THE DAILY PATRIOT AND Union may be had at Jack's Book Store, corner of Third and Market ALSO, at he News Agency of George L. Walter, in Market street, near fifth.

St. PATRICE'S DAY .- This being St. Patrick's day, it will be appropriately observed by the sons of Ireland in various cities. We have heard of no city, but presume the occasion will not be permitted to pass by entirely unhonored.

COL. CHARLES T. CAMPBELL.—This gallant officer is now in the city stopping at the Brady House. He is still suffering from the effects of wounds and a recent surgical operation, and some time must elapse before he will be in condition to resume active duty in the field.

CLUB MEETING .- A joint meeting of the Third and Fourth Ward Democratic clubs will be held at Umberger's hotel, in Walnut street this evening at 71 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. Several able speakers will address the meeting. The Democracy of the city generally are cordially invited to unite with us on the occasion.

> GEO. J. SHORMAKER. President Third Ward Club. H. F. M'REYNOLDS, President Fourth Ward Club.

FIRST AND SECOND WARDS .- The Democratic club of the First ward will hold a special meeting on Wednesday evening, March 18th, at 71 o'clock, at Mr. Brenneman's Black Horse hotel, in Paxton street. The Democratic club of the Second ward has kindly agreed to meet with us, and the Democracy of the whole city is respectfully invited to attend also. Gen. Miller, our representative in Congress, and other popular speakers will address this meeting. By order of the club.

GEO. F. WEAVER, JR., Sec y.

LOYAL LEAGUE CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR .- The "Loyal League" conference, composed almost exclusively of Abolitienists, and mainly representing that party, after many unsuccessful efforts yesterday to get a candidate for Mayor, finally obtained one in the person of Mr. John Till, who, after much persuasion, consented to take the nomination. Mr. Till is a very clever man, but having got into bad company he must put up with the consequences. In the overwhelming defeat that awaits him we shall have another illustration of that kind of

"Vaulting ambition which o'erleaps itself And falls on the other side."

More Negro Soldiers .- Another squad of negro soldiers, recruited in the western section of the State for a Massachusetts regiment, passed through this city vesterday en route for Boston. The sable sons of Mars were in full uniform and looked quite ferocious. The recruiting of negroes is progressing vigorously in various parts of the country, and from present indications one full regiment will soon be mustered into service and sent to the field among white soldiers. The zealous and ambitious Tom Chester, of this city, is working hard to get up a company, with the view of being commissioned as captain, and no doubt he will succeed.

ARRESTED AT LAST .- In December last an Irishman named Michael O'Brien, livingen short distance above Dauphin, stole carpenter tools to the amount of six dollars from the shop of Mr. Thomas Youts. When the latter threatened to prosecute unless the property was restored, O'Brien swore that he would burn down Youts' shop and split his head open with an ax. A warrant for the belligerent Irishman was subsequently issued, and repeated unsuccessful attempts were made by police officers of this city to capture him. Yesterday he made bold to visit Harrisburg, and while staggering drunk about the streets was nabbed by special officer Charles Davis and taken before the Mayor who committed him for trial.

LEFT FOR CONFERENCE .-- The Methodist ministers of this city have left for West Chester to attend the Philadelphia Conference, which meets in that place to-morrow. This is one of the highest tribunals of the church, and embodies all its ecclesiastic talent and dignitaries. This Conference represents part of Maryland, the State of Delaware, Philadelphia city and the South-eastern portion of Pennsylvania, including Dauphin county. It is composed of preachers, deacons and elders. The business consists of the admission and ordination of preachers; examination of the character and conduct of its members; a review of missionary and educational interests, and the appointment of ministers and elders to the several stations for the ensuing year.

DEMOCRATIC CITY NOMINATIONS .- A meeting o the Democratic Executive Comittee was held at Wagner's hotel last evening, Vice President W .-F. Osler in the chair. The returns from the various wards were received and acted upon, and the following gentlemen declared to be the Democratic nominees at large:

Mayor-A. L. Roumfort.

City Auditor-James M. Bay. School Directors, South District-Weidman Forster, Jacob Houser. School Directors, North District-John Edwards, H. F. M'Reynolds.

