HOOGLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
NO. 631 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

Is the very best Tonic and Nervine extant, and will relieve where all other remedies fail. This is not a mere assertion, but has been proved over and over again by the thousands of persons who have used it. The medicinal virtues appended will show. So well are the virtues of the Bitters known, that it is freely prescribed by the leading physicians of Philadelphia and its vicinity. It is entirely vegetable, and free from alcohol, opium, and all injurious ingredients. Persons advanced in life, and feeling the hand of old age weighing heavily upon them, will find these Bitters an elixir that will restore, in a measure, the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shattered frames, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

Weak and delicate children are made strong by using the Bitters. In fact, it is a family medicine, and may be profitably administered to a child of three months, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

Shake the bottle before using.
Bottle 50 cents per bottle. For sale by druggists and stockholders generally throughout the country.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religion and Theology.
To Dr. C. M. Jackson.—Although I regard with favor or recommendation Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients, and effects, I yet entertain sufficient reason to believe that you will not be benefited by believing himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more especially in regard to "HooGLAND'S German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because it was advertised for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcohol, and that I am indebted to your friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., the receipt of this preparation by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by entire relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of receiving. It was followed by entire relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of receiving. It was followed by entire relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of receiving.
