BENOVAL.-Mr. McCormick has removed his coal yard and office. Read the advertisement in another column.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.—But a solitary volunteer made application for lodgings at the lock-up on Saturday night. He was permitted to slope.

A NUISANCE .- Many persons who are fond of oranges are not aware that the peelings are very annoying as well as dangerous to pedestrians .---They should, therefore, he a little careful and not throw their peelings on the sidewalk.

Cow Lost .--- A valuable cow, white and red spotted, went astray on Friday last. The finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving word at this office, or at the residence of the owner in Short street. See the advertisement.

BEFORE THE MAYOR .--- The city asylum was occupied by two individuals of Friday night. One was a volunteer, who received his honorable discharge and sloped. The other had been on a bender; for which he was fined one dollar and cost. He produced the change and left.

PLANTING TREES .- The Superintendent of the Public Grounds is busily engaged in planting a large number of spruce and other trees. In a short time our Capitol grounds will be a capital promenade and a capital place for lovers to congregate.

GOOD FRIDAY .- Good Friday was observed with appropriate services, in the Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches. In the Catholic Churches the occasion was celebrated with great solemnity, and the altars were decorated with an unusual array of candles, flowers, &c.

A Noisy Customer.-A female was arrested about nine o'clock, on Saturday night, and placed in the lock-up. She had been indulging very freely in the juice of the corn, and as that generally acts upon the bumps of combativeness, she thought she could whip any other woman. She had a hearing before the Mayor on Sunday morning, who fined her one dollar and fifty cents, and on the promise of reformation in general, and leaving that woman in particular alone, she was discharged.

STRANGE COSTUMES .- Madame, the Duchess of Gallifet, went to a fancy ball in Paris, in the costume of a tulip! A lively princess appeared on the same occasion as a butterfly. We have seen diculous objects; but to our thinking those only presented a truly elegant and gentlemanly appearance who were dressed in such suits as are made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wil-Sixth. THE DIFFERENCE.-Says the New York Sunday Times-"Women kill themselves for want of love, and men for want of money, usually. Women go in for love and diamonds, and men for dollars, dogs, horses, and a wide licentiousness. The wife who poisoned herself in Forsyth street, the other night, because she found another woman's glove in her husband's pocket, was a specimen of her sex and impulses. The literateur who slew himself about the same time because he could not pay a board-bill, was a specimen of his. And yet those gloves may have come innocently into the pocket of one party, and a good salary had already been procured, without his knowledge, for the other !" No MOTHER -She had no mother ! What a volume of sorrowfal truth is contained in that single sentence-no mother! We must go down the hard, rough paths of life, and become inured to care and sorrow in their sternest forms, before we can take home to our own experience the dread reality-no mother-without a struggle and a tear. But when it is said of a frail young girl, just passing from childhood teward the life of a woman, how sad is the story summed up in that one short sentence .---Who shall now check the wayward fancies-who shall now bear with the errors and failings of a motherless girl? Deal gently with the child. Let not the cup of sorrow be over-filled by the harshness of your bearing or your unsympathizing coldness. Is she heedless of her doings? Is she careless in her movements? Remember, oh remember. "she has no mother !" When her young companions are gay and joyons, does she pass with a downcast eye and languid step, when you would fain witness the gushing and overflowing gladness of youth? Chide her not, for she is motherless, and the great sorrow comes down upon her like an incubus. Can you gain her confidence, can you win her love? Come, then, to the motherless with the boon of your tenderest care, and by the memory of your own mother, perhaps already passed away-by the fullness of your own remembered sorrow-by the possibility that your own child may be motherless-contribute, as far as you may, to relieve the loss of that fair, frail child who is written Motherless.-Exchange. NIGHT AIR .--- An extraordinary fallacy is the dread of night air. What air can we breathe at night but night air? The choice is between pure night air from without, and foul night air from within. An unaccountable choice. What will they say, if it is proved to be true that fully onehalf of all the diseases we suffer from are occasioned by people sleeping with their windows shut? An open window most nights in the year can never hurt any one. This is not to say that light is not necessary for recovery. In great cities night air is often the best and purest air to be had in twenty-four hours. I could better understand shutting the windows in town, during the day, than during the night, for the sake of the sick. The absence of smoke, the quiet, all tend to make night the best time for airing the patient. One of our highest medical authorities on consumption and climate, has told me that the air of London is never so good as after ten o'clock at night. Always air your room, then, from the outside air if possible. Windows are made to open, doors are made to shutthe truth of which seems extremely difficult of apprehension. Every room must be aired from without-every passage from within. But the fewer passages there are in a hospital the better. -Florence Nightingale.

