APPOINTMENT.—Governor Curtin yesterday appointed R. Biddle Roberts, of Pittsburg, a special aid, with the rank of Colonel. This is an excellent appointment, as all who know the man will testify

FLAG RAISED .- A fine flag staff was raised at Leamy's corner, Third and Market streets, last evening, and a large flag was flung to the breeze from the top of it.

No More Troops.—The Governor's requisition is filled-Pennsylvania has furnished her quota, and thousands upon thousands more volunteers are offering. At present no more can be accepted, but companies formed should not disband. They may be wanted yet.

FLAGS .- Theo. F. Scheffer, the bookseller, in Market street, above Second, has just received a very large assortment of flags, large and small .-He has also badges, letter and note paper, and envelopes with flags and handsome Union designs printed upon them.

Another Company .- A company of our young men (the Lochiel Grays) have organized, and been drilling in the gymnasium room in the old Exchange building, with a view to as early service as possible. We learn that they have a few vacancies in their ranks, open to young men of good character. Drill this evening at 8 o'clock.

DIED IN CAMP.—A young man named John Sheaver died in Camp Curtin on Wednesday night .-He came here from Allegheny county with one of the companies that was too full, and being discharged, he joined one of the Schnylkill county companies. His disease was apoplexy. He was buried at the cemetery yesterday afternoon.

CAMP CURTIN, April 25, 1861. Editor of Patriot and Union will please correct. C. J. Bruner is Captain of Sunbury Guards, and not J. P. S. Gobin, as published by you this morning. J. P. S. Gobin is First, and James H. Mc-

Carty Second Lieutenant. J. E. McCARTY, O. S. of S. G.

ARRIVAL OF ARMS .- An immense number of arms and munitions of war arrived at a late hour on Wednesday night, and were immediately taken to the Arsenal for safe keeping, for which purpose five teams were employed all night. The Arsenal is now guarded—sentinels being posted all around

THE VERBEKE RIFLES .- The ranks of this company is now full. It was organized last evening, and the following officers elected: Captain, John Nevin; First Lieutenant, H. C. Alleman; Second Lieutenant, Henry Lyne; Orderly Sergeant, Daniel Grover; Second Sergeant, Thomas Humes; Third Sergeant, Daniel Basehore; Fourth Sergeant, Samuel Wolf.

FUN ANONG THE SOLDIERS .- The Pittsburg soldiers quartered in the Capitol yesterday morning amused themselves by organizing both branches of the Legislature and passing sundry important laws. They repealed the tonnage tax, and voted a large appropriation of money to the Pittsburg companies—say several millions. If the Governor should happen to sign the bills, some of them will make a nice thing out of the war. Among the troops were several ex-members of the Legislature.

IRON RAILROAD CARS .- The New York Central Railroad Company intend to introduce iron freight cars quite extensively, we infer, from the fact that such are being made at Davidson's factory in Albany, on Saturday, and more will soon follow.

A recent accident at a drawbridge in New Jersey has demonstrated that iron passenger cars are of great utility in protecting human life at the time of disasters. An iron car thrown into the river was but slight damaged, and preserved all the passengers, where was conceded by all pre-sent that a wooden car, under similar circumstances, would have been broken into fragments, and left the passengers in twenty feet of water, to get out the best way they could, or perish in the wreck. Just so in collisions; the iron cars will break the force of the shock by yielding, and yet they cannot be as readily crushed and broken into those splinters and fragments which are sometimes so very murderous.

THE HOME GUARD .- A Few Suggestions-A large number of persons have enrolled themselves as a Home Guard, but up to this time it exists only in name. To render it effective, and enable it to carry out the objects for which it is intended, it should be at once organized. We understand the Mayor has made a requisition upon the Governor for two hundred muskets, and it is likely that they will be furnished at an early day. The Guard should then not only take an early opportunity to learn how to use them, but should also perfect itself in marching, drilling, &c. Of course the entire force would be too large to manœuvre together. The city should therefore be districted, and the head-quarters of companies should be at the Ward school houses, where there should be squad drills every evening, say between six and seven o'clock, and a general parade in State street every Saturday evening at 5 o'clock. If we have a Home Guard, it is necessary to put it in shape by discipiine at once, or we might as well have

