees consist of the following persons:

First District—Messrs. Bell, Haehnlen and Hecker.

Second District—Messrs. Verbeke, Garverich and Bailey.

Third District—Messrs. Stahl, Martin and Brooke.

A committee of the members of the Friendship fire company appeared and presented the following petition; which was referred to the Fire Committee, with a request that they should report at the next meeting:

HARRISBURG, March 28, 1861.

At a meeting of the Friendship fire company, No. 1, it was

Resolved, That the officers of this company act as a committee to petition the City Council to procure for our use some hose to be used as leading hose immediately from the steam engine.

In accordance with the above, we, the undersigned, do petition you, the City Council of Harrisburg, to grant us an appropriation of six fifty-feet sections of ten-inch hose. We ask this for the reason that we are aware of the fact that the small hose we now have, with a few exceptions, have been too much used, and, as a matter of course, too much worn to be placed so near the steamer. A. W BERGSTRESSER, Pres. F. F. C.
A. SCHLAYER, Treasurer.

Frederick Haehnlen was elected Clerk of the Market.

A motion was then made that the Clerk of the Council remove the books and papers to the new room, in the Court House, and then the Council adjourned. The next meeting will be held at the new quarters, on Saturday evening, April 6.

EASTER WEEK.—The present season is regarded by Christian nations, and also by Jews, as the most solemn of any in the year. It closes Lent—the forty days set apart, and by some sects devoted to fasting and prayer in commemoration of the fasting of Christ in the wilderness. Good Friday is the anniversary of the crucifixion, and consequently the consummation of the great plan of human salvation. The gloom with which Lent closes is immediately succeeded by a time of the greatest rejoicing; for it commemorates that final triumph of the Cross over sin, when the followers of Jesus proclaimed to the astonished world, that "Christ had risen from the dead," and by this event had given to his disciples the evidence of the truth of what he had taught.

With the Hebrews the same season is the anniversary of the Passover, which preceeded the deliverance of the children of Israel from the bondage of Egypt, and it is one of the most sacred festivals of that peculiar people.

The time of Easter is fixed, like that of the feast of the Passover, by the position of the Moon in its orbit at the time of the Vernal Equinox, Easter being the Sunday following the first full Moon after the equinox. Such festivals are termed movable, because they do not occur upon fixed days of any month. When the Moon is full, or, more strictly, in its fourteenth day, immediately after the time that the Sun reaches the equinoctial line, Easter will happen in March; but if the Moon should be just past the full at that time, it may be as late as the nineteenth of April.

Such seasons of pious rejoicing, when properly observed, afford unmitigated satisfaction to those who engage heartily in the exercises connected with them, and serve to bring vividly to mind the most interesting events in the history of the Christian Church.

A VERDANT OFFICE SEEKER.—The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican says:

I must tell you a good story of this wild scramble for office. A farmer-like fellow came here from the West a few weeks ago, and went to work for a prominent $3,000 place in one of the Departments. At home he had never earned $500 a year, but having seen the Blue Book, he had from the first set his heart upon this particular office. By dint of industry and brass he got a heavy list of recommendations for the place, and came on here to reconnoitre. He at last went to the office of the Department, still occupied by one of the first men in the Democratic party, backed by scores of Democratic Senators. The Western gentleman presented himself in the following manner: "I am an applicant for your office. I expect to get it. Are the duties difficult?" Mr. S—— saw in a moment who had he to deal with, and with a merry twinkle of the eye, replied: "Oh, no!—they can be easily performed—indeed, a boy could transact the business of the office at a pinch." "But," said the greenhorn, "I am not much used to the writing business, and I shall have to get you to learn me the duties of the office. I would be willing to pay you fairly for learning me the ropes!" "When you are appointed to this place," slowly replied the incumbent, "I will agree to give you a fortnight's tuition without charge." He has not yet been called on to redeem his promise, nor do I believe he ever will.

AN IMPROVED COFFEE ROASTER, constructed on the rotary principle, enclosed in a cast-iron box, so as to be conveniently used on stove or range, can be had at B. J. Harris,' No. 112 Market street. It will be found a great saving of trouble and time to house-keepers, and to brown the coffee for use in a superior style.

