THE NATIONAL |LATFORM!

PURPOSES OF THE WAR CONGRESS, BY A VOTE NEARLY UNANI-

MOUS, PASSED THE FOLLOWING RESOLU-TION, WHICH EXPRESSES THE VOICE OF THE NATION AND IS THE TRUE STANDARD OF LOYALTY :

"That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States, now in arms against the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital; that in this National emergency, Congress, banishing all feeling of more passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States, but to defend and maintain. the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

The Age.

We have received the first number of the Age, Philadelphia, by A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & Co. It fulfills its promise of usefulness, and will be an acceptable adjunct in the Democratic ranks.

The Adjournment of the Legislature.

We understand an effort is being made to bring about an adjournment of the Legislature until May. For this action we have heard no good reasons urged; and we are utterly at a loss to conceive any sufficient for a measure se extraordinary and seemingly uncalled for. The suspicion of motives entirely personal has been imputed to certain movers of the temporary adjournment. There may be private reasons some political chicanery or other which is at the bettom of the project-but what public ends can be served by an extra session it seems impossible to tell.

The Legislature has had time enough-and necessary business of the session ; it has de- | no Loyal League to inspire him with devotion States, all concur in protesting against the Abof civil laws and rights which the loyal States have suffered from his administration. .Let not the silence of Pennsylvania be misconstrued. Let her voice be heard joining ber sister States in the grand chorus of constitutional liberty and for the Union.

Unoon Leagues.

The very fact that all of a sudden Republican journals maifest such enthusiasm for these organizations inspires us with distrust of them. They have had-unless we are vastly mistaken-their origin in the result of late political elections. We, for one, shall never admit that because the Democracy is re-asserting its ancient power, there is just now any particular necessity for new organizations to sustain this Union. There are hundreds of honest men and patriots, no doubt, who connect themselves with these societies. They would be honest men and patriots outside of them. There is no earthly necessity for such Leagues." They can in no way add vigor to the Government. They have no control over the public sword or purse. The President and his Secretary are clothed with the full and limitless management of the entire physical and financial means of the country. These Leagues may turn out a fresh swarm of wordy orators to deluge the country with verbal patriotism, taking good care the while to keep out of all danger themselves, but we have yet to learn what else they will effect. True, a miserable partisan sheet of this city, which has been preaching mob law, and connecting the Democracy of this city with murderers and hieves, has suggested that these Leagues would be useful in disseminating such disgraceful journals as itself, but we don't see yet the good the Union cause would derive from that, nor indeed, for that matter, the negro cause either. This movement is a piece of mock patriotism, gotten up by designing men for political purposes. The majority who go into it from the very best metives will some day discover that they have been entrapped. Let us say to the Democracy, you have no use for such suspicious organizations-your principles are already just, patriotic and national-you are ready to demonstrate through your party, and in your personal relations, your devotion to the country and its laws; but you are not disposed to fall into bad company because they wear good clothes-you are not going into any organization which such men as Horace Greeley commend, no matter how alluring the devices it holds out, or how beautiful the banner it marches under-you are not of those whom Pitt in his reply to Walpole described as "ignorant in spite of experience"-you have learned enough to be profoundly convinced that no organization can subserve the cause of this Union into which Abolitionists intrude themselves, and of which they become the leading managers.

If the people are anxious to go into a Union League under the idea that they can aid the nation in this critical period, let them go into the Democracy, and they will breathe the truest spirit of love for the nation and its laws. We have heard it said that "a man who is a real true Mason needs no other religion"-so we say the people should know it-to transact all the | that a man who is a genuine Democrat needs layed and put off matters of vital public and to his country. He has it in his heart. He commanding the Department of New Mexico. The hills around. Consternation seized the olition policy of Lincoln and the subversion has returned to Santa Fe from a successful incursion into Southwestern Texas. These loyal Indians succeeded in destroying a vast amount of rebel property and capturing a large number of horses, &c. A number of Texan rebels were killed in a series of skirmishes.

Nothing new has occurred in front of Charleston, nor is any attack expected there until the period of high tides arrives, with the equinoctial season, which is evidently just setting in.