THE FIRST OF APRIL.-Throughout a large number of the States, there is, perhaps, no busier day in all the year than the first of April. By common consent it has been established as the time for "socking up" or "planking down," and pocketing the cash; for completing the sale and transfer of real estate; for giving, entering and satisfying judgments and mortgages; for moving out and moving in; for scrubbing, and whitewashing, and painting, and for various other things, as the sale bills say, "too numerous to mention." In addition to its being a busy day, it is a day of general hubbub; pots, and kettles and pans, and pans, and kettles and pots, together with household and kitchen furniture of every description, are being carried up street and down street, out of one house and into another, here, there and everywhere. It is a jolly day, too, and has been set apart as a particular occasion, when everybody has a right to make a fool of everybody else, without the least fear of the consequences, for the simple reason that everybody else, on this occasion, if on none other, feels required to pay homage to the timehonored ceremonies of "all fools' day," by allowing himself to appear in public as the largest one of the tribe whose virtues and excellencies the occasion commemorates. What an amusing sight it is to see some sedate-looking individual, stopping and looking behind him, on the information received from some mischievous urchin, that he had lost his "hankercher," and then to see him proceed on his way, as if nothing had happened, when the aforesaid mischievous urchin informs him that be is "a Aprile fool;" or to see some avaricious fellcw picking up a pocket-book, slily slipping it into bis pocket, and gliding around the corner to pull out several immense rolls of-brown paper. Some may meet the first of April with heaviness of heart. Perhaps old households and family circles are about to be broken up, never to be re-united, and old homesteads to be deserted under the pressure of poverty and misfortune; or perhaps the good man and good woman have gone down to their graves, venerable and venerated, leaving scarcely any of the family behind them, to fill the accustomed circle around the hearthstone, or the accustomed places at the table.

To others, the day may bring gladness. They may be starting out in all the flush and excitement of youth, with high hopes and bright anticipations of the future, and with scarcely a cloud visible over their heads. To such we can wish many bright first of Aprils in the future.

TROUT FISHING .- A party of our sports started out on an expedition, yesterday, in search of trout. At the present moment we are not aware how they made out, or what they brought back. This is about the commencement of the piscatorial season, and the followers of Isaac Walton should look to it in time and have their hooks and lines in trim.

WOOD: Dear Sir-I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative, for the purpose of cleansing my head of dandruff I had suf-fered with it upon my head for years, and had never been, although I had tried many preparations, until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. Being there at the time, I called at Gross & Ross's Drug Store and bought a bottle, and now am prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dand-ruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from any itching or other unpleasantness.--I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and, by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I hare used two bottles of the Restora-tive, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me, in kseping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been achild. I consider your preparation of great value, and although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duy to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth any thing to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

OF ST. LOUIS SAYS OF IT.

