Book Notice. We have received from Mr. German, 27 South Second street, below Market Square, a new volume, entitled: "Political Fallacies: an Examination of the False Assumptions, and Refutation of the Sophistical Reasonings, which have brought on the Civil War."

Connecticut. This State has, as usual, gone for the Abolitionists, but by a much smaller majority than last year's. Buckingham is elected Governor over Seymour by probably 3,000 majority.

Doctors Disagree. The Abolition doctors of the North charge upon the Democracy—Copperheads is the term used now—complicity with the rebels of the South, and impute every disaster of the war, every failure of a corrupt and imbecile administration, in the cabinet and in the field, to Copperhead sympathy with and aid to the Confederate cause.

Another charge against M'Clellan is that after the battles of the Seven Pines, Williamsburg and Malvern Hill, he might have entered Richmond; here again the result turned upon the forced inactivity of M'Dowell, who was then lying before Fredericksburg.

But the southern demagogues—the secessionist Doctors of the Confederate States, who believe, with their Abolition co-workers against the restoration of the Union, that the Constitution is a "covenant with death and a league with hell," take a different view of the matter.

"To be plain, we fear and distrust far more these apparently friendly advances of the Democrats than the open atrocity of philanthropists of Massachusetts. That Democratic party always was our worst enemy, and but for its poisonous embrace these States would have been free and clear of the onerous Union twenty years ago."

public mind the opinions of the Democratic party entertained by the disunionists North and South—the Abolitionists and the secessionists.

Report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War.

We commence the publication to-day of this report. We shall conclude it to-morrow. The voluminous publication of the Tribune, which is to furnish impressions for a political campaign pamphlet, we have been obliged to forego, condensing as much as possible while preserving the thread of the narrative.

This Wade report, which has been gotten up purely for political purposes, and has been conducted purely in partisan spirit, aiming simply at the destruction of M'Clellan's reputation, with a view to diminish his chances for the Presidency in 1864, is characterized, necessarily, throughout by suppression of facts and unfairness of statement.

General News. By telegraph yesterday afternoon we received the following: HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, MURFREESBORO, April 6, 1863.

From Cleveland, Ohio, April 7: The Unionists (Abolitionists, we presume,) carried the city yesterday by a handsome majority.

From Detroit, April 7: Partial returns indicate the success of the Republican State ticket by an increased majority over that received at the election last fall.

Letters in the N. Y. Herald announce the occupation, on the 28th ultimo, of Cole's Island, at the confluence of Stono and Folly rivers, south of Charleston.

There is an absence of all news, except from rebel sources, of the rumored attack on Charleston. The Navy Department seem to know nothing about it, and it does not receive as much credence to-night as it did earlier during the day.

Richmond papers have been received here of Saturday's date. The account of the landing on St. John's Island by our forces it appears is copied in a dispatch from the Charleston Courier of April 2.

bravery, the repeated evidences drawn from officers in the field, his past career in Mexico and Western Virginia, will add that imputation to the list of the wanton and unblinking falsehoods so rife in these days among the infamous officials at the head and in the government of this afflicted country.

We repeat, the whole of the senseless and stupendous rignarole embodied in this report, cannot injure M'Clellan's fame. This base attempt to rob the hero of his laurels will brand his vile producers with a deeper infamy, and show, in bolder outline, the purity, sagacity and fortitude of the brave man they are aiming to destroy.

General News.

By telegraph yesterday afternoon we received the following: HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, MURFREESBORO, April 6, 1863.

To Maj. Gen. Halleck, General-in-Chief: General Stanley has returned from his scout, bringing in some forty or fifty prisoners and three hundred serviceable horses and mules.

A Washington dispatch, April 7, says: Rittenhouse, Fant & Co., of this city, with associates, have organized a Bank under the recent National Currency Act, to be called the National Bank of Commerce, to be located in Georgetown, and go into operation as soon as Government can furnish the circulating notes.

A dispatch from New York, April 7, says the U. S. bark Restless, which left Boston on the 28th ultimo for Port Royal, put in here to-day in distress, having suffered from continuous gales, and having been obliged to throw overboard her battery to save the vessel.

From Cleveland, Ohio, April 7: The Unionists (Abolitionists, we presume,) carried the city yesterday by a handsome majority.

