cruits, recently enlisted in this State, left here yesterday en route for the seat of war. MORE STRAGGLERS .- A large lot of straggling soldiers from the west passed through this city yesterday on their way to Washington. THE CHAIN GANG.—The drafted men of this and other States who refused to go to war, were taken there in chains. A contemporary thinks that these men will make the rebels "howl" when they get down in Dixie's land. LANCASTERIAN SCHOOL HOUSE .- The rooms in this building are now being fitted up for the reception of the North ward male schools. Both teachers and pupils are glad to get back to the old, familiar and comfertable quarters from which they have so long been excluded.

MORE WOUNDED SOLDIERS .- About one hundred wounded soldiers from the Washington hospitals arrived here last night, and were quartered at the Camp Curtin, Cotton Mill and German Reformed hospitals. Additional buildings will have to be provided for the accommodation of those now here and a large number yet to come.

FIRST OF APRIL CHANGES .- Those of our subscribers who have already changed their places of residence, or intend doing so to-day, are requested to give us notice of the same, in order that their papers may be delivered to them at their new residences. Early attention to this matter will save trouble and insure the prompt receipt of the paper by city subscribers.

THE COUNTY PRISON.—The new prison keeper, Mr. George W. Simmons, takes possession to-day and enters upon the discharge of his official duties. We have no doubt he will make a competent and efficient officer. If rumor be true, Mr. Downey, for some years past superintendent of the weaving department, is to be retained as under-keeper. "How are you, John Lynch?" After the shameful treatment and many mortifying disappointments John has experienced, he may well curse the Abolition leaders for their treachery and ingratitude.

HANDSOME CAMES .- Our friend Mr. M. H. Lee, the popular cane and umbrella dealer, No. 69 Market street, opposite the Mechanics' Bank, has now on hand a new stock of elegantly finished gold and silver headed canes, designed for presentation. recently manufactured to order. They are the in this city. Those who want good and cheap walking canes or umbrellas should give Mr. Lee a call and examine his stock.

KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE.—The Telegraph report that an ergaization of the K. G. C.'s is being perfected in this city, and threatens exposure as soon as it learns the names of those in the Circle. O, don't! We know nothing of such an organization, and don't believe there is one, in this city at least-but if there is, it has higher game in view than the Telegraph. Don't be scared, Softy, the Circle won't hurt you, if you behave yourself. We guarantee that much.

ARREST OF A PICKPOCKET .- The "professionals" continue to ply their vocation at the depot. Yesterday afternoon a young man answering to the name of Wm. M. Mduren, (no doubt a fictitious one,) was arrested by officers Deeters and Campbel, for attempting to pick the pocket of one Wm. Fay, a discharged soldier. He was detected in the act by two or three persons. Alderman Kline committed him for trial. The soldier being excessively intoxicated at the time, and having a large amount of money in his possession, was taken to the lock-up for safe keeping until this morning.

STOLEN PROPERTY FOUND .- Last week we chronicled the arrest and imprisonment of two young men named Christian K. Spayd and Charles M'Granigan, charged with robbing a boot and shoe store on Ridge avenue. On Monday night the Chief of Police succeeded in finding one pair of the stolen boots at the restaurant of Thomas Earley in State street, where Spayd had sold them. It is probable the balance of the property, valued in the aggregate at twenty dollars, was disposed of at various shops and saloons. The two young men are still in prison awaiting trial.

MUSICAL EXTERTAINMENT.—The complimentary benefit to Miss Kate Dean will take place on Thursday evening next, the County Commissioners having very kindly and generously granted the use of the Court House. A rare selection of patriotic songs and ballads will be announced to-morrow which doubtless will give general satisfaction. Miss Dean will be assisted by Miss Lizzie Yohe who accompanies her on the piano forte. Tickets can be had at the hotels and music stores. We anticipate a full and fashionable audience for the fair beneficiary.

THE MURDERER OF MARY ELIZABETH GERNAY. We were informed yesterday afternoon by a legal gentleman of this city, that Mr. Emanuel German recently received a letter from a friend in Dayton, Ohio, a military gentleman named Captain Hess, to the effect that a man now confined in prison there on a charge of murder, answers the description, in almost every particular, of the murderer of his little daughter. Captain Hess, in company with a lawyer of Dayton, visited the man in prison and had a protracted conversation with him, and, from some indirect disclosures made by the prisoner, Captain Hess believes him to be the man who murdered little Mary Elizabeth German near this city last October, and who has thus far escaped detection. We are further informed that an intelligent witness, who saw the supposed murderer in company with his victim on the evening prior to the terrible tragedy, is about to leave for Dayton, to examine the prisoner. If, as Captain Hess believes, he is the man, the witness will be able to identify him at a glance. We anxiously await further developments, and trust that the mystery which has so longishrouded this affair is soon to be solved, and the fiendish perpetrator of one of brought to justice.

