THE Weekly "Patriot & Union," THE CHEAPEST PAPER PUBLISHED IN PENNSYLVANIA!

AND THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER PUBLISHED AT THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT! FORTY-FOUR COLUMNS OF READING MATTER EACH WEEK! AT THE LOW PRICE OF ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS!

WHEN SUBSCRIBED FOR IN CLUBS OF NOT LESS THAN TEN COPIES TO ONE ADDRESS!

We have been compelled to raise the club subscription price to one dollar and fifty cents in order to save ourselves from actual loss. But in this, including taxes, about twenty-five per cent, and is still rising; and when we tell our Democratic friends, candidly, that we can no longer afford to sell the Weekly Patriot and Union at one dollar a year, and must add fifty cents or stop the publication, we trust they will appreciate our position, and, instead of withdrawing their subscriptions, go to work with a will to increase our list in every county in the State.

THE PERIOD FOR WHICH MANY OF OUR SUBSCRIBERS HAVE PAID FOR THEIR PAPER BEING ON THE EVE OF EXPIRING, we take the liberty of issuing this notice, reminding them of the same, in order that they may RENEW THEIR CLUBS.

WE SHALL ALSO TAKE IT AS AN SPECIAL FAVOR IF OUR PRESENT SUBSCRIBERS WILL URGE UPON THEIR NEIGHBORS THE FACT THAT THE PATRIOT AND UNION IS THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER PRINTED IN HARRISBURG, and considering the large amount of reading matter, embracing all the current news of the day, and

TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES From everywhere up to the moment the paper goes to press, political, miscellaneous, general and local news market reports, is decidedly the CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN THE STATE!

There is scarcely a village or town in the State in which a club cannot be raised if the proper exertion be made, and surely there are few places in which one of the dismission of sound Democratic doctrines, who would be willing to make the effort to raise a club.

DEMOCRATS OF THE INTERIOR! Let us hear from you. The existing war, and the approaching sessions of Congress, and the State Legislature, are invested with unusual interest, and every man should have the means.

TERMS. DAILY PATRIOT AND UNION. Single copy for one year, in advance, $5.00. Single copy during the session of the Legislature, 2.00. City subscribers ten cents per week. Copies supplied to agents at the rate of $1.50 per hundred.

WEEKLY PATRIOT AND UNION, Published every Thursday. Single copy one year, in advance, $5.00. Ten copies to one address, $45.00. Subscriptions may commence at any time. PAY ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. We are obliged to make this imperative. In every instance cash must accompany subscription. Any person sending us a club of twenty subscribers to the Weekly will be entitled to a copy for his services. The price, even at the advanced rate is so low that we cannot offer greater inducements than this. Additions may be made at any time to a club of subscribers by remitting one dollar and fifty cents for each additional name. It is not necessary to send the names of those constituting a club, as we cannot undertake to address each paper to club members separately. Specimen copies of the Weekly will be sent to all who desire it.

N. B.—The following law, passed by Congress in 1859, defines the duty of Postmasters in relation to the delivery of newspapers to club subscribers: (See Little, Brown & Co.'s edition of the Laws of 1860, page 38, chapter 181, section 1.)

Whenever a newspaper or periodical is received at any post office directed to one address, and the names of the club subscribers to whom they belong, with the postage for a quarter in advance, shall be handed to the postmaster, he shall deliver the same to their respective owners.

To enable the Postmaster to comply with this regulation, it will be necessary that he be furnished with the list of names composing the club, and paid a quarter of the postage in advance. The names of the club subscribers will be cheerfully communicated, club subscribers, and the latter should take care that the postage, which is but a trifle in each case, be paid in advance. The Patriot & Union. MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 23, 1863. NEW JERSEY RESOLUTIONS.

As part of the history of the times we publish the resolutions of the New Jersey Legislature, as they passed the House of Assembly on Tuesday evening last, by a vote of 88 to 13. We preface them with extracts from the speech of Mr. Vanatta, of Morris, to show the light in which they were viewed by the Democratic majority.