At the same place can also be found an improved grid-iron, made especially for broiling in ranges or cook-stoves, over coal fires, and so constructed as to prevent dripping upon the fire, and to preserve all the gravy. This is an admirable article, and should be in every family where mineral coal is used for cooking.

Adah Isaacs Menken (Heenan no more) made a speech in Milwaukie Saturday night, at the close of a theatrical performance, in which she said she had a good word for her "brother quills," as she fraternally styled those who had spoken kindly of her efforts, and added that if it were possible for all such editors, and the audience too, to be concentrated into one single cheek, she felt as if she could have the "cheek" to give them all a smacking kiss.

AN ITINERANT GHOST—The prevailing "sensation" at Cleveland is a phantom of variable form and size, which occasionally perambulates the streets of that city, after "the witching hour of night," to the intense terror of some score or more of timid persons who have enjoyed a glimpse of his ghostship, and the indignation of a still grater number who irreverently regard the nocturnal visitant as a miscreant worthy only of summary punishment. The latest doings of the apparition are thus related by the Cleveland Herald of last Saturday:

So much indignation has been excited by his reported doings that on Thursday night about one hundred and fifty persons were on the watch for him. Many of the watchers were armed with pistols, and from at least some of them the ghost would have met a warm reception. No one prepared for an encounter has yet been so fortunate as to obtain a sight of the white-sheeted individual.

On Tuesday evening a young man, clerk in a Superior street store, was walking up Erie street, when he suddenly beheld the ghost a few feet to his right. The figure, he says, was ten feet in height, and moved smoothly and noiselessly along. The young man remembers nothing more until he found himself lying on the ground, the ghost nowhere to be seen. He had fainted.

In the same neighborhood two boys encountered the pretended apparition a few nights since.—Picking up a heavy stone, one of the boys followed the figure, which was retreating towards an alley. Just as the ghost turned into the alley, the boy threw his stone, and with such correct aim that it struck the figure full in the back. A groan, unearthly enough, but too vigorous for any but sound lungs of flesh and blood, was the response.

Perhaps the ghost was admonished by this adventure that his nocturnal perambulations might be attended occasionally by disagreeable circumstances. Certain it is that when a man encountered it the next night, and proceeded to administer the castigation it so richly deserves, the ghost produced a most substantial cudgel, with which he dealt his chastiser a blow that sent him reeling to the ground.

There are various accounts of the appearance of the figure. Some assert that when first seen it is no larger than an ordinary man, but immediately expands or enlarges to double that size. There is no "joke" in frightening people as this miscreant has done, and the person who catches and punishes the fellow will deserve the thanks of the community.

EIGHTEEN things in which young people render themselves impolite:

1. Loud laughter.
2. Reading when others are talking.
3. Cutting finger-nails in company.
4. Leaving meeting before it is closed.
5. Whispering in meeting.
6. Gazing at strangers.
7. Leaving a stranger without a seat.
8. A want of reverence for seniors.
9. Reading aloud in company without being asked.
10. Receiving a present without some manifestation of gratitude.
11. Making yourself a topic of conversation.
12. Laughing at mistakes of others.
13. Joking others in company.
14. Correcting older persons than yourself, especially parents.
15. Commencing talking before others are through.
16. Answering questions when put to others.
17. Commencing to eat as soon as you get to the table.
18. In not listening to what one is saying in company, unless you desire to show open contempt for the speaker. A well bred person will not make an observation while another of the company is addressing himself to it.

AMERICAN ARISTOCRACY.—Heroes of the Revolution.—It may be a consolation to "stuck-up people," whose great boast is that they have never been engaged in any "useful employment," to be told of the following facts:

Washington was a surveyor and farmer.
Franklin was a printer.
Greene was a blacksmith.
Warren was a physician.
Sumpter was a shepherd.
Roger Sherman was a shoemaker.
Marion was a farmer, as was also Putnam, Allen and Stark.
Hancock was a shipping merchant.
Morgan was a wagoner.
Trumbull was an artist.
Arnold (who, though a traitor, was a brave man and a good general,) was a bookseller and a druggist.