BEFORE ALDERMAN KLINE. -- A number of cases were disposed of by Alderman Kline yesterday morning. Two straggling soldiers named Wm. Burk and John Bumgardner, en route to join their regiments, left the train on its arrival in this city, got intoxicated, and were arrested for disorderly conduct by officer Deeters. They were handed them to the seat of war.

An itinerant "typo" from one of the western counties, presenting a somewhat dilapidated appearance, and giving the name of Samuel Hazlett, was found lying around loose on the railroad track, in danger of being crushed to death by passing trains. Officer Deeters provided him with safer and more comfortable quarters in the lock-up. Samuel's form was considerably battered, and from the condition of his clothing he had evidently been the inebriates' asylum for twenty-four hours to recuperate.

An old offender, Amos Cowan, whose name is familiar to the readers of our police reports, was up on a very serious charge. Between one and two o'clock yesterday morning he was discovered lurking around the premises of David Mumma, Esq., in the Sixth ward. He was repeatedly ordered to leave, and manifesting no disposition to comply, Mr. Mumma discharged a pistol at him, which had the effect of causing him to "skedaddle" towards the river. Only a short time elapsed until the inmates of the house were again aroused by the violent barking of a watch-dog, and Mr. Mumma, on descending to the yard, found that his nocturnal visitor had returned. He made an attempt to eject him from the premises, but Amos turned upon him, and after a brief but desperate struggle, Mr. Mumma, with the assistance of a man in his employ, succeeded in tying his hands, in which condition he was conveyed to the lockup. Mr. Mumma is of the opinion that the design of Amos was to rob his smoke house, but the evidence not being sufficient to sustain a prosecution for larceny, he was committed to prison for trial on a charge of assault and battery. During the progress of the struggle between Mr. Mumma and the nocturnal intruder the former received a severe blow on the neck the effects of which he felt for some time afterwards. He was lucky to escape without more serious injury.

Robert Roach, a member of the provost guard was arrested in company with a young woman named Henrietta Stein, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and annoying and insulting Mr. D. F. Bashore and his wife, who reside in a house in State street, the basement of which is occupied by an old man named George Manley, with whom Henrietta boards, and where she has made a practice of receiving the visits of numerous soldiers. Robert was handed over to Captain Dedge for disposal, and Henrietta went to prison for twenty days. The Chief of Police arrested these parties. Three "American citizens of African descent." one of them the color of a new saddle, and the other two "black as the ace of spades," were arrested by the Chief of Police while in the act of stealing coal from the yard of Mr. Byers on Monday night. They answered to the names of Charles Gardner, Dick Carter and Tucy Lee. The second named individual was arraigned last week for the same offence and held to bail for trial. The black trio were committed to prison to answer the charge at the April term of court. John Macdonald, an honest-looking old Scotchman from Luzerne county, who came here on business, got into bad company, was invited to take a few "nips," yielded to the temptation, and not being accustomed to Harrisburg whisky, soon became completely obfuscated, in which condition he was found by the Chief of Police and quartered in the lock-up. He had $16.85 in his pocket which would have been stolen from him had he remained on the street during the night. When sold off by the 1st of April. S. Lewy. arraigned for a hearing yesterday morning the unfortunate old man seemed to be in a very penitent mood, remarked that he "was ashamed to come before His Honor," and made a solemn promise that he would never again be guilty of a simiis seared out of half the little wit it ever had by a lar indiscretion. The Alderman fined him one dollar and costs, which John cheerfully paid, glad to escape going to prison.