THE RESERVOIR.—There is reason to apprehend that a majority of our City Commissioners design permanently locating our reservoir on what is known as Allison's Hill, which would certainly be a cardinal error. A competent engineer has estimated that it would cost $200,000 more to remove our basin to Allison's land, than it would to reconstruct one on Geiger's land, at the corner of Ridge and Hospital roads. I only speak from recollection, but think the latter place is represented as being about 20 feet higher than the present basin, sufficiently elevated for all ordinary purposes, and free from the impureties of the drippings of West Harrisburg, as we would tap the river at the junction of the Hospital road and Susquehanna.-In addition to the immense increase in cost of constructing water-works and basin on Allisen's Hill. is the immense power which would be required to force up the water, and the high priced pipes to distribute it through town; tenants would be burdened with increased rents, and our property holders with taxes, and the growth of the city retarded. The knowing ones assert that we could realize sufficient from the sale of the land on which our present basin is located, to defray the expense of putting up the water-works and basin on the Geiger lot, and it is known that Major Unger would be reasonable in pressing his claim for damages. Our city is moving out the Ridge avenue, and in a score of years we will probably have a larger population above the Ward House requiring water, than we will find on Allison's and the adjacent territory in the next century. The land between the river and Pennsylvania Railroad is the natural location of a large city at a future day. It is desirable the people should speak out on this sub-

ARRIVAL OF TROOPS FROM WESTERN PENNSYLVA-NIA .- The following troops, under the command of Gen. J. S. Negley, arrived in this city between I and 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and are quartered at the Capitol and the Lutheran Church in Fourth street :

Jackson Blues, Captain M'Kee -Duquesne Grays, Captain Kennedy Washington Infantry, Capt. Morris U. S. Zouave Cadets, Capt. Roberts Firemen's Legion, Capt. Stewart -Washington Invincibles, Capt. M'-

Lawrence Rifles, Capt. Leasure Washington Infantry, Company B., Captain M'Farland Fort Pitt Guards, Capt. Charlton -76 Union Guards, Captain Tomlinson Union Cadets, Capt. Patterson 70 muskets. Butler Blues, Capt. J. N. Purviance

Monongahela Artillery, Capt. Cooper 80 They left Pittsburg in a special train, on Wednesday, at 10 c'clock, and were handsomely treated at every stopping place along the line of the railroad.

These troops are all armed, equipped, uniformed and prepared for actual service. So far as military appearance is concerned, they are far ahead of any body that has yet arrived here.

The commissioned officers visited Governor Curtin in a body at 10 o'clock yesterday, and were cordially received by him.

It is not known when they will be ordered off; but, armed and disciplined as they are, they will not be required to do camp duty here. They were sworn and mustered into service at an early hour in the morning.

Since writing the above, the Tenth Regiment was formed out of the above companies, with the following officers: Col. David Campbell, of Pittsburg; Lieut. Col. Norton M'Giffen, of Washington county; Major Alex. Hays, of Pittsburg. The company took up the line of march for the railroad at 4 o'clock, and about 5 left for York.

The Eleventh Regiment will take in the remainder of the above companies, and will be organized this morning with the following officers: Colonel Thomas Rowley, of Pittsburg: Lieut, Col. John N. Purviance, of Butler; Maj. J.M. Kincaid, of Pittsburg.

THE GRAND JURY.—This body was discharged yesterday morning, after having acted upon a large number of bills of little or no real importance to the people at large. Previous to their discharge they made the following reports to the court:

To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County:
The undersigned members of the Grand Jury of Dauphin county, recommend to the county com-missioners the appropriation of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS out of the county funds, or if necessary to create a loan for that purpose, for the suppor and maintenance of the families of such of our citizens who have volunteered or who may hereafter volunteer during the present war. Provided. That no part of said sum of money shall be used until the Court shall be satisfied that the same is absolutely needed, and that when said money or any part of the same shall be so used, it shall be disbursed under the directions and supervision of three disinterested persons to be appointed for that purpose by the Court.

J. P. Rutherford, Foreman; George Hiney, Daniel Heckert, Edward Fry, George Stauffer, Henry Garman, Michael Rudy, Samuel Keiper, George Rodfong, John. H. Weaver, Joseph Nisley, Daniel Strominger, P. Bernheisel, jr., Peter Heckart, William Bush, Benj. F. Wickert, Nathaniel Rau, B. R. Buffington, W. H. Shorver, David Ricker. To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of. Quarter Sessions of the County of Dauphin:
We, the Grand Inquest of the County of Dauphin, do respectfully represent that we have visited the County Prison.