St. Louis, July 10th, 1860. St. Louis, July 10th, 1000. O. J. WOOD, Esq.: Dear Sir-Allow mo the pleasure and satisfaction to transmit to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative after a trial of five years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks time there was not o creat heair to be found noither has thore been up to stopped its filing, and in three weeks time there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times per month. My hair has ever continues healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts has ever controver nearth, sort and glossy, and by bark perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have oc-cupied my time in traveling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pride and pleasure in recommending your Restorative and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people that have pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it, and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved by probing the matter, that they had not used the article at all, but had used some new arti-cle, said to be as good as yours, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt. Apparently, some of those charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word in several instances, merely inserting some other name in place of yours. I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, danlruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to. I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

Bloomington, Ind., July 30th, 1859. Dear Sir: — I here send you a statement that I think you are entitled to the benefit of. I am a resident of Bloomington and have been for over thirty years. Mothers, read this. The following is an extract from a letter written by a pastor of the Baptist Church to the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that world-renowned medicine—MRS. WINS Low's Soothing Syrup FOR CHILDREN TERHING: "We see an advertisement in your columns of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. New we never said a word ir favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to your readers, that this is no humbur. WE HAVE TERED IT. AND KNOW IT TO BE ALL IT there is a more like to say to your readers, that this is no burbing -we HAYE TRIED IT, AND KNOW IT TO BE ALL IT CLAIMS. It is, probably, one of the most successful redicines of the day, because it is one of the best. And those of your readers who have babies can't do better than to lay in a supply. sep29-d&wly original color and fineness, as it was in my younger days a beautiful black, I concluded I would make the experi-ment, commencing in a small way. I purchased one of your small bottles, at one dollar, and commenced using, following directions as nearly as I could. I soon discor-ered the dandruff removed, and my hair, that was fall-ing off in large quantities, was considerably tightened, and a radical change taking place in the color. I have continued to use it till I have used three of your small bottles, and just begun on the fourth. I have now as pretty a head of dark brown, or light black hair, as any man, or as I had in my youthful days when a boy in the hills of Western Virginia. My head is entirely clear of dandruff, and the hair ceased entirely falling off, and is as soft and fine, and feels as oily, as though it was just from under the hands of a French shampoore. Many of my acquaintances frequently say to me, "Butler, where did you get that fine wig?" I tell them it was the ef-fects of your Restorative. It is almost impossible to convince them that it is the original hair of the same old gray head. Yours, truly, FREDERICK T. BUTLER,

Bloomington, Ind., July 30th, 1859

Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another col-umn will be found an advertisement of this well-known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cuta-neous eruptions, and prevents the hair falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these have storn as some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most re-liable character. Don't dye till you have tried this Re-storative.—Boston Olive Branch.

Wood'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. —We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for nine cases of ten they are quack nostrums, but we take great pleasure in recommending Professor Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off, or turning gray. Our well-known contri-butor, Finley Johnson, Eaq., has experienced the bene-fits of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in Summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beau-tiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a val-uable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually evadicate dandruff and other im-purities, which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative properties of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard at-taching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innoxious.—Bos ton Transcript, April 22, '59. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE .--- Unlike most specifics,

A GENUINE BOON.—In our capacity as conductor of a public journal we are called upon to advertise the cure-alls of the day, each of which claims to be unadultera-ted in its composition and infallible in its curative ef-fects—with what justice we leave our readers to deter-mine. In one instance, however—Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative—we are so well assured of the notable qualities of the article that we give it our endorsement as all that its inventor and vender claims it to be. Its effect upon a falling head of hair is universally known to be magical; like lime or guano on exhausted land, it brings its crop wherever applied. Our own thatch is fortunately healthy; but we advise our friends with sparsely growing hair to try the Restorative —Columbia Spy.

QUACK NOSTRUM — The majority of hair washes, hair dyes, hair toni.s, hair oils, and the numberless prepara-tions which are now before the public under such ex-travagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show windows and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. Hog's lard, whale oil, lard oil, sweet oil, seented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrap-pers, and white flint glassbottles, the costliest character of tonics, and when thus costly, are baptised with some tri-syllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "highfalutin" Xilophloforium or any other a-tounding and startling catch-penny term ; he simply advertises a Hair Restorative it acts. Buy Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, aye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Hemember, Wood's Restora-tive for the Hair is the best article extant.—New York Day Book. Day Book.