From Detroit, April 7: Partial returns indicate the success of the Republican State ticket by an increased majority over that received at the election last fall.

Letters in the N. Y. Herald announce the occupation, on the 28th ultimo, of Cole's Island, at the confluence of Stono and Folly rivers, south of Charleston.

tensive that the administration, blind as it has been heretofore to such transactions, could not blink them. The N. Y. World's Washington correspondent says:

The frauds were so flagrant in San Francisco custom house—seven putting those of the New York custom house to the blush—that Secretary Chase has no alternative but to remove the entire crowd, so he finally appointed to-day for collector of the port E. C. Swain, of California, and J. Swain, of same State, superintendent of the mint.

Memorial of the Commissioners of Somerset County to the Legislature.

The Commissioners of Somerset county respectfully beg leave to submit the following reasons in favor of the passage of a law appropriating the money to be paid by those who were exempted from the late draft, on the ground of conscientious scruples, into the treasury of the counties respectively wherein the persons so exempted reside.

1st. The counties pay no credit for the persons so exempted, but were compelled to furnish their full quota with the other counties of the State, thereby compelling them, should the State receive the money, to furnish men and money both.

2d. The counties paying this money are fairly entitled to it for their common benefit, to reimburse them for what they have paid out in bounties and relief granted to the families of soldiers.

3d. The State pays nothing, as a State, towards the expenses of the war. When she does advance money for such purposes, it is returned to her by the government of the United States, or will be, without the loss of a dollar; but what the counties pay will never be refunded.

4th. Should the money arising from this source be paid into the State treasury, it would be virtually taxing the counties whose citizens were thus exempted for the benefit of those counties whose population made no such claim.

As an additional reason for the granting of our request we will state that Somerset county has ninety-seven soldiers in the regiments of other States, for which she received no credit in the draft.

Somerset county has been represented by her sons on every battle-field from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, and is yet willing to make any sacrifice for the restoration of our once blessed and glorious Union; but she asks, respectfully, and has a right to ask, simple justice at the hands of the Legislature.

Yours, respectfully, MICHAEL FREASE, JOHN MONG, Commissioners of Somerset County.

The above memorial from the commissioners of Somerset county, will apply as well to other counties of the Commonwealth, and, as it seems to us, they ask nothing but what is just and proper. The war has been a heavy burthen upon many counties in this State, in paying bounties for volunteers, and supporting their families during their absence, adding largely to the onerous burthen of taxation upon the people.

PENNA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE. TUESDAY, April 7, 1863. The Senate was called to order at 10 1/2 o'clock by the Speaker.

MR. CONNELL presented the petition of 90 citizens of Lancaster and Juniata counties for the passage of an act to amend the rates of freight on the Pennsylvania railroad.

MR. GLATZ, the petition of citizens of York county for the passage of a law to prevent the immigration of negroes and mulattoes.

MR. SERRILL, a remonstrance against the passage of such a law, introduced a supplement to the act incorporating the Ridge Avenue and Manayunk passenger railway company.

MR. CONNELL introduced a bill to consolidate the laws applicable to the guardians of the poor of Philadelphia.

MR. KINSEY offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing that hereafter the Senate will meet at 10 o'clock in the morning and hold afternoon and evening sessions.

MR. BOUGHTER offered a resolution granting the use of the Senate chamber to the Second Lutheran congregation of Harrisburg for public worship until the first of August, which was adopted.

MR. LAMBETON stated that he had an interview with the Ex-ecutive on this subject, and that it was estimated that it would require $938,000 to pay these claims, and the levying of a special tax.

MR. WHITE said that this calculation included claims for damage to real estate and other matters not included in this bill. He did not think that the clause of claims in the bill would require one-third of the amount stated, and did not see how the State could avoid paying them.

The motion to postpone was agreed to. The Senate insisted on its amendments to the bill legalizing the payment of bounties to volunteers and appointed a committee of conference.

The supplement to the act incorporating the Lombard and South Streets passenger railway company came up in order on third reading.

MR. RIDGWAY offered a proviso that said company be authorized to construct their railway on side streets without the consent of council. Agreed to, yeas 17, nays 15.