That we have found everything to be in good order, and, as a general thing, the prisoners have entered no complaint of either want of sufficient food or proper care and attention under the management of Mr. John R. Boyd. That we have passed upon a great number of cases, many of which were of a trifling, frivolous character, and which we were obliged to return ignoramus from a want of the proper attendance of witnesses. And would respectfully urge upon the Court the adoption of some efficient mode compelling witnesses to attend upon the Grand Inquest hereafter. We have also found cause to censure justices of the peace for permitting so many of those trifling cases to appear before Court, and regretted our inability to compel them to pay the ets in such cases. All of which is respectfully submitted, &c.,

J. P. RUTHERFORD, Foreman. SOLDIERS' EXEMPTION.—Those who desire to serve their country will see that their families and property are fully protected by the annexed section of the Pennsylvania act of 1822:

"No execution or other process shall issue against any officer, non-commissioned officer or private of the militia, when called into actual service, under a requisition of the President of the United States, or in pursuance of the orders of the Governor of this Commonwealth; nor shall any such process issue against him until thirty days after he shall have returned from duty, to his usual place of residence, or until forty days after he shall have been discharged; and the court, aldermen or justice of the peace from which or from whom any such process shall have issued, shall quash the same, as soon as the fact of any such person being ordered on public duty shall have been proven, and all the costs which shall have accrued in commencing or conducting any such process shall be paid by the person or persons who shall have applied for the said execution or other process."

DISCONTINUED .- The Mountain Ocho, printed at Johnstown, has been discontinued until after the | the bayonet at your breast—" passport if you war. We infer from the article announcing the fact, that Capt. Smith is in for the campaign. As he saw the Mexican elephant, he is amply prepared to take a look at the Confederate animal.

Two Companies from Lock Haven .- Yesterday, at noon, two full companies arrived from Lock Haven, Clinton county. One of them was in command of our old friend, James L. Hemphill, who informed us that two more companies were ready in Clinton, and awaiting orders.

FLAG RAISING .- A flag will be raised on the Lancasterian School House between 1 and 3 o'clock on Saturday. The Star Spangled Banner will be sung in grand chorus by the scholars, under the direction of Mr. Tarbutton. Let there be a general turn-out of the patriotic.

THE ENTIRE FORCE.—Up to Wednesday evening 104 full companies had been sworn in by Captain Simmons. Up to 5 o'clock last evening 20 more arrived, making a grand total of 124 companies, and 9,558 rank and file. It is just nine days since the first company arrived. Can any country in the world raise such an army at such short notice? Even as we write, twice this number have offered, and are only awaiting orders to macrh.

MR. DOUGLAS ON THE REBELLION. SPEECH AT BELAIR, OHIO, OPPOSITE

WHEELING. From the Wheeling Intelligencer of April 22d Senator Douglas arrived at Belair yesterday morning, just from Washington, and the train on which he came out having missed a connection he was compelled to lay over there all day. No sooner was it known that the distinguished Senator was there than the town became all alive with excitement, and nothing would satisfy the enthusiastic crowd but a speech from the "Little Giant." Accordingly, about half past three o'clock a crowd of all the citizens, and a large delegation from this city, and hundreds from the surrounding country, gathered in front of the La Belle House, where Mr. Douglas was stopping. We never saw a crowd of the same number of people so full of enthusiasm. They cheered the Union and Major Anderson, the stars and stripes, and everything and everybody else that happened to suggest itself. When the hour arrived for the appearance of Mr. Douglas, they began to cheer and yell for him, and his appearance on the balcony was the signal for a tremendous outburst of applause. When this had subsided,

Mr. Douglas said: "Gentlemen: It is gratifying to me and my sense of patriotism to find the people on both sides of this beautiful river giving their cheers and their hearts in behalf of the flag of our country. (Great applause.) I trust the time never is coming when that flag will not wave as the emblem of peace and union, and of constitutional liberty forever, both in the South and in the North of this Ohio river. We in the Northwest of this great valley can never recognize either the propriety or the right of States bordering along upon the Gulf of Mexico and upon the Atlantic Ocean, or upon the Pacific, to separate from the Union of our fathers, and establish and erect tax gatherers and custom houses upon our commerce in its passage to the Gulf or the Ocean. If we recognize the right in one case we give our assent to it in all cases; and if the few States upon the Gulf now are to separate themselves from us and erect a barrier across the mouth of that great river, of which the Ohio is a tributary, how long will it be before New York may come to the conclusion that she may set up for herself and levy taxes upon every dollar's worth of goods imported and consumed in the Northwest, and taxes upon every bushel of wheat and every pound of pork and beef, or other productions that may be sent from the Northwest to the Atlantic in search of a market? The very existence of the people in this great valley depends upon maintaining inviolate and forever that great right secured by the Constitution of Freedom of Trade, of Transit, and of Commerce, from the centre of the continent to the ocean that surrounds it. This right can never be surrendered (voices in the crowd, "never;") our very existence depends upon maintaining it.