> Holy Week.-The present being the last week of Lent, is Holy Week, and it will be observed by special services in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. In the Catholic church Holy Week is a season of great humility, which only ends with the advent of Easter Sunday, when mourning is turned into joy and the places of worship are beautifully ornamented with flowers and evergreens. To-morrow morning the Pontifical Mass and blessing of the Holy Oils will commence. The ceremonies of Good Friday and Holy Saturday will be exceedingly interesting and impressive; and those who are fond of good music can hear it at the Catholic church on Sunday. In the Eniscopal churches, Thursday evening is set apart for the celebration of the Holy communion. This is also the season of the Hebrew Passover, one of the most important of the Jewish feasts, when the people eat unleavened bread and humble themselves as directed by the Mosaic law. The exercises incident to the observance of the feast of the Passover commence at sunset on Friday evening. Services will be held in the Synagogue on Saturday and Sunday mornings, and addresses appropriate to the occasion be delivered.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CANAL.—The Pennsylvania railroad company intend letting the water into the Eastern division of the Pennsylvania canal today, and the other divisions on the 15th. This division, which extends a distance of 45 miles from Columbia, as far as the Junction, where the Pennsylvania canal is connected with the canal on the North and West branches of the Susquehanna river, has been very extensively repaired. Many of the old locks have been removed, and others, of a larger and mere massive frame of workmanship, substituted; and the locks have all been widened to admit of the passage of two boats, either in the same or opposite directions at one time. To accommodate the increasing wants of the people trafficking on the upper and lower Juniata divisions of the canal, the repairs have been very heavy. The bed has been deepened to admit of the passage of boats drawing nearly six feet of water, and the substitution of new locks for the old, worn-out ones, has been more extensively pursued than ever in the lower sections of the canal.

PEARSON'S PANORAMA OF THE WAR.—This series of pictures, illustrative of the present war, was unfolded for the first time in this place last evening. The hall was well filled by a delighted audience. Each seene as it passed received the unqualified approval of the spectators. The various battle scenes are depicted with life like reality, while the contrabands of Fortress Monroe and Beaufort brought roars of laughter. Those who neglect to witness these soul stirring scenes will let pass an opportunity seldom met with, and which may be regretted.

RAFTS COMING .- The river is now in good navigable order. Several heavy timber rafts, the advance fleet of a large number yet to come, floated past this city yesterday on the broad bosom of the Susquehanna, en route for Columbia, the great lumber market of this region. In the course of a few days the surface of the river will be literally covered with rafts from the "wooden country" on the most foul and unnatural crimes on record the North and West branches, and great activity in the lumber business may be anticipated.

Model Cane. One of the most costly and magnificent gold headed canes we have ever examined, was recently gotten up to order by Mr. William Brady, the popular Market street jeweller, for the members of company K. 113th Pennsylvania regiment, for presentation to Col. James J. Conner, of Ashland, Schuylkill county, as a testimonial of over to the Provost Marshal, who will forward their regard for him as a man and appreciation of his many acts of generosity. The head of the cane is solid gold, ornamented with several well executed engravings, among the number a military coat of arms embracing all the implements of warfare, cross sabres enclosed in a laurel wreath, and a representation of company K on dress parade. The engravings are executed in a style we have rarely seen equalled, and altogether the cane is a beautiful and creditable specimen of artistic skill. The place to get genuine gold and silver making an impression in the mud. He went to headed canes is at Brady's, who has them manufactured to order.

ESCAPE AND ARREST .- On the 29th of January last a woman named Mary Snyder, an inmate of of the poor house, gave birth to a child, which subsequently died somewhat mysteriously, and the mother was charged with its murder. An inquest was held by Alderman Kline, and the evidence elicited was of a nature to warrant the holding of the woman for trial. Being too ill to bear removal, she was left in charge of the steward of the poor house, where she remained in an apparently prostrate condition until last Friday, when she managed to escape. A few days afterwards it was ascertained that she had gone to Thompsontown, Juniata county, and yesterday officer Fleck started in pursuit, found and captured her, and brought her to this city last evening. Alderman Kline committed the woman to prison for trial at the coming term.

Facts About Brandreth's Pills. NEW CASTLE, WESTCHESTER Co., N. Y., Oct. 23, 1852. MR. G. TEN EYCK SHELDON, Editor Sing Sing Republi-

Dear Sir_I would state that I was induced to use BRANDRETH'S PILLS through the recommendation of John R. Swift, of Croton, Westchester County, who was entirely restored to health by their use. He was sick or some two years, very costive and dyspeptic, and he tried everything, but was not relieved. Finally, he took one Brandreth's Pill every day for a week, and a dose of six Pills every day for three days, and then took one Pill every day, with occasional doses of six. In one month he was able to go to work, and in three months was well, gaining 40 pounds in weight.

Yours truly, EDWARD PURDY.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY, 88. Edward Purdy, being duly sworn, says that he resides in the tewn of New Castle; that some years ago he was very sick with a sore on his leg, which had been run ning for over five years; that he was also much distressed by a pain in his chest, an i, besides, was very cos. tive and dyspeptic; that after rying various remedies and many physicians, he commenced using Brandreth's Pllls, six to eight three times a week, and at the end of one month the sore in his leg healed, and at the end of two months he was entirely cured of costiveness, dys. popsia and pain, and has remained well ever since.