After the announcement of the nominations, a general call was made for General Roumfort, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, who responded in a brief, dignifed and patriotic address, which was received with demonstrations of genuine enthusiasm. The committee then adjourned, to re-assemble at the call of the President. DEHOCRATS DISCHARGED .- We learn that early last week one of the Abolition workmen at the State Arsenal was required, by an official connected with the Adjutant General's office, to furnish a list of names of all Democrats employed in and about the Arsenal. The order was promptly complied with, and some twenty or more Democrats, as we are informed, received notice that their services would not be required after last Saturday. All of these men, some of them heads of families. are thus thrown out of employment at an inclement season, simply because they belong to the Democratic party and will not sacrifice their manhood and political principles by tamely and basely submitting to the dictatorial mandates of the Abolition tyrants who hold high carnival on Capitol hill, and denounce every man as a "traitor" who refuses to swear by the negro and endorse the nn. constitutional and treasonable measures of the charcoal dynasty at Washington. If proscription of all Democrats is to be the game of the Abolitionists, as the late wholesale decapitation at the Arsenal would seem to indicate, it is to be hoped that when the Democrats come into power they will play the same game and make a clean sweep in every department.

THE CITY ELECTION.—While perambulating the city yesterday on reportorial duty we had ap opportunity of hearing a very general expression of sentiment with regard to the Democratic nominees for city and ward efficers. Of course the many warm personal friends of Mayor Kepner, who preferred and worked for his nomination, regret his defeat; but the great mass of them gracefully yield to the will of the majority, and sacrificing all personal considerations upon the altar of principle, will give General Roumfort their hearty and zealous support. Regarding him as an honorable and upright man eminently fitted for the position, and a sound and reliable constitutional Democrat, all staunch and true members of the party will go into the contest and labor earnestly and diligently for his success, and the election of the whole ticket. The howl raised by a few renegade Democrats who are now in secret league with the Abolitionists amounts to nothing. The unanimity of sentiment and determination of purpose manifested by the Democratic masses warrant us in predicting a preparations for any public demonstration in this | brilliant triumph on Friday next over the spoils cehorts of Abolitionism, no matter who may be their candidate for Mayor. Marshaled under the broad banner of "the Constitution and the Union," the invincible Democratic battalions will march up in solid column to the ballot box, poll a united vote for the whole Democratic ticket, and elect it by an overwhelming majority.

> An Abolition Harangue.-The people of this city were invited to visit the Locust street Methodist church last Sabbath evening to hear the "farewell sermon" of Rev. Franklin Moore. In response to the invitation a large and intelligent audience assembled, but the sermon did not prove to be exactly the kind of entertainment they had reason to expect. The Reverend gentleman took advantage of the occasion and the audience to deliver a violent Abolition harangue, disgusting most and insulting many of his hearers, some of whom left the house. For months past Rev. Frank Moore has converted his pulpit into a political rostrum for the fulmination of Abolition heresies, and unqualified denunciation of all who did not fully square up to his standard of loyalty; but his "farewell sermon" capped the climax of fanaticism, and those who had little faith in him as a sensible and consistent christian preacher before, have none at all now. His course while in this city was damaging to the cause of religion, and his absence will be a relief to many members of the Locust street congregation. If the people of any charge within the bounds of the Philadelphia conference desire the services of a windy political Abolition preacher, of the Wendell Phillips stripe, we recommend them to make special application for Rev. Frank Moore, who is just the man for such a locality.

COLD BED. -- On Sunday night during the prevalence of the snow storm, an inebriated soldier was found lying on the pavement in Walnut street below Fourth, in a perfectly stupid condition from the combined effects of whisky and frost. A "good Samaritan," on his way home from church, kindly raised the poor unfortunate, and, with the assistance of two other gentlemen who promptly responded to his call, convoyed him to a neighboring tavern where he was taken in and cared for. A few hours longer exposure and he would have "slept the sleep that knows no waking," and been consigned to an obscure and unhonored grave in the pauper cemetery. The man presented a genteel appearance, but had only a few dollars of money in his possession-the last of his hardearned wages in the service of his country.

JUVENILE THIEVES .- For some time past suspicion has attached to several juvenile "knucks" in this city in connection with robberies committed in various localities. The police officers are now on their track with a fair prospect of spotting and capturing the whole party. The leader of the gang is a notoriously bad boy whose vicious propensities, unless soon effectually checked, will eventually bring him to the penitentiary. The system of petty robberies to which we allude has been carried on successfully through a period of several consecutive months.

Some of the drafted men in Detroit had to be taken to camp in chains .- Exchange paper. The marching of drafted men along the public streets, hobbled and hand-cuffed, is a degrading spectacle that may be witnessed almost daily in this city, and the clanking of their chains is music to the Abolitionists, who would rather see them upon the hands and feet of white men than upon negroes. The practice is a cruel and barbarous one and should be discontinued.

Colling.-Yesterday afternoon two sleighs, drawn by fast nags, collided at the corner of Third and Pine streets, upsetting one of the vehicles and spilling out its occupants, neither of whom were very seriously injured. The horse attempted to run away with the empty sleigh, but did not proceed far until his career was checked. Turning corners "on a swell" sometimes proves a daugerous experiment, as it came near doing in this instance.