"The proposition now is, to separate these United States into little, petty Confederacies. First, divide them into two; and then, when either party gets beaten at the next election, sub-divide again; (laughter, and "never;") then, whenever one gets beat again, another sub-division; and then, when you beat on Governor's election, the discomfitted will rebel again, and so it will go on. And if this new system of resistance by the sword and bayonet, to the results of the ballot box, shall prevail here in this country of ours, the history of the United States is already written in the history of Mexico.

"It is a curious fact—a startling fact, and one that no American citizen should ever misapprehend—that from the day that Mexico separated from Spain, down to this hour, no President of her's elected by the people, has ever been inaugurated and served his term of office. In every single case, from 1820 down to 1861, either the defeated candidate has seized possession of the office by military force, or has turned out the successful man before his term expired. What is more significant? Mexico is now a by-word for every man to scoff at. No man would deem himself treated as a gentleman who was represented as a Mexi-Why? Because he cannot maintain his Government founded upon the great principles of self-government and constitutional liberty -because he won't abide by the ballot-boxbecause he is not willing to redress grievances inside of the Constitution, and in obedience to its provisions, instead of seizing the bayonet and the sword to resist the constituted authori-

"It is not a question of Union or disunion. It is a question of order; of the stability of the Government; of the peace of communities. The whole social system is threatened with destruction and disruption. I cannot now go into a discussion of these questions. I have almost exhausted strength, and voice, and life. in the last two years, in my efforts to point out the dangers upon which we were rushing.

"And we have no time now to stop to enquire as to the causes of these mischiefs, nor as to the merits or foibles of sects or parties. Unite as a band of brothers, and rescue your Government and its Capital, and your country, from the enemy who have been the authors of your calamity. (Tremendous cheers, and cries of "We will"—"That's what we are going to do.")

'My friends, I should not have been delighted at meeting the same number of people, nor even ten times the number, animated by the patriotism that I find in all of you, at scarcely any other place as much as on the very spot where I am now standing, upon the borders of this beautiful river, separating the State of Virginia from the State of Ohio; and yet instead of being a barrier it is one of those great arteries that infuses its life and vigor into both sides and binds you together in one indissoluble system. This great valley must never be divided. ("Never, never!") The Almighty has so arranged the mountain and the plain and water courses, as to show that it is His will and design that this valley in all time shall remain one and indissoluble. Let no man attempt to sunder what Divine Providence has rendered indivisible. ("Amen," and cheers.) The nerves of this great valley centre in unity. We are bound to have the right of travel, of intercourse, of transit free to all the ports of the Atlantic, and to all the ports of the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico, without having custom houses or passports or tax-gatherers or bayonets to impede us "You can all see the results of the influences which have been operating within the last few weeks for the breaking down of the barriers that protect freedom and liberty. Those before me who are natives of the continent of Europe know what the barriers of the passport system are. Every few hours, "stop". Men living on different sides of the please." river, though neighbors or brothers, could not visit each other without permission from their superior. You have a horse on one side of the river worth a hundred dollars, and you want to send it to a neighbor, but you will not be allowed to do it unless you pay another hundred for permission to do it. (Laughter.) And here we are to have custom houses and bayonets guarding every State line, every railroad track, every gorge in the mountains, every bank of a river, demanding the payment of duties on every pound of tea, or coffee, or sugar that crosses the line, and for every article of clothing your people wear, and then for every bushel of wheat and corn, and every pound of pork or beef you sell in payment of these.