The Paris correspondent of the London News, writing on the 6th of March, says : "The news of the issue of letters of marque by Mr. Lincoln has caused a great impression here.-It is also noticed as significant that the Moniteur has copied an article from an English paper advocating the prompt recognition of the South."

There is great scarcity of food experienced throughout the South, in consequence of the military monopoly of all the railroads. It is rumored that General Rosencrans has made a great movement to check the advance of Gen. Longstreet in Kentucky. The rebels at Chattanooga are of the opinion that the former has retreated. Gen. Joseph Johnson, Commander-in-Chief of the rebel army in the Southwest, has permanently located his headquarters at Tullahoma, Alabama.

The news from Gen. Grant's army about Vicksburg is important. It is reported that our forces have got into the rear of the batteries at Haines's Bluff, and that we have successfully flanked the rebel position at Vicksburg. If this be true, and there is little doubt of it, the latter stronghold will probably be evacuated. The Mississippi river will be opened to legitimate navigation in a short time now, unless some extraordinary disaster should occur to the armies of Gens. Banks and Grant. In the United States Circuit Court at Trenton, on Tuesday, a nolle prosequi was entered in the case of Jackalow, the Chinaman, and he was directed to be discharged. The doubts about the jurisdiction of the court, and inability to obtain witnesses, was the cause of this action. It has been three years since Jackalow was first tried.

Gov. Curtin left Washington on Tuesday for the purpose of visiting the Army of the Potomac on business connected with the Pennsylvania troops.

Surgeon General Hammond has issued an order for the transfer, to the general hospital nearest to their homes, of all sick and wounded soldiers who have been sick for three months and upwards, and who are in a fit state to bear such transportation. These transfers to be made in detachments of about fifty, under the charge of proper officers, and with due attention to the welfare of the sick thus transferred. From Missouri, we learn that one of our scouting parties has had a sharp skirmish with a portion of Quantrill's guerillas, in which we suffered a small loss.

Our pickets, near the Occoquan, were attacked on Saturday night by a body of guerillas, numbering about one hundred. The pickets made a very resolute stand, and, though only twenty four in number, sustained the attack of the whole rebel force. PENN'A LEGISLATURE.

SENATE. WEDNESDAY, March 25, 1863. The Senate was called to order at 101 o'clock by the SPEAKER.

Mr. SERRILL presented the remonstrance of the Female Anti-Slavery Society against the passage of a law to prevent the immigration of colored persons, or any other class of unoffendng people, into this State. Mr. GLATZ, the petition of 282 citizens of York county in favor of the exclusion of negroes. The Committee on Banks reported bills to recharter the following banks for the period of five years from the expiration of their respective charters : Exchange Bank of Pittsburg, Farmers' Bank of Schuylkill County, Bank of Montgomery County, York County Bank and Lebanon Bank.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. SMITH, a bill relative to the jurisdiction of justices of the peace of Montgomery county. Mr. CONNELL, a bill in relation to the survey of certain streets in the Twenty-fourth ward of Philadelphia. Mr. STARK, a bill increasing the legal rate of interest to 7 per cent. BILLS CONSIDERED.

The Senate refused to discharge the committee and consider the bill to incorporate the Pennsylvania Air Line railroad company— 2008 9. nave 16. Mr. ROBINSON called up House bill 170, to repeal so much of the act of 1810 as relates to filing interrogatories on rules to take depositions before justices of the peace. Passed finally. Messrs. BOUGHTER and STUTZMAN noved to reconsider the vote negativing the bill to suspend, in the counties of Potter, Tioga, Lycoming, M'Kean and Warren, the penalties imposed by the act of 1817 for passing small notes. The consideration of the motion was postponed.

The Senate insisted upon its amendments to the bill relative to constables' fees on tavern licenses in the city of Philadelphia, and appointed a committee of conference,

On motion of Mr. KINSEY, the bill to extend the charter of the Farmers' Bank of Bucks County for five years from the expiration of its charter was taken up.