Mothers, read this.

The following is an extract from a letter written by a pastor of the Baptist Church to the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that world-renowned medicine—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING:

"We see an advertisement in your columns of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Now we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to your readers, that this is no humbug—WE HAVE TRIED IT, AND KNOW IT TO BE ALL IT CLAIMS. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the day, because it is one of the best. And those of your readers who have babies can't do better than to lay in a supply. sep29-d&wly

THE STRONGEST
BOND OF UNION
YET DISCOVERED BETWEEN THE NORTH AND SOUTH, IS
PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

READ WHAT A DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN OF ST. LOUIS SAYS OF IT.

St. Louis, July 10th, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.: Dear Sir—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction to transmit to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative after a trial of five years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks time there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times per month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in traveling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pride and pleasure in recommending your Restorative and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people that have pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it, and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved by probing the matter, that they had not used the article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good as yours, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of those charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word in several instances, merely inserting some other name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box 1920, will be promptly answered. Yours, truly,
JAMES WHITE, M. D.

PROF. WOOD: Dear Sir—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative, for the purpose of cleansing my head of dandruff. I had suffered with it upon my head for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good in removing it, although I had tried many preparations, until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. Being there at the time, I called at Gross & Ross's Drug Store and bought a bottle, and now am prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from any itching or other unpleasantness.—I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and, by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me, in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c.,
H. H. ETTER.

Bloomington, Ind., July 30th, 1859.

Dear Sir:—I here send you a statement that I think you are entitled to the benefit of. I am a resident of Bloomington and have been for over thirty years. I am now over 50 years of age. For about twenty years past my hair has been turning considerably gray, and was almost entirely white, and very stiff and unpliant. I had seen a number of certificates of the very wonderful effect of your Hair Restorative, but supposed there was more fiction than truth in them; but entertaining a strong desire to have my hair, if possible, restored to its original color and fineness, as it was in my younger days a beautiful black, I concluded I would make the experiment, commencing in a small way. I purchased one of your small bottles, at one dollar, and commenced using, following directions as nearly as I could. I soon discovered the dandruff removed, and my hair, that was falling off in large quantities, was considerably tightened, and a radical change taking place in the color. I have continued to use it till I have used three of your small bottles, and just begun on the fourth. I have now as pretty a head of dark brown, or light black hair, as any man, or as I had in my youthful days when a boy in the hills of Western Virginia. My head is entirely clear of dandruff, and the hair ceased entirely falling off, and is as soft and fine, and feels as oily, as though it was just from under the hands of a French shampooer. Many of my acquaintances frequently say to me, "Butler, where did you get that fine wig?" I tell them it was the effects of your Restorative. It is almost impossible to convince them that it is the original hair of the same old gray head. Yours, truly,
FREDERICK T. BUTLER,

Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well-known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried this Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for nine cases of ten they are quack nostrums, but we take great pleasure in recommending Professor Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off, or turning gray. Our well-known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefits of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in Summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities, which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative properties of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innoxious.—Boston Transcript, April 22, '59.

A GENUINE BOOK.—In our capacity as conductor of a public journal we are called upon to advertise the cure-alls of the day, each of which claims to be unadulterated in its composition and infallible in its curative effects—with what justice we leave our readers to determine. In one instance, however—Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative—we are so well assured of the notable qualities of the article that we give it our endorsement as all that its inventor and vender claims it to be. Its effect upon a falling head of hair is universally known to be magical; like lime or guano on exhausted land, it brings its crop wherever applied. Our own thatch is fortunately healthy, but we advise our friends with sparsely growing hair to try the Restorative.—Columbia Spy.

QUACK NOSTRUM.—The majority of hair washes, hair dyes, hair tonics, hair oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show windows and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. Hog's lard, whale oil, lard oil, sweet oil, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers, and white flint glass bottles, the costliest character of tonics, and when thus costly, are baptised with some tri-syllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "highfalutin" Xilophloforium or any other astounding and startling catch-penny term; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, aye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember, Wood's Restorative for the Hair is the best article extant.—New York Day Book.