"Beginning with Illinois, they are to be faxed on the Indiana line, and again on the Ohio line, and again on the Missouri line, and on the Maryland line, and on the line of every petty or big State you may have to cross .-Just look what Germany was a few years ago, before her free trade was established, and you will find what America will soon be if you do not rally to the flag of your country and alienate these distracted elements, and restore peace and fraternal feeling, and constitutional government on the basis our fathers established

"My friends, I will not detain you. I did not intend, when I came here, to utter a word, but when I found so many of my fellow-citizens coming here—so many from Virginia—so many from a distance to pay, as it were, respects to me, I could not resist the inclination to respond to the call to speak to you; for I have too much patriotism and sense of the circumstances that brought you together to believe for a moment that it is intended as a personal compliment. It is a testimonial of your devotion to the Union of these States, and to the flag of our country. It is a testimonial that you think I have done my duty in my efforts to preserve them. (Cheers.)

"I thank you sincerely and from the bottom of my heart, for this kind reception, I trust I may again meet you here on the bank of this river, from both sides, as brethren and countrymen, as long as God's providence allows me to pass from the prairies of Illinois to the Capital of the country." Mr. Douglas concluded and retired amid vociferous and prolonged cheering. After some very inspiring music by the Belair Brass Band, which graced the occasion, Jas. R. Morris, Esq , being loudly called for, came forward, and made the crowd a very excellent and fervent little Union speech. He was followed after an interval by Rev. Wm. Grimes, of Cadiz.

Subsequently, Mr. Douglas came out on the balcony, and said: "Gentlemen, I have been requested by so many different ones to make a statement in response to the inquiries that are propounded to me, that I do so as a matter of justice to an eminept patriot.

"I have been asked whether there is any truth in the rumor that Gen. Scott was about to retire from the American army. It is almost profaulty to ask that question. ('Good, good,' and three cheers for Gen. Scott.) I saw him only last Saturday. He was at his desk, pen in hand, writing his orders for the defence and safety of the American Capital. (Cheers.)-Walking down the street I met a distinguished gentleman, a member of the Virginia Conven tion, whom I know personally, and had a few minutes' conversation with him. He told me he had just had an interview with Lieut. Gen. Scott; that he was chairman of the committee appointed by the Virginia Convention to wait upon Gen. Scott, and tender him the command of the forces of Virginia in this struggle.

"Gen. Scott received him kindly, listened to him patiently, and said to him: 'I have served my country under the flag of the Union, for more than fifty years, and as long as God permits me to live, I will defend that flag with my sword; even if my own native State assails it." (Tremendous applause, and three more cheers for Gen. Scott.) I do not pretend that I am precisely accurate in the language used, but I know I am in the idea, and I have given the language as nearly as I could repeat it. I have felt it due to him and to the country, to make this statement, in view of the reports that have been circulated and the repeated inquiries made of me since my arrival here to-day." Mr. Douglas retired amid applause, followed by three cheers for the Union. He took the 5 o'clock train vesterday eve ning, for Columbus on his way to Illinois.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WE have been shown a document signed by the Mayors in office of the cities of the United States and Canada, certifying to the superior excellence of Dr. Ayer's Com nound Extract of Sarsanarilla and to the value of all his remedies as articles of great public utility. Such evidence from such high sources bears us out triumphantly in the position we have long maintained with regard to Doctor Ayer's preparations, or more particularly our advertisements of them. No publishers need be more opposed than we are to the promulgation of quackery in any shape, but we knew when we began, that his remedies were above any suspicion of deception_that they were about the best it is possible to produce for the cure of disease, and that they have the confidence of all communities where they are known. Not alone because the Mayors of the whole country believe them useful to their people, but because we know from experience that they are so to ours, do we believe we are rendering a substantial service to our readers in making their virtues known to them .- Courier, Princeton, Ky. ap25-d&wlm

OF THE LORD'S PRAYER FOR SALE!

VALUABLE PROPERTY GIVEN AWAY!

The idea of representing the LORD'S PRAYER by an engraving, and of ornamenting and arranging it in such a manner as to produce at once a model of neatness and taste, was conceived and carried out by ORMSBY, the celebrated Bank-note Engraver of New York city. It commences with exquisitely executed words of "OUR FATHER." and then follow in succession the other parts commences with exquisitely executed words of "OUR FATHER," and then follow in succession the other parts of the Prayer, every phrase of which is engraved in the most elegant and tasteful manner. The engraving has received the most unqualified praise from the religious community, as there is nothing of a sectarian character about it, having been recommended by clergymen of all denominations. The size of the plate is 20x28 inches, and is unquestionably the cheapest engraving ever offered in this country.