A motion was made to strike out five years and insert seven years. Not agreed to-yeas 3. nova 18.

The bill then passed finally-yeas 23, nays 7. Mr. LAMBERTON, on leave given, introof the county of Clarion, which was considered and, after discussion, referred to the Finance Committee.

porate the Inland telegraph company, which passed finally. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

CESSNA at 101 A. M.

BILLS REPORTED.

On leave being obtained, Mr. THOMPSON read in place an act to exempt from taxation Mr. COCHRAN, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported as committed an act relaive to the American Protestant or sent of her husband may dispose of her separate estate as a feme sole. This decision settled the construction of the law, and in many instances disposals were made and mortgages created by married women owning such separate estate, the husband joining therei .

On the 15th of February, 1868, the Supreme Court, in an elaborate opinion, overruled Hained, by. Ellis, and decided that where an estate was in any way acquired, by a married woman for her separate use, whether through or without the intervention of a trus tee, the married woman and her husband could not convey or mortgage such estate, unless anexpress power was given to do so in the instrument creating the estate. During the nine years that Haines & Ellis were recognized as the law of the State, many conveyances and mortgages were taken by bona fide purchase and mortgage to a great amount, probably half a million of dollars.

The bill in question proposes to legalize the conveyance and incumbrance made under the decision of Haines & Ellis.

DROVERS AND DROVE YARDS.

An act allowing drovers to feed and bed their own stock, while the same is awaiting, transportation at the drove yards in Pittsburg, was considered. If was alleged that at those yards in Pittsburg drovers have been charged as high as $1.25 per bushel for corn, when it was selling elsewhere for 60c.; and $25 per ton for hay, when the usual price was $15. The bill was passed.

NEGROES AND MULATTORS.

Mr. REX moved to consider, an act to prevent the immigration of negroes and mulattoes into this State, which was agreed to by a vote of 42 aves to 40 nave.

The act is as follows: Be it enacted, Sc., That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any negro or mulatto to come into this State from any other State or Territory with the intention of making it his temporary or permanent place of residence; and any negro or mulatto se offending shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, and be immediately removed beyond the State. The section was agreed to.

The second section, imposing a penalty on bringing negroes into the State, was passed. Adjourned.

"NOT THE LORD BUT BURGOYNE!"-The Rev. James Gallagher used to tell the following anecdote with great zest:

During the Revolutionary war reports were circulated, as they are now, either wholly false or greatly exaggerated. In passing from one to another something was sure to be added, until the story would hardly be known to the author of it. The people in cretain sections of New York were in great consternation from a report that General Burgoyne was marching down from the lakes with an immesne army bringing utter desolation to the inhabitants. An old lady heard the report and understood it duced a bill to readjust the assessed valuation | that Burgoyne was to open the lakes and let the water out, and drown the whole region. Full of the terrible vision, she ran to a neighbor's to tell her the latest news about the war: "Do you know that we are going to be drowned? Burgoyne is going to let the water out of the lakes and make a great flood, and we shall all be drowned! Oh, what shall we do ?"

Her neighbor, with more intelligence and more piety, did not seem to be greatly disturbed, but calmly replied :

"That, certainly, must be a mistake. It cannot be true, for God has promised in his Word that he will no more destroy the inhaditants of the earth with a flood.' "Ah, honey! I know that; but it is not the Lord who is going to do it: it is Burgoyne!"

national concern ; it is now, at the instance certain aspirants for office-perhaps of certain individuals having "axes to grind"-upon an insufficient pretext, asked to adjourn and to reassemble at a most inauspicious time for public business. In the midst of national trials, with a future impending full of anxiety and uncertainty, it is time that personal aims, the oblivious ambition of aspirants to office and the jobbing propensities of some of our lawgivers, should be made to bend to the public weal.

Resolutions of the Legislature.

