A WIFE IN SEARCH OF HER HUSBAND .-- In the New York Supreme Court chambers; on Wednesday, before Justice Clerke, Mrs. Sarah Locke applied for a writ of hebeas corpus, for the purpose of obtaining possession of her husband, who, she alleges, is kept from her by his father. It appears that a year or more ago, Charles E. Locke, who was on a visit to Europe, became acquainted with the petitioner at Birmingqam, England, and that he lived with her there some time. They came to this country in the latter part of 1860, and were married in Brooklyn, on the 1st of January last, by the Rev. Benjamin Whalen, a Baptist minister. They lived together until the 9th of February, when Mr. Locks suddenly disappeared. His wife alleges that he is secreted by his father, who intends to send him to California. The wife is an intelligent, good-looking young woman.

THE CAPITAL OF ELORIDA.—Tallahasse, Florida, writes a correspondent of the Charleston Courier, although "having a population of only 2,500, and destitute withal of commercial advantages beyond its local trade, is nevertheless one of the most refined and elegant cities of the South. Here are gathered many retired business men, merchants and planters, bringing with them all the wealth, luxury and taste of many years' garnering up. Style predominates to a great extent. Handsome equipages with liveried servants, and elegantly dressed occupants, meet you at every turn, and you wonder at seeing all this in the bosom of a country not yet developed, and scarcely known to the world."

CHINESE SHEEP .- Among the cargo of the New York steamer Monticello, on her last trip to Alexandria, Va., was a Shanghae ram, five months old, consigned to Mr. Yeaton of this city, for E. B. Duval, Esq., of Prince George's county, Md. One buck and two ewes of this breed, imported from China some time since by Mr. W. H. Wisner, of New York, produced in nine months of last year seventeen lambsnot less than four, and sometimes five, at a birth. The English stock-raisers, by crossing this breed with the south-downs, have increased its size a full third, and improved the mutton. Alexandria Gazette.

TROUBLE IN THE CHURCH.—The Washington States alleges that there is trouble in the Bridge Street Presbyterian Church, in consequence of tne pastor, Rev. Mr. Bocock, having included the President and Vice President of the Southern Confederacy in his prayers for our own Chief Magistrate. Some of his congregation thought there was no special need for him to go out of his way to this extent, and the upshot of the affair has been the acceptance by the church of Mr. Bocock's resignation.

John Milton Earle, Indian Commissioner, states in his last report that the whole number of Indians in Massachusetts is 1,610, there being 775 males, 829 females, and 378 families. The number of those between the ages of 5 and 21 is 732. The oldest person on the list is Thomas Jones, one of the Christiantown tribe' whose age is 83, and the oldest woman is Mehitable Ames, one of the Gay Head tribe, who is 80 years old.

CUBING RANCID BUTTER .- A correspondent of the Rural Register gives the following recipe for curing rancid butter :- For 100 lbs, rancid butter, take 2 lbs. fine white powdered sugar, 2 ounces saltpetre finely pulverized, and as much fine dairy salt as you wish to add to the butter to make it to your taste. The butter has to be thoroughly washed in cold water before working in the above ingredients. The amount used should be in proportion to the strongness of the butter.

The latest English papers state that the following clause has been introduced into the policies by the companies and private underwriters, and the fact posted at Lloyd's:—
"Warranted free from all loss, claim or damage, arising from seizure, detention or any other hostile act of the Government or people of any revolting or seceding State of the Union, generally known as the United States."

The first of living gymnasts, Lestard, is now performing in St. Petersburg, where he is engaged for sixty representations, at 1,000 francs per night. The musical journals of Paris are remarking, not without a touch of bitterness, that the great tenor, Rubini, at the height of his fame, never received above 600 The rumor that Jenny Lind is going to reappear before the public is gaining credit.— Since the nightingale was first heard in England, fourteen additional years have passed over her head; but her notes are said, by those who are privileged to hear them, to be as sweet and powerful as ever-so says the London press.

John Drew is performing at the Lyceum Theatre, London, and is pronounced by good judges-including Sam Lover-the best Irish comedian since Tyrone Power. This is a mantle which many have essayed to wear, in general with more audacity than success.

FIRE.-A fire occurred in Petersburg, Va., Sunday night, destroying two frame buildings owned by W. T. Joynes and Judge John Perkins, Jr., of New Orleans. They were occupied by George Reich, a tailor, whose loss is $600, and Frederick Chanewall, also a tailor. FOUR COFFINS.—The body of the Duchess of Kent was put into four coffins-two of plain solid mahogony, one of lead, and an outer case of solid mahogany and crimson velvet; the two inner coffins were sealed down the day after her death. APPOINTMENTS IN JAPAN.-Mr. Portman, who went out in the Niagara as interpreter to the Japanese embassy, has been called to Yeddo by Mr. Harris, to fill the vacancy of secretary of American legation made by Mr. Huesken's death. GONE SOUTH .- The Hon. James A. Bayard, United States Senator from Delaware, arrived at Portsmouth, Va., by the Baltimore boat on Wednesday morning, and took the cars for the South.

Among the passengers by the steamer Nash. ville, from New York, for Charleston, on Monday, were Captain Anderson and Col. Rudler, the filibusters. It is said they go to seek for glory at the cannon's mouth. A diver, of Kingston, Jamaica, recently covered a thousand dollars' worth of ivory from a ship sunk in the harbor of that city over one hundred years ago. Mr. Barney, the new collector, seems to please the New Yorkers. The officials, afraid of removal, sing "Barney, let the boys alone." "Mountain Maid," a racing mare, well known to horse fanciers and sporting men, died at Lancaster, Pa., last week.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schafps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser. Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHAN.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines

We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Uboupho Wolff's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1856 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wines, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wines, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolff's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successf with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolff, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous staff from their

Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, rainous alike to human health and happiness.