The bill then passed finally. The supplement to the Little Schuylkill navigation and coal company came up in order and passed finally.

MR. JOHNSON called up the House bill to regulate railroad gauges, providing that all railroads connecting with the Philadelphia and Erie railroad run to the gauge of said railroad, which passed finally.

MR. CONNELL called up the resolution authorizing the Governor to purchase ground in the vicinity of Harrisburg for the erection of a magazine, which passed on third reading.

MR. STEIN, on leave given, introduced a bill relative to the Treasurer of the city of Philadelphia, providing that the term for his office be extended for three years.

ters now in the service of the United States from the date of their commissions to the date when they were mustered into the service of the United States. The Adjutant General submits the following report:

Balance of regiments authorized by Government - 100,000 Sixty regiments authorized War Department - 40,000

Forty-two regiments organized since the passage of the act of 16th April, 1862 - 178,500

Damage to real estate, awarded and estimated - 50,000 Payment of privates in the Reserve Corps as provided in the act of April 16, 1862, and also in the bill now pending in the Senate - 100,000

Total - 943,500 BILLS CONSIDERED. MR. GRAHAM called up the bill in relation to the feeding of stock while awaiting transportation on railroads. Passed finally.

MR. KINSEY called up the bill to incorporate the Castle Valley turnpike road company of Bucks county, which passed finally.

MR. BOUND called up the bill to change the location of the East of Northumberland from Northumberland to Sunbury. Passed finally.

MR. M'SHERRY called up the bill to incorporate the Adams County railroad company with power to construct a railroad from York Springs to Bridgeport, Cumberland county. Passed finally.

MR. NICHOLS called up the bill to incorporate the Holmesburg and Bustleton turnpike company. Passed finally.

MR. CLYMER called up the bill to incorporate the Reading and Columbia telegraph company, which passed finally.

MR. RIDGWAY called up the bill to amend the act incorporating the Sonora improvement company. Passed finally.

MR. SMITH called up the bill to incorporate the Chestnut Hill and White Marsh turnpike company in Montgomery county. Passed finally.

The bill to confirm a contract between Edwin M. Lewis, of Philadelphia, and the Pennsylvania coal company was passed finally.

MR. CONNELL, on leave given, introduced a bill in relation to estates.

MR. STEIN called up the bill providing for the levying and collecting of a special tax in certain townships of Northampton county for the relief of subscribers to the volunteer bounty fund, which passed finally.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. TUESDAY, April 7, 1863. The House was called to order at 9 1/2 a. m. by Speaker CESSNA.

An act to change the location of the Northumberland Bank to Sunbury, was read in place by Mr. BROWN, of Northumberland, considered and passed.

An act to divorce Elizabeth Watkins from Geo. Watkins was considered. The wife plead desertion and adultery. The House refused to pass the bill.

A number of bills upon the private calendar—nearly two hundred—were read, and their final consideration postponed until afternoon.

MR. BROWN and SOUTH STREET RAILWAY. The Clerk of the Senate presented a supplement to the Lombard and South Street railway, as amended (The Senate amendment takes all control of the road from the hands of the City Council.)

The bill was considered, and postponed for the present. Numerous bills were reported from committees, among them about fifteen extending the charter of country banks for five years.

A supplement to the charter of the city of Harrisburg relative to the width of certain streets, was passed.

Adjourned until 2 1/2 p. m. AFTERNOON SESSION. The House proceeded to the final consideration of bills upon the private calendar and over one hundred were passed.

The account of the Postmaster of Harrisburg, for postage during March, amounting to $2,321.60, was presented.

MR. REX moved to appoint a committee of five to investigate this account. Not agreed to.

MR. THOMSON moved to re-commit to the Committee on Accounts, and to authorize them to send for persons and papers.

MR. REX being called on to furnish evidence of malpractice, said that he had been handed the names of persons who were willing to testify to such malpractices in the Harrisburg Postoffice.

At this point, a letter was received from the Postmaster, George Berger, in which he requested the members of the Legislature to comply with the provisions of the Law, and prepare their documents by stamps.

The letter reflected severely on the character of those of the members who voted to investigate the accounts of the Postmaster.

The SPEAKER declared that no such letter, in such insulting terms, could go upon the records of the House.
