MISS M. V. WILSON calls the attention of the ladies of Harrisburg and strangers to her fancy store, corner of Second and Walnut, where she continues to keep Dress Trimmings, Zephyrs, and a variety of fancy articles.

TO THE POLLS.—Every true Democrat should go to the city election to-morrow and cast his vote for the whole Democratic ticket.

THE HOSPITAL at Camp Curtin has been re-fitted in good style and is now occupied by a number of invalid soldiers.

NAVIGATION OPENED.—The water has been let into the Schuylkill canal, and the whole line is now open and ready for navigation.

ARREST OF A THIEF.—An "American citizen of African descent" was arrested yesterday by officer Campbell for stealing one dollar from a sable brother in Beecher's avenue. The Mayor committed him for a further hearing.

A DOWNTOWN SPECULATION.—Mr. Till having kept his woolly-horse long enough to secure the nomination of the woolly-heads, sold the woolly-horse on Monday morning and sold himself on Monday evening.

ON DUTY AGAIN.—Mr. Thomas J. Osler, teacher of one of the North ward male schools, who was confined to his room by illness for several weeks, is now convalescent and has resumed the discharge of his professional duties.

"COPPERHEADS" are dangerous to tread upon, as was yesterday realized by a ranting and insulting Abolitionist who tried the experiment, and received a "sting" that left its mark. The "copperheads" will be about in irresistible swarms to-morrow and sting Abolitionism to death.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—All who are opposed to that unjust and infamous feature of the conscription law that drags poor men from their families and forces them into the army, and exempts the rich for money, should go to the polls to-morrow and vote for Roumfort and the whole Democratic ticket.

NORTH WARD SCHOOLS.—The Lancasterian school house, for some months past occupied as a military hospital, is now being evacuated by the soldiers, and will at once be fitted up for the reception of the North ward male schools. Both teachers and scholars will be glad to get back to the old familiar and comfortable quarters from which they have so long been excluded.

BETTING.—The contest for the Mayoralty is becoming quite interesting and exciting. Yesterday we listened to a number of angry discussions, and saw several bets made on the result. These kind of arguments, however, amount to nothing. We advise the woolly heads to save their breath and money, for the election of Gen. Roumfort is a fixed fact, if we can rightly read the signs of the times.

SMALL POX.—This disease still prevails to some extent in our city, notwithstanding the physicians have made no reports for some weeks past. At market yesterday morning we noticed several men and women only partially recovered from the disease, and in a condition to spread the infection. The appearance of such persons on our streets renders them liable to a fine of fifty dollars, and the law ought to be enforced.

POLICE COURT.—Several drunks and vags were before the Mayor yesterday morning. One of the former, hailing from Middletown, got obfuscated and lost his watch. When arrested he made some violent demonstrations against the police officer, who with difficulty succeeded in caging him. He was fined one dollar and discharged. The balance of the party, having no money, were reprimanded and dismissed.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.—The fine weather we are now enjoying was the topic of conversation among a group of gentlemen yesterday afternoon. One of the "oldest inhabitants," who happened to be present, remarked that on the 16th day of March, twenty years ago, a deep snow fall in this region, which did not entirely disappear until some time in April, and that St. Patrick's day of that year was one of the coldest and most stormy of the season.

WHO STOLE THE HAM?—Yesterday afternoon a gentleman purchased a large ham at a Market street grocery, and deposited it on a bench in front of the store while he went in to foot the bill. On his return the ham was missing, having mysteriously disappeared during his brief absence. Parties started out in pursuit of the daring thief but did not succeed in finding him. "Who stole the ham," is a mystery that probably never will be solved.

JOHN TILL and GENERAL ROUMFORD.—While in 1844 John Till was sympathizing with the church burners, Gen. Roumfort, at the head of his troops, was routing the aforesaid church burners in Philadelphia, enforcing public order and protecting the property and lives of his fellow citizens; and we doubt not that, on Friday next, at the head of the indomitable Democracy of Harrisburg, he will rout John Till and his "Loyal" League supporters, and be triumphantly elected to the Mayoralty, in which position he will again protect the lives and property of his fellow citizens against the secret and dark machinations of the enemies of law and Public order.

"STRIKES."

We notice that journeymen mechanics in various branches of business in Lancaster, Reading, West Chester, and various other cities and towns throughout this State, are demanding an increase of wages, owing to the high price of all the necessities of life. A few days ago the journeymen carpenters of Reading made a "strike," on which occasion they paraded the streets headed by a brass band, carrying flags and a large transparency. Similar demonstrations are daily being made elsewhere. The reasons for these movements must be apparent to every one, and need no explanation from us. "Strikes" we condemn; they do no good; in fact they are a positive injury, especially to those who indulge in them. But something should be done to ameliorate the present condition of the working classes. The enhanced prices of all the necessities of life, which render the wages of working men inadequate, are mainly caused by the extensive supply of paper currency, its diminished value having but a feeble purchasing power. So far as this cause operates, it ought, in equity, to advance the rates of wages in just the same proportion as it raises the price of other things. To this extent the laboring classes are, it seems to us, justified in demanding increased remuneration for their services. When a farmer gets a higher price for his beef cattle because each dollar of the paper money in which he is paid is worth only sixty cents in gold, it is fair that the laborer who consumes the beef should have the price of his day's work raised in like proportion. In view of the existing state of affairs, then, the increase of wages so justly and reasonably demanded, should be cheerfully given. This is manifestly the best course to be pursued, and it may save many families from want and suffering.