Mr. Vanatta, of Morris, (Dem.), closed the debate on the resolutions in a speech of considerable power. He hoped to have his position clearly understood, and to be able to demonstrate that the position of the Democratic party of the State of New Jersey had not changed from the days of Jefferson to the present hour. The first great object with every patriot and with me, he said, is to preserve intact the government under which we live. In the words of the oath of allegiance, administered even to the alien when he seeks to become a citizen, I am sincerely attached to the Constitution of the United States, I am attached to it because it protects the rights of the individual man, because it protects the liberties of the nation, and because it tends to advance the civilization of mankind. It is the product of the centuries, and if destroyed it will take many more centuries before human rights had such another sanctuary as they have had here. With that laid down as the cardinal idea of my position, it will be understood why I am long suffering with the evils of the war and with a disagreeable and incapable administration.

However long we have to bear with these evils, the time is nothing compared to the lifetime of the nation. In view of the future I am prepared to suffer the most to be approved of man, if in the end the government under which we live can be conserved. The price of liberty is eternal vigilance. The truth is an old one, but a greater was never uttered. We are assailed to-day on the one hand by reckless and irresponsible agents selected to administer the government, by whom the reserved rights of the States and people are endangered, and on the other hand by the rebellion. I will leave the rebels, for the present, in the care of the 30,000 Jersey men who have gone South to deal with them, and I will speak of the civil power nearer home. We must watch them closely.

We must see that our liberties as a people are not from us as perfect as we received them. Democrats are called disloyal, unfaithful to the government, and in sympathy with traitors.—Where do you find it? In the party? I do not speak of individuals. Looking to public and official acts, and viewing the party by those tests, I defy any one to find the first scintilla of disloyalty, or any evidence of backward patriotism.

When this war commenced the nation relied on the wisdom of the President, the courage of Faith was pledged between the President and the people who sustained the war. We have a right to require the observance of that faith, for we have performed our share of the covenant. It has been said we wish to obstruct the prosecution of the war. On the contrary, our complaint is that by mismanagement of the government cripples itself. There were two suggestions made by the President, and the government has tried the physical. There was a loyal feeling through the South which preponderated in several States. I believe there was a majority in all favor of the Union. But they would not let the government mean by every possible means to strip them of their property, to disorganize their system of society and labor.—Means should have been taken to disabuse their minds of this idea. With a united North and a large party in the South we could have crushed this insurrection in the bud. The policy of the President at first was to divide sentiment at the South; yet in a few months it enabled the leaders of the rebellion to go to the people and show that all their worst predictions were in the process of fulfillment. Have we not reason to complain that he should so foolishly, so recklessly throw away all moral force? The resolutions simply demand that the President shall return to the policy of his inaugural. Is that unpatriotic? The idea has been thrown out that the government had no power under the Constitution to defend itself against attack; that this was said down in the debates on the foundation of the Constitution. I apprehend the meaning of the framers of that instrument was that coercion should not be used where the law was not forcibly opposed. The Constitution expressly empowers the government to defend itself against insurrection. We must not be told that the Union is maintained by the Constitution has been united in any degree by infidelity, bigotry, sectionalism, or partisanship, she now, in view of the faith originally pledged, of the disasters and disgrace that have marked the steps of a changed and changing policy, and of the imminent danger that threatens our national existence, urges upon the President and Congress a return and adherence to the original policy of the administration as the only means, under the blessing of God, by which the warring States can be reunited in action, the Union restored and the nation saved.

I am not one who believes this rebellion cannot be suppressed, but no effort to that end will be successful without entire unity of the people of the North. The government was not strong enough without that, and it is not now unless it depends on the rights of the people of the North. The proclamation divides the people of the North; hence its folly. Moreover it does not effect its object. It forces the negro into the army only where the army goes, and that would have happened without the proclamation. When the States are brought back the status of the negro will be whatever the governments of those States choose to make it. The proclamation is a cruel mockery of and an outrage upon the negro. It is a piece of inhumanity no government ought to be guilty of. The other side of the house professes to see a quarreling toward the field for its suppression he appointed three commissioners to see if he could induce the gentlemen from Bergen, too, says that he sees it take occasion to say that if this resolution could be tortured into anything like a tendency to offer the support of New Jersey to Jefferson Davis it never can receive my support. But that is not its intention. Nothing was further from the minds of those who drafted or sustain it. We have never had an insurrection, great or small, where we did not have commissioners. We had them in the whisky rebellion. After Washington had brought a military force into the field for its suppression he appointed three commissioners to see if he could induce the gentlemen from Bergen, too, says that he sees it take occasion to say that if this resolution could be tortured into anything like a tendency to offer the support of New Jersey to Jefferson Davis it never can receive my support.