PENNSYLVANIA NEWS.

MONTOUR COUNTY .-- A meeting of the Democracy was held in this county a few evenings ago. Speeches were made and resolutions passed condemning the frauds, abuses and other acts of despotism and misgovernment which seem to hold high carnival at Washington. The resolutions, which have the ring of the true metal, were passed by acclamation.

WAYNE COUNTY .- One day recently a lad named George Bunnell, residing near Honesdale, while at work drawing lumber from the river was instantly killed by a log rolling upon him.

Found in the River .- The Sunbury American says a newly born female child, with a cord around its neck, was found in the river about a mile above Georgetown, Northumberland county. The supposition is that the child had been strangled and then thrown into the river.

CONVICTED.-In the United States district court at Philadelphia, the trial of Hiram D. Van Vleit, indicted for fraudulently procuring from the post office at Easton, Pa., a letter from which he embezzled the valuable contents, was concluded ; few days since by the conviction of the prisoner. He has not yet been sentenced.

PENNSYLVANIA CANAL .- The Pennsylvania canal is undergoing repairs. Quite a string of workmen are engaged in digging out the bottom and filling up the towing path. An immense trade will be carried on on this canal the coming sea-

WYOMING CONFERENCE.—The Wyoming Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold its twelfth session at Susquehanna, in this State, commencing on Wednesday the 8th of April. Bishop Janes, of New York, is to preside. About one hundred and fifty ministers are expected to be in attendance.

Interesting Legal Opinion:—At a recent term of the court of Montgomery county, in the case of Breitenbaugh vs. Bush, Judge Chapman decided that the law staying civil process against soldiers was unconstitutional. The case was carried to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and on Thursday las:, at Philadelphia, an opinion was given reversing the decision of the court of Montgomery county, thereby affirming the constitutionality the law. The stay law was enacted on the 18th day of April, 1861.

A PENRSYLVANIAN SHOT .- The Indiana Messen ger gives an account of the tragic end of a young man named Loughy, formerly a resident of tha county. "He went to reside in Tennessee a few years ago. When this war broke out he was pressed into the rebel army. After some time, he with much difficulty made his escape to our lines, and wishing to have satisfaction for the injustice done him, enlisted in the Union army. But, unfortunately, he afterwards fell into the hands of the rebels, a prisoner of war. He was recognized by his captors and immediately taken out of camp, blindfolded, and shot."

SELLING OFF! SELLING OFF! THE WHOLE STOCK OF DRY Goods !- Having bought the entire stock of dry goods of J. A. Boger, Esq., we will commence to sell off those goods at Mr. Boger's store, at prieces less than can be bought for again in the city. And as all kinds of dry goods are advancing every day in the city, this will be a good opportunity for those who are in want of any kind of goods. The stock consists in part of 10,000 yards of Calicos. Muslins. Ginghams. 3,500 Cassinetts and Kentucky Jeans.

1,000 500 Cotten pants stuff. Carpets. 1,000 Remnants of all kinds. Black Alpacas.

White Plaid Muslins and Cambrics. 1.000 pairs of Stockings and Half Hose.

1,000 papers of Smith's Needles. 100 Shawls. 100 yards of Black Cloths, all prices. Colored and Black Silk. Crash and Toweling.

And's great many other goods, such as are generally kept in a first class dry goods store, and too numerous to mention. This is a rare opportunity for buyers of dry goods, as the stock must be sold off by the 1st of April. S. LEWY.

Facts About Brandreth's Pills. NEW CASTLE, WESTCHESTER Co., N. Y., Oct. 23, 1852. MR. G. TEN EYOR SHELDON, Editor Sing Sing Republi-

Dear Sir-I would state that I was induced to use BRANDRETH'S FILLS through the recommendation of John R. Swift, of Croton, Westchester County, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was sick for some two years, very costive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything, but was not relieved. Finally, he took one Brandreth's Pill every day for a week, and a dose of six Pills every day for three days, and then took one Pill every day, with occasional doses of six. In one month he was able to go to work, and in three months was well, gaining 40 pounds in weight.

Yours truly, EDWARD PURDY.

WESTCHESTER COURTY, 88. Edward Purdy, being duly sworn, says that he resides in the tewn of New Castle; that some years ago he was very sick with a sore on his leg, which had been run ning for over five years; that he was also much distressed by a pain in his chest, an 1, besides, was very costive and dyspeptic; that after Tying various remedies and many physicians, he commenced using Brandreth's Pllls, six to eight three times a week, and at the end of one month the sore in his leg healed, and at the end of two months he was entirely cured of costiveness, dyspepsia and pain, and has remained well ever since: EDWARD PURDY.