ANOTHER MISREPRESENTATION.—The nigger organ in an unmanly, cowardly and unprovoked assault upon the two sons of General Roumfort, which every respectable man in the community condemns, announces with a grand flourish designed to make capital for its candidate for Mayor, that Mr. Till "has a son now baring his bosom to the fire of the rebel foe." That young Till is fighting with Rosecrans and has been in many battles. This is a gross misrepresentation, either made willfully or through ignorance. Young Till has been for months, and is at this time, a clerk in the Quartermaster Department at Louisville, receiving a fat salary. He never participated in a battle, and of course did not have an opportunity of "baring his bosom to the fire of the rebel foe." We have nothing to say against young Till, for whom we always entertained the highest respect. He is a son of whom the father has just reason to be proud. We only allude to this matter to show the lying and misrepresentation resorted to by the nigger organ, the editor of which never was known to tell the truth when a lie answered his purpose.

MEETING IN THE FIRST WARD.—The Democracy of the First and Second wards assembled on mass at the Black Horse hotel last evening. Large delegations from the other ward clubs were also in attendance. Able, argumentative and eloquent addresses were delivered by several prominent Democrats, and the entire proceedings were characterized by the same degree of harmony and enthusiasm that have attended all the popular demonstrations of the Democratic party during the progress of the local campaign. Our friends in the two lower wards are ready and eager for the fray, and will do their full share in achieving a Democratic triumph that will rejoice the hearts of all true friends of "the Constitution and the Union" throughout our good old commonwealth.

WOOLLY-HEAD CONSISTENCY.—The woolly-head organ advocated the election of John Till for Mayor on the ground of his being a mechanic, and calls upon poor men to vote for him as the representative of their interests. As an evidence of its consistency we refer to an article in last evening's issue opposing the election of Wm. Morris as Councilman in the Sixth ward, who happens to be a poor man and "no freeholder," and advocates the cause of David Mumma, a lawyer and one of the wealthiest men in the ward. Out upon such hypocrisy and inconsistency! The assertion, however, that Mr. Morris is "not a freeholder," is untrue, and the woolly-head organ in making it adds falsehood to hypocrisy.

ONE MORE RALLY.—A joint meeting of the Fifth and Sixth ward Democratic clubs will be held at the house of Henry Boston, on Ridge avenue, this evening. Our candidate for Mayor and several other eloquent speakers will be present and address the meeting. This being the last demonstration prior to the election, all Democrats in the city should make it a point to attend. Let the friends of "the Constitution and the Union" assemble in the majesty of their strength, compare notes, and perfect their arrangements for a grand rally at the ballot box to-morrow.

THE UNION LEAGUE, which, like its master, aims to usurp the franchise of the people, has without any of the formalities of elections or ward representations, disregarded the just claims of some well-known and respectable Republicans as Messrs. Bishop, Fleming and Bealer, and nominated a renegade Anti-Mason, Native American, Know Nothing Democrat for the Mayoralty of this city. This supposed political availability will avail them nothing but an ignominious defeat, and the burning shame of having deserted their own friends for the advantage of a political shyster.

"HONEST JOHN TILL."—Last spring John Till was elected and instructed by the Democrats of the Fourth ward to support John T. Wilson for City Treasurer in the City Conference. This honorable and conscientious conferee, when he got into the Conference, very coolly became a candidate himself, and attempted to defeat Mr. Wilson, whom every consideration of honor and propriety should have induced him to support with all his energies. So much for honest John Till.

LARGE HAUL.—Yesterday afternoon officer Fleck arrested two men and two women who exhibited themselves on Market street in a drunken condition, and escorted the whole party to the lock-up. The women were excessively intoxicated and their conduct was rude and boisterous in the extreme. There can be no more disgusting spectacle than a drunken woman reeling along the streets, and yet such sights are not unfamiliar to our citizens.

ARREST AND DISCHARGE.—Yesterday afternoon a young woman was arrested on a charge of stealing a silk dress from the house of Mrs. Caruthers, in State street. Subsequently the missing dress was found, and the girl confessed that she had concealed it. Satisfied with the recovery of the property, Mrs. Caruthers withdrew her complaint and the girl was discharged.

ANOTHER NEGRO REGIMENT.—Efforts are being made for the organization of a negro regiment in Philadelphia. If the movement meets with no more success than that attempted in Pittsburg for a similar purpose, a long time must elapse before the regiment will be ready to take the field. There may be officers enough ready to go in, but the difficulty will be to get men to fill the ranks.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—A man of drunken habits named Barnhart was killed on the railroad near Reading the other night. He was so horribly mangled that it was almost impossible to recognize him.

FACTS ABOUT BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

New Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y., Oct. 23, 1852.

MR. T. THE YORK SHILOH, Editor Sing Sing Republican. Sir—It would state that I was induced to use BRANDRETH'S PILLS through the recommendation of John R. Swift, of Oton, Westchester County, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was sick for some two years, very costive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything, but was not relieved