The Conservative party of the North will shertly be obliged to come to a common understanding in reference to our national policy. If it does not the Conservative party is at sea, and the country is at sea with it. It is high time, so far as Pennsylvania is concerned, that such an expression of her sentiments should be had as will indicate the true sense of her people upon our national policy and troubles. Whether she shall speak through a majority of her representatives, with certain other States and sections of the country, in a demand for peace, or whether, in compromise of extreme apinions, she simply enters her solemn protest against the arbitrary acts of the administration and the policy of the war, are matters which are left to the judgment and careful deliberation of the Conservative members of the present Legislature, accountable to their constituents and to the party for the manner in which their duty shall be discharged.

We cannot borrow the doctrines exclusively of other States in any expression of our own; what Pennsylvania wants is such a set of resolations as will satisfy her own people and make the Conservative party in the State strong and effective. To avoid carefully anything which may furnish any pretext for disaffection, not to commit us to any policy which we are not prepared to carry out, are considerations first to be remembered in framing the resolutions for adoption. Vital, present, practicable issues are what the people want and what the party requires, and at this juncture. must have.

Pennsylvania is slow at times to move; her people are careful and law-abiding; but when they move it is with weight. The delay in making out the proper and customary resolutions, to be put on record and go before the people for the platform and the deelaration of the Conservative party of the State.' has already been too long. Some common bond of union and united action we must have ; and the sooner such an one is formally made, the better for the welfare of the country. It will be found an hindrance and a misfortune that resolutions never reported, and embodying so little of real and present importance, furnishing so narrow a ground for political controversy, should have been already suffered by some mischance to go forth. The first duty of the Legislature is now to correst the false impression which has gone abroad that a simple proposition for a National Convention is all it has to say upon the deplorable evils which have come upon us, the usurpations of the Executive, the mad purpose of interminable war projected by his advisers.

General News.

We have some important intelligence from the Yazoo expedition. It comes by the way of St. Louis and Cairo, and is to the effect that the Hartford passed the batteries at Port Hudson on the 20th, and was below Warrenton, but that the other vessels were repulsed, and one was seen in flames, supposed to be the Mississippi.

A dispatch received at Cairo on Wednesday, dated Black Hawk. March 19th. states that Admiral Porter had got through Steel's and the Black Bayou with five iron-clads and the Price, into Deer creek, and was making all haste for the Yazoo river. He is doubtless there before this time. General Sherman and his troops were following him up. With the Aduction of Yazoo City and Fort Pemberton, the capture of Vicksburg may be regarded as certain. It was rumored that Haines' Bluff was evacuated, and that the Eighth Missonri had gone up to garrison the place.

In the Senate of New Jersey, on Tuesday night, resolutions were passed denying the truth of the representations, made for partisan purposes, that New Jersey intended to resist, by force, the execution of certain acts of Congress. The last resolution declares that the people of that State are law-abiding and ardently devoted to a union of all the States; and while they may condemn and protest against certain laws as unconstitutional and unjust, yet until repealed or declared to be unconstitutional, they will regard them as laws, and will confidently look to the courts and the ballot-box for redress. After an animated discussion they were passed by a party' vote, the Republicans opposing them. Yesterday morning the resolutions passed the House by a large majority.

A dispatch dated Louisville, Kentucky, Mar. 24, says : " The rebels, reported from three thousand to ten thousand strong, with a much larger force following them, have taken possession of Danville. They crossed the Cumberland river, via Mill Spring to Somerset .-There are no rebels at Glasgow or Musfordiville, or in that section of the State."

A communication was received at Washington on Wednesday from the command at Harper's Ferry, announcing that the rebel General Stuart, with a considerable force of cavalry and artillery, was within the Federal lines, between Leesburg and Nolan's Ferry, moving in the direction of the latter. There | ting wind of it, sent a rumor that Govirnor Mor. has not been any confirmation of this rumor, but the strongest evidence that it is without foundation. The subscriber has removed his Coal Office from 4th and Market to his Coal Yard on Canal, between 3d and 4th, where he will be happy to receive his old customers and their orders for coal. He will keep an assortment of all kinds and sizes on hand, both hard and soft. Any orders left at his old office, on slate, or dropped in Post Office, will receive prompt attention. Full weight guaranteed, and prices as low as any one else. Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, he would still ask for a continuance of the same.
